A point system was adopted which will encourage only members who are sincerely dedicated to belong. The Clinton unit has been nationally affiliated for two years. It is for girls interested in nursing and medical fields.

Karen Harrison will be hostess for the December meeting. Mrs. Donald Thelander of Blissfield, a county health nurse, will show films on "The Training of a Nurse" and "The Public Health Nurse."

The club is planning several field trips and a food sale.

Golden Rod OES Hosts Saline

CLINTON — Worthy matron and patron and three members of the Saline chapter OES, were guests Thursday night at the meeting of the Golden Rod chapter.

Four officers who were absent from the recent installation were installed prior to the business meeting.

They are: Mrs. Norman Campbell, associate conductress; Mrs. Delmar Manchester; Ruth; Mrs. John Hoelzer, marshal and Mrs. Lillian Burnside, sentinal.

Members and friends are asked to donate trading stamps to the chapter. They will be used toward the purchase of a bus for the Eastern Star Villa in Adrian.

A cooperative dinner will be included in plans for the family Christmas party with the Masons on Dec. 19 in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Thomas Penell and Mrs. Martin Hoelzer served refreshments from a table decorated with a Thanksgiving motif.

Clinton Chatter

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Follis were in Flint Friday, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Williams and daughter, Wendy. The Williams family, who lived in Clinton some years ago, now live in Flint during the summer and return to Florida each winter.

√

Mrs. Roy Feldkamp has returned home from a three-weeks visit with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Smith, in Thornton, Colo.

Her granddaughter, Mrs. Jeffrey Johnson, nee Cynthia Smith, and five-month-old son, Bradley, left last Wednesday by plane for Ipswich, England, to join Mr. Johnson, who is stationed there with the Air Force.

Mrs. Dorothy Noragon underwent surgery on her finger, injured in an automobile accident a year ago, at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, last Tuesday.

√

The twin sons, John Lloyd and James Edward, born Oct. 29, to Mr. and Mrs. David VanTuyle, are remaining at the hospital to gain a little more weight. Mrs. VanTuyle came home last Tuesday.

√

Attending the Air Force Academy and Army football game in Chicago Saturday, were Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Papsdorf and sons, Paul and Don, Sandra Winchell, Audrey Wight and Linda Perry of Onsted. The family and guests expected to visit briefly with their son, David, a freshman member of the Air Force Academy team.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Werth and grandchildren, Carol, Gordon and Kayter Studnicka of Evans Lake, spent Sunday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Walters in Fenton. The occasion marked the first birthday anniversary of Ricky Walters.

Cars Collide

A car driven by Paul Whitaker, 25, of 709 Seneca St., struck the rear of a car driven by Ivan W. McKenna, 16, of 111 Franklin St., Clinton, Saturday afternoon.

The collision occurred when the McKenna car was stopped on US-12 waiting for a left turn onto Currier St., and was struck in the rear by the Whitaker car. Whitaker was ticketed by Clinton State Police for violating the

OES Initiates Cheryl Stout

CLINTON — The Golden Rod Chapter, OES initiation of candidate Cheryl tout will be held in the Masonic Hall at 8 p.m. Saturday.

Cheryl, a freshman at Eastern Michigan University, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Stout.

Clinton Art Club Resumes

CLINTON — The Clinton Art Club will resume soon with classes being taught again this year by Howell Poucher.

Members of the club met last Wednesday with Mrs. Robert Mohr to make plans for the classes which will be held in the Community Center.

Beginners are welcome and anyone wishing more information may call Mrs. Robert Mohr or Mrs. Arthur Rudel. The date for the evening classes will be announced soon.

Currier St. Being Opened on Trial

CLINTON—The Village Council took action at the November meeting last Wednesday to open Currier St. between Franklin and E. Church St., on a trial basis for 30 days.

The street has been closed during the school year. One-way, northbound traffic will be permitted on the opened section of Currier St. as soon as signs are put up and crosswalks are marked for the children on Franklin.

The Currier and Franklin St. intersection will be marked as a three-way stop street as is Church and Currier St. intersection.

New Law Chasing Fast-Buck Construction Operators

Because of the alarming increase in home improvement swindles, Representative Rollo G. Conlin, calls attention to the newly-enacted Home Improvement Finance Act.

It was passed in the last session of the Legislature designed to put an end to home improvement frauds.

Representative Conlin said "Very often the stark realization that improvements are needed and usually costly has led homeowners into traps set for them by home improvement swindlers. "These fast-buck artists entice unsuspecting and gullible homeowners into fraudulent deals with gimmicks which promise cheaper costs and something for nothing.

"This new Act provides for basic changes in home improvement contracts which is frequently the vehicle for swindles. After Jan. 1, 1966, contracts must include all essential details of the transaction with certain important information in large type so that it would be hard for anyone to overlook.

"Another provision allows the purchaser of a home improvement contract to cancel a contract at any time before 5 p.m. on the business day following the date of the transaction.

"This was included because many persons have been high-pressured during a sales pitch to sign a contract not in their best interests. There have been cases in which a person wanted to cancel the contract within hours of its signing, but was not allowed to do so by the salesman.

"THE ACT also sets a limit of $8 per $100 per annum on the finance charge which may be included in a home improvement installment contract.

"Several selling techniques are also prohibited. Among them is the promise or offer to pay compensation for the procuring of sales to other persons and the giving of a gift worth more than $2.00.

"Convicted violators of the Act are subject to a sentence of 90 days in jail and a fine of not more than $500, or both, for the first offense, and another $500 and one year in jail, or both, for repeated offenses.

"If you suspect that a transaction for home improvement services concerns any provisions of the new Act, you should contact your attorney immediately," Mr. Conlin concluded.

SENATOR TO SPEAK — Discussing arrangements for the forthcoming Annual Second Congressional District Democratic Dinner being held in Dundee are Mrs. Harold Archer and Mrs. Fermon Emerson of Adrian, Mrs. Robert MacLean of Tecumseh and Mrs. Doyle Bell of Adrian. Senator Ted Kennedy will be feature speaker.

Tickets Available for Kennedy Talk

The dinner is being held Friday at 7 p.m., in Dundee High School.

Senator Kennedy was elected to the U. S. Senate on Nov. 6, 1962, to serve the unexpired term of the late President John F. Kennedy.

He was re-elected to a full six year term in Nov. 1964, by the largest plurality ever given a candidate for the Senate in Massachusetts.

He is presently serving on the Senate Judiciary Committee, the Labor and Public Welfare Committee, and the Special Committee of the Senate on the Problems of Aging.

TICKETS can be obtained from Harold Archer, of Adrian, phone 263-9066 or Mr. and Mrs. Robert McLean of Tecumseh, 423-2047.

SEN. EDWARD KENNEDY

Military Air Parcel Rates Cut

The Post Office Department has put into effect cheaper air parcel rates for military personnel overseas.

Air parcels will no longer be charged automatically at a maximum domestic rate.

Instead, charges will be based on the actual distance the parcels travel domestically before the military services take over their transportation overseas.

The new law also cleared the way for air lifting to Vietnam, on a space-available basis, of parcels weighing up to five pounds paid at the surface parcel post rates.

The Department of Defense is providing this service, both to and from Vietnam servicemen abroad. Previously, such parcels went overseas by ship.

Illustrating the new air parcel rates, a six-pound parcel from Chicago to a serviceman in Germany has been charged the maximum domestic rate of $4.88. The new cost will be $3.58.

The new [illegible]ne possible by the air lift or parcels to combat areas, which is a combination surface-air service provides an expedited service at considerably less cost than the rates for all-air service.

For example, a five-pound parcel going from New York City to Vietnam will cost $1.34, compare with $4.08 for air parcel post.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITAKER

An extra point by Don Chalmers proved to be the deciding factor in Boysville's 13-12 victory over the Irish of Adrian Catholic Central Friday.

It was Boysville's final game of the season.

CC was first to score, only two minutes after the opening kickoff, on a 55-yard run by Dale Cox.

Adrian took the lead in the second half on a six-yard run around right end by Eric Wilkins.

The Knights came from behind again on the efforts of Moe Jacobs. With two minutes remaining, Moe went over from the one for his second score of the night.

The Knights amassed 197 yards rushing and eight first downs. Jacobs was again the leading ground gainer with 101 yards and an average of nine-yards per carry.

Over the season, the Knights scored 214 points, and a tough defense has limited opposition to only 53.

John Yankoski, Ed Bertrand and Ed Johnson paced the Knights defensively.

Highlighting the events of the past week was the annual Faculty-intramural All-Star game.

Sam Kirkland, leading ground gainer for the All Stars, ran 97 yards for the only All-Star score.

A pass from Coach Pat Connors to School Director Brother Philip Armstrong, C.S.C., was good for seven yards and the only faculty score.

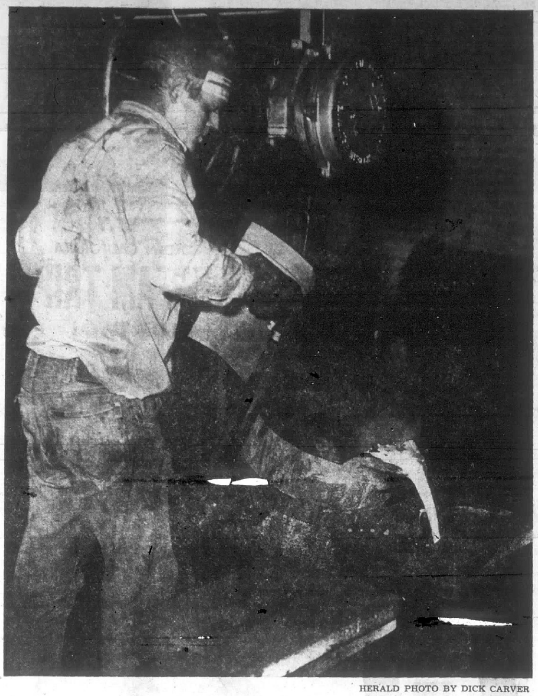
Last Thursday night found Boysville's student body in excellent spirits for the next day's game with Adrian Catholic Central. The night featured a pep rally held on the athletic field.

The rally was sponsored by the Student Council.



HERALD PHOTO BY DICK CARVER

NEW CONTINUOUS METHOD — Ronald Shroyer, employee at Bruce Foundry Co., is pouring molten iron into formed molds in one operation of the modern continuous method of casting at the local industry. The metal he is pouring is heated in excess of 2500 degrees fahrenheit.

New Process Speeds Work at Foundry

An improved, assembly line type process has speeded production and improved quality.

Understanding the improvement requires that one first understand the process.

Casting first involves molding a composition material of sand, clay, water and other ingredients around a master cast — all inside a square molding box.

The master cast is removed and the remaining mold halves placed together. The mold is then ready for pouring.

After pouring and cooling, the cast is vibrated clean and cleared of all extraneous materials.

BEFORE THIS change, the two sections of this process — preparation of the mold and pouring-cooling — were separated into six-hour and two-hour periods. In this way the process was not continual.

In addition, the old method involved a great deal of lifting and moving for men on the line.

Today, the production line has two sections of workers with mold production and pouring going on continuously.

The blast furnace cupola that reduces automotive scrap iron, pig iron, limestone and coke into usable metal is "tapped" every eight minutes and pouring is continuous.

IN ADDITION the entire molding and pouring operation is on wheels, bringing lifting and moving to a minimum.

The results, other than better working conditions, has resulted in increased quality of castings and more production per day.

Nurse Stresses Poverty Nearness

CLINTON — Mrs. Mildred Bauer, a county health nurse from Adrian, stressed the nearness of poverty in an address to the Methodist Women's Society for Christian Service, Monday.

Interest was aroused in the subject by the group's work with the migrants last summer.

The group voted to meet the first Monday of the month, instead of Tuesday as in the past.

Refreshments were served to the 30 members present by Mrs. Martin Scott, Mrs. Charles Straigt and Mrs. Paul Hawkins.

Michigan consumers will eat more meat and demand more service by 1980, according to Michigan State University specialists. Beef consumption will increase 65 per cent, and pork consumption 20 per cent.

Joe Rice Honored

The charter of the Tecumseh Chapter 51, OES, was draped in memory of Joseph Rice, who passed away Oct. 15. It remained draped all during the Thursday meeting.

Mrs. Henry Kempf, a page of Lenawee-Monroe County Association, was introduced by the worthy matron, Mrs. Ruettinger.

Mrs. Henry Kempf and Mrs. Dean Moore presented the obligation ceremony. Then all officers and members formed a circle around the altar and repeated the obligation.

The ceremony concluded with the singing of "Bless Be the Tie that Binds."

An invitation was read from Yale Carpenter for a dinner and reception, honoring John Kaatz, worthy grand patron on Dec. 4.

Mrs. Kempf gave a report of the recent Grand Chapter session.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Viele, acting associate matron and associate patron for the evening, were honored by Mrs. Ruettinger with a "Do you remember" recalling national events and local events from their year of 1961-62.

A potluck supper will precede the December regular meeting and a public barbecue will be held on Dec. 10.

Serving refreshments from a table decorated in a Thanksgiving theme, were Mr. and Mrs. George Rinehart, Mrs. George Green, Mrs. Lester Porter and Mrs. James Quigley.

Ladies Night Attracts 75

Seventy-five attended the Rotary Club ladies night Tuesday at Bauer Manor on the shores of Evans Lake.

Following dinner, Tecumseh Rotarian Bill Haselwood introduced Dr. John Visser, world wide traveler, minister of the Westminster Church of Detroit and member of Detroit Rotary. Dr. Visser is also a brother-in-law of Mr. Haselwood.

"What America Means To Me" was the subject of Dr. Visser's talk. What he said was originally the answer to a letter of inquiry from the mayor of Jerusalem.

He spoke of the location of the United States, of the beauty, religion, school and government of the country and of its desirable and undesirable people.

Dr. Visser ended his remarks stating that it is what the government, dedicated churches and leaders stand for that has made America what it is today.

He expressed confidence that the United States would emerge to even greater heights and improve her image throughout the world.

Guest's Topic—Japan

THE REV. LELAND LANIER

BRITTON — The Rev. Leland Lanier, missionary to Japan, was the guest speaker Sunday morning at the Bethel Baptist Church.

Rev. Lanier and his family arrived home in Houston, Texas, in July for a furlough of one year. The Laniers have three children, ages 10, 7 and 5 years.

As part of his work in Japan, Rev. Lanier started a church in Fukae, a suburb of Kobe. Bob Howder, one of the missionaries supported by the Britton church, teaches a Sunday School class of high school students in the Fukae church.

All Japanese young people study English in grade school and high school. They can understand some English and are anxious to learn more.

Rev. Lanier said that many people do not know what a Bible is and have never heard the name of Jesus. He feels the purpose of the missionary is to proclaim the gospel message, that Jesus died for our sins and everyone must accept His atonement on the cross for their own personal salvation.

Missionaries are not to try to westernize the people or get involved in social work.

There is more religious freedom in Japan than in the United States, he reported. The missionaries are free to preach anywhere — street meetings, tent meetings, etc.

PTA's Proposed Budget for New Year Hits $960

BRITTON — The proposed budget for the 1965-66 year was presented at the monthly PTA meeting at Britton-Macon Area School Monday evening by the executive board of PTA. It was voted to accept it as read.

Conference, State Conventions, and Parents Ed. Inst.	$100
School milk program and cafeteria fees	75
Girl's State and Boy's State	50
Program expenses	40
Administration expenses	50
Upper elementary encyclopedias	200
Library—for books	100
Attendance awards	35
Band Leaders's uniform, balance to band uniform fund	300
Total	$950

President Mrs. Robert McCrate conducted the business meeting prior to the class visitation by the parents. The attendance award was raised from $2 to $5.

A motion was made to audit the PTA books, sometime between May 1 and June 10 of 1966. The auditing committee is to be: Gary Lovett, Mrs. Fred Long, Ron Cheever and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks.

Mrs. Herbert MaMahon, UNICEF chairman, reported that she had sent $122.71 to UNICEF headquarters, which had been collected by the children on Halloween.

Supt. William Saxton reported on the new cafeteria equipment and remodeling which is just beginning. He also introduced the new librarian, Mrs. Kathryn Moehl.

Supt. Saxton also reported on the reorganizational meetings which are being held around the county. He discussed the various possibilities open to the school districts.

The state is insisting on reorganization. Public hearings on the proposals will be held throughout the county before the issue is brought to a vote of the people. The vote will be before next June 10.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, parents went through the high school classes, met the teachers, and heard each one's aims and objectives for their class. Refreshments were served at the conclusion in the cafeteria.

Next Monday evening, the elementary grades will hold open house at 8 p.m.

There will be no PTA meeting in December.

BRITTON BRIEFS

By CHRISTINE FAIRBANKS

Kathleen and Sally O'Hara of Ann Arbor spent the weekend with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. William Niblack of Harrison, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Niblack and family from Thursday until Sunday. They reported that their daughter, Pat Beach, is out of the hospital in Canada, but her son Bill is still confined.

Mrs. Beach's new address is 35 Central Ave., West, Brockville, Ontario, Canada. She will remain in Brockville until her son is released from the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bortel attended a dinner and meeting of the American Cotswold Record Association in Van Wert, Ohio, Sunday.

Mrs. Viva Brown and Mrs. Percy Cadmus were both admitted to Herrick Memorial Hospital last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Patrick McGuire of Saline, were called to Crystal Falls last Tuesday when Mr. McGuire's mother passed away suddenly from a heart attack. The funeral was held Saturday.

The Rev. Gustav Hannevik took part in an installation service and reception for the Rev. Thomas Toy at the First Congregational Church at Pittsford Sunday evening. Mrs. Hannevik accompanied him.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 17

Milk, turkey, biscuit and gravy, cranberry salad, bread and butter, cheese wedge, brownie and apple sauce.

THURSDAY, NOV. 18

Milk, chili and crackers or choice soup, relishes, bread and butter, lemon fruit jello.

FRIDAY, NOV. 19

Church Installs Address System

BRITTON — The Rev. Gustav Hannevik announced that a new public address system has been installed in the Congregational-Christian Church, thanks to an anonymous donor.

This will be of special interest to young families who wish to leave their children in the Nursery downstairs. The new system will allow those in attendance to hear the worship service from loudspeakers in the Fellowship Center.

There are also loudspeakers in the balcony, which will be used for children's programs, so all can hear the young voices.

Rev. Hannevik expressed a hearty "thank you" from the congregation to the donor.

Celebrate 50

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stewart of Milwaukee Rd., Britton, will have been married 50 years on Nov. 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart are the parents of one daughter, Mrs. Leon (Virginia) Gittus of Deerfield, and have three grandchildren.

Godzina Is Tory Standout

Deerfield claimed a 33-14 victory Friday in the last game of the season, but not before Terry got in his licks.

Terry scampered seven yards for one of Britton's scores and then passed to Norman Auten for another, this play covering 55 yards.

Both extra points were scored on runs by Godzina.

But the Minutemen were too tough. Lynn Feldman was their hero, going 55 yards for one tally, throwing for two others, one to Lee Benore and another for 55 yards to Tom Hadden.

All year, Coach Al Vadasy has been bugged with limited personnel and a variety of injuries.

Not This Year

DEERFIELD	6	14	13	0	—33
BRITTON	0	7	0	7	—14

Scoring:

Deerfield: Hadden, 55-yd. pass from Feldman
Deerfield: Feldman, 55-yd. run
Deerfield: Hadden, 15-yd. run
Britton: Godzina, 7-yd. run
Deerfield: Warner, 8-yd. run
Deerfield: Benore, 15-yd. pass from Feldman
Britton: Auten, 60-yd. pass from Godzina
Extra points: Feldman, 3 by place kicks; Godzina, 2 by place kicks.

Macon Club Meets

MACON — The Macon Community Club will meet Tuesday, Nov. 16, at 7 p.m., at the home of Ray Hendershot near Brooklyn. Members are to bring sandwiches, cake and Jello.

Hoaglands Host Britton Circle Women Meeting

BRITTON — The Women's Circles of the Congregational-Christian Church met last week with a total attendance of 46.

Devotions were from the Book of Galatians, given by Mrs. Al Schmidt. The program, presented by Mrs. Bert Moore, was on the Thanksgiving theme.

Mrs. Donald Berkely introduced Mrs. Cross of Tecumseh, who gave her program on "Trees."

Wednesday noon the Golden Rule Circle met at Mrs. Beryl Albring's home. Mrs. William Gibson and Mrs. Palmer led the study on Christ's disciple Matthew.

Mrs. Martin Ivan was hostess to the Sunshine Circle Wednesday evening. The study of the Book of Revelations was led by Mrs. Harold Rhorback, who also presented slides of paintings showing scenes in the life of Jesus. Mrs. Gustav Hannevik gave the devotions.

The next meeting will be of the combined circles, the Women's Fellowship, on Dec. 1 in the Fellowship Center of the church.

Fellowship Plans Trip To Toledo

BRITTON — Final plans for a trip to attend the cinerama production "The Greatest Story Ever Told" on Nov. 21, were made when the Youth Fellowship of the Congregational-Christian Church met Sunday evening at church.

Young people are to meet at the church at 1 p.m. for a trip to Toledo.

Reservations have been made for the group and those young people who were not at Sunday's meeting and would like to attend are asked to please contact Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks.

It is not necessary to purchase tickets in advance, although the sponsors would like to know how many will be attending in order to arrange transportation.

Jack Brown and Dave Reeck gave a quiz on the book of John. Brenda Tubbs and Dennise Ivan will have a quiz on the book of Mark for the next meeting, in December.

Mrs. Eldon Reeck served refreshments.

Missionary Ladies Meet

BRITTON — The Ladies Missionary Society of the Britton Bethel Baptist Church met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Margaret VanVorst, to hear missionary Ramona DuBois, who is home on furlough from Nigeria.

Miss DuBois showed slides and gave an interesting account of her work in Africa during the last 20 years, what the Lord has accomplished, and how a great many conditions have changed in that time.

Eighteen ladies were present, including two guests, Mrs. Harold Ratcliff of Napoleon, and Mrs. Page Cranston of Manchester.

Britton Choir Attends Clinic Held in Albion

BRITTON — Sixteen young singers from the Britton Senior High School Choir attended a Choral Clinic sponsored by the Michigan Secondary Vocal Association at Albion College last Saturday.

Loren Jones, who is a music teacher at Michigan State University and Director of the Men's Glee Club there, directed the mass choir of 220 singers from many schools who attended the event. They sang at Goodrich Chapel on the college campus.

The visitors were treated to a coffee hour on arrival, then the morning session of sight reading new music and working on vocal techniques began.

At the noon break the choir members had their lunch in the college cafeteria, while the visiting directors were treated to a complimentary luncheon by the Albion College Music Dept.

In the afternoon session, the Albion College Orchestra accompanied the choir. Another treat for the assembled youngsters was to hear the Albion College Choir, under the direction of Dr. David Strickler, head of the Music Dept.

"This was a wonderful experience for our young people," stated Mrs. Donald Bush, director of the Britton Choir. "The Music Department of Albion College were wonderful hosts, and I feel our singers received valuable instruction and inspiration from the day's activities."

Present Film About Tibet

BRITTON — "Doorway from Tibet," a sound color film will be presented at the family night of the Congregational-Christian Church, Friday, Nov. 12.

Leah Maschi will also be present to tell of her call and plans to work among college and university young people in Venezuela.

The evening will begin with a cooperative supper promptly at 6:30 p.m.

They'll Dine For A Penny

A penny supper from 5 to 7 p.m., under the direction of Mrs. Lucile Cunningham, will precede fun night activities at the Onsted School Saturday, Nov. 13.

The Student Council will serve supper featuring meat loaf, hot dogs, hamburgers and scalloped potatoes.

Clowns, photographers, fortune telling, cake walks, and a fun house are only part of the activities arranged for the pleasure of students, their families and friends.

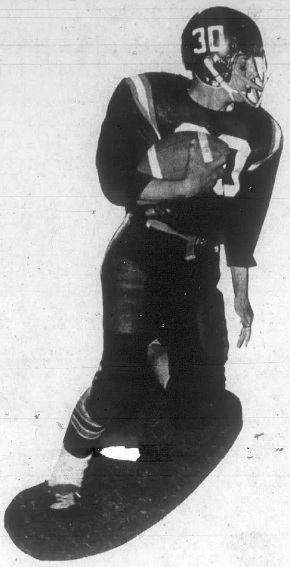
Adrian Favored by Two Touchdowns



Fleet Roger Young will lead THS attack

Tecumseh travels to Adrian Friday night for the 12th game in a rivalry that has often meant the difference in a successful season.

The fact that Adrian officials a year ago asked that the Tecumseh game be played here when East Lansing plays at Adrian, clearly indicates the fan interest. The Maples didn't want to lose two big gates in a single season.

In the past few years, the Tecumseh-Adrian game attracts the biggest crowds, the largest for Tecumseh and only the East Lansing fray at Adrian compares with the Tecumseh-Adrian crowds.

This Friday night, the Indians will enter the must-win-contest as underdogs, perhaps by two touchdowns. Both Adrian and Tecumseh started the season on losing streaks as neither were impressive. The seasons looked long.

After a couple of early defeats, both crews jelled with Adrian improving the most, enough to win South Central Conference title. Tecumseh bounced back from two straight losses and finished second to a strong Grosse Ile team for the Huron League championship.

The teams played one mutual opponent, and the results indicate a nightmarish evening for the Indians. Willow Run clobbered Tecumseh in the opener, 26-0. Adrian, in turn, trimmed the Flyers by three touchdowns. A strong Maple defense handled the fleet WR backs, while the Indians were helpless against the Flyers' speed.

Another comparison, however, would show the two teams fairly matched. Adrian edged Jackson Parkside by a TD. This is the same team soundly whipped by Jackson St. John. Tecumseh played St. John to a standstill in the first half here, and then weakened to lose by three tallies.

Friday's game could be a test of defenses with Adrian's considered one of the best in the area. Coach Gary McNitt has had trouble all season getting his offense going, taking the league title on defense alone.

Tecumseh's defense is not as sound, but it may be good enough to hold the Maples. If it is, fans will witness another outstanding Tecumseh-Adrian struggle.

Neither team has exceptional speed. Size is about the same with a slight edge to Adrian.

Only one thing about the battle is certain — the grandstands will be filled long before the 7:30 p.m. kickoff.

Little Love Lost When Indians Meet Maple 11

By JIM LINCOLN

Little love is ever lost on the field or in the stands when Adrian and Tecumseh meet on the gridiron. It has been that way from the first battle between the Indians and Maples in 1942.

Adrian holds the edge in victories — 7 to 3 with one tie. The now annual contest always attracts big crowds — running up to 5,000 in past falls.

That first game was for the benefit of the United Service Organization. Most of the young men who played in '42 were soon to learn the role of the USO in making a serviceman's lot during wartime a bit easier as they exchanged gridiron gear for Army, Navy, Marine and Coast Guard uniforms.

1942 — ADRIAN 27, TECUMSEH 0

A championship Tecumseh club, coached by Neville Hart, now THS principal, fell to a bigger and faster Adrian squad. The game was played at Island Park.

1945 — TECUMSEH 6, ADRIAN 0

Coached by Fred Raizk, the Indians notched their first win over the Maples and The Herald reported:

"In the final minutes of the third period, the Teepee Boys opened their aerial attack, led by the hurling of Dermont Poley, who did most of the passing in the absence of John Murdock, who was injured.

"The entire Indian line was in cutting down their opponent's offense with Hayden curbing in the Maples from his end and Ben Hammack and Baker stopping many drives just behind the forward wall.

"Poley's quick kicks served well for the Tecumseh cause also by pushing back Adrian.

1946 — ADRIAN 19, TECUMSEH 0

Third game in the rivalry was closer than the score indicated as the two clubs battled to a scoreless deadlock in the first half before Adrian started rolling.

Coach Myles Runk's THS team included such players as Ben Hammack, Tom Judd, Bill Tilton, Bob Dinse, Roger Williams, Bill Hayden, Bill Brown, Marvin Barber, James Sisson, Dick Purkey, Jack Hadley, Dick Colson, Tom Corkery.

JIM "BUBBLES" CURTH

After an elapse of 11 years, the schools renewed the series with the Indians being coached by Bob Brenliff.

Tecumseh didn't fare too well all season, but played its best game of the season against the Maples.

Others were Leonard Jenkins, Mike Walter, Ray Miller, Bob Long, Jim Poley, Gerry Greene, Tom Kasik, Jim Neitling, Dave Champanois, Greg Mason, Bob Hirsch, Dave Weakly, John Elliott.

Fagan Says — 'Greatest Career Win'

'Extra Effort' Makes the Difference

By Tom Riordan

If the Fagan family ever has a coat of arms, the crest's motto will probably read:

Those nine words are ones by which Tom Fagan, Tecumseh's head football coach since 1962, lives and he wants his players to keep this thought uppermost in their minds at all times.

This season started miserably for Coach Fagan as his Indians took two sound beatings.

Thus sheer determination and stubborn labor brought back the 1965 squad to respectability and endeared them to their coach.

★

JUST BEFORE the Adrian game, Mr. Fagan admitted that a fellow coach, after watching Tecumseh, beaten so badly by Willow Run, called the Indians the "worst team he ever saw."

"No, the worst of any team," he retorted.

The conversation got back to Mr. Fagan, who used it to prod pride into his lads. Interestingly enough, next year the unnamed coach and his team are back on the Tecumseh schedule. That should be quite a contest.

Carrying his slogan idea one step farther, the Indian chief has all practiced jerseys stenciled.

★

FOOTBALL AND Tom Fagan have been a pleasant mixture since the late Forties when he gained All-City honors as a fleet halfback at Detroit's St. Joe.

He was a standout at Eastern Michigan University, gaining All-Conference honors as a junior and senior.

As a runner for the Fort Hood Army team, he helped the squad to an 8 and 1 record, the only loss coming the Shrimp Bowl game against Bolling Air Force Base, which boasted 11 All-America players.

His coaching career began at Clinton High School in 1957 as he won 26 and lost 10 during five seasons. Twice he went 8 and 1 with the Redskins.

Coming to Tecumseh in 1962, his club also had an 8 and 1 mark, then fell to 4 and 5, back to 8 and 1 last season and was 4 and 3 going into the Lutheran West battle this season.

That gives him a 50 and 29 career record.

His Indian teams won the Huron League crown in '62 and '64, finished second in '63 and '65.

★

DURING FOOTBALL season, the mentor sees little of his wife and five children, putting in about six hours a day on his coaching chores, after finishing off his regular teaching assignments.

"A staff needs to put in about three hours of preparation for every three hours of practice," are Mr. Fagan's words.

Discipline problems sometimes dog a coach, but here the trying hours have been few, thanks primarily to the fact the players are rated as fine young gentlemen.

Coach Fagan picked up an idea from the Grosse Pointe High squad, which also has helped.

A Players' Council, composed of the tri-captains and five other players — two seniors, two juniors and one sophomore — handles squad hustle and discipline.

"If anyone is dogging it or breaking training, the Council will call him in and lay down the law," explains the coach.

There is high praise for the entire gridiron staff from the head mentor, who is always lavish in sharing compliments.

Jay Osburn, a former THS star, has helped following his classes at Jackson Junior College. Jay will enter Eastern Michigan University as a Physical Education major next fall and plans to pursue a career in coaching.

Jay's prime responsibility has been to take scouting reports of the coming week's opponent and drill a third-string unit in the foe's formation, which are then run against the varsity defense.

COACH FAGAN'S staff also includes Vic Lawson and Bob Keibler, who guided the Junior Varsity to an undefeated season, and Ted Todd, whose Freshman 11 also went unbeaten.

All three are scouts of future opponents and Friday evening, when Adrian met East Lansing, the trio sat in, making copious notes of Maple offensive and defensive formations.

Will history repeat from last year, Maples fall again ?

1958 — ADRIAN 25, TECUMSEH 13

These Maples were probably the strongest team in the school's history as they whipped a good Tecumseh 11 on a muddy field, 25-13.

Coach Dunc Leckta, in his first year at the Tecumseh helm, posted a 6-1-2 record. The Indians were just becoming a southeastern Michigan power.

Outstanding players then were Terry Hendricks, Dave Hohenstein, Dave Champanois, Jim Curth, Bob O'Neill, Dave Weakly, Lee Britton, Larry Yoakum, Dan Cisco, Jim Neitling, Roger Korte, Don Sweet, Mike Walter, Les DeJonghe, Carl Schmidt, Jon Aho.

The Indians, trailing by just six points in the fourth quarter, threatened to score, but missed. Adrian picked up its final TD after the Indians failed on a fourth-down play deep in their territory in the final seconds.

1959 — TECUMSEH 6, ADRIAN 0

The undefeated Indians completely dominated the Maples here on a field unfit for even ducks. Snow the previous night followed by an all-day rain Friday — it stopped at half time — prevented Tecumseh from romping.

The then Adrian coach Chappy Marvin remarked after the game that only the elements and condition of the field held the Indians from rolling up a four or five TD victory.

Coach Leckta's club stopped the Maples cold. Fumbles and penalties stymied Tecumseh time after time except for a second quarter score by Dave Weakly.

This team, probably rates the strongest in Tecumseh's history, boasting such players as Jim Neitling, Jim Curth, Terry Hendricks, Dennis Bryan, Roger Mead, Larry Titley, Jim Poley, Dick Horvath, Bob Dick, Ron O'Neill, Bob Fisher, Jack Sisson, Mike Fero.

Area and state honor-team recognition went to Neitling, Curth, Aho and Green. Kruger, Weakly, Koffron and Hathaway won honors in the Huron League, a title won easily by the Indians.

1960 — TECUMSEH 7, ADRIAN 7

If there's such a thing as a moral victory, the Maples picked up one in the final game on their gridiron.

In retrospect, Coach Leckta once remarked that he sent in the wrong plays when the Indians were knocking on the Adrian two. Two end sweeps failed to dent the Maples' line and Adrian held.

The Tecumseh mentor now feels that Mike Green, one of the strongest runners to ever wear the Orange and Black, could have punched it over offguard despite a tight Adrian defense.

Jon Aho, big, speedy Tecumseh back, tallied the lone Tecumseh score and also ran for the extra point.

1961 — ADRIAN 33, TECUMSEH 0

This was definitely a down year for the Indians who were completely outclassed by the Maples.

Tecumseh ended the season with four wins against five losses, the first losing season since 1957.

1962 — ADRIAN 33, TECUMSEH 7

The lopsided score resulted from a wild first quarter when the winners tallied three quick touchdowns, two of which were set up by a near gale blowing in the Indians' faces.

Adrian beat Tecumseh team before the kickoff. The Indians won the toss and elected to receive. The wind-blown boot went over the end zone, and the battle against the wind started.

It was hopeless. Tecumseh couldn't kick out against the blast, and the Maples only had to stop a running game. After the two clubs changed sides at the quarter, a different game resulted, although Andy Fisher and Doug Nelson continued to harrass the Indians.

Tecumseh tallied in the third period, had another nullified by a penalty and two other drives thwarted by infractions.

Halfback Dave Lemerand opened the scoring as the Indians, the underdogs, outplayed the Maples in the opening quarter.

Adrian, with top player Doug Nelson in the lineup, gained momentum late in the second period and outclassed Tecumseh the rest of the game.

The Huron League champs swamped the Maples in practically every department, and except for a fluke play, would have had a shut out.

It was a long wait — from 1945 to 1949 —for Tecumseh football followers to savor a gridiron victory over Adrian. And how they loved it as the Indians buried the Maples in a mire, 6-0, a win that highlighted Dunc Leckta's coaching stay at Tecumseh.

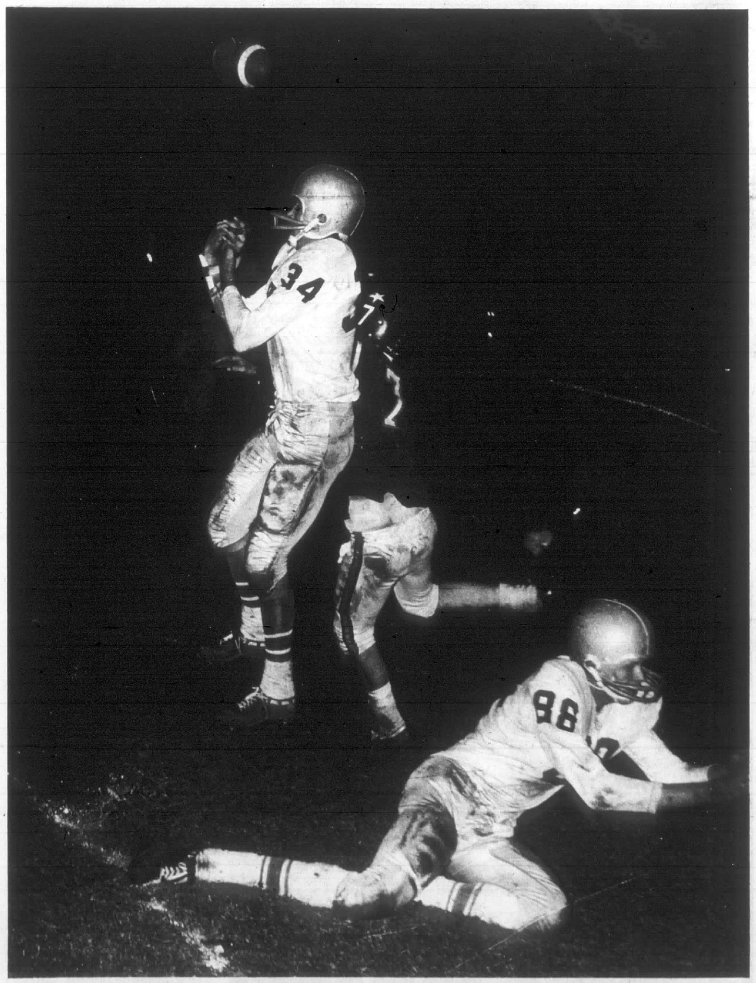
Tim Collins (34), an all-league back, scored one of Tecumseh's touchdowns in 1964 win over Adrian. Jim Dunbar (14) was a busy lad, trying to stop Tim, then, Don Baird, who also tallied a TD.



Jeff Osburn (7) got a good grip on Mickey Knight's hands as aerial went astray in 1963 game won by Adrian, 26 - 7. Steve Rymal (88) did a dive in front of the action. The following fall, Jeff was back and led Tecumseh to its 19 - 6 decision from his quarterback position.

Tim Dickinson still recalls kissing Homecoming Queen Karen Gottschalk.

Indian Princesses Win Grid Game

It was "Football a Go-Go" at the Tecumseh athletic field Wednesday night as both Tecumseh and Clinton hurled their all-girl touch football teams into action.

The Clinton girls were unable to move the ball as Tecumseh offense and defense overran them to a 26-0 victory.

The lone score in the first quarter was set up when Kathy Hall intercepted a Clinton pass. Jackie Rentschler tossed to Emily Manwaring in the end zone for the initial mark of the game. The PAT run attempt failed.

The second period saw Rentschler toss to Emily Manwaring, who sprinted into the end zone. The pair passed for the extra point.

MOMENTS BEFORE the gun at half-time, Beverly Eggleston picked off a Clinton pass and quarterback Debbie Black tossed to key receiver Manwaring for a 19-0 half-time lead.

Kathy Hall appeared again in the third period, snagged her third Clinton pass, but Clinton held the Indian girls this time.

The third period went scoreless and action lagged until the final minutes of the game when Emily Manwaring intercepted and scampered 40 yards to score her fourth touchdown. Jackie Rentschler tossed to Kathy Hall for the point.

Indian Princess coach, Mrs. Dick Wells, expressed the wish to meet more teams next season and possibly to set up an intermural team composed of Girls Athletic Association members.

Keen Competition Expected at Show

Competition will be keen in the Little Garden Clubs Flower Show staged at the Tecumseh Community Center Saturday, Nov. 13, from 2 to 7 p.m.

Allied Publications, a Florida color magazine, is considering the "Holidays on Parade" show for their 1966 annual of "Best of Show in Flower Arrangements" which features outstanding designs from all over the United States.

There are still openings in classes available to other club members and the public. All entries are eligible for the "Best of Show" award. Open classes are as follows:

Small niche size is 15" high, 16" wide and 14" deep. Judging will be by point system and foliage is permitted in all classes.

Entries can be made by calling Mrs. Richard Hammel 423-4133 or writing 611 N. Evans St., Tecumseh.

Entries can be placed Friday, Nov. 12 from 7:30 to 8:30 or Saturday morning from 8 to 10.

The public is invited to come and compare their judgment with that of the Federated Garden Club judges while enjoying punch and cookies served by the members of the Little Garden Club.

Three door prizes donated by florists from Tecumseh, Adrian and Clinton will be delivered to those holding tickets whether or not they are present at the time of the drawing.

The ticket cost of 50c for adults and children free with parents, covers the cost of holding a public flower show.

If there are any profits they will go toward furnishing Tecumseh with it's first outdoor fountain for the beautification of the new Adams Park, next to City Hall.

The purpose of the flower show is to demonstrate original designs and uses for flowers as well as educational exhibits.

The Little Garden Club would like to extend an invitation to their meetings. Anyone interested should give their name to any of the hostesses at the show.

Tickets may be purchased at the door, Don's Beef Buffet, Jean Colgroves Gift Shop, Ousterhouts Flower Shop, Pickard Floral Shop, Tecumseh Greenhouses, Kukini Flowers in Clinton and Freeman's Greenhouse on M-52 in Adrian or from any Garden Club member.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

ONE MYSTERY — SOLVED!

Quite frankly, I thought she was putting me on. Who ever heard of a shike poke? What an outlandish name for a bird. Yet, Ida had sounded sincere and her excitement did seem genuine, but really, could there be such a thing? She had spotted "it" standing at the edge of the creek and, although my bed went flying, there was nothing in sight by the time I had reached a good viewing spot. Ida insisted that it had been there and that it was a shike poke. Was she kidding me — on the other hand, who could think up such a queer name!

Well, in the days that followed, we used most of our spare moments checking bird books. They show some mighty peculiar birds with equally odd names — no shike pokes. If this were just one big fat joke it was certainly being played to the hilt. She kept insisting that there was such a creature and I grew more and more dubious.

I was ready to give up and admit to being taken in by the biggest hoax of the year when suddenly, Ida's bird had an unexpected supporter. We were enjoying Saturday evening guests, the conversation was nothing out of the ordinary but just good pleasant chit-chatting until bang, from way out in left field, Mr. M. asked why I had ten anything about shike pokes. Oh, no — not another one!

Careful questioning produced little more information than Ida had offered. Neither knew any other name, it was a water-bird or at least found in marshy places and Mr. M., who at one time had a large collection of bird eggs, remembered that the shike poke builds a platform-type nest and laid rather attractive looking eggs. Well, Marda, back to the books.

From past experience we knew it must be listed under some other name. "Birds of America" in each bird's description lists many nick-names but, this is a big book, almost 900 pages, and just going through the waders ... quite a feat.

Honestly, such names — everything under the sun but, you guessed it, no shike pokes. Perhaps a clue though, among many, many other queer things, the bittern ... sometimes called a poke. Could we be on the right track?

The search for the answer which would solve this mystery was rapidly increasing in scope — Ida's sister in Reading was quizzed and I started telephoning.

Somewhere there just had to be someone who knew about shike pokes. Two people having asked me about the bird ruled out the possibility of a joke — didn't it?

I wasn't so sure after the phone call to Marge. Her reaction to what was a shike poke echoed mine. What — who are you kidding... busy signals and no answers greeted my attempts to get in touch with Beth and Ella.

Then, one lucky afternoon, Beth came and I only hope that she was not too surprised when I barely let her slip out of her coat before I started inquiring about you know who.

Ho, Ho, success was near at hand. She remembered hearing people speak about shike pokes but just wait a moment, what was their other name. She would look it up.

And to the rescue she came — a bird 24 to 34 inches long, brownish in color, large yellowish bill, found in marshy areas is, according to a marvelous old bird book, issued in 1889 by the Agricultural College of Michigan, an American bittern or a Shytepoke. At last!, somehow it goes along with everything else, not only did we not know who the bird was but we were not even spelling the name right.

So it is that with a deep sigh of relief we can write finish, a shytepoke is just another name for a bittern, one mystery — solved.

NEWEST MERCHANTS — Tecumseh's new Western Auto is off and running under the guiding hands of Mr. and Mrs. John Burke, who recently opened their store, which is between A & P and the Fabricare Center on Herrick Park Dr. The Burkes are preparing for a grand opening sale, which will come in two or three weeks.

A Touch of the Past

On Nov. 2 a lodge of Good Templars was instituted in Ridgeway and one in Tecumseh on Nov. 4.

1875

J. W. Stickney and Co. have purchased the stationery and news business of G. T. Ketcham and are located in the post office building.

1885

The village has received a deed from B. J. Bidwell, dedicating to the public use as streets, Maiden Lane and Pearl Sts., north of Hewitt's addtion and Bidwell St.

Bert and Ben Garlinghouse have purchased the livery business of Frank Silvers.

The mercury went down to 18 degrees Saturday morning and the first fall of snow came Saturday night.

A new platform has been built in front of the Lilley House for the convenience of hack passengers.

The Rev. Frank Adkins of Slyria, Ohio will be the new pastor of the Baptist Church.

A new literary club has been organized by the Epworth League.

Fred Breigel and wife have moved from Manchester and Mrs. Berigel will open a dressmaking establishment.

1915

Mr. and Mrs. Gabe Mills are moving into the old homestead in Macon.

Albert U. Usborne has purchased the interest of Walter Lowery in the Usborne block on Main St. and is now the sole owner.

The Ridgeway M. E. Church has reopened after extensive repairs including a new slate roof, electric lights, steam heating and new carpets.

The village has purchased a new Barton pump for the fire truck.

1935

Tecumseh High School will observe Homecomng Day for alumni, Friday, by playing Clinton High.

The Rev. O. V. Robison of Chicago, will arrive next week to become pastor of the Tecumseh Baptist Church.

An earthquake was felt in the village at 1 a.m. Monday morning. It was reported in 17 states and three provinces in Canada.

Pfc. Robert W. Mohr wrote home to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Mohr to tell them how he and another fellow took shelter for two days in a pickup from the worst typhoon in 20 years on Okinawa.

They had two meals during that time, K-rations handed out from what was left of the mess hall. His tent had been ripped by 132 mile an hour winds.

The Boy Scouts are planning to hold a two-day paper drive this week. They hope to raise money to begin building a scout cabin.

Don H. Brown, formerly of Tecumseh, has purchased the Lakeview Hotel at Manitou Beach and is planning extensve repairs.

The State Health Department told the city council it will not approve any more water main extensions until the city does somethng about getting extra volume and more standpipe reserve.

Water improvements would cost $220,000.

C. F. (Bill) Sage granted the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce free office rent in the Sage building for a year, to help get the organization back on its feet.

The Tecumseh Community Fund is over the top, Chairman Jack Osburn reported a fund total of $11,946.66 collected, which was more than the goal of $11,234.

Production records are now kept on 3,000,000 dairy cows in 70,000 dairy herds across the nation. The records are used to improve production and efficiency. Cows on Ohio test in Michigan average 3,000 pounds more milk than the average dairy cow.

Girl Scouts Plan Trip

Girls Scouts who attended the movie and slide program at the Strand last month could see that some effort and planning must precede a senior scout trip.

The planning has begun and the first effort will be on Nov. 13.

Baldwin Hardware has again been generous with its floor space. Each troop will have a table on the second floor for a bazaar and calendar sale.

There will be events suitable for immediate eating or storing for the holidays. Gift items are being made by the Scouts and their parents. Calendars will also be featured.

Each girl will share equally in the profits made from her troop's table. These profits are to be kept in a separate fund toward future Senior Scout trips.

It is hoped that there will be enough public response that this may become a first annual Holiday Bazaar and Calendar Sale.

Michigan's poultry industry consumed more than 430,000 tons of feed last year. This meant a dollar volume of $35 million for Michigan feed mills.

Greek Theatre Wants Women To Form Group

YPSILANTI — The Ypsilanti Greek Theatre will hold an organizational meeting for a statewide Women's Committee at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 17 in Strong Auditorium of Eastern Michigan University.

To be established as an autonomous group, the Committee will focus efforts of Michigan women toward active participation in the Greek Theatre Festival.

Informational packets on the theatre project may be obtained by writing:

News from the Tecumseh Library

New fiction at your Public Library:

BELL CALL by Sylvia Ashten-Warner. This novel is set in New Zealand in the present. Its central character is a genius-mother, Tarl, a young woman totally committed to her belief in freedom for herself and her children. When the bell calls to summon her six year old Bennie to school, Tarl stands by her judgment that he is not ready.

WITH SHUDDERING FALL by Joyce Oates. The author tells the story of an obsessive love over which, from the beginning, hovers an atmosphere of inexorable destruction.

HURRY SUNDOWN, a tumultuous novel of passion and pride, set in a little Georgia town; by K. B. Gilden.

SLOWLY, BY THY HAND UNFURLED is a highly dramatic story, full of color and suspsnse. It is also a fascinating exercise in self-destruction; but its final strength rests in its compassionate treatment of human guilt and suffering.

THE FALL OF AN EAGLE by Jon Cleary. The immediate focus in the Turkish town of Malavan on the arid Anatolian plain in summer. There the lives of three persons converge.

EDGE OF PIRACY by Donald Chidsey. It all started with a sea fight. Ezra Bond came out of the smashing set-to as the master of the Forbearance and of the bewitching young Lady Helen who was transferred to his ship from the attacker.

Food Fads May Ruin Your Health

Food fads waste your money and they can undermine your health too. The best protection against diet fads which can flatten your purse and threaten your health lies in eating a well-balanced diet of ordinary foods each day, the Nutrition Foundation reports.

The Foundation was established in 1941 as a non-profit organization to support scientific research and public education in nutrition. The Foundation's supporting members are companies in the food and allied industries.

Every year 10 million Americans spend 500 million dollars following fad diets, the Food and Drug Administration estimates. The news about a fad diet spreads rapidly by word of mouth or through magazines and newspaper articles. The urge to try it seems irrestible to people who learn of a new fad.

Dramatic Changes

Dramatic changes are in store for Michigan agriculture by 1980. Farming may not be a matter of pushing computer switches with a look out the office window, but commercial farmers will be highly-skilled managers of large, complex businesses.

Although there will be fewer farmers, agriculture will be a multi-billion dollar segment of the Michigan economy. By 1980, annual sales from the state's estimated 22,000 commercial farms will approach a billion dollars. Vast research and educational programs will be required to keep pace with exploding scientific knowledge.

Staff of Michigan State University's College of Agriculture are taking a futuristic look at the state's rural scene in "Project '80," now near the end of a two-year study. Last month the entire research, teaching and extension staff reviewed the projections. Agents of MSU's Cooperative Extension Service from all Michigan counties participated.

Staff [illegible] state population is expected to climb to 10.5 Million in the next 15 years. But only three per cent will be in farm families. Two million additional consumers will require far more food and farm products.

Most of the population will be in the two southern corners of the state concentrated in "magapolitan" centers. A diagonal band of counties from the "thumb" to southwest Michigan will the state's "breadbasket." Most commercial farmers will be located in this area.

Looking ahead, the MSU Extension Service, recently committed to more intensive work with commercial agriculture and rural families, sees many new developments on the horizon. The average commercial farm of 1980 may have an investment of more than $130,000. Sales could average over $25,000 per year.

"By 1980," says Dr. Sylvan H. Wittwer, director of MSU's Agricultural Experiment Station, "research will make it possible to product even more efficiently and consumers may spend only 10 per cent of the family income for food."

He predicts that agricultural science will make even more startling discoveries to add to an impressive array of the past two decades. "Should U.S. policy take an aggresive step to curb would hunger," Dr. Wittwer commented, "this could well give the 'green light' to farmers to produce to capacity."

MSU's Dean of Agriculture T. K. Cowden commented "Reporting the results of research through the Extension Service is the vehicle through which all our work becomes worthwhile." He declared that this "service to people" was the truly unique feature of the American land-grant university. By 1980, the College of Agriculture may add a fourth dimension, international education, to the traditional functions of teaching, research and extension work.

The MSU dean called for what he termed "parity for rural communities" in terms of schools, hospitals, libraries and opportunities for youth — as well as parity of income."

Concluding the MSU workshop, N[illegible] P. Ralston, director of MSU's Extension Service revealed some additional details on the recently-announced state-wide reorganization. He described the reorganization as a significant decision that "we hope will have set a sound pattern to serve the state well into the 1980's."

"While we support educational opportunities for everyone," Dr. Ralston concluded, "we feel we must draw some practical limits on our programs." No single organization has a monopoly on all the competencies needed for the diverse educational needs of the state. Chance is inevitable . . . and that's our business, to bring it about to make rural Michigan the best place to live . . . anywhere in the [illegible]

By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE

Church Commission on Education will meet Monday, Nov. 15, at 7:30 p.m.

The Macon Community Club will meet on Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. with dessert being served.

Mrs. Charles Corton and Mrs. Melvin Travis will serve lunch to the Macon Hobby Club on Thursday, Nov. 18, at 12:30. The afternoon will be spent working on the Crissmon symbols and tray favors.

The Joy Circle met last Wednesday evening with Mrs. Paul Hover. Mrs. Dean Moore assisted her. Members brought things for the baby layette they will present to the Methodist Children's Village.

Mrs. Edward Zick gave a program on poems. She read several and told about the... Pumpkin Torte and whipped cream were served.

The children of the Macon vicinity collected $30 for UNICEF on Oct. 30.

There will be a singspiration at the Grace Methodist Church, Ridgeway, Sunday, Nov. 14, at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore opened the Faith Circle last Thursday by reading a Thanksgiving Prayer. As roll call was taken, each told or read something about Thanksgiving.

The group decided to make Christmas corsages at the December meeting. Mrs. Guy Zelluff told of the need for old sheet blankets, at the Chelsea home. They use them in lining quilts.

Mrs. Garland Osburn gave the devotions from the Upper Room. Mrs. Moore presented a program on "The World Federation of Methodist Women," everyone had a fruit of the tree of life. As they told what their fruit stood for they taped it to the chinese tree. Cherry wilderness pie, tea and coffee were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Zelluff visited the Chelsea Methodist Home Thursday morning and called on Mrs. Wilma Briggs, formerly of Macon.

Airman First Class and Mrs. Richard Moore of Phoenix, Ariz., and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Moore, spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bruder and family and Mr. and Mrs. David Bruder in Lansing.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kollar entertained for dinner Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Mueller and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kollar of Macon Sunday.

They were honoring their daughter, Debbie, who was celebrating her second birthday anniversary. Debbie's grandmother Mueller made her a birthday cake.

Mrs. Percy Cadmus enterd the Herrick Memorial Hospital Friday as a medical patient.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Carey, Jr., and daughters of Ypsilanti, were Sunday supper guests of his cousin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mansfield have returned to their home in Indio, Calif., after spending a few days in Michigan. They were overnight guests of Mr. and and Mrs. Clarence Hall.

They also visited her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd (Bob) Spence, and other friends in the Macon vicinity.

Prep Stars To Compete in Big Meet

The first Motor City International Indoor Track Meet will be held at Cobo Arena Jan. 14, sponsored by the Detroit Varsity Club and the Michigan Association of AAU.

This event of the winter sports season will feature internationally-known stars from foreign countries competing against athletes who represented United States in the recent Olympic Games and other international competition.

The Amateur Athletic Union of United States has sanctioned the meet and included Detroit on the list of cities in which these athletes will appear.

Special events for women, high school and college stars will be included in program.

Attend Reunion

There were 65 persons present from Michigan and Florida.

Toledo Raceway Opens Meeting

TOLEDO — The Thoroughbreds are back at Raceway Park — the place where the 1965 Ohio running season started nearly eight months ago.

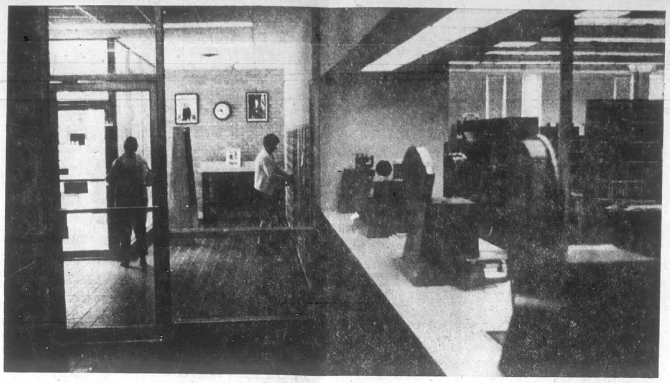
Sylvester (Shake) Jechura, president of Toledo-Maumee Raceways, Inc., reports all is ready for the opening of the 17-day meeting, Friday through Nov. 24. Post time will be 3 p.m. Friday and 2 p.m. each Saturday.

"We've installed new heating equipment and blowers and the entire grandstand, of course, is glass-enclosed," Jechura points out. "We've added about 400 more seats with an extension of the grandstand toward the paddock.

"Racing fans will be able to enjoy each race in virtual shirt-sleeve comfort regardless of how cold the weather may turn this month."

Peace Corps Test Will Be Saturday

Lenawee County residents interested in putting their skills to use in developing nations around the world are invited to take the Peace Corps placement test at 9 a.m. Saturday in the Adrian post office.



ROOMY TWIN LOBBIES — Tecumseh's new post office has two lobbies. The outer one is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week, allowing boxholders to pick up their mail and also permit letter drop-offs at any time. The inner lobby is open daily from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Saturdays, 8:30 a.m. to noon.

Ball Invitations Are Mailed

Invitations to the 17th Annual Holiday Ball were mailed this week.

The semi-formal dance, sponsored by the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, will be held Saturday, Dec. 4, at the Tecumseh Country Club.

Ticket chairman, Mrs. Kenneth Killman, whose phone number is 423-2275, requests that members contact her or their neighborhood chairmen to confirm reservations.

No tickets will be sold at the door.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

By ACTING GOVERNOR WILLIAM G. MILLIKEN

Legislators and private citizens have expressed to me their anger and concern about students who are attacking U. S. policy in Vietnam or even offering aid to the Viet Cong.

Heads of colleges and universities will deal with these students in an appropriate manner and investigations are underway to determine where they may be violating state or federal laws, particularly in burning draft cards and in offering help to those we are fighting.

I deplore the actions of this fringe minority. They reflect unfairly on the 80,000 draft-age men on Michigan college campuses. They are clearly out of step with the vast body of state and national opinion.

Nevertheless, we must not forget the vital differences between honest protest against our nation's policies and disloyal assistance to our nation's enemies.

It is precisely when our anger and disgust are most intense that we must guard most against the suppression of legitimate dissent in the name of patriotism.

We must remember that since the adoption of our United States Constitution, freedom of speech has been, and is, a gift from each individual to each individual. In the words of Thomas Jefferson, "Error of opinion may be tolerated where reason is left free to combat it."

It is difficult to grant freedom to immature individuals who remember their rights and forget their responsibilities. Yet, by its very nature, freedom must be complete and indivisible. Each person has it, or no person has it.

Reverend Miller Will Substitute

The Rev. George Miller, pastor of the Clinton Methodist Church, will give the sermon at the United Church of Christ, Sunday at 10 a.m., in the absence of the Rev. Paul McKenna.

The McKenna family will be visiting relatives in Pennsylvania for the weekend.

SPRINGPORT, MICH.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

Fond memories came flooding back as this week's big dedication and Open House at Fisher Body approaches.

(Full details appear in the 12-page pictorial supplement, which runs with this edition.)

One of my happiest moments in Tecumseh was the day I prepared a column for the Nov. 19, 1964 issue.

That was the issue in which huge, bold letters across the top of our front page said, "NEW GM PLANT."

The Long & Short went:

News of the new Fisher Body plant in Tecumseh struck like a thunderbolt Wednesday morning.

Two of the nicest guys a person will [illegible] & Hagler and Norman May, who labor for General Motors as public relations experts—dropped into our office about 10.

They asked for a secluded spot where we could visit.

When two executives of a giant corporation drop into a small-town weekly newspaper office, you can't help but realize something is up.

As we huddled in the quiet of our offset pressroom, Chuck broke the ice with a gag that nearly made me drop my teeth.

"You drive a Chevrolet, don't you? We're making a customer service contact," the big lug started.

Before this bewildered scribe could get readjusted in his chair, Chuck asked Norm to explain the real reason why they were in Tecumseh.

At this point, Mr. May casually dropped the bomb.

News stories, already prepared by the GM folks, were handed to us. There was a bright glow in the room. Chuck and Norm seemed as happy about the whole thing as we did.

NORM allowed, as a member of the Rochester School Board, he'd certainly love to see this sort of layout earmarked for his hometown.

Although a valuation of the new Tecumseh plant has not been revealed as yet, it will surely be a boon to our school district valuation.

If at this point, dear reader, you think this writer is giddy and light-headed, you're right. At present, this is strictly a Cloud Nine week.

Why Tecumseh? How come we were so blessed?

Chuck and Norm couldn't give us specific reasons, noting that the choice came as the summation of many things — labor force, transportation, water, geographic location.

Shipping will go from here all over the United States.

To show how keyed up we all are, this "late-week" edition of The Herald was printed Wednesday night, about 11, immediately following the quarter-final basketball games.

(Note: That was the week both Tecumseh and Britton were facing key state tournament games. The Indians fell to River Rouge, 69-58, but the Tories came from behind to take Covert, 67-58, continuing to their second straight Michigan Class D title that weekend.)

Originally, we were going to run it Thursday morning — but the gang took a vote and everyone wanted to get the job done as soon as possible.

Are we excited?

Yow!

Scrappy Indians Rally To Trim Adrian, 7-6

By JIM LINCOLN

Wind, rain and Adrian, co-champs of the South Central League — what previously had been considered a tough football loop — were not enough to halt a fired-up Tecumseh 11 from a convincing 7-6 victory Friday night.

Coach Tom Fagan's club, runners-up to Grosse Ile in the Huron League, came on strong in the second half to erase a six-point deficit and then go ahead on Roger Young's left end sweep for the extra point.

The victory was especially sweet for the Indians, who picked up their second straight win over the Maples in as many years, the first time in the history of the rivalry.

Whether Tecumseh won or Adrian lost — due to injuries, unlucky breaks, wind, rain or lousy officiating — will fail to dampen what has to be the Indians' top performance of the season.

They weren't supposed to win and they did.

Coach Fagan and hundreds of fans couldn't help but remember three years ago when Adrian capitalized on a near-gale to tally three quick touchdowns and whip a good Tecumseh team.

Friday night, the Maples won the toss and chose to kick off with the wind at their backs. Two successive penalties prevented the Indians from moving, forcing Gordon Gibson to punt against a wind which was really snapping the Stars and Stripes.

The punt traveled seven yards.

JUST LIKE three years ago, Adrian held good field position on its 41 with all the advantages. However, this time the Maples could not tally.

Tecumseh, jittery in the backfield, ran three plays and was forced to punt again, this time Gibson getting 20 yards to Adrian's 48.

On this series, the Maples took to the air, failed to connect and punted out on Tecumseh's 25.

After fullback Mark Blatchford had a 14-yard run nullified by a penalty, Gibson punted from Tecumseh's 28 only to have wind catch the ball and drop it on the 20 for a minus eight yards.

Just 20 yards from pay dirt, Adrian ran one play for a three-yard loss, then took to the air

40¢ Raise Awarded at Budd

CLINTON — A 40c per hour wage increase has been granted UAW employees of the Budd Co. here in the newly-signed contract.

They also will get two additional paid holidays in the contract just signed by company and Union, continuing to March 31, 1968.

Another new benefit will be a company-paid life insurance policy for each employee.

Robert E. Palenchar, vice-president of employee relations for the Automotive Division, explained that equal economic benefits will also be extended to salaried personnel.

Exchange Club Tours New Plant

Twenty-five members and guests of the Exchange Club toured the new General Motors plant Nov. 8, following dinner served by the Auxiliary of the Eagles Lodge.

Ed Rapin, superintendent of labor relations of the plant, was a guest of Orville Bishop. Robert Bird of Fisher accompanied J. D. Cook and William DePuy went with George Derby.

After dinner, the group accompanied Mr. Rapin to the plant where they were met by Harvey Vogt, director of industrial relations, and Dominic Conklin, plant superintendent. They explained the operation of the plant.

The group went to the new Fisher cafeteria for coffee and doughnuts.

One member of Exchange remarked in amazement of how rapidly the farm field had changed into an industrial plant and grounds.

He also spoke of the hospitality extended to the club.

PARTY FOR 15,000—There'll probably be about 15,000 neighbors dropping by at Fisher Body's Open House Thursday from 4 to 8 p.m. and Friday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. and 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. A special 12-page supplement devoted to Tecumseh's newest industry appears as Section D of this edition and gives complete details.

School Plans Goes to State

A plan for reorganization of Lenawee County's school districts is complete. It would establish four K-12 districts, amalgamating some of the present 12 high school districts into larger units.

The Committee of 18, occupied since March with a study of school systems, drafted the proposal into final form for submission to Lansing.

The legislative requirements set a deadline of Dec. 30.

Voters in the affected areas are to vote on the proposed redistricting within 90 days of its acceptance by the state.

★

CHANGES would occur in only three of the proposed districts, if the electors approve, since the present Adrian District at the center of the county is unaffected.

The Southern district would link Blissfield with Madison, Morenci and Sand Creek, absorbing the only two remaining unaffiliated rural districts in the county, Underwood and Maloney.

(Residents of these two rural districts, if they have any other preference, may initiate action to annex to Adrian before the vote.)

Deerfield already has been released to Monroe County for study of a possible merger with Summerfield, its board of education having specifically requested the transfer out of the Lenawee study.

The group has been accepted by Monroe County.

In a similar manner, Cement City has been released to Lenawee from Jackson County study.

More than $7 million a year is spent on education in Lenawee County, says Milton Porter, county superintendent of schools.

★

PURPOSE OF the reorganization study, as ordered by the Michigan legislature, is to:

1—Upgrade the smaller school systems, now operating inefficiently.

2—Provide an equal opportunity for education for all the children in Lenawee.

3—Make our dollars buy better education and more of it than they do now.

A single county unit was favored by some of the committee, but an attorney-generals' opinion held this to be unconstitutional.

Some of the facts brought before the committee pointed to an increase in administrative efficiency, equalizing the financial structure, providing better utilization of existing school buildings and other facilities, more equitable use of transportation, a broader curriculum for students, with more individualized attention and ability grouping, and superior teachers instructing only in their major fields of study.

The bank has announced that the 1966 Club is now open and folks can begin saving over the next 11 months for the Yule of next year.

Public Hearing on School Plan To Be Nov. 29

A public hearing on school district reorganization in Lenawee County will be held Monday, Nov. 29, in Madison School at 7:30 p.m. with all interested persons invited to attend.

Donations Now Reach $47,148

With final tabulations still about a week off, the 1965 Tecumseh United Fund drive has reached $47,149 — nearly $2,000 above the goal.

He noted some interesting facts:

► Residential giving is up 37%.

Over all, charity giving is 18% better than the last campaign.

Reading Classes To Be Awarded $39,000 in Aid

By JIM LINCOLN

Federal aid, amounting to about $39,000 a year for three years, will be spent towards remedial reading and reading laboratories.

Tecumseh School Board reached this decision after a lengthy discussion Monday night, and after members were polled as to what they considered the best use for the money.

Supt. James McDowell reported about numerous educational fields and departments in which the money could be spent.

After the board's poll show remedial reading as the first choice, members decided that any additional monies would be allocated for educational TV.

The Tecumseh schools will receive $39,000 for three years from the government.

Special teachers and equipment will now be purchased to assist pupils who are not reading according to standards for their age level.

★

IN OTHER action at the meeting — a short one, lasting just less than five hours — members:

► Approved an annuity program for teachers, optional under a plan to be handled in the schools' bookkeeping department.

► Hired Val Spangler, former Tecumseh ite, as a social studies teacher in the high school and as a golf coach.

► Appointed Preston E. Caswell to succeed Wallace MacGeorge and Ernest Oliver, to succeed himself, as canvassers at school elections.

► Discussed development of the north athletic field. The area has been plowed up, will be destoned and seeded for use as a high school intramural site.

Jeff Osburn Hurt When Hit by Train

Jeff Osburn, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Osburn, 231 Park St., suffered a broken collar bone, broken rib and a severe scalp laceration Monday morning when struck by a train on Stoney Creek Rd., north of Milan, near Pratt Rd.

The youth, a General Motors Institute trainee now working at Fisher Body plant in Willow Run, was enroute to work when the accident happened.

He is confined at St. Joseph's Hospital in Ann Arbor and is not expected to be released until late this week.

The impact threw the youth 18 feet from the car, ripped out the car's motor, 36 feet from the wreckage, and strew debris over 180-foot area.

He was also taken to St. Joseph's Hospital but with minor injuries.

Thanksgiving Service To Be Held Nov. 24

The Rev. Frank Hawthorne will be the speaker at the Union Thanksgiving service Wednesday, Nov. 24 at 8 p.m. at the Tecumseh Friends Church.

The service is under the auspices of the Tecumseh Area Ministerial Association and is for the public.

Special music is being arranged by the host church.

Housewives all over the area are clutching their Kroger Super Bingo cards — always hopeful of getting those final key numbers and winning the $100 prize. Down in Fort Wayne, Ind., some of the gals didn't wait, chuckles local manager Walt Rowley. If they needed a 98, they simply took a worthless 38 and 92, cut them in half with a razor and presto! a winner. Kroger got wind of the deal when 11 winners suddenly materialized at one store. So, officials have warned Walt and other Toledo Zone managers to keep both eyes open when checking in winners.

Frosty Yuletide

Silver stars on midnight blue surrounding a giant Christmas tree will add splendor to a "Frosty Yuletide" when the 17th annual Holiday Ball is held Saturday, Dec. 4, at the Country Club.

The semi-formal dance, sponsored by Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary for the benefit of the hospital, is the group's largest single undertaking. Proceeds from this year's event will go toward the purchase of a cardiac resuscitation cart for use in the hospital.

event will go toward the purchase of a cardiac resuscitation cart for use in the hospital.

Mrs. William Adams and Mrs. Wilbur Andrews, co-chairmen of the planning committee, have arranged for music by the Art Smith orchestra.

Dancing will begin at 10 p.m. and continue until 2 a.m., and a buffet lunch will be served later in the evening.

Mrs. Kenneth Killman and her committee of neighborhood ticket chairman have addressed nearly 500 invitations to the dance.

Reservation and advance tickets must be confirmed through the committee, since no tickets will be sold at the door.

Decorations for the affair are under direction of Mrs. Donald Moffatt. Mrs. Al Merz is in charge of the buffet.

Far easier than taking candy from a baby is Uncle Sammy's method of getting money out of the taxpayers pocket. He simply keeps one busy thinking about the moral break-down of the country while he gives the school administration the opportunity to say "Yes, we'll find a way to spend the money" and Sam grabs it out of the other pocket.

The only hold the parents have over schools thus slips quietly into oblivion. Millage, they had an opportunity to vote about, but Federal improvement in school curriculum was never on a ballot.

Maybe I'm a flag waver, but I have yet to hear of a country where socialism has made a country as great as the United States of America and I certainly hate to see us take on anything that resembles socialism.

Firemen Do Duty, Draw Ire

Tecumseh's efficient fire department drew some criticism last Wednesday night when it extinguished a fire in what many consider the biggest eyesore in Tecumseh — the old, rundown brick apartment building at 210 E. Chicago Blvd.

Not all the firemen were criticized, however, as one wheeled [illegible] west instead of east on the city's main thoroughfare and arrived a bit late.

Some youngsters are believed to have set a mattress a fire in the old building, which has been condemned for occupancy.

Councilmen, in a tongue-in-cheek rebuke Monday night, were critical too of the fire department's efficiency. In a more serious mood, Council discussed having the building torn down.

Hamiltons Move

John H. Hamilton will be in charge of dealer development training for Lansing sales of the Gulf Oil Corporation.

SCHOOL

GROUPING of schools chosen by the committee would give the Southern District, for instance, a state equalized valuation of $71,202,681 with 3,250 elementary children and 2,348 high school students.

The Central District, comprising Adrian and the number of districts it has annexed, has a state equalized valuation of $73,049,675 with enrollment of 3,149 in elementary and 2,418 in high school.

This would remain unchanged in the reorganization proposals and as a consequence voters in this district would not vote in an election affecting the others.

The Northwest district has a state equalized valuation of $51,602,690 and enrollment of 2,539 in elementary and 2,079 in high school.

The Northeast district has a present state equalized valuation of $56,712,224 and enrollment of 2,718 in elementary and 2,205 in high school.

Vandals Keeping Cops Busy

Tecumseh police, busy with an apparent surge in vandalism, investigated only three accidents here the past week, far less than the usual number of mishaps.

Shirley Chrisman, 15, of 4560 Rogers Hwy., a pedestrian crossing E. Shawnee St., escaped serious injury Thursday when hit by a car driven by Mary K. Thorton, 16, of 509 Cairns St.

Miss Chrisman was treated by her family doctor and released. Miss Thorton was not held responsible.

A charge of failure to yield the right of way was dealt to Mary Jane Jonas, 72, Onsted motorist after she was hit by Milton C. Opel, 41, of 821 Occidental Rd.

Tuesday morning, Everett McKenzie, 49, of 730 N. Union St., lost control of his car and rammed a telephone pole on N. Union St. He was cited for failure to have his car under control.

Residents continue to report egg throwing against vehicles and damages to windows, apparently from B-B guns.

Vandals also recently took aim with B-B guns at many windows at the Patterson School, a common target for the youngsters in the past.

Land Purchase is Authorized

Plans to purchase 80 acres of land at the northwest corner of Carson Hwy. and Taylor Rd., were authorized by Council Monday night.

The property was offered to the city for $2,300 by the Conservation League, with the stipulation that the area be used as a park or for recreation and conservation purposes.

Women Hear Talk at Session

Mrs. Orville Bishop presented the program, "The Factors That Confront Us," at the meeting of the Women's Society of the First Baptist Church Monday evening.

She was assisted by Mrs. Eddie Kirkland.

The seven factors emphasized were:

1. Population explosion.
2. Technological revolution of the past decade.
3. Rising expectations of people in underdeveloped areas of the world.
4. Rising Nationalisms, distinctly non-Western in character.
5. End of an era of Christian predominence in the world.
6. Emergence of a World Christian Church.
7. The weapons revolution.

★

MRS. FLOYD BRYAN was the hospitality chairman and Mrs. Harold Davinson, chairman of the hostesses.

Mrs. Sam Clough and Mrs. R. C. Pennington served from the tea table.

The ladies met at the church Wednesday to work on White Cross materials for the year.

One of the popular meetings of the year will be the December session when the Mather School Auction is held and boxes are packed for service men and shutins.

Mrs. Eddie Kirkland will be in charge of the meeting.

Petition Council For Stop Signal

Residents of the Cairns St. and Sunset Dr. area petitioned Council Monday night for a four-way stop sign at this intersection.

They claim some motorists speed south on Cairns St. from W. Chicago Blvd. and that the area is dangerous to pedestrians.

Councilmen turned the request over to the city manager for study and a recommendation.

CUTS UP — Indian gridders will enjoy this football cake at their Thursday evening banquet if Coach Tom Fagan doesn't cut up before dinner. The well-designed cake was presented by Mrs. Russell Collins of Macon.

Addition Will Cost $431,950

Council awarded a construction contract for the sewage plant expansion to Lerner Linden Construction Co. of Detroit, Monday night.

Bid was $431,950 and an alternate bid, for a chain belt, of $4,000 was approved.

Four companies bid on the job, estimated to cost about $525,000, including cost of running a force sewer line to the Fisher Body plant on Occidental Rd.

Of this total, the Federal government is expected to pay $157,000.

City Manager Cal Zorn anticipates total cost will be less than $525,000, a figure which also includes engineering costs, administration and other factors.

Bonds for the project were sold in July.

Mr. Zorn expects work to start within the next few weeks with completion late next fall.

60 Second Talks Given by Students

During the second half of the session, students learned the ten memory pegs. At the end of the evening they were able to give helps either in or out of sequence.

Pencil awards were presented to Robert Booze for the best speech and Bea Garcia for the most improved. Ray Winsky won the achievement pencil.

The first two awards were selected by the members of the group. Mr. Winsky's award was chosen by the instructor, Don Deffendall, and the graduate assistants.

Anyone wishing to attend next Tuesday's session at Harvey House Motel Conference Room is welcome at no charge.

Engineer Named New Goodwill Local Executive

A native New Englander and chemical engineer has been named the new executive director of Goodwill Industries of Southeastern Michigan, Inc.

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

About four weeks ago we found a male hunting dog in Monument Park in Adrian. He had a black collar on, but no license. We advertised him on radio and in The Telegram.

Many who have lost dogs have phoned, but not the right owner.

He is mostly black with fine white stripe down center of face, a brown spot over each eye, and grown on each side of face and part of legs, white around the neck, on the breast and under body.

All four feet are white and the end of his black tail is white. He is almost perfectly marked, well trained and gentle. We think there may be a family mourning his loss, or for some reason can't keep him.

In either case, we would like to hear from them before we find a new home for him.

Will you please print our letter in your paper. We are elderly and on Social Security and do not feel we can continue paying for ads.

Sincerely and thank you.
Mrs. Glenn Peck
516 E. Maumee St.
Adrian, Mich.

P.S. This dog may have been stolen and got away from his captors and in this case may have been gone or lost from his owners for more than four weeks. We hope that anyone who thinks they know this dog will contact us.

Macon Church Displays Tree

Mrs. Charles Gorton Sr., of the Macon Methodist Church, decided last Christmas that she would like to have a tree for the youth of the church that would speak of Christ.

She sent to the church in Virginia, that originated the idea of Chrismons (Christ's monograms) and Bible Symbols from Christian history and began to work on them. She now has 144 completed.

All of these symbols, made to decorate the tree, are in white and gold to symbolize the purity, perfection, majesty and glory of Christ. They point to the Christ as the "Light of The World" by using many strings of tiny white lights.

It is hoped in time to come, to add many more symbols, thus telling a more complete story of Christ.

On Sunday, Dec. 5, the Macon Church will welcome other churches and anyone who is interested in hearing the history of the symbols, listening to special music by the choirs, and in seeing the Chrismon tree lighted.

◄ Professor Marvin iEsenberg of Michigan's History of Arts Dept., will lecture at Siena Heights College on Thursday, Nov. 18, at 8 p.m. in Archangelus Lounge on "Two Crises in Florentine Art and Society." Professor Eisenberg is the fourth speaker in the Town and Gown art lecture series.

Cranberries and Thanksgiving highlighted the meeting of the Abi-Evans Chapter, DAR, Nov. 12 at the home of Mrs. Arthur Brown in Macon.

Marion Whelan presented a program on the early history of Thanksgiving, going back to the time of Cain and Abel.

She stated that early Jews, as well as pilgrims, observed Thanksgiving. Miss Whelan mentioned a museum in Berkley, Va., erected in 1619 commemorating Thanksgving.

It has been restored and is open to the public.

She also told the history of raising cranberries, first cultivated on Cape Cod in 1846.

Mrs. Fred C. Dickinson, a new associate member, told about cranberries in Washington State, where her son has five acres under cultivation.

Mrs. Purnell Osburn, Mrs. Arthur Brown and Mrs. James Artman, the nominating committee, will report at the January meeting.

Monday Club Consumer Power Guests for Meal

A holiday meal was cooked and served in a tasting party with Una M. Iott, home economist, demonstrating.

Don Thomas Wins Seat

The firm's founder, who sold all his interests in 1959, was selected as a representative of shareholders dissatisfied with present management.

However, the eight-man board the unhappy group sought was turned down, and present officers saw four of their people elected.

ALMOST, ADRIAN, ALMOST — Tecumseh fans cheered many times Friday night, for as often as not, Roger Young, 5'5", 140-pound halfback, would shake off an apparent Adrian tackle and go for extra yardage. He did it here. The junior scatback carried 25 times for 93 yards, tallied a TD behind an excellent block by Mark Blatchford, and then ran for the winning point.

CLINTON — Well, it's all over now.

Clinton's Redskins ended with a sparkling 8 and 1 season — but once again, Saline couldn't be conquered.

The same thing happened last autumn.

End Bill Jedele took a pass from Dennis Drazic in the fourth period, a play covering 27 yards, for the Skins' lone tally.

At one point in the second stanza, Clinton drove to the Hornet one-foot line, but lost the ball on downs without scoring.

This was the game's turning point, said Clinton Coach Phil Bareis, who was lavish in praise for Jedele. Bill was outstanding on both offense and defense.

Young Sparks Tecumseh Rally To Whip Maples

★

AN INDICATION that the Indians could move on the ground and score followed.

Tecumseh rolled up four first downs in a march that reached Adrian's 37, where the Maples stopped THS cold in throwing Young and quarterback Ron Rentschler for successive losses to Adrian's 48.

Failing to take advantage of the wind in the first period, Adrian then started from its eight-yard line and marched 92 yards to score in 13 plays.

Key play in the drive was a short pass over scrimmage on a fourth down four situation at Tecumseh's 27. Maple quarterback Tom Allen hit end Tom Horvath for 13 yards to Tecumseh's 13.

ADRIAN'S drive was well executed with most of the yardage and TD run scored on quarterback Allen's slipping the ball to the trailing back.

Tecumseh opened the second half with a drive from its 32 to Adrian's 26, where the Indians missed a first down by inches.

After the Maples failed to move, the Adrian punter sailed one with the wind for 62 yards to the Tecumseh 15, were Young ran it back to the 19.

A clipping penalty on the play set the Indians back to the nine where they started another drive, this time to Adrian's 47.

Early in the fourth quarter, Tecumseh stopped a futile Adrian attack and got the ball back, following another punt, on its 19.

This time Tecumseh was not denied.

HALFBACK Fred Freeman gained eight and Bill Davis six for a first down at the 33. Young, in two carries, moved for another first down at the Adrian 46.

Blatchford hit for five and Young for six to the Maples' 36. After Davis gained one yard, the officials called a personal foul against the Maples, ejected one player from the game and stepped off 15 yards to the 20.

Young, who was tremendous throughout the game, rolled for 15 yards in two carries to the five. Blatchford plunged for three to the two.

With over five minutes left, any Adrian hopes to rally were jolted when Fred Kachur hit the Adrian back on the kickoff, jarring the ball from his arm. Bill Chandler recovered for the Indians.

The Maples still had one more opportunity from deep in their territory, but were never able to advance beyond their own 46.

Defensively, it was Tecumseh's best effort of the season. Adrian managed only two first downs in the second half and 37 yards rushing.

Coach Gary McNitt's team relied on passing to spark its attack, but often as not, the receiver could not hang onto the ball.

Adrian loses 20 from Friday night's roster, and both its Jayvee and freshman clubs lost this season to Tecumseh.

Coach Fagan has seven good players coming back next fall and an equal number or more coming up from the Jayvee and freshman team. Tecumseh's football future is very promising.

HARVEST of VALUES

Homeowners Are Saluted

A special "salute" is given homeowners of Tecumseh by merchants, who say, "Your taste in homemaking would make any community proud. The city and farm homes in the Tecumseh area depict the prosperity that Tecumseh enjoys."

Homemaker are indeed to be congratulated for the way they keep adding to their home's comfort and beauty, the storemen state.

"Some of you are fortunate enough to have the ready cash you need to keep your homes the way you want them, while others must operate their homes within a limited budget.

"But whether you run your home on a budget or with unlimited capital, you can have any type home you desire. The local financial institutions can and will finance all types of home construction or improvements," they add.

"If you feel your home is not up to par and in need of repairs or modernization, consult any local contractor or building material firm, interior decorator, paint store, furniture or appliance dealer.

"Tell them your wishes, and they will supply you with the latest material, dependable labor and best possible service — all at a price to fit your budget.

"You, as a homemaker, should take advantage of these wonderful opportunities while our nation is enjoying an all-time prosperity," the folks of Business Row state.

Tecumseh merchants are proud of the part they have had in making homes more enjoyable. Therefore, it is with pleasure that they honor you this week with a "Harvest of Values."

NEWS of CLINTON

A SECTION OF THE TECUMSEH HERALD

EDITOR — MAXINE CALHOUN

Sister Marie Boosts Clinton Club Women

CLINTON — "It's a good time to be a woman," Sister Marie Antoine of Siena Heights College, told the members of the Clinton Woman's Club and their guests at a meeting in the Community Center last Wednesday afternoon.

Speaking on the subject, "Woman's Role in Today's World," Sister Antoine said, "The world is waiting for the right share of feminine influence, perhaps especially in the sphere of international cooperation.

For human dignity and human rights, the care of the family, and a deep love of peace based on religion must be the concern of women always and everywhere.

It is no use to complain about the difficulties. No one can prevent a woman from achieving the full human development with her nature."

She suggested, "If coming generations are to build up families and civilization in peace, this will be largely due to the greatness of the present generation of women provided they strive to attain true culture, greatness of heart, and a sure moral sense."

Mrs. Frank Fitzpatrick presided and welcomed 37 members and guests, including Mrs. Truman Rentschler and Mrs. Warren P. Van Orden, president and junior past president, respectively of the County Federation of Women's Clubs.

Other guests were Sister Ruth Ann of Siena Heights, Mary Brazil of Cheboygan, Mrs. Anna McDermott, Mrs. John Monaghan, Mrs. Clara Steele and Mrs. Lawson Ward.

Mrs. Frank Ward, a new member, was introduced.

Mrs. Ralph Reed will have charge of the Dec. 8 meeting which will be devoted to Christmas music.

Clinton French Students Form Language Club

CLINTON — A French Club has been formed by the members of the second year French class at the school, under the leadership of the teacher, Mrs. Wayne Hulett.

The purpose is to have a better opportunity to speak the language and learn more of the sounds through the use of records.

The members met last week and elected officers.

President — Mary Anne Woodward.

Vice-president — Linda Smith.

Secretary - treasurer — Carol Bower.

Meetings will be held on the first Wednesday of each month.

4-H Hustlers Win Award Sixth Time

CLINTON — The Franklin Hustlers 4-H Club received the Adrian Kiwanis Club Award at the 4-H County Achievement program Nov. 6 at Siena Heights College.

This is the sixth time in the 13-year history of the Kiwanis Award that the Hustlers have won the coveted honor.

It is determined by a point system based on attendance, completion of projects, enrollment of new members, community activities and money-raising projects as reported in the secretary's book.

The leaders, Mrs. Claude Creger and Mrs. Thomas Adams, will have their names inscribed on a plaque to be placed in the county 4-H office and each member will receive a gift.

Mary Ann Woodward, a member of the county 4-H Council participated in the flag ceremony and made the presentation of the "I Dare You" award.

★

COUNTY 4-H awards presented to individual Hustlers:

Barbara Vincent, dog care
Karen Davenport, clothing
Jane Woodward, beef
James Woodward, leadership
John Dewey, agriculture
James Creger, reporter
Charles Munger, Floyd Beatty, field crop
John Vincent, swine
John Kotts and Patty Aebersold, sheep

Church Members See Poverty Film "Breakthrough"

CLINTON — The members of the United Church of Christ Priscilla class were made aware of the need to help those in poverty at the meeting last Thursday.

Mrs. Paul McKenna was hostess for the meeting in the parsonage.

Following a showing of the film "Breakthrough" on the subject of world-wide poverty and how it effects people, the group rolled bandages and prepared dressings.

These will be included in the barrel of supplies being prepared by the women of the Assembly of God Church for the leper mission in New Hope, Liberia, where Lois Lemm is stationed as a missionary-nurse.

It is planned to collect aprons, ribbons, cards and gift wrappings to be sent to Caney Creek, Ky. These articles are to be taken to Mrs. Edgar Randall.

Mrs. Edward Bihlmyer assisted the hostess with the serving of pumpkin pie and coffee.

Mrs. John Hoelzer will prepare and serve the annual class Christmas dinner on Dec. 9 at her home, with members paying for their dinner.

A special swap shop is planned for that night with members bringing swap shop items suitable for gifts.

Clinton Art Club Plans Monthly Meet

CLINTON — The Clinton Art Club has made plans to meet on the first and third Monday evenings of each month in the Community Center. The first meeting is Nov. 17.

Hal Poucher will be the instructor and beginners are welcome to attend. Any interested newcomers in the area are also invited.

—o—

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Philo have returned to their home in Bakersfield, Calif., after a visit for two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Philo.

Report Cites Building Deficiencies

CLINTON — Members of the board of education of the Clinton Community Schools were told last Monday that the school's most serious need is in building facilities.

In an accreditation report submitted by the Bureau of School Services of the University of Michigan the school was found to be very satisfactory in many areas, but the need for building improvements was noted.

Immediate and future needs were discussed at length.

Rex Winchell, president of the board, reported that all persons who were asked to serve on the district Citizens' Committee have responded favorably.

Donald Fox of the U. of M. Bureau of School Services will be engaged to act as consultant relative to school plant planning and educational facilities.

Mr. Fox is a specialist in this area. He can advise the district on the latest building techniques and developments in keeping with both university research and Department of Education standards.

A meeting of the Citizens' Committee, the board of education and the university consultant, Mr. Fox, will be arranged in the near future.

Superintendent Richard Wegner discussed the development program soon to be started at the school. A grant of $7,150 from the Federal Education bill of the 89th Congress will make it possible to offer financial assistance to local education agencies for low-income families. It is hoped that plans may be developed to provide general aid to broaden and strengthen education for Clinton youth in ways that would not be provided in the general budget.

In a discussion of health standards in the athletic department, it was reported that the floors of the shower rooms and the locker areas are scrubbed down each morning with a disinfectant soap. General physical education facilities are managed in a way which is in compliance with state-determined standards.

Mission Starts Sunday

CLINTON — The Assemblies of God Church in Clinton will be conducting a Missionary Convention on Sunday, Nov. 21, Tuesday, Nov. 23 and Wednesday, Nov. 24.

The Rev. Dennis Goodrow, pastor of the church, is extending an invitation to everyone to attend these services.

The Rev. R. E. Larson, missionary to Costa Rica, will be the missionary speaker on Sunday at 7 p.m.

Rev. Larson is a graduate of North Central Bible Institute in Minneapolis.

Costa Rica is a stronghold of democracy among the six Central American republics. This is the fastest-growing republic of Central America, which as an area, has the greatest annual population increase in the world.

Rev. Larson's missionary presentation will include color slides and special music.

THE REV. KENNETH C. McComber will be the missionary speaker on Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. McComber is a missionary from the Philippine Islands. He has been in the Islands for the past five years. Previously he served as a missionary in Indonesia and Malaya. In the Philippines, Rev. McComber served on the board of directors of Bethel Bible Institute and as chairman of the board of directors of Immanuel Bible Institute in Cebu City.

THE REV. R. KENSINGER, missionary to Nicaragua for the past 20 years, will be the missionary speaker on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. Kensinger and his wife established the first Assemblies of God Church in the capital city, Managua, and guided the construction and operation of the Steelberg Memorial Evangelistic Center there.

Rev. Kensinger has served both as superintendent and vice-superintendent of the Assemblies of God in Nicaragua. For seven years he was also director of the national workers training center.

Honor Past Matrons

CLINTON — The Golden Rod Chapter, OES, entertained the Matron's Alumni of the Lenawee-Monroe Association, Thursday evening.

There were 130 persons in attendance with 15 chapters represented.

The group met in the chapter room for a business meeting preceding the dinner in the dining room at the United Church of Christ.

An election of officers was held for the new club which will be named the "Madonna Bettis" club in honor of Mrs. Donald Bettis, president of the Lenawee-Monroe Association. Mrs. Bettis served as installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Alice Ready of Monroe, the installing marshall.

President — Mrs. Alfred Edwards, Blissfield

Vice-president — Mrs. George Hassenzal, Clayton

Recording secretary — Mrs. Norman VanAuker, Fairfield

Corresponding secretary — Mrs. John Snyder, Adrian

Treasurer — Mrs. Melvin Ruettinger, Tecumseh

Cardboard dolls, cleverly garbed in bits of lace and ribbon and pinet decorated the tables where Mrs. Delmar Manchester and her committee served dinner in the church.

After dinner the group returned to the chapter room for a candlelight ceremony to initiate the new associate matrons. The initiating officer was Mrs. Thelma Swigert of Adrian, who has performed this service for the past [illegible] years.

Mrs. Bettis conducted a candlelight ceremony for her new officers.

Baptists Attend Potluck

Two were baptised Sunday afternoon by the Rev. Floyd Vaughn in the Bethel Baptist Curch at Adrian, since the local church does not as yet have the facilities for immersion.

They were Archie Gainey of Chicago and Jerry Allen Lake. Mrs. Lewis Lake played the piano for the service and Elmer House directed the singing.

Faith Circle Plans Project for Christmas

CLINTON — Members of the Faith Circle of the Methodist WSCS met with Mrs. Kenneth Smith, last Thursday night, and made plans to contact each of the 96 eligible members to invite them to the next meeting.

The circle Christmas project will be the sale of Michigan Meat cookbooks. They were distributed to the members at the meeting.

The proceeds will be used to meet the circle's pledge to the WSCS general fund.

Mrs. Roy Williams presented the devotions on the theme, "Peace."

Mrs. Jack Taffe, president, had charge of the diversion which was several word games.

Mrs. Taffe will be hostess for the Dec. 8 meeting.

Operation 500 At Half-Way

WASHINGTON — As its "Operation 500" moves toward the half-way mark, the Army Nurse Corps continues to urge civilian nurses to apply for an Army officer's commission.

Begun last month, the project has a recruiting goal of 500 civilian RNs by Dec. 31.

It's part of the Nurse Corps' major effort to meet an immediate need for 2,000 military nurses, an approximate 40% shortage.

DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING

DAIRY CALF LOSSES through diseases are costly and can usually be prevented with careful management. Keep calves clean and away from sources of infection by providing clean, draft-free pens. Apply iodine to the navel of newborn calves as soon as possible. Scours, pneumonia and blood poisoning can often be traced to an infected navel. Make sure each calf gets colostrum from the mother. Colostrum is very high in antibodies and other vital substances needed for disease resistance.

FEEDLOT CATTLE PLACEMENTS NEED A REST before going on full feed. Give the animals plenty of room and clean water and watch them close for signs of shipping fever. When sick animals are noticed, an immediate diagnosis by a veterinarian is important because respiratory diseases similar to shipping fever may appear. Immunization shots should be given to healthy animals only after a rest. Let calves rest at least 21 days but yearlings can be vaccinated sooner.

HOG MARKETING TIPS. Market Prices are affected by weight, size of lot, mealiness, uniformity and conformation. For top prices, Illinois economists recommend you market your hogs in as large and uniform lots as possible. Hogs weighing 200 to 220 pounds usually bring the top prices. Order buyers and commission firms tend to specialize in one or two weight classes. Know their preferences. Also watch market quotations and know what they mean.

SNOW FENCES set away from the farmstead will block snow drifts if they are set properly. Locate the fence at right angles to the prevailing wind and 85 to 100 feet from the farmstead. It should be a minimum of 4 feet high and preferably 6.

Parcels for Refugees

CLINTON — There is an urgent need for 200,000 parcels for the relief of refugees in Viet Nam, said Mrs. Edgar Randall, chairman of the Material Aid committee of the United Church of Christ in Clinton.

Mrs. Randall has received a communication describing the desire of the Vietnamese women to sew their own garments, since they do not like western style clothing, but would prefer to sew if only the materials could be obtained.

Anyone wishing to contribute such materials may leave them in the rear entry of the church or give them to Mrs. Randall.

Unusual postage stamps are also needed, any kind except the common 4 and 5 cent postage stamp. These are sent to refugees in German camps where it provides a source of income for them.

Stamps are to be cut from the envelope, being sure to allow sufficient room around the stamp to avoid damage to it.

Back in Hospital

Mrs. Clarence Francis re-entered Herrick Memorial Hospital Wednesday night for further medical treatment after being released earlier in the day. She had first entered the hospital on Sunday.

Army Will Call More Officers

FORT MONROE, VA. — The U. S. Continental Army Command has been notified that more lieutenants and captains and some majors in the Army Reserve may now be eligible for voluntary recall to active duty under new criteria announced by the Department of the Army.

Previously the age of an applicant could not exceed the total of 28 years plus his prior commissioned active service time, at the date of his re-entry on active duty. The new regulations permit an additional age waiver of one year for first lieutenants and two years for captains.

Writers Told—Get All the Facts

Keep stories concise and get in all the facts were bits of advice given at The Herald's annual Publicity Chairmen's Workshop Oct. 29 in the Community Center.

Thirty-one persons attended and each was presented a gold-plated Herald ball-point pen to help in future note-taking chores.

Co-Publisher Tom Riordan pointed out:

► Four W's — who, what, where and when — should be in opening paragraph of a news story.

► A fifth W — why — can be included, too, or could run as the second paragraph.

► Write meeting reports the next morning and sumbit to The Herald office immediately. Work on each issue starts immediately after the current one is printed.

► In money-making projects, The Herald will give ample stories beforehand and always insists a complete report of how much cash was earned and where it will be spent. This tells the public where its donations go, also protects officers from any suspicion that they personally are keeping it.

EDITOR TOM RIORDAN DISCUSSES PREPARATION OF COPY WIT H PUBLICITY CHAIRMEN AND BRITTON JOURNALISM STUDENTS

A touch of humor was added when, in the midst of a serious discussion, a woman in a gaudy hat burst into the room and demanded that her club report be put in the paper and "it has to run on the front page."

The gal turned out to be Herald bookkeeper, Mrs. Robert Hunt, who pretended to be a publicity chairman.

Her notes were jotted on the inside of a paper match container, along the edge of a phamplet and on the back of a grocery check-out receipt.

She was vague in identifying the hostess of the meeting, not being able to give her husband's first name.

Mrs. Hunt also produced a tiny snap-shot taken 20 years ago and requested it be run with the story.

"The girls didn't need a script," Mr. Riordan told the audience. "This has happened so often in the office they know all the lines by heart."

BUSY GIRL — Mrs. Kenneth Killman confirms a reservation for the 17th annual Holiday Ball. Advance tickets are available only from neighborhood chairmen and no admissions will be sold at the door.

High School Open House Attendance

Open houses at both junior and Senior High Schools were highly successful this year.

Neville Hart, principal of the high school, said that nearly 400 parents attended the event there with a lot of interest being shown. He said that the attendance was surprisingly good.

David Dick, principal of the junior high school, said that the attendance roll there indicated about 300 followed the typical school day with ten-minute class room sessions.

Mr. Dick said that he was open to suggestions for a change for open house next year.

Super Highway 5 Years Off

BLISSFIELD — It's still five years away, but the State Highday Department has revealed plans to change US-223 from a narrow twisting road to a four-lane divided highway.

Thirty-one miles of freeway, following the present general route from US-127 south of Cement City and proceeding diagonally to the Monroe County line, will be constructed at a cost of about $20 millions.

Surveys of the route will be completed in 1968, with contracts to be let in 1970.

WHILE SOME earlier reports indicated US-223 may by-pass Blissfield, there was no indication of this in the sketch marked by C. H. Boos, of the Motorist ervices division.

At the northwestern end of this 31-mile stretch will be 8.5 miles of freeway on US-127 in Jackson County from M-50 to the Hillsdale County line, and another five miles of freeway in Hillsdale to connect up with the Lenawee segment.

At the southeastern end of this 31-mile stretch in Lenawee County will be 4.5 miles of new road beginning at the Monroe County line and proceeding east to US-23 in Whiteford Township.

A public hearing already has been held on this phase of the program and highway department crews are at work surveying the route.

Widening of former M-151 and straightening also is to include construction of new entrance and exit ramps at the intersection.

THE OTHER Lenawee County highway project in the works is proposed construction by 1972 of 11.1 miles of US-12 freeway from M-50 at Cambridge Junction to M-52 at the north boundary of Lenawee at an estimated cost of $2,200,000.

Howard E. Hill, director, said the four-man State Highway Commission, to make an expanded road building program possible, has endorsed a revision of the state laws to increase motor fuel taxes by one cent per gallon and hike vehicle weight taxes which remain at 1932 levels.

If approved by the Legislature, this increase would net $78 million annually, of which $23.3 million would go to counties. The share reverted to cities and villages would go up also.

Little Danger of Losing War Says Fr. Lyons

"We should not prevent South Vietnam from using troops from Formosa," said the Rev. Fr. Daniel Lyons, S.J. Saturday evening as he spoke in the Catholic Central School Gym in Adrian.

"This would save the lives of American soldiers and shorten the war," continued the personable priest just returned from a special tour of South Vietnam.

"America has never lost a war and there is little danger that she will loose the war in Vietnam," he continued.

Fr. Lyons remarked that time is of great import, prolonged war would result in additional cost in lives and dollars.

The columnist and traveler opened his remarks by saying that democracy can survive only when there are small interested groups.

He said, "The ordinary citizen is the strength of our government. They arrive at sound decisions."

"The people who founded our government were strongly religious men. Our government was founded on Christianity. We are endowed by our Creator with certain inalienable rights. Freedom and responsibility go hand in hand.

Any government that can solve all of your problems will take away all of your freedoms. And if you doubt the value of freedom and want only security, why don't you get yourself locked up?

There is far more security in the penitentiary than there is sitting where you are," he said to his rapt audience.

"Human rights are infinitely worth more than civil rights," said Fr. Lyons. "People place no value on human rights. Those who want to March In Washington For Peace' telling the government to get out of Vietnam have no answer when they are asked what about the 14 million who would be, against their will, turned over to the communists."

"In 1964 the South Vietnamese were almost losing the war. When I was there in August and September of this year, there was a striking difference."

"The country has great potential. It is not much larger than Italy, 700 miles long and 125 miles wide, just 70 miles across at the border. The people there are as anti-communist as any in the world," remarked the annual visitor to Vietnam.

"We have no choice but to continue to aid them in their fight for freedom."

The interesting speaker was brought to Adrian by the Citizens for Good Government of Lenawee County.

Onondaga Ministry Accepted

TIPTON — The Rev. and Mrs. L. P. Buroker, for the past 11 years residents here, have moved to Onondaga.

While living in Tipton, Mr. Buroker served as pastor of the Ridgeville Bible Church in Jasper.

He also was editor and publisher of The Fundamental Fellowship a weekly religious newspaper, founded in 1941.

Mr. Buroker resigned the pastorate of the Ridgeville Church in September, sold all rights to The Fundamental Fellowship to Evangelist Billy Walker of Southgate.

He now is engaged in a full-time ministry with the Childs Bible Church in Onondaga.

Noi New Math Modern Piano

Two Plus Two Equals Twenty; Four Plus Four Equals Forty.

It wasn't modern math. It was piano duets. Two people used their combined total of 20 fingers; four piano players used their 40 fingers.

"Music From Two Pianos" was the theme at the November meeting of the Tecumseh Music Club.

Mrs. Fred Oberlin, program chairman for the evening, introduced the duetists.

The Misses Linda Halsey and Pat Cook played a suite for two pianos, "Cafe Society," by William Mundy. Later, Mrs. Owen Merrill teamed with Miss Halsey to play a second part of the Suite.

Mrs. Nicolaas DeWitt, a newcomer to Tecumseh, played with her daughter, Panchita, the three parts of Galluzzi's "Le Primo Concerto."

To close the program Mrs. Paul Brantingham and Mrs. Oberlin played Mischa Portnoff's "Playtime," an arrangement of childhood melodies.

Mrs. Waldron and Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney reported on the district meeting of the Federated Music Clubs which they attended in Howell.

Guests for the evening included: Miss Bertha LaPointe, Miss Jeanie Satterlee, Mrs. Richard Dustin, Miss Edith Ingersoll, an honorary member of the club, and Mrs. E. D. Halsey.

The next meeting of the Tecumseh Musc Club will be Dec. 14, at the home of Mrs. Orrie Gilbert. Mrs. Perry Hayden will have charge of the program on "Christmas Music."

Will Read Johnson's Statement

The reading of President Johnson's Thanksgiving Day proclamation will open the service Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 25, at 10:45 a.m. at the Christian Science Society, 111 N. Union St.

The public is invited to attend the service of hymns, scriptural reading, prayer, a lesson-sermon and testimonies from the congregation.

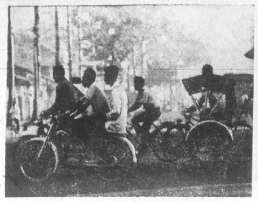
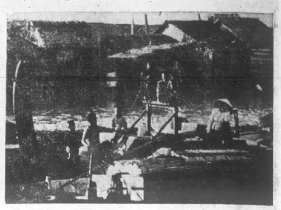
GI Tells Auxiliary 'Thanks'





PAUL SCOTT'S CAMERA RECORDED SCENES IN VIETNAM, WHERE HE IS STATIONED

"It means more than words can express to a GI a long, long way from home. I expected to be sent to Italy but instead I am at Vietnam. This remembrance came to me just before Christmas. Thank the Auxiliary for the gift and for remembering me. I was surprised that someone remembered besides my folks."

This was a part of the letter that Mrs. Lavern Seizert received last year from Paul E. Scott in Saigon, Vietnam, soon after Christmas.

Many others expressed their appreciation also.

Scott is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Scott, 419 W. Cummins St., and the serviceman is still in Vietnam this year.

Mrs. Seizert is chairman for the Underwood-Orr Post Auxiliary of the American Legion committee to obtain names and addresses of area servicemen.

She will be sending nearly 100 gifts from the Auxiliary to men and women in the armed forces again this year and requests cooperation of parents.

Mrs. Seizert's address is 7930 N. Adrian Hwy., and her phone number is 423-4017.

Classes Hold Dessert Lunch

CLINTON — Mrs. Elmer Johnson entertained at a dessert-luncheon meeting, last Thursday, attended by 24 members of the Philathea and Service classes of the United Church of Christ.

Mrs. Ben Mahrle assisted the hostess.

The Rev. Paul McKenna was present to show a film, "Breakthrough" on the subject of poverty and the church plan to make a major effort to alleviate its effect on people.

Mrs. Rosamond Jenkins presented the devotions.

Mrs. Linn Weaver read an article from The United Church Herald about the experiences of a young minister who is working with troubled people in Las Vegas.

The annual Christmas party will be a potluck supper on Dec. 9 at the home of Mrs. Leon Van Deusen.

Letters Read from Members Who Are Absent

There were 25 present.

They held a cake walk and nominated officers.

It was Roll Call night with letters read from absent members.

The Past Chiefs will meet Nov. 17 with Mrs. Richard Vollmer with Mrs. William Vollmer assisting.

A card was signed and sent to Glenn Kemp.

'Half Notes' Hear Solos by Members

Sixteen members and eight adult visitors attended the meeting of the "Half Notes" Nov. 12 at the Missionary Baptist Church.

Following assembly singing of "Now Thank We All Our God," new officers were installed by Mrs. H. D. Horning of Brooklyn, second vice-president of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs.

The next meeting will be held at the Friends Church with a program of Christmas carols.

Mrs. Burton Wright and Mrs. Harold Smith, counselors, invited parents and other interested persons to attend.

Refreshments were served by the counselors.

Family Travels All Over USA

BRITTON — Larry Smith will be the speaker at the Bethel Baptist Church Sunday for all services.

"Answering the Challenge of Chile" will be the theme of his messages.

Mr. mith, his wife Beverly and daughter Linda, are missionaries serving with the Association of Baptists for World Evangelism.

They will leave for language school in December if their support and passage is underwritten.

The family has traveled over 22,000 miles this year, participating in Daily Vacation Bible Schools, speaking in youth camps and in many churches.

★

Their work in Chile will consist of reaching the lost with individual salvation, upholding the faith of new Christians, training Chilean Christians for leadership in their own churches and establishing indigenous churches.

THE LARRY SMITH FAMILY

The Bible verse which inspires the Smiths in their work is 1 Cor. 15:58, "Therefore my beloved brethren be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord for as much as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

Four Dads on Program at Ridgeway

BRITTON — Over two-hundred were present Sunday evening when the Grace Methodist Church in Ridgeway was host to a Singspiration.

Choir selections were presented by several area choirs, including the Macon Methodist choir, the Grace Methodist choir, the Britton Congregational-Christian Choir and the Azalia Methodist Youth Choir.

Two selections by the Four Dad's Quartet from Tecumseh, as well as solo numbers and group singing, rounded out an enjoyable evening of music and fellowship.

The Rev. Robert A. Mitchinson gave the benediction and refreshments were served in the church dining room following the service.

Two Films

DEARBORN — Famous Early Movies, a weekly series that includes outstanding motion pictures of the past each Sunday afternoon in the Henry Ford Museum Theatre, presents a double feature Nov. 21, with Walt Disney's cartoon film, "Plane Crazy," and Emil Jannings, starring in "The Last Command."

The Sunday performances are scheduled at 2 and 4 p.m.

High Spots in Win Over Maples

HERALD PHOTOS BY JIM WILBAR

DEFENSIVE GEMS — A big factor in Tecumseh's 7-6 win over Adrian was the defensive play of the Indians, who made some key stops at crucial moments, like these two bits of action. ABOVE—THS Tri-Capt. Ron Bolz hauls down Maple ball carrier Tom Allen (15) with a sharp tackle. BELOW—Dean Hebb (22) rams into Adrian's Mike Linenkugel (22), who attempted to squirm under Dean, but found a solid right knee blocking the way.

CONVOY DUTY — Coach Tom Fagan sprang a spread formation on Adrian that set up blocking convoys like this. Ron Bolz (84) and Ray Schmidt (56) are leading Roger Young (30), who proved to be the Indian's most productive ball carrier, a role he shouldered most of the 1965 season, during which the Indians won six and lost three.

International Exposition Will Be Held

CHICAGO — Record high entries are building up for the 66th edition of the International Live Stock Exposition, the show management reports.

It will be held here Nov. 26 to Dec. 4 in the 13-acre International Amphitheatre at the Chicago Stock Yards. Its competitors will feature 37 different breeds of farm animals.

It is the country's final and largest stock show of the year. Stockmen call it "The World Series" wind-up of the hundreds of shows and fairs that are held annually preceding the Chicago exposition.

Farm youth will be in the limelight on the opening day, Friday, Nov. 26, as several hundred of them from many states stage a showing of top quality steers, lambs, and hogs they have raised as 4-H or Future Farmer of America projects. Most of their entries have been top winners at State and County Fairs earlier in the season.

Talent Scouts Seek Interest In Health Needs

ANN ARBOR — "Talent Scouts" from The University of Michigan School of Public Health combed nine central Michigan counties this week to seek responsible citizens interested in the future health of the region.

They hope to create a voluntary 40-man task force of area residents who will study the immediate and long-range needs of health programs in the area.

James Groen, David Ballinger, Arthur Ziegler and Dave Steinicke, staff members of the Michigan Community Health Services Study at the U-M, visited the nine central counties of Ionia, Clinton, Eaton, Ingham, Calhoun, Jackson, Branch, Hillsdale and Lenawee.

Dr. Vlado Getting, professor of public health administration and project director, said rapid advances in health technology, along with changes in economic and social conditions, improved transportation and population shifts have apparently opened the door for major advances in health services.

SQUIRREL WATCHING SOCIETY

With the exception of a few die-hards, who stubbornly refuse to give up, the leaves have all fallen and the trees are bare. Now the squirrel watching fun can really begin—and fun it is, too, because these little characters are always doing something to amuse.

Just lately the action was centered around walnuts. All day long we can see the bushy-tailed acrobats hauling their "freight" over the completed maze of tree roads.

This year the walnut crop, from our two trees at least, was unusually large. In fact, we reached the point where the yard looked as if it were carpeted with bumpy green chenille.

WHEN THE nuts started falling faster than the squirrels could carry them away and they laid on the grass so that one touched another and practically no grass could be seen, then it was time for a rake to come into play.

As it turned out, the making bit lasted for about three weeks and we were all wondering whether there was ever going to be an end to the walnuts.

There was, of course, but I am sure the squirrels are happy that it did not arrive until the raked-up pile of nuts reached a record size.

For a number of years now it has been our practice to build a pyramid of walnuts over the creek bank just in back of the white barrier which marks the end of Logan St.

★

THIS GETS them out of our way, makes them easily available to the squirrels and, best of all, affords us oceans of good looking.

Example — even as I am dictating this, a big fat squirrel, all ready for winter from the looks of his heavy fur coat, has rushed to the store-house.

I wonder why one nut is not as good as another? There must be a great difference because this fellow, just like all the others, picked up three or four black-hulled nuts and discarded them before finally finding one exactly to his liking.

Holding the large nut with his front paws, he stood up, oh, so tall, and proud, looked around for a moment as if surveying his kingdom, slouched down a little and is now quickly tearing away the dark messy shuck.

There, the nut is free and yes, he is following the regular routine — carrying it in his mouth, he is scampering up the mulberry tree to where he can jump to the elm and thus hit the super highway.

★

WHENEVER squirrel watchers get together, the discussion soon works around to wondering what happens to the nuts which are so carefully carted away in the fall.

Well, around here, I believe that most of them are painstakingly buried and then dug up for winter snacks.

The consensus seems to be that a ke[illegible] smell is used to find these hidden prizes. By the way, the next time you see a squirrel effortlessly chiseling his way through a hard shell of a nut, think about the fact that he is performing a dual-purpose feat.

He is getting ready for a tasty nibble, but he is also taking care of his teeth. Squirrel's teeth, just as those of the beaver, grow continually. They need constant honing, or wearing away, to be kept at the proper length.

★

ALL OF OUR squirrel watching, however, is not so pleasant. We have one little red squirrel in the neighborhood who refuses to believe that he is unwanted.

To put it even stronger, we wish to goodness that he would leave, beat it, scram, clear out. As cute as this little fellow is, with his snowy white tummy and rich reddish-brown back, his disposition is all nasty.

If only these bigger things would turn on him, but they don't and thus we continue to look at Little Red and wish he were elsewhere.

So it is that we are happy to call to order and convene this, the first winter session of the squirrel-watching society.

NEXT WEEK:
Welcome! Welcome! Welcome!

Gordon Greiman Rates as Expert in Firing M-79

FORT HOOD, Tex. — Army Specialist 4 Gordon C. Greiman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon G. Greiman, 9103 N. Union St., has qualified as expert in firing the M-79 grenade launcher.

Specialist-Greiman, a clerk in Headquarters Company, 1st Battalion of the 1st Armored Division's 6th Infantry at Fort Hood, entered the Army in December 1963 and completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

'Soul and Body'

What is the relationship between God and man? How does it help us overcome sin and disease? These are some of the questions to be explored at Christian Science churches throughout the world this Sunday. The subject is "Soul and Body."

Indianapolis Grandma Was Speaker

Mrs. Letta Shonle, an Indianapolis grandmother who went to South Africa to teach in a mission school, was speaker at the morning service of the Tipton Community Church, Sunday, Nov. 7.

She showed slides of her school to the Sunday School group and later talked at the Church Service.

She explained the need for more missionaries in the field and not only in foreign lands but in our own community. This is one of the services our mission money is used for and also new churches and buildings have been built at the Inanda Seminary.

Four Books Are Donated

Four books about the Civil War era, have been donated to Tecumseh residents by the Michigan Civil War Centennial Observance Commission.

They tell of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Dutch Churches, the Presbyterian Church and Catholicism in Michigan during the Civil War.

Anyone desiring the use of them may pick them up at the Tecumseh Herald office.

One Injured In Three-Car Chain Mishap

Melvin W. Stevenson, 18, of Temperance received a minor cut on the nose when his car was involved in a chain collision on M-50 west of Springville Hwy., friday evening.

Clinton State Police issued Stevenson a summons for failure to stop in the assured clear distance ahead when his car struck the rear of a car driven by Linda C. Perry, 18, of Teachout Rd., Tipton, pushing it into a car ahead driven by Vincent Clare Wallace, 70, of M-50, Onsted.

KEEP UP ON HOME TOWN — "It's great to read The Tecumseh Herald when you're away in service," says Pfc. Jerry Holdridge. He is home on leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holdridge, 502 Orchard Lane. Pfc. Holdridge earned a 31-day leave by graduating in the top of his class in radio and telegraph operator's school at Marine Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif. He will report to Camp Pendleton, Nov. 20, for overseas assignment. A 1962 Tecumseh High School graduate, he entered the service in January, 1965.

It's Planting Time for Trees

If your yard needs a large tree or two to give it a more established look, plant them this winter.

Winter months are an excellent time to transplant trees that are 15 to 20 feet high and three to four [illegible] in diameter at chest advce. This is the advice of Joseph Cox, extension specialist in landscape architeeture at Michigan State University.

He explains that trees are moved more easily in the winter because a ball of earth can be frozen around the root system and then the tree can be moved by a mechanical lift into a new hole without damaging the roots. This eliminates wrapping the roots in burlap, a necessary step during warmer months.

Cox advises selecting the spot for the new trees now while the ground is still soft and then bedding it down with straw so the area will not freeze. This will make it easier to dig the planting hole for the new tree.

Builders who want a finished landscape for new construction will find winter transplants both efficient and economical.

Strikes Rails

Paul Herbert Fisher, 17, of Tipton, escaped injury when he damaged and overturned his car at 11 p.m. Saturday on Tripp Hwy., east of Collier Hwy.

He was given a summons by Clinton State Police for reckless driving and failure to report a property damage accident.

MACON MAXIMS

By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE

The general meeting of the Macon Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet on Tuesday, Nov. 23, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Herman Melberand and daughter Hallie Jane will present a program "The Living In Space Age".

Mrs. Garland Osburn will give the devotion. Mrs. Guy Zelluff and her helpers, Mrs. Charles Howell, Mrs. Clare Camburn, Mrs. Andrew Goodin, Mrs. Melvin Travis, will serve.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lindsley and sons of Adrian were Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore entertained guests at a pre-Thanksgiving supper Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bruder and family, Mr. and Mrs. David Bruder of Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Carey Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Edward Furlong, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Bruder, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Carey Jr. and 3 daughters of Ypsilanti, Mrs. Albert Straub and daughters Cathy and Dawn of Belleville, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore and family and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Moore and son of Tecumseh. It was in honor of their son Airman First Class Richard Moore and wife of Phoenix, Arizona. Early Sunday morning they left by plane for their home after spending two weeks visiting relatives and friends.

Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rowe and family, were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Rowe and family of Deerfield and Mr. and Mrs. Gail Pant and family of Holland, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigelow entertained at Sunday dinner, in honor of their son Robert's birthday.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hendershot of Brooklyn. Mrs. Marie Lowery and daughter Lynn of Ann Arbor, Miss Rebekah Bigelow of Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. William Bigelow and son, Mr. Clayton Bigelow.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zick attended the silver anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Yuetter, Sunday afternoon, in the Rome Grange Hall.

√

The senior choir participated in the Singspiration held in the Grace Methodist Church in Ridgeway. Several from the Macon vicinity attended.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brusehabor and John McLain Jr. of Madison Heights, and Miss Marilyn Batchelder of Utica were Sunday dinner and supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore.

Mrs. Brusehabor and Mr. McLain are a niece and nephew of Mr. Moore.

Harold Kuder left Thursday for northern Michigan, for the deer hunting season.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITAKER

Responding to a call issued on Monday by Athletic Director Brother Romain Healy, C.S.C., were five of last year's varsity basketball lettermen—Moe Jacobs, Norris McFarland, Jim Cowan, Ray Lemanski and Thomas Blaney.

√

"Autumn Memories" was the theme of a dance attended by approximately 20 of Boysville's upperclassmen at the St. Joseph Academy at Adrian on Saturday. The dance was semi-formal and sponsored by the Academy's senior class.

√

Now on the altar of Boysville's Holy Rosary Chapel is a new set of white Mass vestments, imported from Holland. They are a product of the efforts of Boysville's Sunday collection and contributions of the Knights of Columbus.

√

Arc lamps, valued at $2,000, are providing better lighting at the Cinemascope movies viewed every Saturday night at Boysville's gymnasium.

√

With the beginning of the second quarter comes the assimilation of nine new students into the Boysville student body.

√

Report cards were issued this past week by School Principal Brother Jeffrey Michels C. S. C.

Results indicate that Martin Whittaker, Bill Kostka, Ron Cook and Pat Downey have achieved highest scholastic honors.

Kill Two Deer

Two deer were killed by drivers on US-12, Friday evening. The first mishap occurred at 5:45 near Devils Lake Hwy. when a deer ran in front of Michael Bujan, 36, of Warren.

Americans Are Showing Their Colors

The metal flags are symbols of The American Legion's "Operation Show Your Colors," which began this week all over the United States.

The plan involves the distribution of some 10 million American flag lapel pins across the country to be worn by all Americans who are in concert with United States Government policy in Vietnam.

★

EACH FLAG pin will be accompanied by a card carrying the message:

► "Operation Show Your Colors.

► Americans are serving the cause of freedom in Vietnam.

► I wear my country's flag to show that I support their efforts."

The Governor's office issued a proclamation in Lansing declaring the week of Nov. 7-13 as American Legion "Operation Show Your Colors Week" in Michigan.

Bartenslager Is Serving In Vietnam

CHU LAI, VIETNAM — Chief warrant officer Michael F. Bartenslager, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bartenslager of 600 Orchard Lane, is serving in the Chu Lai sector of Viet Nam with Navy Mobile Construction Battalion 10.

His battalion, which has been in Vietnam since early May, has recently completed an 8,000-foot expeditionary airfield, and is presently building additional facilities in support of Navy and Marine Corps units in and around Chu Lai.

Will Drop Minimum Requirement

The minimum height requirement for applicants to join the Michigan State Police has been lowered to 5 feet 9 inches to increase the number of good recruiting prospects, Col. Frederick E. Davids, department director, announced.

The minimum height requirement in recent years has been 5 feet 10 inches. A study, however, shows that between the new minimum and the old one there is available a large reservoir of young men well qualified to be troopers and this opportunity is now open to them.

In progress at East Lansing headquarters is the first of a series of recruit schools to add 200 troopers authorized by the 1965 legislature. Eight-week schools with no elapsed time between them will be held throughout this fiscal year to reach the new complement of 1,459 officers.

Trooper rank pay begins with the first day of recruit school and tops $6,100 in the first year with increases following automatically to $8,886. There also is a subsistence allowance and many other benefits. Promotions bring substantial pay increases and an officer may reture after 25 years of service at half pay which also protects his wife.

Marine Mechanic Daniel Griffin Is in Iwakuni

IWAKUNI, JAPAN — Marine Corporal Daniel W. Griffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert I. Griffin of 307 Stacy St., is an aircraft mechanic while serving as a member of the First Marine Aircraft Wing at the Marine Corps Air Station, Iwakuni.

The wing provides direct air support to the infantrymen of the Third Marine Division who operate throughout the Far East.

During his tour of duty in Japan he will have the opportunity to learn much of Japan's cultural arts and customs.

BEAUTIFUL LANDMARK — North of Britton, the Emmanuel Lutheran Church graces farms and fields located along Ridge Highway.

Drobena in Fourth Year

By DICK CARVER

BRITTON — About five miles north of M-50 on the Ridge Hwy., one suddenly comes upon a point of beauty gracing the farming area.

The Emmanuel Lutheran Church, a modern, yet rustic structure serves a congregation of approximately 70 families. The church has a capacity of 300 persons.

Its construction, with natural wood beams and high pitch ceiling, adds an air of the medieval sanctuary that once served the Lutheran religion.

The lower level, opening onto a 10-acre plot, has a large, well-furnished kitchen and banquet room that doubles as curtained classrooms for Sunday School classes.

The Emmanuel Lutheran confirmation classes recently changed in nature when continuous classes from the fourth grade to confirmation were adopted.

The program has been labeled [illegible] competing for week day time is the Thursday evening Walther League meeting.

Regular Sunday services are held at 10:30 a.m.

The Rev. Thomas Drobena and his wife, Irene, have served the church since 1962. They have three children, Deborah, 4; James, 2; and Rebekah, 9 months.

Before accepting this pastorate Mr. Drobena attended the University of Chicago, Valparaiso University and Concordia Theological Seminary in Springfield, Ill.

He interned at Smithville, Ontario, Canada, and was pastor of the only Chinese Lutheran Congregation in the United States in New York City.

At present Mr. Drobena is the chaplain of the Adrian Post, United States Air Force, with a rank of First Lieutenant.

Tells of Girls State Activity

During the business session members voted to send three girls to the American Legion sponsored Wolverine Girl's State again next year.

Mrs. Larry Kanous gave a report on the Fall Conference which she and Mrs. Donald Woods attended.

Mrs. LeVern Seizert gave a report on rehabilitation and announced that the gift shop open house at the Veteran's Hospital in Ann Arbor will be held Dec. 5 from 2 to 5 p.m.

A thank you note was read from Kathy Hall, secretary of the Student Council, thanking the Auxiliary for the flags given to the high school.

Mrs. Kanous and Mrs. Donald Maves are in charge of ticket sales for the child welfare holiday drawing to be held Dec. 16.

First prize is $100; second, $75 and third is $50 with the proceeds to be used for child welfare.

St. Elizabeth Altar Society Plans Retreat

The Day of Recollection, Dec. 1, from 4 to 9 p.m., was announced by President Mrs. Robert Laidlaw at the St. Elizabeth Altar Society meeting last Wednesday evening.

Fr. J. Devaney, C.P., of St. Paul Monastery, Detroit, will conduct the retreat.

Mrs. Laidlaw said that all members and interested ladies are welcome to attend.

A Pantry Shower for the nuns of St. Elizabeth School will be Nov. 22, 23 and 24. School children may bring items these three mornings.

An interesting speech was given by Father James Macy, A.B., M.A., Assistant Professor in Speech at the Sacred Heart Seminary, Detroit.

He explained that the seminarians, like all college students of today, are a questioning and concerned generation. They are given more freedom, encouraged to participate in cultural activities.

They also act as big brothers, help in hospitals, orphanages and boys' camps. This helps prepare them for their vocation in the priesthood.

So far this year the Altar Society has 17 new members; Mrs. Kenneth King, Mrs. Edward Rapin, Mrs. Jerome Kuawa, Mrs. Rudy Grua, Mrs. Gene Tyrer, Mrs. Donald Twite, Mrs. Lawrence Bilkie, Mrs. Dominic Conklin, Mrs. James Robideau, Mrs. George DiCarlo, Mrs. Eugene Froelich, Mrs. Daniel Walsh, Mrs. (Helen) Smitha, Mrs. Joseph Conklin, Mrs. Murray Palmer and Mrs. Richard Crampton.

Dessert was served by the hostess, Mrs. Joseph Tressler, and her committee consisting of Mrs. Burt Folk, Mrs. James Tressler, Mrs. Charles Fitch, Mrs. Lawrence Cote, Mrs. Zell McCarty, Mrs. Ambrose Clay, Mrs. Walter Mueller and Mrs. E. J. Crawford.

Hunters Cause Square Dance Cancellation

Deer hunting has caused the Tecumseh Square Dance Club to cancel the regular November Dance.

Officers have extended an invitation to the public, however, to attend the Christmas dance Saturday, Dec. 11, at the Products Union Hall.

Music will be by the Stump Jumpers from Ypsilanti.

Local Students Receive All A's In MSU Study

EAST LANSING — Michigan State University has honored 433 students who have achieved all-A records spring and summer terms.

Names of the students have been inscribed on the All-A honor roll, which offers "recognition of the highest attainment of scholarship."

The students were feted at a dinner given by Dr. John A. Hannah, MSU president.

Among those honored were:

Thomas R. Hicks, son of Mrs. Wilma Sisty of Tecumseh and Troy R. Hicks of 9300 Macon Rd., sociology, spring term.

Timothy Sisson, son of Helen Sisson, 200 Chippewa and Sam Sisson of Tecumseh, social science, spring term.

Fails to Yield

Robert E. Matheny, 20, of Adrian, was given a summons by Clinton State Police, Friday afternoon, when he failed to yield the right of way as he drove out of a private drive onto M-52.

Mrs. Buehrer Is Honored With Corsage

Mrs. Carl Buehrer of Adrian was presented an orchid corsage Friday evening at the first meeting of the Camp Fire Girls Alumni Association in Adrian.

Mrs. Buehrer, a paid Camp Fire executive came from Fremont, O., in 1922 and founded Lenawee County's first Camp Fire group in Tecumseh.

She organized groups soon after in Clinton and Adrian.

Mrs. Louis S. Schneider was one of the first leaders in Tecumseh and Mrs. Buehrer remarked "a very good one."

The Senior girls, called the Horizon Club, presented a program Friday evening.

The next meeting of the newly organized alumni group will be held in the latter part of January. All past and present members of Camp Fire Girls living in Lenawee County — both girl and volunteer — are invited to attend.

The engagement of Kathryn Ann Tressler to John Gregory Hoover is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Tressler, 303 Chippewa St. Mr. Hoover is the son of William R. Hoover of Country Club Rd. in Adrian. A summer wedding is being planned.

Garden Club Will Meet

The Tecumseh Garden Club will meet Nov. 19 in the home of Mrs. Archie Dunsmore, 304 N. Van Buren, at 2 p.m.

Every member is asked to bring guests to view the movies on Christmas decorations and enjoy the tea to be served afterwards by the hostess and the co-hostesses, Mrs. Clayton Bigelow and Mrs. Marshall Coulter.

Michigan State University scientists predict by 1980 dairy processing firms will be making "instant" cheese with a spray dried process.

CHEVROLET WORKPOWER

WITH DOUBLE-STRONG CONSTRUCTION

Chevy pickups for '66 are built strong to stand up to tough jobs. Cabs, for example, have double-wall roof construction, a rigid double-wall cowl and husky framing around door openings. Lower side panels of Fleetside models are also double-walled. Chassis, too, is designed for extra strength. You can get a 6½-, 8-, or 9-ft. body and a big new 250-cu.-in. Six. Or specify a rugged 327-cu.-in. V8. Get a double-strong pickup that's a glutton for work!

Public Will Inspect $4 Million Facility

On land that once grew lush fields of alfalfa, wheat, corn and oats, some radically different crops now are being produced — seat covers, door trim pads, sun visors. In little more than one year an entire countryside along Occidental Hwy., just south of this community, has been transformed. Standing in striking majesty is Fisher Body Division's newest trim fabricating plant, a $4 million facility now employing 850 and expected to have 1,000 on its payroll by 1966. The firm is holding a Dedication and Open House this Thursday and Friday (details in story on page 9), in order that area residents can see how General Motors' car upholstery is fashioned.

More Fun Than Frisco

Start on GM Plant Boom for Tecumseh

BY ROBERT A. HOVING

Citizen Patriot National News Editor

TECUMSEH — General Motors Corp. sent off its new $8,000,000 Fisher Body Division plant with a bang here Thursday.

The boom of 22 sticks of dynamite punctuated ground-breaking ceremonies for a new industry that will provide 1,000 jobs to put zing in the economy of this expanding community 60 miles southeast of Jackson.

With 2,000 persons watching, the dynamite was touched off by Robert H. Gathman, General Motors vice president and general manager of the Fisher Body Division, with an assist from Gov. George W. Romney.

Romney flew back to Michigan from San Francisco, where he was trying to hammer some of his views into the Republican platform to be presented at the GOP National Convention.

"Twenty-five years ago," he said, "there was a very limited selection of body styles, colors, interior fabrics and other options available to the car-buying public.

"For the 1964 model run, Fisher Body is producing 137 body styles for General Motors cars and is fabricating more than 600 different interior trim combinations. Next year these numbers will be even greater."

The Tecumseh plant will contain almost 300,000 square feet of floor space. The 1,000 men and women who will work there will receive bolts of cloth and coated fabrics and convert them into seat upholstery, door trim pads, headlinings, sun visors and other soft trim items.

Annual expenditures for payroll and local purchases is expected to reach $9,000,000. The factory will be completed in about a year.

Gathman, who also spoke at a dinner in the Tecumseh Country Club, said that on the basis of Fisher Body's experience in operations similar to that scheduled for Tecumseh, about 200 carloads and truckloads of incoming materials will be required annually to take about [illegible] year to [illegible] finished [illegible] Body and assembly plants [illegible] country.

The Tecumseh [illegible] require approximately [illegible] the employees to [illegible] start in [illegible]

The upholstery facility was a totally unexpected windfall for this community, but almost all of the other new plants have been the result of long civic effort.

Tecumseh, itself, received several companies that were lured here from Adrian, 11 miles to the south.

Among the industrial development group headed by Jack Osborn in financing have been Gray Manufacturing Co., Detroit, which moved here from Adrian 10 years ago, and Osborn Manufacturing Co., a professional engineering firm which moved here from Adrian three years ago to add 11 W. people. Osborn also leased so that it could expand when [illegible] additional lease on [illegible] plan about three years ago.

TRANSPORTATION A GM FIRST. The Fisher-Tecumseh Plant is the first plant in General Motors to have been assigned all 60 feet long railway cars serviced by the Detroit-Toledo & Ironton RR. Each car contains 6,015 cubic feet of shipping space. There are in-plant railroad facilities for handling twelve 60-feet-long special trim shipping cars.

FIRE PROTECTION The plant is protected by a modern fire alarm system complete with sprinkler coverage and in-plant trained fire brigade. Three large water tanks hold 1,500,000 gallons of water for use in the event of a fire.

POWER HOUSE 2 BOILERS — The primary fuel is natural gas, the standby fuel is oil, each with a capacity of 30,000 pounds of steam per hour.

POWER — Annual consumption of electricity of 7,058,824 kilowatt hours — equal to that used on a yearly basis by over 2,650 average sized homes.

RAW MATERIALS Plant has a capacity to consume approximately 5,739,600 yards annually for soft trim material.

SAFETY The Tecumseh Plant is desirous of protecting its employes at all times. This is facilitated by an intense and perpetual Safety Program. The entire purpose of the Safety Program is to protect the employe from injury. Safety equipment, including safety glasses, is issued as required to the employe for his protection.

YEARLY OUTPUT Plant has a capacity for 1 million sets of interior trim upholstery.

Trac Rack Bins Reach to Ceiling

This is the first unit of its kind in existence whereby material in a storage container is stored automatically. This modern facility, automatically controlled from a remote console, uses 6 stacker cranes to store and retrieve material up to an elevation of 40 feet into 2,544 bin openings

Like Magicians, Trac Rack Operators Move Materials

The operator can control all storage operations, into or out of the rack system, from the remote control consoles. When an incoming load is deposited on the "pick-up-station", the operator can refer to his file card system to assign a storage location for incoming loads. After the operator has selected a cubicle location from the incoming load, he then puts the location address on his control console. If, at the same time, the operator desires to remove a load, he addresses the proper location on his console. Once the control console has been properly addressed, the stacker then automatically stores loads to the selected cubicle. After depositing the incoming load, the stacker moves directly after the outgoing load. The outgoing container is removed from storage and deposited on the outgoing "pick-up-station".

Open House Guests Will View Newest Methods, Equipment

Visitors to the new Fisher Body plant in Tecumseh on Nov. 18 and 19 will observe one of the most modern automotive upholstery trim fabrication operations in the industry.

In the plant, which will employ about 1,000 when in full production, guests will see the interior trim being fabricated for Oldsmobile F-85, Pontiac Tempest and Buick Special automobiles.

Fisher Body Tecumseh produces seat cushions and backs, door trim, headlining and sunshades in 275 different color combinations for 51 various body styles of the F-85, Tempest and Special.

Touring guests will see in action 13 dielectric presses, three cutting presses, 300 sewing machines including 20 multiple needle machines, and five one-hundred foot long lay cutting tables where as many as seventy-five layers of trim material can be cut simultaneously.

Visitors will be able to see the Fisher Body "Trac Rack" system in operation. This is an automatic storing and recovery unit which, when operated from a remote control switchboard, is programmed to select and recover or store in certain bins, the many different kinds and colors of materials needed for trim fabrication.

The Tecumseh Fisher plant, which will consume nearly five and three-quarter million yards of material in making one million trim sets annually, is serviced by over 150 local suppliers.

For refreshments during the plant tour, visitors will be served in the modern Fisher cafeteria which has a seating capacity to accommodate over 450 employes at each lunch period.

The plant also has a modern medical department which is staffed with professional medical personnel and has the latest instruments and equipment for service to all employes.

The Occidental Highway plant will be open to guests beginning at 4 p.m. Thursday afternoon, Nov. 18, and from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. and 4 to 8 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 19, according to plant manager, Lewis J. Lamm.

Visitors will be treated to a look at the futuristic Chevrolet Mako Shark II Corvette.

Limited parking space at the plant prompted the Fisher officials to arrange bus service to the plant from downtown locations in Adrian and Tecumseh every half hour during the open house.

In Adrian, the Fisher Body bus will leave from and return to the northeast corner of Main at Maumee. In Tecumseh, the bus will travel back and forth to the plant from the northeast corner of Chicago at Evans.

LET'S ALL JOIN THE OPEN HOUSE CELEBRATION

AT FISHER BODY OF TECUMSEH

We, of Consumers Power Company, urge everyone in this area to join in the big, Open House celebration at Fisher Body of Tecumseh. We are, indeed, pleased to have the opportunity of touring this impressive new G. M. facility that has generated so much pride and enthusiasm in and around Tecumseh.

We are delighted that G. M. has selected this community as the site for its upholstery trim plant. That decision confirms our long-held belief that Tecumseh is a good place to live, work and play.

May we take this opportunity to publicly reaffirm our "welcome to this area" to Fisher Body Division of General Motors and to its employees. We pledge to do our utmost to serve the electric and natural gas needs of this plant, and of the new households that will surround it.

14,212 Guests Inspect Fabulous New Fisher Body Plant

By TOM RIORDAN

For the two-day Open House at the new Tecumseh upholstery trim plant last week, 14,212 guests dropped by.

► Accepted as gifts 14,998 key chains.

There was a steady flow of visitors most of the open house hours Thursday and Friday, with giant crowds both evenings. In fact, on Friday night, the party was extended an extra hour because people kept coming.

FISHER FOLKS were thrilled with the reponse to their invitation to the entire Lenawee County community to see the 330,000 square feet plant, which daily is turning out 2,000 sets of soft trim for Oldsmobile and Pontiacs.

Guests were impressed with many aspects of the plant and it would be difficult to pinpoint what fascinated them most. However, the experimental Mako Shark II probably would rate a choice of many.

The automatic storage system —only one of its kind in the world—had visitors blinking. In recent weeks, Fisher engineers have also had a few blinks over it as the bugs are worked out.

Watching the driver-less trucks haul materials, following grooves in the floor, kept clusters of folks rooted like statues as guides proudly explained the unique arrangement.

Thirteen giant dielectric presses, which fuse layers of materials into door panels, also drew their share of admiring stares.

★

VISITORS entered the main door of the plant, were routed through a portion of the offices and into the plant proper.

The wide walkways were marked by arrows and ribbons as regular operations in the manufacturing section continued as usual.

While the plant was being inspected, manager Lewis Lamm was congratulating the community and his co-workers here, "95% of whom are local people, who live within a 25-mile radius. One had never been in a trim plant six months ago and only a very few had ever been inside an industrial plant.

"I am enthusiastic about the caliber of people we have been able to recruit in this area. Most of our supervision and all of our production people are local men and women," he added.

Out of the 880 now on the payroll, only 49 people were brought from other Fisher Body locations. The remainder were trained at Tecumseh.

"The normal training period of production workers in a trim plant is about two years," he said. However, we have accelerated this and after six months, quality of works going out of this plant is very good and the assembly plants are happy with our product.

"All of our schedules have been met and exceeded. By the first of the year, we expect to be not only on an equal footing with the rest of the plants, we have every intention of being the best in the circuit,' he said.

MR. LAMM had high praise for the community.

"Here we are extremely fortunate. A good plant location means many things, but most of all it means good government, good utilities and a good attitude on the part of its people.

"It got that way because of excellent industrial, civic and governmental leadership," he added.

JIM HOWARD

2 Help Found Insurance Firm

A former Tecumseh High School mathematics instructor and a local business executive are directors of the newly-formed Summit Life Insurance Co. of Jackson.

Capitalized at $12 million, the firm has among its 21 incorporators Jim Howard, one-time teacher and insurance salesman, and Ford Mudgett of Adrian, owner of Quik-Chek, Inc. of Tecumseh.

Mr. Mudgett's firm, which is located at 210 S. Evans St., is a distributor of television tube-checking equipment.

Following nearly a year of organization, the new insurance company has been granted permission by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission to offer its stock for sale to the general public.

Summit plans to sell three million shares, at $4 each, explains Charles B. Clemons, president and chief executive officer.

The 21 incorporators subscribed for 150,000 shares at a cost of $600,000.

★

MR. HOWARD, who now lives in Brooklyn in order to be closer to the company's Jackson headquarters, is well known in this area.

Following his graduation from Eastern Michigan University in 1954, he taught in Tecumseh until 1962, being regarded as one of the school's most popular instructors.

He resigned to enter the insurance business, first as a salesman for Mutual of New York and then to hire and train new agents.

Mr. Howard became associated with Summit in January, being named vice-president, director of agencies, as well as holding a board of director post.

★

INSTRUMENTAL in the formation of Summit, he will participate in the sales of stock as a licensed securities agent.

"The future for such a company is exhilarating because of the many and diversified needs for its products and the rapidly expanding population," Mr. Howard noted.

Rev. Hawthorne Leads Service of Thanksgiving

The pastor of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, the Rev. Frank Hawthorne, will be the speaker at the annual Union Thanksgiving Service Wednesday, Nov. 24, at 8 p.m. at the Tecumseh Friends Church.

This service is under the auspices of the Tecumseh Area Ministerial Association and is for the public.

Other area ministers will participate and the choir of the host church will sing

"Praise to the Father" by Gounod and "Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem" by J. H. Maunder.

TWO LIBRARY WINDOWS WILL COST $343 TO REPLACE

Hurled Beer Bottles Make $1,100 Damages

Glass breakage, amounting to over $1,100, was reported by two Tecumseh businesses and the public library over the weekend.

Each window is approximately 7' x 9' and total cost for replacement was $343.

Two large panes also were broken at the A&P, and Jack Osburn, owner of the building, reported damages over $550.

A beer bottle was hurled completely through one window and the second was cracked.

Del King, owner of the Party Shop had a 6' x 12' pane ruined when vandals threw another beer bottle.

Like the A&P incident, it went completely through the window, and it too occured Saturday night. The Party Shop loss was $214.

Damages at both businesses were covered by insurance, but librarian Mrs. Jule Fosbender reported damage there will have to be paid out of the book buying fund since educational buildings are not covered by insurance due to abnormally large premiums.

Another business, Osburn Insurance and Real Estate, barely missed when the culprits took aim with a soft drink bottle and hit the brick just outside the firm's front window.

Police, investigating the malicious destruction, have several leads.

Viet Cong Sniper Hits GI

A Tecumseh GI has been wounded in Vetnam.

Sgt. John Browne suffered a fractured jaw when hit by a sniper's bullet and has been flown to Walter Reed Hosptal for treatment.

With an airmobil unit from Ft. Benning, Ga., Sgt. Browne had arrved in Vietnam in September.

He was wounded Nov. 15.

HIS MOTHER, Mrs. Dean Delker, 332 N. Union St., learned of the mishap last week when Sgt. Browne appeared on a television show from an army hospital in Vietnam.

Monday night, she spoke with her daughter-in-law, who earlier that evening had talked with the sergeant upon his arrival in Los Angeles en route to Washington.

He is now confined to St. Joseph's Hospital in Ann Arbor, where surgery is being considered.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

If a person is going to teach a college course, it's a good idea to keep up on the subject.

That's the philosophy of Sister Ann Joachim, a Dominican nun from Siena Heights College, who bounces around like a basketball.

Constantly on the move, she has been all over the United States and abroad, most recently in Russia.

Why did she make the junket to the Soviet Union?

Well, she has a course in Russian history coming up and there was the desire to see the land first-hand before trying to teach about it.

Now, don't get the idea Sister Ann Joachim has an unlimited expense account from her community. Actually, much of her travel is done on official business for the Dominican Order.

Besides being a social studies professor, she is a lawyer and it's amazing how much road work is needed to handle the legal matters for the far flung educational properties of the Dominicans.

The run to Russia was not on legal business, but sort of a working vacation. As she gathered information for the coming course, while being accompanied by a nun-companion, her sister and her sister's granddaughter, she was also busy snapping color pictures.

Since her return, Sister Ann Joachim has been in wide demand to speak on Russia and show the slides.

Up to last weekend, Sister had made 45 talks and received gifts of $15,000 — which goes into a building fund for the Order.

THERE WERE two speaking dates in Cleveland for her last Wednesday and Thursday, then the drive back to Adrian Friday morning — with $650 for her troubles.

Most of us would have been glad to be home — and the Dominican Motherhouse has been her home for much of the past 37 years Sister has been a nun.

But not Sister Ann Joachim,

Nazarene Church Planned

The Church of the Nazarene, Tecumseh, is planning sanctuary and education-fellowship building construction amounting to $125,800.

The cost will include remodeling work on the parsonage.

The new structure is hexagonal with classes and service rooms surrounding the main sanctuary. The central room will seat 176 persons in 12 stands of pews.

Light will be partially natural by way of overhead windows, with the entire structure topped by a tall spire.

The educationaal addition, planned for a future date, will stand adjacent to the central sanctuary and will be connected to that structure.

A spacious parking area will provide easy accessibility and park area, belonging to the city, will give the entire scene a touch of additional beauty.

Gifts Aplenty Chances Free

Over the next four weeks, Tecumseh merchants will be giving away $588 in gifts.

Beginning Dec. 3, storemen are going to hold a drawing each Friday night until Christmas.

There is nothing to buy. Folks just have to fill out a chance at any or all of the stores displaying the Christmas Gifts Aplenty poster.

Entrants must be at least 13 years of age.

Hold Public Euchre Party

A public euchre party will be held at the Grange Hall Saturday, Nov. 27, at 8 p.m.

Sandwiches and cookies will be served for refreshments.

Engineer Joe Reeson Dies at 65

Joe Reeson, 65, resident field engineer for the Argonaaut Division of General Motors who was in charge of building the Tecumseh Fisher Body plant, died Monday in Lansing.

Services will be held Wednesday at 1 p.m. from the Northrup Funeral Home in Detroit.

Mr. Reeson resided at 415 W. Chicago Blvd., during construction of the plant, recently moving to Lansing where he was engaged in an enlargement project for Oldsmobile.

He was in Tecumseh Saturday to snap some color pictures of the plant and visit with officials of Fisher Body.

Hold Hearing On Planned Redistricting

A public hearing on school district reorganization in Lenawee County will be held Monday, Nov. 29, in Madison School at 7:30 p.m. with all interested persons invited to attend.

The reorganization plan which is ready to be submitted to Lansing by the Dec. 30 deadline would establish four K-12 districts, as follows:

Adrian Distrct is unaffected, remaining the same.

TV Program Will Discuss School Plan

A televison program regarding school district reorganization will be shown Monday, Nov. 29, at 8 p.m. on WMSB-TV Channel 10.

The program has been developed by the Michigan State University assisted by the Michigan Education Association staff.

Included will be a panel discussion in which the viewing public may participate by calling in questions by telephone.

Film interviews of three school districts in southern Michigan will be shown.

Vocational Training Center Helps Draw Industry

Vocational education has vast potentials within the American economy.

This point was emphasized by an Ohio school superintendent, who manages a giant vocational program, while speaking at a session in Madison School Thursday for educators and interested layman of Lenawee County.

Dr. William L. Ramsey, head man of Penta County Area Vocational School at Rossfold, told about the program which has brought nationwide reknown — and new industry — to that section of Ohio.

He conceived the idea of a broad vocational training program on the basis of his experiences in all phases of elementary, high school and college education and his managerial work in a number of industrial positions.

PENTA at present has 1,100 students and is in operation 14 hours a day, 12 months of the year.

The school serves the needs of business and industry at the level of high school, college and adult education.

It is estimated that in 10 years the program will be educating over 13,000 individuals per year in its five counties, located around Toledo in suburban and rural districts.

Offered so far are courses in six areas — agriculture, business, trade and industrial training, distributive education in retail selling, etc. Home economics and occupational work experience.

The latter is an effort to motivate drop-outs back into learning with a combination of job placement and further education.

At present 68 vocational units are taught, leading to 300 occupations. The essential motivating goal of the program is to develop the individual capacity for employment.

Surrounded by industrial parks, the Penta County Vocational School has attracted international industries because of the supply of competent skilled manpower it is able to furnish.

★

AFTER Dr. Ramsey's address individual sessions of the School Board Association and the various committees of the Lenawee County Vocational Survey were held.

The organization has 150 persons participating with Philip Bailey, vocational consultant to the Lenawee County intermediate school districts.

He is conducting a study of the vocational training needs in Lenawee county. The ultimate goal of the survey is to develop programs and facilities that will produce employable skills for youth and adults.

Committee chairmen are:

Manpower — John Comstock

Existing and proposed programs, — Donald Whitney

Students, graduates and parents — Jerry Horkey

Financing and administering programs — William Rich

Population and publicity — the Rev. Julian Gresham

Drop-outs, job upgrading, retraining and apprentices — Joseph Winger.

★

SESSION was organized jointly by the Lenawee County School Board Association, whose president, Walter Graves, welcomed the speaker, and the Lenawee County Vocational Survey Committee.

Instead of calling it a week, she was off with a class in Middle Eastern history which she teaches for a Friday night, Saturday and Sunday conference at Alma College.

My wife is a member of the group and so this writer went along as a driver, attending most of the sessions.

It was a fabulous conference with some real big names on the agenda — guys like John Badeau, former United States ambassador to the United Arab Republic, who gave an excellent talk on Ekypt.

But to me, the most fascinating thing was the way Sister was on tap from early morning to late

A guy could write all day about this nun, who looks so stern most of her students are scared to death of her, but who is a deeply considerate person with a great sense of humor. She just wants her scholars to work as intently on the job at hand as she does.

LIKE THE Horatio Alger story of old, Sister started working at age 13, when her father died. She completed high school at night, went to Detroit Law College and was admitted to the bar in 1922.

After working as a partner in a Detroit law firm for six years, she decided to become a nun.

Ali told she has earned a half dozen degrees, including a doctorate, magna cum laude, at the University of Fribourg in Switzerland.

In 1936, she was the first nun admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court.

Over the years her accomplishments — as a teacher and lawyer — have been monumental.

But most of all, she has had a boundless energy and intellectual curiosity that leaves folks half her years staggering behind in the distance.

Women Send Cheer Boxes

A Christmas party will be held jointly with the Grange at the Tipton Community Church Dec. 11 at 7:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served and there will be treats for the children.

Christmas cheer boxes will be packed at the church Dec. 22, and will be delivered by the choirs and other members wishing to go caroling. It was decided to send boxes to soldiers from the community in South Vietnam.

Names may be left with Mrs. Grover Swarts. A study group will meet mornings, starting in January with the day to be set later.

The "Thanksgiving" theme was used by Mrs. Merrick Dibble for the devotions. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Present County Project Awards

County Achievement project awards were recently presented to members of the Tipton Jets 4-H Club:

Frank Crosby Steve Church, Jim Linger, John Gebarokski — junior electricians.

Ben Osburn — advanced electrician.

Paula Moller — secretary.

Conne Anderson — treasurer.

Shirley Allen, Susan Ries — food.

Gary Ries — dairy.

Ann Moller — dairy showmanship.

Greg Hardy — leadership I Dare You award.

The electrical club was named second in the county.

Pennie Marie Davis and Mike Walter Exchange Vows

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Davis, 320 W. Brown St., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh T. Walter, 1013 Red Mill Dr.

Mrs. Katharine Hunt presented nuptial music on the organ as the guests were seated by Thomas Walter, brother of the groom, William Davis, brother of the bride and Ralph Wingerter of Lombard, Ill.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a floor length gown of Angel crepe featuring a rounded neckline with raised waistline accented with Alencon lace and three-quarter length sleeves.

Her petal crown was worn high with a shoulder length veil and she carried a cascade arrangement of pink roses with white streamers.

Mrs. Walter Adams of Lima, O. was matron of honor in a high waisted floor length sheath gown with a deep pink brocade bodice and skirt of soft petal pink crepe.

The paneled train was accented with a Dior bow. She wore a Dior bow and circular train on her head and carried an old fashioned bouquet of pink carnations, backed with netting.

Annette Linger was the bridesmaid attired the same as Mrs. Adams. Henry Norlin of Wyoming, cousin of the groom, was best man.

MRS. MIKE WALTER

A reception for 100 guests was held in the church social rooms with Fay McClure, Barbara Gibson, Carol Greiman and Mrs. Thomas Walter assisting wth the serving.

Guests attended from Sussex, England; Ohio, Illinois, New York and Flint, Lansing, Wyoming and Niles.

The bride is a graduate of Lima Senior High School in Lima, Ohio, and is employed in the engineering department of the Tecumseh Products Co.

The groom's parents entertained at Don's Beef Buffet for the rehearsal dinner Friday evening.

The newly married couple will live at 306½ Chippewa St.

Macon Club Will Donate To Institute

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hendershot of Brooklyn were hosts for the Macon Community Club, last Tuesday. Following a dessert lunch, Clayton Bigelow conducted a small business meeting.

It was decided to give $5 to the Lenawee Institute on Sutton Rd. The January meeting is to be with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigelow.

Mrs. Ralph Halladay played two piano selections and accompanied the group as they sang songs. Mrs. Charles Gorton Sr., read "America On Its Knees," written by Carleton Hilton.

The program closed by everyone singing "Bless Be The Tie That Binds." Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Collins of Timber Lake, Mr. Lawson and his aunt Miss Catherine Lawson of Deerfield, Mrs. Marie Lowery and daugter of Ann Arbor, and Mrs. William Grigg of Tecumseh were guests.

What Is Thanksgiving?

Thanksgiving is trees wearing orange and gold
And brown-tinged leaves everywhere,
It's orange pumpkin ripe on the vine
And the feel of crisp autumn air.
It's families visiting with relatives
And the men discussing the weather.
Thanksgiving is women busy in the kitchen
And having a good time together.
It's wonderful aromas in the air
And tidbits to sample from the platter,
While mothers and aunts with their backs turned away
Smile, for it really doesn't matter.
Thanksgiving is lingering at the table
While the coffee cools in your cup.
It's chatting and laughing, the satisfied sighs
Of people too full to get up.
It's looking around you and counting your blessings
And thanking the good Lord above,
For happiness, health, for freedom and plenty
And for the people whom you love.
Thanksgiving is meeting and greeting and eating
With all those you hold dear.
It's praying and saying how good God has been
To have blessed you so richly all year.

Ghana Is Complex Country

CLINTON — A vivid description of life in the Republic of Ghana in Western Africa, was shown in color slides narrated by Mrs. Robert Beadle, at a meeting of the Women's Fellowship in the United Church of Christ, Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Beadle and three small children spent almost two years in Ghana as missionary members of the Wycliff Bible Translators, before moving to Clinton about two years ago.

The non-denominational group, which originated in the United States is interested in translating the New Testament into the unwritten languages of the world.

★

WYCLIFF translators are all linguists who, before assignment to an undeveloped foreign country, first learn the native language, its alphabet and grammar.

Then they are given three months of jungle training deep in Mexico.

Describing Ghana, she said, "Some 60 languages are spoken, but English is taught in the schools, since the country was a colony of England until eight years ago when it achieved independence."

Ghana is a country of complex differences between the cosmopolitan residents of the Gold Coast and the uneducated natives in its remote inland areas.

Ghana is the size of Minnesota, about 500 miles long, and contains about 7 million people.

THE BEADLES were the only white people in the village of Gentilpe with 400 Ghanians. During their four months there, they lived in the village houses.

The houses are entirely of packed mud with low flat roofs, no windows and with each cluster of rooms surrounding an unroofed courtyard. Each house is connected to the next one.

"When it became so hot in the airless rooms that a fever thermometer broke, we moved to the roof to sleep," Mrs. Beadle said.

★

GENTILPE is in northern Ghana near the Sahara desert and is very dry and hot most of the time.

She described the native diet as composed almost entirely of a large yam which is starchy and pasty in texture.

After four months in Gentilpe, the Beadles were assigned to the capitol city of Accra where the many modern buildings and bustling metropolis seemed like another world from that of northern Ghana.

In Accra, Mr. and Mrs. Beadle were placed in charge of the Wycliff Translators headquarters for a year, until Mrs. Beadle's health required their return to the United States.

The couple now reside in Clinton where Mr. Beadle is a member of the Michigan State Police.

The Thankoffering program was conducted by Mrs. Clyde Greenfield Jr. and the members of the Spiritual Life Committee, including Mrs. Ben Mahrle II, Mrs. Roscoe Parker and Mr Paul McKenna.

The thankoffering of $20. will be given to Christian Wor Missions.

MRS. EDGAR RANDAL chairman of the Material A committee, had displayed abo the room the more than 50 lit girls' dresses made by membe which will be sent to the Sal tion Army in Adrian for Chri mas giving in the county.

Britton Women Share Dinner

BRITTON — Sixteen members and three guests enjoyed a co operative turkey dinner when the Britton Womans Club met last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Walter Prill. Guests were Mrs. Fred Bryan, Mrs. Clifford Knudson and Mrs. Truman Rentschler.

At a business meeting, the group voted to give the Britton-Macon Community Fund Foundation five dollars.

Program chairman, Mrs. Dewey Sturtevant introduced Mrs. Rentschler of Tecumseh, who gave an interesting account of her trip to the Mediterranean Sea last summer. She traveled with a group of 160 ladies who were connected with the Federated Womens Clubs of the United States.

Mrs. Rentschler told of events which took place during the 35 day trip, as well as describing many of the outstanding places she visited.

Most of the trip was made by plane, with short side trips by bus, boat and camel.

The next meeting of the club wil be Dec. 21, at the home of Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt, with Mrs. Robert McCrate as program leader.

Members Hear Hidden Lake Gardens Report

President Mrs. Bess Livingstone welcomed 20 members of the Tecumseh Garden Club and their guests to the meeting Friday afternoon held in the home of Mrs. Archie Dunsmore.

During the short business session the nominating committee reported they would have the full slate of officers to submit at the meeting Dec. 17.

Mrs. Neil Pearson reported on a visit she had made to Hidden Lake Gardens to see the new auditorium being built there.

Mrs. Clifford Knudson presented the program with slides on Christmas in Norway, England and Germany accompanied with music and narration of each country.

This was a particularly interesting program and Mrs. Knudson reminded us that these slides with their accompanying records are obtainable from the County Library in Adrian.

The hostess and her co-hostess, Mrs. Marshall Coulter, served refreshments from a table decorated in keeping with the Thanksgiving season.

Maidens Meet

Another meeting will be held Nov. 17.

Motorists Are Cited in Mishaps

Two motorists were cited for minor accidents during the past week by the Tecumseh police.

Frank Korican, 63, of 412 Center Dr., was charged with failure to yield the right of way after an accident with Edith R. Schwalm, 55, Deerfield.

In another accident Monday, Frances N. Hummel, 40, Manitou Beach, was charged with following too close after running into the rear of a car driven by Edwin D. Spohr, 55, Britton.

Mr. Spohr was waiting for another car to make a left turn off W. Chicago Blvd. onto Sunset Dr.

Last Wednesday, Philip G. Browne, 16, of 332 N. Union St., failed to see a curve on Munger Rd. and went off the road, tearing down 12 feet of fence owned by William Powell.

'Protection'

The divine protection given to David in his fight with Goliah and later his safety from the jealous rage of King Saul will be included in the Lesson-Sermon this Sunday at Christian Science churches.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITAKER

Senior halfback Moe Jacobs leads the Boysville Fighting Knights in post-season honors. The veteran four-year star has been named to the Adrian Telegram All-Lenawee first team, the River Raisin Conference first team, was the leading ground gainer in the county with 962 yards rushing and was runner up behnd Adrian Catholic Central's Eric Wilkins for league scoring honors with 86 points. Wilkins, however, had played in nine games compared to eight by Jacobs.

Also receiving a berth in county honors were Boysville's Senior Joe Pawlus and Junior Don Chalmers. Pawlus was named as a defensive specialist on the third team, while Don Chalmers found a spot as a back on the second team. Incidentally, Chalmers and Pawlus were eleventh and twelfth in county scoring and fourth and fifth in league scoring with 41 and 40 points respectively.

Ed John, a senior, and John Yankoski, a Junior, led Boysville's offensive and defensive line. Both made the league's second team as a tackle and guard.

Dave Levites, Joe Pawlus, Bennie Thomas, Mike Frei and Ray Lemanski were the five Boysvile Seniors competing in the State of Michigan Scholarship Test taken at Clinton High School on Saturday, Nov. 20.

The test involved questions concerning Mathematics. English, and the readings of social and natural sciences.

This year the Seniors will undertake the construction of Christmas trees and Christmas scenes. Christmas trees sell for two dollars, while Christmas scenes may vary from fifteen to twenty dollars. Profits will be used in financing future class endeavors.

Enthusiastic response to a notice issued by School Principal, Brother Jeffrey Michels C.S.C., has aroused the possibility of a wrestling team at Boysville.

In event of sufficient response, Mr. Richard Chatters, a resident of Macon and a teacher in the Tecumseh Public School System, will serve as coach.

★

Boysville's student body was homeward bound on Wednesday afternoon. The reason — Thanksgiving vacation, lasting until Sunday at 8 p.m.

Campfires Hold Adrian Swim Party

MYF Plans Christmas Worship

BRITTON — The MYF of Grace Methodist Church met Sunday evening, they made further plans for participating in the worship service on Dec. 12.

7 The Methodist Youth ask $2 for each young person of the church. The young people have pledged to pay this themselves, or as much of it as they can.

Both the Intermediate and Senservice Dec. 12 they will give toward the Methodist Youth Fund.

The MYFers set Dec. 23 as the date for Chrismas caroling and their Christmas party. They also voted to help pack boxes for shut-ins.

Make Good Will Gift Shop Items

BRITTON — Handcraft items for the Good Will Gift Shop were made at the L and M extension Club meeting Thursday. Ten members were present when the club met at the home of Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt for a noon luncheon. Mrs. Donald Willis was the co-hostess.

A gift was also voted to the Campfire Girls.

Mrs. Martin Ivan led the lesson on "Development of Schools."

The next meeting will be Dec. 9 at the home of Mrs. Gerald Benedict, when Secret Pals will be revealed.

Hears Talk

BRITTON — When Sigma Phi Sorority met at the home of Mrs. Stewart Niblack last week, they answered roll call with a memorized verse.

Mrs. Harley Slick gave the lesson on "Verse Making" and the group made up two different verses as part of the lesson.

The members discussed plans for a Christmas party for their service project, which is Lenawee Institute. The hostess served light refreshments.

Reverend Smith Is Bethel Guest

BRITTON — The Rev. Larry Smith, missionary to Chili, was the guest speaker at the Bethel Baptist Church, Sunday.

Accompanied by his wife Beverly and daughter Linda, Rev. Smith presented the "Challenge of Chili" in sermon and by using slides in the evening service.

"Even in the remote regions of Chili the missionary has been preceded by Coca Cola and Singer sewing machines," stated Rev. Smith. He challenged, "Shouldn't we as Christians be just as zealous in our endeavor to present the gospel of the Lord Jesus to the people who have not accepted Him as their personal Savior, as these business men are in promoting their products?"

As Rev. Smith spoke to the young people, he outlined the preparation of a missionary before going to the mission field. He told them, "A missionary now must be well educated to be allowed a visa into many foreign countries." For Rev. Smith, this includes seven years of Bible college and seminary work.

BRITTON BRIEFS

By CHRISTINE FAIRBANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks and Darlene, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Church of Wamplers Lake, visited Mrs. Lucy Church in Garden City, Wednesday.

Mrs. Church, who was 92 last June, is confined to her bed after suffering a broken hip last February.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gilmore and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Gilmore and children were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Niblack and children at a family Thanksgiving dinner.

√

Stewart Niblack went to Brockville, Canada, last Friday and picked up his sister, Mrs. Pat Beach and her son, Bill. Mrs. Beach was returned to her home in Clarkston, and her son is in Pontiac General Hospital. Bill is now in a body cast from his waist to his toes

Mr. and Mrs. William Niblack of Harrison are remaining with Mrs. Beach for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lister are spending a 10-day vacation in Florida.

Hold Open House to Fete Crutchfields

BRITTON — There will be an open house held for relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Crutchfield of Las Vegas, N.M. Sunday, Nov. 28 at 2 p.m. at the Britton High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Crutchfield were former residents of the Britton area. They are here for a short visit.

Return From Toledo Show

BRITTON — The group of 22 youth fellowship members and the parents who accompanied them to Toledo, will long remember the haunting portrayal of Jesus by Max VonSydow in "The Greatest Story Ever Told" which they attended Sunday afternoon.

The greatest story, of course, was of the life of Jesus, tracing His life on earth from his birth in Bethlehem through the years of His ministry and miracles, to His ultimate death on the cross and transfiguration.

The beautiful panoramic views of the land where Jesus lived, the excellent characterizations of important people in His life, and the close adherence of the script and dialogue to the Bible all adds up to a memorable, though lengthy, performance.

Mrs. Prill Hosts Britton Card Club

BRITTON — Mrs. Walter Prill was hostess to the G-8 Card Club Thursday evening for the November meeting of the group.

Mrs. Martin Ivan won the prize for high score and also for the most lone hands at euchre. Low prize was won by Mrs. Lee Taylor, and Mrs. Joseph Hall won the traveling lone hand prize.

Mrs. Robert McCrate and Mrs. William Higgenbotham were guests for the evening.

Duets Cooperate In Family Dinner

BRITTON — The Christian Duets met for a family style evening of food and fellowship Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown. After a hearty cooperative supper, a short business meeting was held.

Mrs. Brown presented the program, which began with group reading of the 100th Psalm. Jack and Jim Brown played several selections on their horns.

Jack Brown gave an interesting account of his week at Boy's State last summer, in which over one thousand boys participated from schools all over Michigan.

The December meeting and adult grab bag will be on the 14th. The Duets are not planning a children's Christmas party this year.

Only Fuel Oil Provides All Basic Needs For Survival

An oil heating system in your home not only provides clean, efficient, low-cost heat, but it also provides an emergency source of power . . . in the event of an enemy attack.

A small oil burning generator that operates on this safe, universally available fuel can provide all the basic needs for a home shelter; light, heat, hot plate, sump pump, sanitary facilities and blower system. You would have no reason to rely on outside utilities, which would probably be damaged by enemy attack.

Oil is the only usable fuel that can be safely stored inside your home or shelter. It will not ignite until atomized. Hence, there can be no explosions . . . no toxic or dangerous fumes should your fuel line be fractured.

See your Fleet-Wing fuel oil distributor today. Get all the facts on the safe, clean, low-cost way to heat your home with "Fleet-Heat" fuel oil . . . and be prepared, too, for emergency power . . . if it ever be needed.

Indians Could Repeat as League Champions

By JIM LINCOLN

"We're going to show up."

These rather subtle words from Coach Vic Lawson were the only comments made when asked about Tecumseh's basketball chances for the upcoming season.

They're misleading.

The Indians, Huron League champs for the 1964-65 campaign, will make a tough run towards repeating.

Probably not another team in the loop could lose four starters from a championship team and hope to be a contender the next season.

Lone regular is senior Terry Alcock, 6'4" center who teamed with Allen last year to control the boards.

He'll have help this season from Chuck Thomas, 6'3" transfer student from West Virginia. The highly-touted youngster also could give Tecumseh some scoring punch, in practice is indicative of his shooting talents.

COACH LAWSON plans to carry just 10 on the varsity team this year, and probably all will get lots of action.

Lee Hannibal, 6'4" center, is due for relief for Alcock or when Tecumseh has trouble controlling the boards.

Ron Rentschler, 5'11", considered one of the best shots on the squad, could work into either a forward or guard spot.

Highly successful Coach Vic Lawson, loser of four starters from the 1964-65 championship basketball five, is likely, however, to be the envy of the other Huron League mentors this season. The Indians will average 6'2" on the starting five and will again be a favorite to cop the loop title.

The Indians' starters will average about 6'2", slightly more than last year. Several top scorers from the '64-'65 squad are gone, and this is about the lone category which could give Coach Lawson's team trouble.

Blissfield again appears to be Tecumseh's top opponent for the loop crown, and like last year, will be the sole team in the area with a heighth advantage.

Top-Notchers Place Third

Tecumseh Top Notchers 4-H Club placed third in Lenawee County in the Kiwanis Achievement contest at the Fall Achievement program.

The club was recipient of a blue ribbon and each member an achievement button which will be presented at the club fall achievement program at the Community Center Tuesday, Nov. 30.

Those to receive medals at the County Achievement program were:

Conservation — Carol Alexander, Linda Coleman.

Clothing — Pam Zorn.

Gardening — Zig Zorn.

Health — Ruth Ann Warner, Karen Rathke.

Foods and nutrition — Ruth Ann Warner.

All-over achievement — Ruth Ann Warner.

The Nov. 30 meeting will be Parents Night and officers will be installed.

Members will be given certificates, pins and premium money for the past year as well as the Kiwanis Achievement pins.

Area Obituaries

● MRS. IDA M. MARTIN

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Nov. 24 in the Gorsine-Runciman Funeral Home, Lansing.

Mrs. Ida M. Martin, 94, of 908 Mt. Hope, Lansing, died at her home Monday.

She was born March 7, 1871, in Washtenaw Co. Since 1932 she has been a resident of Lansing and Okemos.

She was a member of the former Britton Methodist Church and the Order of Eastern Star.

One daughter survives, Mrs. Dorothy Broadhead of Lansing.

Graveside services will be held 3 p.m. Wednesday in Ridgeway Cemetery.

To Meet Friday

The Tecumseh Grange will meet Friday, Nov. 26, in deference to Thanksgiving night, the usual meeting date.

Members will bring sandwiches and pie for refreshments.

● GUSTAV A. PETERSEN

Services were held Monday at the Proctor Funeral Home for Gustav Petersen, 80, who died Friday at the Avondale Nursing Center at Rochester.

He had been self employed in the trucking business before retirement 15 years ago in Northville.

He had been in failing health for the last 10 years.

He was born March 2, 1885, in Denmark and came to this country when a boy.

Mr. Petersen served four years in the U.S. Navy from 1907 to 1911. He was a member of the Danish Brotherhood of Detroit.

Survivors include a nephew William Hansen of 604 Outer Dr.

The Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins officiated and burial was in the Brookside Cemetery.

—o—

● WILLIAM G. NEBLO

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 24, at Proctor Funeral Home, Clinton, for William G. Neblo of 12550 Neblo Rd.

Mr. Neblo died early Monday morning in Herrick Memorial Hospital. He had been hospitalized since Aug. 13 when he was injured in a fall at his farm.

He was born Feb. 2, 1897, in Clinton Township and lived all his life in the area. His parents were William and Amelia Erlenbush.

He attended Clinton High School.

On Aug. 20, 1925, he married Lily Arnold of Clinton.

Mr. Neblo is survived by his wife and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Elon Arnold who made her home with them; one son, Albert Neblo of Jackson; one daughter, Mrs. Charles Church of Leslie; one sister, Mrs. Marie Rilbee of Adrian; six grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by one brother, Fred.

The Rev. George Miller officiated. Burial was in Riverside Cemetery.

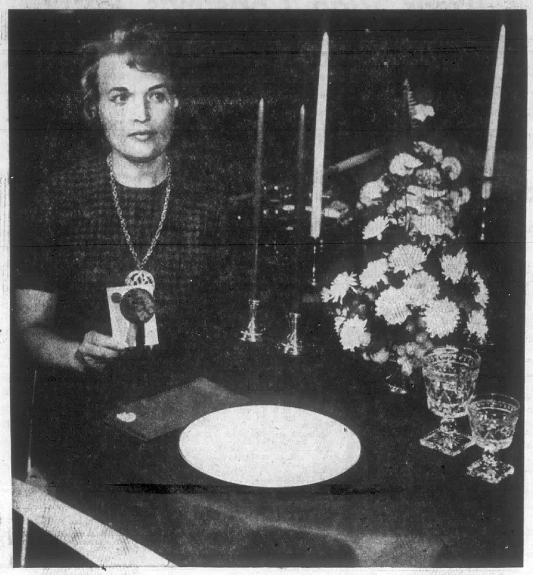
Flower Show Has Many Winners, Helps Project



HERALD PHOTOS BY JIM WILBAR

Mrs. David Woods from Britton won a giant yellow chrysanthemum donated by Freeman's Greenhouses.

Mrs. Ray Sluyter of Tecumseh won the Christmas arrangement, featuring red candle and ribbons with gold bells donated by Tecumseh Greenhouse Floral Shop.

Mrs. F. D. Randall of Tecumseh won the winter arrangement in shades of grey, green and blue by Kukini Flowers of Clinton.

THE LITTLE Garden Club is grateful to all those who donated to the cost of the show in time, money and talent. The profit of approximately $25. will be added to their special savings for the city fountain in Adams Park.

Michigan Federated Garden Club judges from Jackson, who have been to all the past shows, said this was the club's best artistic effort. Due to the season there was no horticulture display.

An educational display arranged by Mrs. Bill Clausen, Mrs. Laszlo Gero and Mrs. Morgan Ford featured directions for construction of Bluebird houses.

Educational materials on nature subjects available at our local county extension office and library books were also exhibited. An arrangement of flowers made from corn husks done by Mrs. Sidney Turner was also on display.

★

Wildflower Scrapbooks — Teresa Bihlmeyer, Barbara Hammel, Luana Bihlmeyer and Carol Alexander.

Horticulture Scrapbooks—Carol Alexander and Barbara Hammel.

The Community Center was a perfect setting for a flower show, thanks to Don Moffatt, Park and Recreation Director, and two glamorous arrangements by Pickard Floral Shop in the entrance.

Orchids were the center of design in one while football Chrysanthemums, fruits and nuts flowed from a cornucopia in the second.

Best husbands of the show award this year go to Carson House, Howard Furry and Bill Andrews.

★

JANUARY meeting of the Little Garden Club will be a program of slides showing all arrangements in the show, with comments from the judges.

MRS. CARLTON COOK PROUDLY DISPLAYS HER PRIZE-WINNER

Carl Lamb 'Debunks Drug Business'

Carl Lamb gave an interesting talk on "Debunking the Drug Business" at the Ridgeway-Macon PTA Nov. 17.

He displayed and discussed different items that are shown on television that are highly advertised items people rush to the drug store to buy without reading the contents contained in the item and without realizing these highly advertised products are usually more costly.

He suggested that if people would consult their physician or pharmacist before buying most of these products they would be better off health wise and money wise.

★

President Mrs. Franklin Schroeder opened the meeting by reading the PTA code.

A discussion was held on how to use the funds from the Fun Fair.

The first grade won the attendance banner.

Parents of the fourth grade served refreshments.

Senior Citizens Plan Christmas Party

Games were played with prizes awarded and plans were made for another cooperative meal Dec. 9, at 12:30 p.m.

Gertrude Van Vleet and Mrs. Robert Gillespie are in charge.

The event will be in observance of Christmas and the committee promised that something extra is in store for those attending.

They will bring table service and a dish to pass.

Committee members ask that those attending bring 50c wrapped gifts fo rexchange, men bring men's and ladies bring ladies'

The group expect to start packing Santa Claus candy Dec. 2.

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITOR:

I don't own a car, therefore I don't have an insurance policy. I'm a senior in high school and when I drive I use the family car (which is insured). The reason for this letter is not to tell you about myself, that's not important. What is important though is the problem of the insured driver vs. the uninsured driver.

What I don't understand is why the insured driver must pay for the uninsured driver. If a person can't afford or take the time to purchase an insurance policy, how can he afford a car.

Sure he needs the transportation it offers, but what if he is involved in an accident — how will he repair the car? No doubt it would have been cheaper for him to get the policy in the first place.

If the uninsured gets in a wreck with the insured driver why does he (the uninsured) get off with nothing but a small fine or a night in jail? Why doesn't he help pay for the damage he did to the other person's car. The insured driver may try to sue for damages but — does it do any good? The insured will more than likely get stuck with the bill.

A few months ago there was an accident involving an insured and an uninsured driver. Neither was found to blame. They were to go about fixing their cars themselves.

The insured fixed his, but the uninsured driver thought he could sue to get the damage to his car taken care of. Why did he think he could do this? Did he think he was a privileged person and could get the money just because he was an uninsured driver? It seems like the people who don't have the insurance make it hard for the people who do own insurance.

Now I ask you, don't you think there should be something done about this? It seems as though a law would be passed where a person couldn't purchase a car without first obtaining an insurance policy.

Even though the uninsured must pay $35 before he can obtain his license plates it would be cheaper for him and the insured if he owned at least a property and liability insurance policy.

What are the reasons people don't get a policy?

Are they unable to do it. If that is the reason, why should they have a car and/or driver's license at all? Do these people lack the money to do it — If that's the reason how can they afford the upkeep for a car? Don't these people understand how important an insurance policy is? Think about it!

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Matthew G. Hoenes and Johanna P. Hoenes, husband and wife, and Raynor B. Snyder and D. Geraldine Snyder, husband and wife, to Gulf Oil Corporation, a Pennsylvania corporation, dated May 23, 1961, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Lenawee County, Michigan, on 25, 1961, in Liber 458 of Mortgages, page 19, upon which mortgage default has been made by the mortgagors in the payment of the monthly installments of principal and interest due upon the note described in said mortgage and the entire balance of principal unpaid thereon and interest thereon has become due to the mortgagee, it having heretofore been required to pay the entire balance of the principal sum owing upon said note and interest thereon by virtue of its undertaking as guarantor and surety for the payment by said mortgagors of said note, and default having been made in the payment of taxes assessed upon the premises hereinafter described, the whole amount has been declared due and payable and is hereby also declared due and payable, and there is claimed to be due and payable at the date of this notice for principal and interest the sum of Thirty-seven Thousand One Hundred Fifteen and 98/100 ($37,115.98) Dollars, and no suit or proceeding having been instituted either upon said note or mortgage to recover said sum or any part thereof; Now, Therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and pursuant to the statutes in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale at public auction to the highest bidder on Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of January, 1966, at ten o'cock in the forenoon, Eastern Standard Time, at the Main Entrance to the Lenawee County Building in the City of Adrian, Lenawee County, Michigan (that being the place of holding Circut Court within said County) of the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due on said mortgage, together with interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum on principal in default and taxes and insurance premiums advanced and paid by the mortgagee, and all legal costs and charges allowed by law and provided for in said mortgage, including attorney's fees and any taxes upon said premises or insurance premiums for required hazard insurance upon the improvements thereon, or other charges required to be paid by the mortgagor which may be advanced and paid by the undersigned prior to the time of sale aforesaid, said premises being located in the Township of Woodstock, County of Lenawee, State of Michigan described as:

All that part of the Southwest Quarter of the Northeast Quarter of Section 18, Town 5 South, Range 1 East, lying Northerly of Highway U.S. 223, particularly described by metes and bounds according to a survey thereof, dated March 31, 1961, made by Walter E. Frazier Lenawee County Surveyor, Adrian, Michigan, as;

Commencing at the Northeast Corner of said Southwest Quarter of Northeast Quarter of Section 18, Town 5 South, Range 1 East;

Thence North 89 degrees 05 minutes west along the north line of said quarter quarter 900.35 feet to a point in the center line of said Highway U.S. 223;

Thence Southeasterly along the center line of said Highway U.S. 223, 1379.8 feet, more or less to the east line of said quarter quarter;

Thence North 1 degree 02 minutes East along said east line of said quarter quarter 1042.93 feet, more or less, to the point of beginning.

Together with all rights, reversionary or otherwise, in sad abutting highway, and

Subject to highway use of that part of said land lying southerly of the northerly line of said Highway U.S. 223.

Fisher of Tecumseh Doesn't Qualify for $40 Payments

DETROIT — Approximately 350,000 General Motors hourly employes — but not those at Tecumseh Fisher Body — represented by the United Auto Workers union will share a special fund totaling some $14,000,000 next month.

The payments, totaling approximately $40 per eligible employe, will come from a special account GM set up last year under a provision of the labor agreement negotiated then between the company and the UAW.

Unfortunately, Fisher at Tecumseh has not been in operation long enough to qualify.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

WELCOME, WELCOME, WELCOME

I can think of no bird who is happier and more care-free than a cedar-waxwing. Actually, that should be put in the plural because these pretty birds are a gregarious lot always traveling in busy flocks.

They are not noisy, but just to see their peppy comings and goings is one of the best spirit lifters in the bird world.

Who can be down in the dumps while watching a troupe of waxwings high-jack the fruit of our neighbors ornamental shrubbery?

That is exactly the kind of action to which we were treated several weeks ago.

Please do not ask the name of the bush—it stands in Prettyman's yard and somehow, although a quick telephone call would produce the answer, I can never remember to call when they would be home and have a few free moments.

★

A GUESS, however, is that it is some kind of a flowering crab. Anyway, this fall it was loaded with red apples or berries.

The cleaning of the bush took about four days. The work gang was fairly large but believe me, our work out-put dropped drastically. Who can concentrate on rearranging book-shelves when there is so much fun going on outside.

★

They flit in and out of the bush, hop from one branch to another, fly to and from nearby trees and, in this neighborhood, make frequent trips to the creek for a quick bath or a little sip of water.

There is constant movement—birds are everywhere.

We think waxwings are very social. In addition to their entertaining antics, they are handsome little characters. About five inches long, they at first glance look like female cardinals.

This, I am sure, is because of their topknots, dark face or eye masks and their all-over brown-gray coloring.

★

Even though the lower part of his back and most of the tail is tinged with a bluish gray and, on his front side, the lower part of the tummy is quite yellow, it is this brilliant yellow tail band which quickly identifies the cedar waxwing.

On the few occasions when a close-up study is permitted, intricate markings of black, gray, red and white may be seen—this does not happen often, though.

At one time we likened a visiting gang of waxwings to a troupe of roving gypsies. The comparison still holds. Colorful, lighthearted, gay, gadabouts, they come and go according to whim.

That may be going a bit far, Marda, because instead of merely following a flight of fancy, they always seem to show up when some particularly favorite food is at its peak.

★

IN THE SUMMER, they eat insects which are often caught in the manner of a fly-catcher, using a perch from which to dart out and grab any near flying bug, but their year-round basic food is either fresh or dried fruit.

And they know exactly when the crabb apples, the honeysuckle berries and the little barberres are just right for picking.

We apparently do not keep such close track of these things and thus a waxwing invasion is always thrilling and exciting. Of course, they are not all that dependable either—we can guess when they should show up and sometimes they do but other times they don't.

Then, just to keep us honest, they will fly in for a totally unexpected reason.

★

EXAMPLE: one February, during a warm spell, these characters spent all Sunday in our side yard bathing in pools of melted snow. Now I ask you, who would figure that in advance.

So it is that whatever the drawing card, our response is always the same when a troupe of waxwings flies in, a great big, joyful, "Welcome, Welcome, Welcome!"

Next Week:

'Big Mac' Sea Gulls Take Over

Paul Penfield of Detroit, general chairman of next year's Michigan Week May 15-21, revealed that for the first time since Michigan Week began in 1954, the robin will be absent from the posters and other promotional materials.

From one springtime to another the robin has been part of the Michigan Week emblem, sometimes in sailor's cap or drum major's hat, sometimes just a jaunty red-breasted bird.

The 1966 emblem will show a Mackinac Bridge tower and three soaring sea gulls. There will be no robin and the traditional red of the Michigan Week poster will be gone.

The colors will be bright green and light blue.

"It isn't that we are downgrading the robin," Mr. Penfield said, "but that among all designs submitted we liked this one best. Also, we are delighted to have a design emblematic of the bridge that binds our two peninsulas, of the Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence Seaway."

Missionary Group Hears 'Thanks' Talk

"Thanksgiving" was the theme when the Women's Missionary Society of the Tecumseh Friends Church met on Tuesday evening, Nov. 16.

A vocal trio, composed of Mrs. Lee Spohr, Mrs. Leland Fogelsong and Mrs. Ashley Chase sang two numbers. Mrs. Paul Brantingham accompanied them.

Mrs. Harold Righter read a meditation entitled, "A Cup of Gratitude."

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Amos Wilson, president. She announced that Dr. Larry Burch had offered his services to get a quantity of medicine samples to mission fields served by the Ohio Yearly Meeting of Friends.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Avery Pool and Mrs. Clark Pearson.

The next meeting will be Dec. 21 with a Christmas theme. The ladies will be seated at small tables with one person designated as hostess for each group of four.

Drawing Friday Night Will Give $150 in Gifts to Lucky Winner

How would you like to pick up $150 in free gifts?

Well, be in one of the Tecumseh Christmas Gifts A-Plenty stores Friday evening at 7:30 for the first of four weekly drawings and you may.

Being awarded are gifts from each of the participants, worth more than $150 in total. To get a chance on the booty, simply drop by any of these shops at any time and fill out a chance — chances.

There is nothing to buy, but the winner must be present in any Gift A-Plenty store when the announcement is made. Those entering the contest must be at least 13 years old.

STORE HOURS — OPEN FRIDAY AND SATURDAY NIGHTS UNTIL 9. BEGINNING DEC. 10, OPEN EVERY NIGHT UNTIL 9.

The actual drawing will be held in secret with banker Pat Meadows selecting a slip from a giant container in The Herald office, where all the coupons will be brought late Friday.

The winner's name and address is then going to be typed on separate slips and placed in sealed envelopes, which go to participating business spots.

At exactly 7:30 p.m., each store will open its envelope and announce the winner, who must present himself or herself within five minutes to a representative of the shop.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

Earl Greene is a teacher by trade, but Thanksgiving Day he found himself a celebrity among a bunch of Vietnam wounded at Great Lakes Naval Hospital.

It's a heart-warming story and when Earl relates the details, a fellow can sense how much the experience moved him.

But Earl disclaims the role of hero and instead pins that honor on a raft of thoughtful and patriotic youngsters from Tecumseh and Clinton.

Here's the way it came about.

The Earl Greenes have a handsome son named Gary, who recently completed a tour of duty with the Army in Germany and was assigned to Fifth Army headquarters in Chicago.

Army medicos said Gary needed a hunk of cartilage removed from his nose. Since Fifth Army doesn't have facilities for surgery, they dispatched Gary to Great Lakes.

He was to be hospitalized over the holiday and his dad phoned earlier to say he and Mrs. Greene would drive over for the weekend.

Then Earl wondered if there were some Vietnam wounded around and would they enjoy a few goodies? Gary said yes to both counts.

The Greenes both teach — Esther has a third grade room in Clinton and Earl instructs fifth and sixth graders at Patterson. They decided to tell their students about the holiday jaunt and wondered if the kids might like to bake some fudge, brownies, cookies, just anything, for the wounded.

Would they!

Well, when it came time to leave Tecumseh the day before Thanksgiving, the trunk of the Greene car was loaded with tempting treats.

★

HOW WOULD the Greenes be received?

The answer wasn't long in coming as they walked into the giant naval hospital. The young men were delighted, simply delighted.

They raved over the goodies, exclaiming again and again, "Is this really home-made fudge? Are these actually home-made brownies?"

There was a wide grin and in no time the plate would be clean.

"It's so wonderful that you folks would bother," one lad told Earl, who in turn thought, "me bother, my gosh after what these guys have been through for us."

The Greenes covered five floors in the hospital, spent nearly four hours chatting with the fellows.

There were a lot of serious cases. As Earl told of the youngster who lost a long strip of flesh across his back, plus much of one upper leg, a guy cringes.

Yet, when Earl's boy asked this lad how he was, he said, "Better, I can sit up."

★

A THOUGHT crossed my mind as Earl recounted his experience, and I'd like to pass it along to you. Might we ship over more goodies to the Great Lakes Hospital, much as Earl did, one of these weeks?

It would be a show of Tecumseh's appreciation to some fine American youngsters.

The project offers a lot of problems:

1. A suitable vehicle for the trip.
2. Someone to drive.
3. Volunteers to prepare baked goods.
4. A person (or persons) to handle details.

Earl said that boys are coming into the hospital every day and from the looks of the Vietnam situation, it would seem as though this will continue quite a spell.

If there's a group or person interested in such a project, contact Earl or The Herald.

DR. FURBUSH GENTLY EXAMINES A PATIENT AS OTHERS WAIT THEIR TURN

'Doc Repairs Dolls'

And Santa Is Keeping Her Busy

Santa's Helpers are especially busy these days.

But there are some other spots going full blast too — like the Zepher Doll Hospital on Sutton Road.

The chief of staff, white-haired Mrs. Clarence Furbush, is kept hopping year 'round, but the pace quickens come December.

Mrs. Furbush has built a tradition since 1957 as a person who knows how to repair battered and beaten dolls.

A visitor to her picturesque and tiny hospital would be amazed to see how the talented "doctor" can take an apparently destroyed doll and restore it to a thing of beauty.

Mrs. Furbush is an accomplished seamstress as well and turns out a variety of doll garb—from majestic bridal gowns to nun's habits.

She also paints her patients and gives them new hairdos.

Among her prized possessions are some Negro dolls, including a set who live on a Southern plantation.

A recent visitor at the Doll Hospital was a lady from Texas, who it turned out had never seen a colored doll. She bought one, then a few weeks later, Mrs. Furbush received a letter from the Lone Star State with an order for three more.

★

The hospital was built by Mr. Furbush, originally just 8' x 24', but this proved too small and it was doubled in size. Every nook and crany is filled with dolls, spare parts, stuffed animals and doll clothing.

A little girl could probably have a thousand day dreams in an afternoon there—maybe some big girls, too.

Seniors To Stage Play 3 Nights

The Senior Class is presenting it's play, "The Mouse That Roared," Dec. 8, 9 and 11 at 8 p.m. at the Tecumseh Community Center.

Tickets go on sale Tuesday, Nov. 30, by members of the play cast and at Sluyter's Gifts in downtown Tecumseh. They may be obtained at Sluyter's from 9-5 or by phoning 423-3106.

Senior students will also be selling them after school in downtown Tecumseh. All tickets will be sold in advance for $1 for either the Wednesday, Thursday, or Saturday productions. Capacity is only 160 per night so get your tickets now.

The play is concerned with the problems of Grand Fenwick, an imaginary 14th century country hidden in a 20th century Europe.

They discover that a company in the United States is stealing their sole means of support by producing a wine similar to the Pinot Grand Fenwick produced in Grand Fewuick and selling it for half the Fenwickian price.

After much consideration, Gloriana, Count Mountjoy, and David Benter decide to declare war on the U.S. with Tully Bascom in charge. The humorous results are something you won't want to miss.

School Plan Vote Slated for Spring

By DICK CARVER

What is in the future for Britton, Clinton and Tecumseh schools as a result of current consolidation proposals for Lenawee County.

In excess of 100 county residents met at Madison school Monday evening to discuss that question — and others — and view a Channel 10 WMSB-TV program concerning it.

There were few objections to the presentation of the Proposed Lenawee County School Reorganization Plan, as the 18-member committee gathered for its 25th meeting on the subject.

★

THE PLAN would reorganize the present 14 school districts into four districts:

► Southern Lenawee — Morenci, Sand Creek, Madison, Blissfield, Underwood and Maloney.

► Northeastern Lenawee — Clinton, Britton-Macon and Tecumseh.

► Northwestern — Hudson, Addison, Onsted and Cement City.

The committee, following the meeting, voted to submit the proposal to the State Board of Education for acceptance and if so the program will return to Lenawee County in the form of a referendum in the spring elections.

★

GENERAL TREND of discussion in both the broadcast and the Madison meeting seemed to center around need for either general or specific instruction.

Involved in that discussion was consideration of the type of education needed in Lenawee County and the necessity of larger schools.

Specific education in various fields as compared to small schools offering general education was hashed over.

★

RICHARD WEGNER, superintendent of Clinton Schools, disagreed with remarks made by Milton Porter, County Superintendent of Schools, concerning the quality of education in some of the county schools.

He remarked, "We think we are doing a good job."

Dr. Archie O'Connor of Clinton, expressed the feeling that voting in the northeastern proposed district would be dominated by Tecumseh voters.

Committee Chairman Duane DeLoach explained that either of two methods of voting on the reorganization plan could be used:

► Entire county voting on all plans.

Some discussion involving the apparent rapid growth of the northeastern sector of the county brought up the question of equal segmentation of the county and of funds.

★

AN ARGUMENT was brought up concerning persons employed with Stauffer Chemical Co. and Tecumseh Fisher Body, but who live in Adrian. It was stated they would cause a need for more school tax evaluation in Adrian, but would increase that evaluation in the Tecumseh School District, where the plants are located.

The proposed reorganization does not provide for change in that area of the county.

Other than some discussion of the faults in this program, the meeting was termed "affirmative" by Chairman DeLoach.

Action by the committee in terms of sending the proposal on to the State Board of Education was based on that reaction.

Herrick Park PTO Carnival Nets $567

A profit of $567.23 was realized from the Herrick Park PTO Carnival reported Julie Fosbender, chairman.

The event was well attended and officers of the organization expressed gratitude to the many merchants for the kindness shown in donating door prizes and space in their windows for posters, also to The Tecumseh Herald for the fine coverage and spirit of cooperation.

The Bake Sale and Cake Walk turned in the highest profit, $79.24 and the Snack Bar reported the highest sales of $106 with a profit of $46.58.

The annual Christmas program at the school will be held Dec. 9 at 7:30 p.m. when the children from each class will sing Christmas selections.

Gloria Dei Church Children Practice Holiday Program

The preparation for Christmas will start in the Gloria Dei Evangelical Lutheran Church Sunday, Dec. 5, when the Sunday School children will have the first rehearsal for the Christmas program, Mrs. James Colson informed parishioners.

All teachers and Sunday School students are asked to be present at the rehearsal from 2:30 to 4 p.m.

★

A toy-tree will be furnished in the Parish House to remind the Sunday School children to share the many blessings they received and to give them an opportunity to make other children happy.

"Every member of the Sunday School may place a toy as his gift for the needy children," Mrs. Ken Goldmann, secretary, stated.

The LCW meeting will be held Monday, Dec. 13 at 7:30 p.m. for the preparation of the figures of the manger scene. "They will also have the annual cookie exchange," said Mrs. William Macbeth, president.

★

The pastor has a way of preparation for Christmas for adults. Every Tuesday from 7 to 9 p.m. an informal Bible study will be held in the Educational Building about Jesus' humility and His miraculous birth, based on the Bible's prophecies and teaching.

During this time, from 7 to 8 p.m., the Luther League Choir will meet for choir rehearsal, under the leadership of Mrs. Burton Wright, choir director.

The Chancel Choir will have regular choir practice every Thursday from 7:30 to 9 p.m., led by director, Mrs. Gabe French.

Decorations Rate Prizes

Tecumseh will have a home decorating contest again this year, sponsored by the Tecumseh Parks and Recreation Department.

Prizes include:

FIRST — $25 savings bond
SECOND — $15 gift certificate
THIRD — $5 gift certificate

The savings bond is being donated by the United Savings Bank and the certificates by the Chamber of Commerce.

Both lighting and general decorations will be judged on the basis of originality, artistic merit, lighting technique and general composition.

Elaborateness and expense of materials will not be taken into consideration. The contest is designed to encourage greater spirit of the season and goodwill.

Deadline for entries is Dec. 17 and judging will take place Dec. 20 and 21. Entrants are asked to have their displays lighted from 6:30 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. for the judging.

THS Faces Dundee

By JIM LINCOLN

A big and potentially good Tecumseh five opens the 1965-66 basketball season here Friday night against Dundee.

The Jayvees are scheduled to start about 6:30 and the varsity game about 8.

Coach Vic Lawson may encounter some difficulty with his varsity club this season, but one problem won't be size. The starters will average 6'2", slightly taller than the Indians of a year ago.

Terry Alcock, 6'4", lone regular returning will open again at the center post. Backing him up will be Lee Hannibal 6'4" junior, last season's Jayvee center.

Whether Tecumseh rolls this '65-66 season depends largely on the development of the four newcomers, plus several first line substitutes.

Dundee could provide a stern test for the opener as the Vikings will start with a veteran team. The visitors will have to hit well from the floor — which they've been known to do on more than one occasion—as the Vikings lack height.

Tecumseh handled Dundee rather easily last year in the opener when the Indians used their height advantage and practically swept the offensive and defensive boards.

The bench will be considerably stronger than a year ago with Ron Rentschler, Hannibal, John Goodman, Dave Kennel and Jim Mobley.

Patch-Work Drapes Made by Auxiliary

Christmas centerpieces, candles, pine cone arrangements, little girls aprons, and stuffed toy pigs dressed with patchwork vest and apron highlighted the auction of the Jaycee Auxiliary recently.

Home-made bread and fudge were also among the items sold, bringing a profit of $46, exactly doubling that of last year.

The full membership of 18, with eight guests, attended the event in the newly-decorated club rooms.

Patch-work drapes made by the members from various sized pieces of material to cover an 8'x20' area were in place for the annual Christmas meeting.

It required eight members 90 hours to get the drapes completed in six days.

★

A children's party was planned for Dec. 15. Members will again donate gifts to the Lenawee Institute and furnish a basket for a needy family through the Tecumseh Service Club.

Christmas ice cream balls were served by Mrs. Dyke Helms, Mrs. Thomas Morgan and Mrs. David Schoonover.

BEHIND PAGE ONE

The two-member Hospital Auxiliary Auxiliary, Don Moffatt and Charles Gross, extended an invitation for possible members and indicated a stirring need for help during the upcoming Auxiliary Holiday Ball.

✓

They are up, those patchwork drapes in the Jaycee Club rooms. Ten members of the Auxiliary under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. Donald Stone and Mrs. Dwight Helms have been sewing up a "storm" to get the drapes, 20 feet long and nine feet high, in place. They compliment vests and weskits worn by Jaycees and their spouses.

✓

"I would like to take this opportunity to thank my District staff, a corps of dedicated volunteers, the many school officials and civic leaders, and the fine newspapers in the Second District, all of whom helped to make it possible for more than 35,000 school children and adults to see "The Four Days of Gemini IV,' " says Congressman Wes Vivian.

✓

Did you know that Tecumseh High School's 1930 tennis team won the state Class C-D state tournament? Elmer Eberhardt, the insurance magnate, turns out to be an expert on this choice news. He was doing some rummaging on the third floor of the old Sage Building and discovered a bronze plaque the '30 net team was awarded. He gave THS principal Neville Hart a call and the old treasure will probably end up in the school's trophy case.

✓

To hasten your Christmas mailing. The staff of the Tecumseh Public Library stands ready to serve but only so far. Zip code books and telephone directories are available for most Michigan cities and many out state. Library personnel will report three over the phone but any more than that should receive the personal attention of the inquirer.

✓

The hostess laughed and laughed as she held the well filled cream puffs high and brought them to the table with one lonely little flickering flame struggling to proclaim a "Happy Birthday". Wha happened? When tried in the kitchen those lemon extract soaked sugar cubes roared into a blaze. Well, that's the way the sugar melts sometimes.

✓

Among the many in and out of The Herald office daily, was one High School youngster Monday who remarked to his friend as they both left the office, "You delivered that too fast, my hands are still cold."

✓

Get those dancing shoes out for the Hospital Holiday Ball this weekend and better keep them out for the Jaycee Follies. Big plans are in progress for the event which will also feature a Big Chief contest to emphasize the Indian theme. Full details next week.

MRS. JOHN WOTRING

Barbara Rozelle, John Wotring Marry

Barbara Ann Rozelle, daughter of Mrs. Clair Rozelle, 208 W. Kilbuck St., and John Charles Wotring were united in marriage Nov. 27, with the Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins officiating at the St. Elizabeth Church.

Mrs. Donald Johnson presided at the organ as the 200 guests were seated by Ron Harvey, Russ Johnston and Kent Sheldon, all friends of the groom.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Wotring of Sand Creek.

★

She wore a gown of white lace and peau de soie with the A-line skirt extending into a chapel train. Her shoulder length veil of silk illusion was attached to a pearl crown.

She wore a single pearl and rhinestone pendant, gift of the groom, and carried a cascade bouquet of white Belle Beau orchids and stephanotis accented with ivy.

Mrs. Ronald Harvey was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Jane Brasiola and Linda Watkins, cousins of the bride, and Barbara Wotring, sister of the groom.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the School with Barbara Lenheiser registering the guests. Barbara Bruder from Dearborn poured tea, Mary Alice Stutesman, punch and Mrs. Jean Rozelle cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Carl Thomas cut the groom's cake.

The four-tiered wedding cake, encircled with a bridal ring of smilax centered a white satin skirted table trimmed with aqua.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and attended Eastern Michigan University.

Her husband is a graduate of Sand Creek High School and is employed at Schneider's Chevrolet.

Following a trip to Virginia and Washington, D. C. the couple will be at home on Occidental Hwy.

The rehearsal dinner was prepared by the groom's mother, and served in the home of the bride's mother.

Dear Santa...

Dear Santa,

My name is Mark, and I'm 5 in Kindergarten. I live at 3624 Munger Road. Don't get lost!

I would like Big Bruser, horse truck, Dare-Devil Trick Track Set, farm set, and some clothes. I wear size 5 or 6.

You better watch out for my big dog Ringo, he might make you drop your bag.

TIPTON SCHOOL NOTES

The second, fifth and sixth grades were entertained by members of the sixth grade band directed by Miles Cowdrey.

Mrs. Chester Blaska and Mrs. Raymond Platt accompanied the group.

The children playing were Diane Allen, Cindy Jackson, Kathy Munger, Debra Stockinger, Kandy Van Sickle, Steven Vargo, Jay Wardwell and Janis Wilkin.

In social studies, the sixth graders are learning to make outlines of four countries in North Africa and Middle East. In science there is an experiment in observing growth of mold under various conditions.

Ricky Bacon, Beverly Barker, Theresa Trettin, Debbie Stockinger and Cynthia Freeman are doing the experiment. Each person brought a slice of fresh bread.

From a piece of moldy bread, students got some spore cases and put them on fresh bread. One slice of bread was placed on a covered dish in a warm dark place, one uncovered in the sunshine, one in the refrigerator and one away from sunlight in a warm room.

Fifth graders have been enjoying Folk Tales of America. Many of them have written their own to explain certain strange land formations around their own area.

Committees are working in social studies on a mural which shows the development of the United States from its earliest days. In addition, they made figures and objects of paper mache for Pilgrim scenes.

Tests on song flutes have been completed, with students receiving certificates. Soon they will begin on regular band instruments.

In science, the unit on the geological formation of the earth is coming to a close and rock collections are especially good.

Marda Gene's Pictures Educate

The meeting, held in the Baptist Youth House, centered on conservation and the ideal setting for the pictures along Evans Creek showed how nature is encouraged to supply and protect its feathered friends in the near downtown area.

Showing the beauty of rarely-pictured birds at rest, while eating undisturbed outside the window of Marda Gene's room, many were unknown to long-time residents.

[illegible] cardinal, titmouse, junco, nuthatch, catbird, grosbeak, sapsucker, bluejay feeding its young were some of the delightful close-ups.

★

THE BUSINESS meeting was conducted by Mary McWilliams, president. Mrs. Walter Prill was in charge of the program, assisted by Mrs. Fred Bryan.

Mrs. Joseph Hall accompanied by Mrs. William Raek "Trees" and "Known Only To Him" to compliment the day's theme.

The annual Holly and Tinsel Breakfast will be held Dec. 13 and the Executive Board will meet at the home of the president Monday for planning.

Mrs. Ralph Westgate and her committee served the tea table.

Most Tecumseh and area deer hunters journeyed north for their deer last week, and many came home blanked for their outing.

Not so for Arlene R. Wilson, 39, Britton, who collected her deer shortly before noon Tuesday, when a doe crossed in front of her car on Rogers Hwy. near Blood Rd.

The doe was killed almost instantly, and no damage was apparent to the vehicle, according to the report of the Tecumseh police.

A resume of other mishaps investigated by the local police is:

Nov. 23 — Joseph P. Caterina, 17, of 8800 N. Union St., was cited for failure to yield the right of way after Kermit A. Boss, 59, of 9103 N. Union, hit his truck. Caterina was backing from a driveway.

Nov. 23 Ida June Hartley, 42, of 610 N. Union, was charged with backing without caution after a mishap with a parked car owned by Mary Yenor, 8938 N. Union.

Nov. 29 — Tipton resident, Sandra K. Smith, 22, was cited for failure to stop within a clear assured distance after running into the rear of a car operated by William M. Flanders, 45, of 305 Miami Court.

Nov. 30 — Lillian M. Shirley, 46, of 412 Brown St., was charged with improper backing after an accident with Dan A. Betzoldt, 23, of 507 Brown St.

Pictures of Idaho 'Dig' To Be Shown

Gerald Larson will be speaker at the meeting of the State Line Gem and Mineral Society meeting Sunday, Dec. 5.

The program at 2 p.m. in the Community Center, will be conducted by Mr. Larson, a junior member of the club, who will tell of his experience last summer with a University of Michigan Geology class in Idaho.

Dr. Eleanor Skufis, who joined the group, will show pictures of the expedition.

Mrs. Clare Handy, publicity chairman, suggests that the program will be of interest to science teachers, Scout leaders and parents of juniors interested in earth science.

Mrs. Handy also stated that visitors are always welcome.

Estimate $10,000 Damage in Vanzo House Blaze

Fire Monday at 3 a.m. extensively damaged the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Vanzo, 402 W. Chicago Blvd.

Mrs. James Gabriel of Adrian who had been working at the Eagles Hall spotted the fire on the east side of the Vanzo residence as she was going home.

Frantically pounding the door and ringing the bell she awakened the family just in time to get Jim, Judy and their two children, Mark and Michelle, out in their night clothes.

Twelve men of the Tecumseh Fire Department worked four and one-half hours to quell the flames which started in the chimney wall of the fireplace.

An estimated damage of $10,000 or more was made.

———o———

Planning Party

TIPTON — The Women's Fellowship and Grange are sponsoring a community Christmas party Saturday, Dec. 11 at 7:30 in the Church recreation rooms.

Area children will present a program with the Sunday School teachers and Grange lecturer in charge.

The treat committee includes Mr. and Mrs. William Luce, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Radant and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Karpo.

TO THE EDITORS:

We are writing you in regard to an article that appeared in the Nov. 18 issue of The Herald.

In your write-up about the Clinton-Saline game you stated that this was the second year in a row Clinton had been defeated by Saline. We beg to differ with you and correct your error.

Last year the Clinton-Saline game was played on the Redskin gridiron, where it was the final game of the season for both teams.

We are proud to inform you that Clinton defeated Saline in a tremendous victory that surprised many people because Saline was favored to win.

We are not angry about your error, but the town of Clinton is immensely proud of their Redskins, and after capturing the Lakeland C crown the second year in a row, being named the No. 1 team in Lenawee County, and having our coach, Mr. Bareis, named Lenawee County Coach of the year, we feel our team deserves an apology.

We are certain the error was not on purpose, but if our local paper had written an untrue statement about your team you would undoubtedly have been offended.

If you question our attack, please feel free to call any loyal Redskin fan. We are sure they will set you straight.

Thank you,
Pat Martiny
Susie Kirkland

Editor's note — Thanks girls, you're correct. Clinton beat Saline, 21-13, ended the 1964 year with seven wins and a tie at Whitmore Lake, 6-6.

Dear Through My Window,

I was amused by your shike poke story.

And it is shike poke.

If you had gotten in touch with a boy of that 1889 vintage and mentioned bittern or shytepoke to him, you would have received a look of blank amazement, but if you had said shike poke, he would have given you a grin of recognition.

Twelve years before your ancient date I was born on one of those farms now operated by Fisher Body. According to the big General Motors Tecumseh Herald display we used to raise alfalfa, wheat, corn, and oats. Well, on the swamp part we also raised celery, onions, cabbages, and shike pokes.

I don't suppose there is one of those birds left. Just as well. Certainly no self-respecting shike poke wold care to associate with seat covers, door trim pads, and sun visors.

Yours for more bird knowledge,
Walter E. Norris

TO THE EDITORS:

On behalf of Norm May and myself, let me take this opportunity to thank you for your excellent coverage of our recent open house at our Tecumseh plant.

We received your latest edition of The Herald and it will be the lead story for our "Fisher Body in the News" sheet which we distribute nationally.

We hope to see you soon.

YOU TOLD US

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Special effort is being made by Mrs. LaVern Seizert to give area servicemen a boost in morale in the name of the local American Legion and Auxiliary.

Handwritten Christmas cards with a gift enclosed are sent by this gal, representing her organization in the best way she knows.

We can help her to show those fellows over there that we support their efforts by getting their addresses into her hands.

Mrs. Seizert's address 7950 N. Adrian Hwy. and her phone number is 423-4017.

Let's keep it moving even though we don't know the boy too well. He likes to hear from acquaintances as well as Mom and Dad.

PROFESSOR GET THE NEEDLE — Probably the shortest medical practice in history can be credited to "Dr." Allan Seager, who found himself tabbed an ear piercing specialist Sunday afternoon via a colorful sign in front of his Chicago Blvd. home. It all stemmed from an old family joke in which the Tecumseh author bragged to his family that he pierced ears in years gone by with an ice pick and chunk of ice. Daughter Laura and three friends put the professor in business with the giant ad, which came down the next morning. During the short career, Prof. Seager received one call, and he referred the lady to Dr. Richard Coak.

Holiday Ball Aim Is Cardiac Cart

Equipment for a cardiac resuscitation cart is the aim of the committee for the annual Holiday Ball sponsored by the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary.

After two months of preparation, members look forward to a successful event Saturday night at the Country Club.

The semi-formal dance is the 17th one sponsored by the auxiliary for the benefit of the Hospital. It is entitled "Frosty Yuletide."

Previous events have provided funds for landscaping, heated food carts and miscellaneous hospital furnishings.

Art Smith will provide music for dancing from 10 p.m. until 2 a.m. A buffet lunch will be served at the end of the evening.

Members of the hospital auxiliary who have combined efforts to insure a festive evening are Mrs. William Adams and Mrs. Wilbur Andrews, co-chairmen of the ball committee, Mrs. Kenneth Killman, tickets; Mrs. Al Merz, refreshments; Mrs. Donald Moffatt, decorating and Mrs. John Howell, publicity.

Award Prizes

Jim Goodman won first prize and Jeanette Mannino second in the magazine sale the Tecumseh High School Junior Class completed recently.

Rick Skinner and Kathy Hall were co-chairmen and prizes were awarded Nov. 19.

Tecumseh Players Present Dickens' 'Christmas Carol'

Dicken's "Christmas Carol" will be presented Sunday, Dec. 5, at 7 p.m. at the Community Center. The program is to be presented by the Tecumseh Players.

Dick Egli will play the part of Scrooge and David Woods will be the narrator.

A choir of 24 children of the Players will present background music. The play is the shortened form presented so many times on radio by the late Lionel Barrymore.

The public is invited. Cookies, punch and coffee will be served at the close of the play.

2 International Titles Are Won by Bortel Sheep

In addition, Bo-Mar Farms walked off with six of nine first places in the Corriedale breed class, which was dubbed "one of the biggest shows in years" by an official of the event.

The International awards helped make 1965 a record year for Mr. Bortel and his partner, W. J. Marshall of Maumee, Ohio.

★

Attending the International were both partners and their wives.

Service Features New Missionary

BRITTON — Leah Moschi of Detroit was featured speaker at the Thanksgiving Eve service in the Congregational-Christian Church.

She told of her past life as the daughter of Russian Jews who fled first to Germany to escape persecution, then escaped to England after the rise of Hitler.

In Britain, she led the life of a wealthy but "miserable teenager," as she put it. Her family was prosperous — but not Christian.

She was introduced to Christianity by a friend. When she accepted the Christian faith, Miss Moschi said she was beaten and rejected by her family.

She eventually came to the United States, where she studied at the Moody Bible Institute and Michigan State University.

★

IT WAS while at MSU that she felt compelled to be a missionary to college students, planning now to leave for Venezuela next April.

Miss Moschi is currently attending the Missionary Internship Institute and working with young people in the Detroit area in preparation for her work in South America.

She was accompanied to Britton by Margaret Sherstad, a staff member at the missionary institute.

Both the Junior and Senior ... of the church presented selections under the direction of Mrs. William Raeburn, organist.

Philatheans Meet Sunday

BRITTON — The Baraca Philathea Class met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Moore Sunday evening for a cooperative ham dinner. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Grace Ramage.

Mrs. Bert Moore presented the devotions, "Thank God for Trouble." The program, by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hoagland, was a reading, "Were You There?" and "There's a House Inside of Me."

Mr. and Mrs. Moore showed slides of their trip to Texas and other western states last summer.

Pattersons Entertain Many Guests

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patterson entertained for Thanksgiving Day dinner. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Reeg, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Irelan and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Patterson and Kelli, all of Sturgis; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Starkweather of Ypsilanti; Mrs. Jack Patterson and sons of Adrian; and Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Tucker and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hoagland of rural Britton.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Patterson and daughter spent the weekend with his parents.

Are Pallbearers

Holly and Silver Tea Will Open Christmas Season

CLINTON — The Mary Martha Class of the United Church of Christ, will sponsor a Holly and Silver tea Sunday from 3 to 5 p.m. in the social room of the church.

The event has become a traditional opening of the holiday season in the community.

Mrs. Cornelius Viergever of Jackson has been invited to display and talk about her rare collecton of antique silver. Its care and decorative uses will be explained.

A variety of Christmas desserts will be served at the tea and social hour which will follow Mrs. Viergever's address.

TEEN TALK

By DEBBIE EARLING

Twenty new members have been initiated into the Future Nurses Club. The Club made Thanksgiving favors for the hospital. A candy sale is in the planning as a money-making project.

The November meeting of the Art Club was concerned primarily with the initiation of new members. Each new member reported to the club why he or she felt it was beneficial to be a member, and how the club could serve to teach the individual to appreciate art as part of our culture.

After the initiation an informal session was held for the members to view color slides of the Art Club float.

On behalf of the girls who enjoy participating in the "fad" I would like to voice a gentle protest in its defense.

Styles today are more practical than they ever have been in the history of clothing. Designers have provided us with maximum comfort plus fun in high fashion. The long, itchy "woolies" that Grandma and Mama used to complain about have been revolutionized by synthetic fabrics and jazzy colors ... "s patterns. Girls no longer need sacrifice comfort for fashion.

No longer do long skirts hamper freedom of movement. Tall, tall boots keep legs and feet warm in colder regions of the country.

From an array of acceptable fashions a girl may choose her wardrobe in accordance with her personality, and mood, as well as choosing colors that flatter her features and complexion. Old fashioned styles with ruffles and antique lace for the "sweet old fashioned girl" are available in modern man-made fibers, as well as the sleek styles depicting our space age.

The word on make-up and hairdos is "natural". The put-on, overdone look and the over-ratted hair-dos are "out".

Today's world of fashion is designed for the individual and thinking, imaginative person. Taste and progress demanded it. Education brought it about.

All right, girls, it's up to you to assume the responsibility of choosing the fashions that best suit you and make you "lovely to look at."

Girl Scouts Plan Carol Sing Outing

Plans are well under way for an evening of carols by the Girl Scouts Dec. 16. Last year's ride in the hay wagons and the gay greetings from householders made happy memories for many, many Brownie and Junior Scouts.

All Tecumseh Girl Scouts are invited this year. They are to meet at the cabin at 6 p.m. Treats will await them in the cabin at 7.

The monthly leaders' meeting for December has been canceled. The meeting in January will be on the 20th.

Food for a Thanksgiving dinner was given to the Service Club for a needy famly by the Girl Scout leaders.

From now until Christmas, canned foods, clothing and toys will be brought by the Girl Scouts to the regular meetings to be used for Christmas baskets for others in Tecumseh.

The First Annual Girl Scout Bazaar and Calendar Sale made a net of $190.99. All proceeds are in individual troop treasuries to hold for their senior trips.

The Girl Scouts would like to thank Baldwin's Hardware for their cooperation and the public for its support.

Pack 72 Has First Session

The first meeting of Pack 72 Cub Scouts at Herrick Park School was held Nov. 15.

Den One — Mrs. Robert Booze

Den Two — Mrs. H. C. Kronberg Jr.

Den Three—Mrs. Royal Welch

The Weblo Den opened the meeting with a pledge of allegiance to the flag, a prayer and group singing of "America."

Weblo awards were presented to Lonnie Booze, Scott Bovee, Dwight Burkhart, Joel Hardesty, Eric Meyer and Jeff Shelton.

The boys were welcomed into Troop 73 by Scout Flip Hardesty.

Bear badges were gven to Bill Macbeth and Bill Rohweder.

Cubs receving one year service awards were Scott Lask, Rick Beeley, Mike Kronberg, Doug Geisler, Phil Rumpf, Doug Eggleston, Bill Macbeth, John Frownfelder, David Wilson, Colby Welsh and Bill Rohweder.

Lonnie Booze was awarded a two-year pin.

Den One presented a skit entitled, "Egbert's Polishing Machine." Den Two led the cubs and their parents in games followed by group singing led by Den Three.

A meeting for cubs and their famlies for caroling and refreshments will be held Dec. 20 at 7 p.m. in Herrick Park School.

Matrons Party To Be In Britton

Members of the Past Matrons Club of Tecumseh Chapter No. 51, OES have invited their husbands and the past pjatrons and their wives to the annual Christmas party Sunday, Dec. 5.

The dinner at 6 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Fay Hindes, Britton will be followed by a $1 gift exchange, marked "his" or "hers" to help Santa.

Old Fashioned Christmas Party

For the meeting and program the group including two guests, Mrs. Howard Wilson, nee Judy Truesdale and Sally Hunt, gathered in front of the stage which held an artificial fireplace and an evergreen tree decorated for the occasion.

A gift exchange from beneath the tree was conducted by the program committee, Mrs. Dale Tingley, chairman, Geraldine French, Purnell Osburn and Cecile Smith.

★

Ruby Preston presented devotions in prayer and poem.

During the meeting members voted to sponsor two girls to Girls State and to donate $10 to the Lenawee Youth Center, Adrian.

A coin collection will be given to the Michener School for records for the record player donated by the club recently.

Mrs. David Watson read the Christmas story from the Bible and Mrs. Lewis Schultz read a Christmas poem.

A trio, Mrs. Robert King, Mrs. Donna Elliott and Mrs. Paul Roekle, sang two selections and were joined on the chours of "White Chrisimas" by the group.

★

Ruby Preston read "Yes, Virginia, There is a Santa Claus" followed by a Christmas medley on the piano by Mrs. Katharine Hunt.

Mrs. Guy Nixon gave two readings and Mrs. Cecile Smith recited "A Visit of St. Nicholas."

Mrs. Hunt played carols for group singing before they adjourned.

DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING

CLEAN MACHINERY PAYS. Your machinery will last longer, bring more at trade-in time and have fewer breakdowns if you store it properly to prevent rust and corrosion this winter. Wash or sweep fertilizer, grain, manure, dirt or trash from equipment hoppers, axles and frames. Look for surfaces which have lost their paint. If you don't repaint them, spply a coat of oil. Loosen all belts. If the machine is stored outside, remove, label and store belts out of weather.

HOG MARKETS will continue to receive strong support this winter. November levels were highest for that month in 17 years. Light slaughter is being triggered in part by a strong holdback of gilts and sows. But cold storage stocks which are down sharply from a year ago are also contributing to the favorable situation.

TREAT LIVESTOCK FOR LICE. Cold, winter days make for thick hair and dry skin. This is when lice multiply fast. Although clean, well-ventilated buildings help, you'll need chemicals for complete control. For beef and hogs, use coumaphos, dioxathion, lindane, malathion, methoxychlor, carbaryl, ronnel (Korlan) or toxaphene. Clodrin or DDT can also be used on hogs; ruelene on beef animals. For dairy, stick with clodrin, rotenone or pyrethrins plus a synergist.

PULL YOUR FARM RECORDS TOGETHER NOW. Know what your income situation is so you can manage your year-end business to save income tax dollars. With a generally favorable income year you may wish to defer some income into 1966 or make some income offsetting purchases of supplies.

'Totally Incredible Scheme'

Some 40 area women met to organize a Womens' Committee for the Ypsilanti Greek Theatre.

Professor James Gousseff, director of the Eastern Michigan University Theatre and also a YGT board member, described the concept of establishing a $4 million Greek Theatre in Ypsilanti as incredible and terribly silly.

But, he said, this unique plan has captured the imaginations and profound interest of people across the nation and world. It has gained such great support that plans are being made for a full Festival Season next summer.

IT WAS later learned that the idealistic nature of the YGT proposal was the largest single factor which attracted Alexis Solomos, Director of the National Theatre in Greece for 14 years, to accept the position of artistic director here.

Mr. Solomos described Greek drama as one of the most original, enthralling forms of theatre.

To present guidelines for committee organization, Mrs. Gousseff outlined the volunteer worker programs of other festival theatres, such as the Tyrone Guthrie Theatre in Minneapolis.

Women interested in participating in activities of the statewide committee are invited to contact Mrs. Harris, temporary chairman, 206 S. Washington, Ypsilanti, Mich., HU 2-7196.

Comedy Revue Committee Leaders Named

Jack Lundi and Mrs. John Howell, general chairmen of the Jaycee sponsored Comedy Revue to be presented in January, have announced committee chairmen.

Mrs. Walter Elwartowski as been named publicity chairman; Mrs. Dwight Helms, program; Dr. Robert Murray, talent and Mrs. Walter Wanderly, ticket chairman.

The proceeds of the revue will go toward the football lights. Although this project is spearheaded by the Jaycees, it is open to the whole community.

"Talent is no necessary but enthusiasm is," stated the chairmen.

Tryouts will begin the first part of January. The title of the revue will be announced later.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

WE ARE HOPING

I have purposely put off sharing what well may turn out to be The Bird of the season. Was it merely a solo act, a one appearance deal or, hopefully, could he have been a preview of good things to come?

Well, we have waited and are still not close to the answer — actually, the trouble is that I am refusing to give up.

He has not repeated that one exciting visit, but we keep hoping he will, and also that he will bring some friends.

Who is he? Why, none other than the biggest, most handsome Evening Grosbeak imaginable.

★

THE EPISODE occured several weeks ago, early on Veteran's Day to be exact. And this shows how things work out — breakfast, bath, massage, all the getting-ready-for-the day business had clicked off smoothly and, at an unheard of early hour for me, there I was sitting up.

Curtains and drapes were open, the bird feeders were half full with leftovers from the previous day's late afternoon feeding and we were ready for anything.

That is, we thought we were ready for anything. When I glanced out and saw the Evening Grosbeck — well, please meet one excited person.

I could hardly believe my eyes.

★

SO SURPRISED was I and anxious for someone else to see my bird that I screamed for Ida and frightened him away. Fortunately he came right back.

Right now, looking out on an empty feeder, the memories of that beautiful visitor are still fresh and vivid. He was such a marvelous character and so colorful.

A big bird, probably eight inches long, he appeared to be even larger because of his chunky build, short tail and fairly good-sized head with its enormous bill.

Enormous is perhaps a bit exaggerated, but these birds do have broad and stout looking pale bills which are over-size and which do earn them their name, grosbeak.

★

COLOR-WISE this fellow was gorgeous — no, I am not being the least bit prejudiced. Not me. His slightly forked tail was jet black.

Large snowy white patches on his wings accentuated their blackness. The warm yellow of his back and tummy blended into the rich olive of his upper back, front and neck.

The top of his head was dark brown, almost black. Brightest of all, were the two yellow st- s starting at the top of his bill and sweeping back around his head just above the black eyes.

This, of course, is the marking which turns the male Evening Grosbeak into a dashing rogue. For its his flashy, almost garish appearance was a much welcomed relief from the usual drab nothingness of an early November scape. And oh, his feathers looked so soft and smooth.

BUT GETTING back to the perfect way everything worked out. Ordinarily at such an early hour, my eyelids would have been at half mast, I would have been no where near ready to sit up and thus would not have the slightest chance of seeing the breakfasting freeloader.

I was up though and I did see. Being Veterans Day and a legal holiday, Mom was home and so she too had the fun of "seeing."

Having frightened him away once, I took no chances of doing it again and asked Ida with her softer voice, to call Mom.

Needless to say we hardly dared breathe during the few seconds it took her to reach my room. Mr. E. G. was most obliging, however, and for a rapt audience of three, put on quite a show.

All through his rather leisurely breakfast of scratch-feed and Sunflower seeds, he strutted about the feeder, posed first one way and then the other, turned and stretched — he did everything to make sure we had a good look.

★

SO IT is that although later in the day three Evening Grosbeaks were seen in a nearby tree, there has been no further return and our question is still unanswered — was this merely an isolated incident or were these advance scouts sent out to look for and prepare a good wintering spot. We are hoping!

Farm of Near Future Will Need $200,000 Investment

Mayor Charles Figy of Morenci was speaker for the Farm-City Week meeting of Tecumseh Kiwanis last week.

Mr. Figy is member of the Michigan State Fair Board. In 1953 he was appointed Assistant to the Secretary of Agriculture in Washington and served for eight years, having previously served as Commissioner of Agriculture in Michigan.

Mr. Figy is also Director of the Bank of Lenawee County.

★

SPEAKING from his own experience on the theme "Farming, Yesterday and Tomorrow," Mr. Figy noted the growth of the small general farm of his youth in Lenawee County to the large specialized farms of today.

The farm operator, faced with ever-increasing costs of land, labor and equipment, has to specialize and enlarge his operation to exist.

This can only be done by increasing his efficiency and cutting costs. The small farmer is being forced out.

In 10 years it is estimated the number of farm operators will be cut in half, making way for the giant and nearly fenceless farm plants with investments of $200,000 or more.

Fumes Strike Silently

LANSING — You don't have to shut yourself up in a garage with a running car to be in danger of being killed by carbon monoxide gas. This invisible agent can attack you in your home, out-of-doors in a parked car, or in a cabin in the woods.

Albert E. Heustis, state health directod, today issued a warning against the dangers of this lethal gas.

"This time of year always brings a increase in accidental carbon monoxide poisonings. This is a totally unnecessary toll that could be eliminated if people would follow a few basic preventive steps. Carbon monoxide is a killer that can be controlled," he observed.

Although automobiles are not the only source of the poisonous gas, they are the main ones.

Dr. Heustis warned motorists not to run the engine in parked cars under any circumstances, and to keep at least one window cracked open when driving.

In the home, charcoal grills present a serious hazard. A burning charcoal fire produces no smoke, but gives off great quantities of invisible carbon monoxide gas. The grills are for outside cooking only and should never be used indoors or even in a garage or on a partially enclosed breezeway, he said.

CROP Seeks Beans To Send Underdeveloped

"Church World Service overseas feeding stations are in need of Michigan Beans to relieve hunger in underdeveloped and overpopulated areas of the world," according to Russel Hartzler, Michigan Director of CROP.

A contribution of $7 will buy a 100-pound bag of Michigan Beans, which will make 365 good servings.

"You can save a life by giving to CROP through your church or sending a contribution direct to the CROP Account at the United Savings Bank here," stated Robert Ries, Tecumseh representative.

STRONG WINDS — Excessively strong wind over the past weekend struck Patterson School playground with a vengeance. The 600 pound cement "Turtle" shown going back onto his feet was apparently lifted and upset by the wind or some other unknown force. Everyone knows that turtles cannot live on their backs and Dick Purkey's Mobil Service on M-50 gave this one an assist. "Turtle" is back on his feet serving happy children.

Republican Ethnic Club Is Chartered

A charter will be presented to the new Lenawee Republican Ethnic Club Saturday.

Lt. Gov. William Milliken will be on hand at a banquet and dance in Adrian's American Legion Post home, starting at 7 p.m., to give the charter and speak.

Andres A. Casarez, president of the GI Forum, will be another guest.

Tickets are $3.50 and can be obtained from Mrs. Yale Kerby or Mrs. Ned Baldwin in Tecumseh and Mrs. Fawn Platt in Tipton.

Following the program, guests will dance to the music of Gilbert Atkinson and His Latins.

Mrs. Kerby notes that there will be enough time for Tecumseh Republicans to attend the banquet and still make the annual Hospital Auxiliary Ball here.

Health Study Takes on New Dimensions

The current phase of the Tecumseh Community Health Study will add new dimensions to the growing store of knowledge about factors related to health and disease.

Dr. Francis, Jr., who directs the unique study, described the program in detail recently at a meeting attended by staff physicians of the Herrick Memorial Hospital and representatives of the study.

He cited the need for more current information on health status and the plans for yearly cycles of interviewer visits to each home for this purpose.

THE FIRST of these visits were made in early November and will continue until the entire community is canvassed, in approximately one year.

The purpose of these visits is to find out about illnesses and health problems in the interval since the last examination. Persons new to the study or not previously interviewed will be asked about all illnesses or health problems they have ever had.

Information on illnesses or health problems in the month preceding the interviewer's visit will be obtained for all family members by a brief interview with an adult person, usually the housewife.

This will provide a moving picture of the health of the community and the kinds of illnesses that are "going around."

In addition, each family member over age 16 will be asked to complete a brief "check list" report of illnesses and health problems.

The interviewer will return a few days later by appointment to pick up these reports and, if necessary, to ask additional questions about serious illnesses.

These reports will provide more current information about each person's health status between examinations and will be reviewed by the physicians at the study clinic as part of each person's medical history.

The medical examinations at the study clinic in the Herrick Memorial Hospital are scheduled to begin again in the fall of 1966, but some study member's turn to be examined will not come up again until sometime later.

These yearly "check list" reports will be of great value in keeping of changes in health status during this interval.

AN ADDITIONAL feature of the current program is an intensive study directed at the common cold, influenza, croup, bronchitis and other diseases of the lungs and respiratory passages.

As a group, these illnesses cause more lost time from work, school and usual daily activities than all others. Though sometimes mild, they can be serious, especially for younger children and older persons with chronic disorders or conditions which may be aggravated by these illnesses.

Families with children of school age or younger will be asked to take part in these studies.

One-fourth of these families, chosen to represent the entire group of families, will be asked to take part during the first year.

A similar representative group will be asked to participate during the second, third and fourth years so that over a four-year period all families will have had their turn.

The purpose of these studies is to find out why certain people are more resistant to these kinds of infections and to discover if the reasons they are resistant can be used in developing ways of protecting against illnesses caused by these infections.

★

A THREE-WAY approach will be used.

1. Laboratory tests will show which people have been infected and how well their systems reacted by producing "antibodies" to ward off illness.

For this purpose, a blood sample will be collected at the start of the study, six months later and at the end of the 12-month period.

2. A weekly phone call or visit with each family will tell who has been sick during the past week and the nature of the illness.

3. A throat swab or gargle specimen will be collected in the first day or two of illness from persons reported to have an illness of the type under study.

★

ANOTHER special feature of the current program involves the study of malocclusion of the teeth, a major aspect of dental health among children.

A representative sample of all children aged 5 through 14 will be included. A brief dental health questionnaire will be prepared by interview with the mother at the time of the regular visit and appointments made for a brief dental examination at the study clinic.

This examination will be aimed primarily at inspecting the occlusion of the teeth or the way in which the child bites and preparing a model of the child's teeth.

The teeth will be examined for decay and the general condition of the gums will be evaluated but no X-rays will be taken.

★

THE FINE spirit of cooperation by the people of Tecumseh which has prevailed since the start of the Community Health Study continues at a high level according to Nelson Meade, who heads the team of field interviewers.

Although the new program is just getting under way, the willingness of the community to support these efforts in a direct and personal way has already been clearly demonstrated.

The Tecumseh studies are now known and discussed on many occasions in scentific circles over much of the world.

Unselfish contributions of the people of the Tecumseh community have made these studies possible and clearly deserve the international acclaim which they have been accorded, the official adds.

TEASEL TREAT — Mrs. Raymond Service has a valuable Christmas hobby.

It's a Teasel Tree

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

'Ever hear of a teasel Christmas tree? Mrs. Raymond Service, 4797 Clinton-Macon Rd., has been making them for several years to enhance her home and those of her friends and relatives.

She collects the flower head of the teasel plant in the fall preparatory to making the pretty trees, thus making her meanders through the meadows and lanes gainful and pleasurable.

Using a cardboard cone formed from a triangle 12 inches on either side, Mrs. Service pokes the ends of the teasels into holes punched about an inch apart.

She punches holes into the cardboard before she sews the sides of the triangle together, into a cone shape.

With gloves to protect her hands from the spiny flower heads, Mrs. Service places the teasels in the bottom of the cone first and builds the tree to the top.

Then she uses a can of spray paint to color the trees green or sometimes silver or gold. When dry, tiny bulb or berry ornaments are placed on the teasel branches.

One can of paint will do four trees and Mrs. Service confides that there is no end to the variety of decorations that may be used to enhance the miniature trees. One year she made 24 trees to give away.

Another beautiful holiday piece to enhance the decor of any home is the wreath made of a variety of eight or 10 different types of pine cones by Mrs. Service.

These she gathers like the teasels, washes them and dries them in a 150 degree oven for two or three hours. She said that they close when wet and open as they dry.

She plans to make one this year for the grave of her father, Bert Creger. The wreath is ideal for this purpose because it stands the elements so well.

Using a circular form of wire backed with hardware cloth, Mrs. Service wires each cone in place and accents it with a gay ribbon bow.

Mrs. Service and her husband purchased the Clinton Grain Co. about a year ago and since then the lady of the teasel trees has been spending her time in the office of the business weighing trucks and trailers and doing the multitude of other things necessary.

A resident of their present home for 25 years, they have always farmed. Since buying the business which is mostly the sale of fertilizer, the boys in the family have been doing the farming.

Mrs. Service added a final hint for the teasel trees, saying that they will stay pretty for many Christmases but if they should need a little sprucing up, a spray paint can will do an effective job.

CHRISMON DECORATIONS — Mrs. Charles Gorton, Sr., of the Macon Methodist Church, has contributed considerable time toward telling the story of Christ. The Chrismon idea came to Mrs. Gorton from a southern trip she made a year ago. Sunday, Dec. 5, the Macon Methodists will join Mrs. Gorton in decorating a tree with her hand-made ornaments and narrating the story of Christ.

Barbers have many lady customers these days and many short-haired girls are seen on the streets.

Joe Sage of Macon struck a very good market Saturday and sold a whole load of chickens for 9c a pound.

The annual football fight between Tecumseh and Clinton yesterday was attended by over 500 persons. Score 20-0 in favor of Tecumseh.

The windstorm Tuesday was general throughout Michigan, tearing down windmills, fences and roofs.

J. Edgar Woolams of Cleveland is the new pastor of the Friends Church.

The public library will be moved into the room back of the one now in use which will be only a reading room in the future.

There were 1825 hunters' licenses issued in the county, 157 in Tecumseh.

1925

A new traffic light has been installed at the corner of Chicago and Evans Streets.

M. W. Matthews is moving here from Britton and will open a heating, plumbing and sheet metal shop in the Co-Op store.

1935

"Hidden Harvest," the movie that was filmed in the Tecumseh vicinity last summer, will be shown at the high school Dec. 5, under the auspices of the Future Farmers Club. The picture was taken under the direction of the Purina Feed Co.

Tecumseh officials conferred with the WPA authorites this week to plan for the completion of the storm sewer project in the village.

A runaway team was run down by an automobile here Monday. The driver jumped to the wagon and brought the team to a stop.

1945

Lt. Col. and Mrs. R. G. B. Marsh arrived Monday from Alexandria, Va., where he has been stationed for the past four years. They have moved into their former home and the doctor will resume practice.

Two post-war cars have been received by the Butler Motor Co. One has been delivered to Dr. William Britton, the first new car sold since 1942.

Plans are being developed by a construction company to begin a housing development south and west of Quaker Oats Co.

Tecumseh Police were looking for potentially harmful medicines which had been stolen from Dr. C. L. Cook's car, while it was parked in Tecumseh.

Lonal Bishop, the Herald's pressman, had his right wrist broken and tendons and arteries in his hand were severed when a dumb waiter in his home severed his hand while he was loading it with canned fruit.

The Herald published the discussion which was held on Radio Station WABJ about the proposed annexation of 18 rural school districts to the Tecumseh Public Schools. Participating were Milton C. Porter, county superintendent of schools and James McDowell, Tecumseh superintendent of schools.

Distribute 91 Percent of Net Gain

Ninety-one percent of the $75.3 million estimated net gain from Mutual of New York's 1965 operations will be returned to policy holders as dividends or extra interest.

Ron Croll, field underwriter in Tecumseh, reported today that the company set aside $68.7 million from 1965 earnings for dividends or as extra interest above the amount guaranteed in settlement options. This compares with $61.1 million in 1964.

Subject to ratification by the board of trustees after the close of 1965, payment next year to Michigan residents who own individual life insurance policies with MONY will average about 10% greater than if the present dividend scale had been continued.

Applications for Carrier Being Taken

To apply you must be at least 18 years old, and be a resident or bona fide patron of the respective Michigan Post Office.

The Postal Clerk and Carrier positions offer a starting pay of $2.57 per hour, automatic annual increases, liberal vacation and sick leave benefits, low cost health and life insurance plans, and generous retirement plan, and a uniform allowance.

Complete information and application forms may be obtained from the office of the Executive Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Room 217 Post Office Building, Lansing, Michigan 48924; or from the Tecumseh or Britton Post Office.

Extension Club Plans Exhibit

Mrs. Carl Mills and Miss Edith Haviland were guests of the Raisin Center Extension Study Group when they met at the home of Mrs. Herbert Youngs.

Miss Haviland helped with the display of "Laura Haviland and The Raisin Institute, which will be exhibited by the group at the Lenawee Exposition Dec. 3 and 4.

Mrs. John Young gave the Lesson on "Family Life — Husband and Wife Relationships."

Homemade gifts were collected for the Goodwill Industries "Gift Shop".

Final plans were made for the Christmas Party at Michener School and also the group's annual Christmas Party Dec. 19, at the home of Mrs. Dan Muzillo.

BUILDING PERMITS

Tecumseh Township has zoning regulations and a permit is needed to build, alter or repair any dwelling. A first floor plan is required which will be kept by Building Inspector.

Permits should be secured before construction is started.

No House Trailers will be lived in, any place in Tecumseh Township, except in Trailer Parks.

Also required is an electrical permit for any type wiring. This permit can be secured from the City Engineer of Tecumseh.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fugate of Ypsilanti, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore to Detroit Friday evening, where they attended the Ice Follies. The Dean Moores were celebrating their 10th wedding anniversary.

Harold Amstutz entered the Herrick Memorial Hospital last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gorton Jr. and family entertained his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gorton Sr. and his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Gorton, Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore were in Ypsilanti, Saturday evening and attended the Travelogue on "South African Wildlife in Action" narrated by Larry Linnard of Maumee, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Carey Sr. accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rousseau and sons of Dearborn spent Thanksgiving Day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Zelluff.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pants and son of Six Lakes, spent Thanksgiving Day and Friday with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rowe. On Thanksgiving Day other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gail Pants and family, of Holland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. James Pants of Toledo; Mr. and Mrs Lloyd Pants of Ottawa Lake and Mary Lou Servoss of Britton.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore were Thanksgiving dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore and family. In the late afternoon all called on Mr and Mrs. Albert Straub and family near Belleville.

Mrs. Clare Camburn and son Robert, Mrs. Mary Camburn and daughter Buellah spent Thanksgiving Day in Flint, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Max Camburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg spent from Friday till Sunday with her mother, of Rushville, Ind. They also visited her brother and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zick spent Thanksgiving with his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Zick in Clinton.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Pilbeam spent from Wednesday until Sunday in northern Michigan deer hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Osborne entertained their sons and families: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Osborne, Robert Douglas and Pamela Haines, Mr. and Mrs. George Osborns and daughters, Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Travis and May Baker spent Saturday and Sunday at the Baker Homestead near Sydney, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Jordan Jr. and daughter of Pittsburgh Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rathbun and family of East Lansing were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Jordan Sr. The former arrived on Saturday. Cynthia Rathbun returned home with her parents after spending several days with her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hill had as their guests on Thanksgiving, his father and sister, A. J. Hill and Grace Hill of Swanton, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Ross and family of Macon.

Jim Fagan Enlistment Announced

Sgt. Tom Foulds, local Air Force representative, announced the enlistment of James L. Fagan, of 6331 Ridge Rd., Britton.

Mr. Fagan, who is now staff Sgt. Fagan, had previously served in the Army and Coast Guard and decided to make a career of military service and chose the Air Force because of the broad veterans' program they offered.

He was enlisted at the same grade he held when discharged from the Coast Guard and was allowed to select the base of his choice from a wide selection of openings. He decided upon Travis Air Force Base, which is near San Francisco.

Sgt. Fagan was employed at Tecumseh Products and his wife worked as a nurse at Herrick Memorial Hospital. James is the brother of the coach at Tecumseh High School, Tom Fagan.

Economists Meet

A meeting of the Lenawee County Committee on Economic Opportunity will be held at the Michigan Employment Commission Building Wednesday, Dec. 1, at 8 p.m.

Peska-Cook Engagement Is Revealed

Saturday, Feb. 19, the Credit Union Supper;

Saturday, March 12, has been set for the Father and Son Banquet.

After some discussion it was decided to purchase five dozen metal folding chairs. Mrs. Guy Zelluff, Mrs. Ray Williams and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore comprise the committee. They will also purchase a carrier to hold the chairs. Mrs. Ronald Corl, Mrs. Truman Jordan, Mrs. Hamilton Moore, Mrs. Harold Kuder and Mrs. Eugene Hill will look after the Christmas boxes for shut-ins.

Mrs. Herman Mehler and daughter Hallie Jane Mehler presented a very enlightening program on "This Living in the Space Age."

Mrs. Garland Osburn gave the devotions. Mrs. Guy Zelluff and her committee served pumpkin pie with whipped cream, using the Thanksgiving theme in decorating the tables.

Young GOP Federation Selects Art Collingsworth

Jack A. Quilico, Chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Young Republican National Federation, has announced the appointment of Arthur J. Collingsworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neri Collingsworth, to the nine member National Foreign Affairs Committee.

Mr. Collingsworth, a junior in political science and international relations at the University of Michigan, is the only college student on the committee.

The Young Republican National Federation includes all Republicans through the age of 35.

MR. COLLINGSWORTH made a trip around the world this summer during which he spent a month touring South Vietnam.

He is Chairman of the University of Michigan Conference on Vietnam Steering Committee, a member of the Steering Committee of the National Student Committee for the Defense of Vietnam and an officer of the University College Republican Club.

Since his return from the Far East, he has acted as a resource person for the International Commission of the U. S. National Student Association, National Congress, participated as a speaker at the National Symposium on Vietnam in Washington, debated former Socialist presidential candidate Norman Thomas at Emory University at Atlanta, Georgia, and spoken at a number of colleges, universities and high schools throughout Michigan.

Monthly Theme Is Achievement

Den 8 opened the meeting of Cub Scout Pack 4 Nov. 22, with a color guard and pledge to the flag at St. Elizabeth School.

The theme for the month was 'Achievement Parade" and the program began with Den 12 presenting the requirements to become a bobcat.

The meeting continued with Den 6 presenting a skit on the wolf badge requirements; Den 3 on the bear badge requirements; Den 14 on the lion badge requirements; Den 2 on the Webelos badge requirements and Dens 8 and 9 on the arrow point requirements.

Wendell Disbrow presented awards to David Bedford, bear badge; Louis Schneider, wolf badge; Joe Kauffman and David Biscupski, denner stripes; Mark Vanske and Robert Litteral, assistant denner stripes; Robert Litteral and Louis Schneider, gold and silver arrow points under wolf badge.

Den 2 with Mrs. Robert Laidlaw as den mother, received the cubby award. A uniform inspection followed.

The den mothers met at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 29, at the First Baptist Church to plan December's program.

The next Pack Meeting will be Dec. 20, at 7:30 p.m. at St. Elizabeth School.

Den 8 retired the flags and the meeting was adjourned by Mr. Disbrow.

Discuss 4-H Buymanship

Mrs. Raymond Bolz of Tipton assisted with group discussions on 4-H Buymanship projects and clothing evaluation at the Lenawee County 4-H Clothing Workshop held last Wednesday in the Eagles Hall, Adrian.

Fifty 4-H clothing project leaders, junior leaders, and members attended the two-hour sessions.

Mrs. Robert Cox showed filmstrips on Color and Selecting Fabrics for Garments.

Mrs. Lawrence Reese gave a talk on "What's New in Fabrics."

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Warner, of 303 Herrick Park Dr., announce the engagement of their daughter, Jeanne, to Terrance Bruce Beland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beland, also of Tecumseh. A summer wedding is being planned.

ST. JOSEPH — Among the guests who accepted Fisher Body's hospitality during the plant Open House last week were nearly 1,000 students of Tecumseh High School, shown as they arrived, with Principal Neville Hart directing traffic from the buses. Other county schools also send their scholars by bus for the affair. AT RIGHT — Two-year-old Ralph Alcala of Adrian, held by his dad, also Ralph, shows off the souviner key ring, which was given to each visitor who made the plant tour. Guests were treated to coffee or orange drink and donuts, each was given a booklet explaining the Fisher operation at its Tecumseh layout.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

It's good to be back in Michigan again and resume my weekly visits with you.

I was privileged to spend nearly three weeks in the Far East with nine other Governors at the invitation of the Japanese government and our own State Department.

This trip was made at no expense to you and gave your Governor an opportunity to view firsthand the growing economy of Japan and the conflict in which we are engaged in South Vietnam.

The few days I spent in the Republic of Vietnam gave me the opportunity to visit personally with several hundred of the thousands of Michigan men who are risking their lives there in the cause of world freedom.

★

MY MAJOR conclusion is that what we are doing is morally right and necessary.

Man's most precious gift, aside from life itself, is the right to live according to the dictates of his own conscience and make his own choices. This is also true of peoples and nations.

In essence, the war in South Vietnam results from the effort on the part of North Vietnam and its foreign allies to impose tyranny through terror on the people of South Vietnam who as citizens of an independent nation want to freely determine their own destiny.

They do not want to be a Communist nation. They want only to be free.

★

OUR intervention has saved South Vietnam from defeat and tyranny which, if permitted, could lead to the collapse of Southeast Asia and stimulate other false wars of liberation through terror directed by the international Communist conspiracy.

Our commitment of ground troops has also changed the nature of the conflict. It means the North cannot win and it has given courage and greater effectiveness to the South.

Now I don't know whether we are doing everything we should. I know some of our policies are wrong, such as giving foreign aid to countries whose ships are delivering supplies to North Vietnam.

But I also know it is not a simple situation to be solved by simple, conventional solutions. It is as complex a military, political, psychological and total struggle as could be imagined.

Of this I am certain. If tyranny can be imposed by terror on South Vietnam, directed and controlled from abroad, it can and will be imposed throughout the world, including the United States.

★

WAR IS horrible. We all yearn for peace, as most people do.

But peace cannot come through the victory of tyranny imposed through terror. I am therefore convinced we must help the people of South Vietnam if they, the rest of Southeast Asia and eventually the peoples of the earth are to avoid this fate.

Will Replace Open House

The "Lenawee Exposition," a new and more inclusive program of displays, demonstrations and exhibits, will replace the annual holiday open house sponsored by the Lenawee County Extension of the Home Economics Department.

The public is invited to attend at no cost the two-day event in the First Methodist Church of Adrian on Maple St.

The Exposition will be open Friday, Dec. 3, from 5 to 9 p.m. and Saturday, Dec. 4, from noon until 6 p.m.

Chairmen have stated that the Exposition makes possible a presentation of "Whats going on in Lenawee County" in addition to the many displays of holiday items.

—o—

Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Seizert will entertain Mr. and Mrs. George Ruhl of Muskegon, Larry Ruhl, New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Smith Jr. of Swanton, Ohio, Mrs. Verna Banks, Mrs. Tillie Ruhl, Mrs. Agnes Zeck and Mrs. Lucile Peglish, all of Toledo.

The engagement of Shirley Ann Holt to Michael Keith Crawford is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dolton Holt of Adrian. Shirley is a senior at Tecumseh High School. Michael is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Crawford, 102 E. Kilbuck St. He is a 1965 graduate of Tecumseh High School and is employed at the Hydra-Matic plant in Ypsilanti.

Extension Study Group Cuts Out Stuffed Toys

Members of the Progress Extension Study Group cut out stuffed toys for Maple Lane Manor people to fill when the group met Nov. 22 at the home of Mrs. Merton Boss.

The study group also provides nylon hose for stuffing animals.

The Lenawee Epositon Dec. 3 and 4 at the First Methodist Church, Adrian, will take the place of the annual holiday open house.

December 14 the group will go to Don's Beef Buffet for dinner at 6:30 p.m. followed by the revealing of secret pals in an exchange of gifts.

Pastries, coffee, mints and nuts were served for refreshments by the hostess.

Feed Grain Program Has Few Changes

The Feed Grain Program will be essentially unchanged in form next year, but payment rates will be adjusted to encourage broader participation by farmers, the U. S. Department of Agriculture announced.

The 1966 program is designed to strengthen incomes of producers, particularly those who make full use of the program, and to keep production in balance with consumption.

Feed grain stocks have been reduced by more than a third since 1960. The program will enable the nation to continue moving toward an adequate reserve supply while protecting farm income levels and reducing program costs, according to SGS.

Frankhouse Attends Session in Cobo Hall

Among those attending the industry-wide conclave was Harvey Frankhouse of The Decorating Center in Tecumseh.

Visitors viewed the new decorating materials, selected lines and placed orders for the coming season.

Close to 300 firms exhibited paint, wallcoverings and related decorating materials, along with the latest developments in application tools and equipment.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

To figure out some of the world's bigger mysteries, deep intellectual perception is needed.

Coming to mind quickly is the repeat trips that Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara keeps making to Vietnam.

You say, "He wants to assay the war . . . er, . . . ah, police action, or whatever they're calling it these days."

Wrong.

A mind that runs to profound depths has the real answer. Let me explain. Mac wants to relax. And especially, he wants to wear his high-lace shoes in public, where no one will gasp.

Think back, remember those pictures the wire services flash across the nation whenever Mr. McNamara goes "over there." Without fail, there are the short-sleeve shirts and the high shoes.

As the photographer starts to snap his shutter, Mac makes sure everyone can see those

The whole answer came to me in a blinding flash some weeks ago, not too long after the most recent surge of news photos from Vietnam.

It was while I was shaving with my new Sunbeam electric razor. That's my five-minute meditation period each day, no phone, no shouting of irate citizenry, only the steady hum of the Sunbeam.

Like Mr. McNamara, I'm now a devotee to the high-lace shoes. Like him, I'm completely frustrated when it comes to wearing them in public. But there comes a time — for him and me — when the big brogans are stamped OK for public appearances.

His comes on swings through the jungles of the Far East, mine arrives every Wednesday, press day, when weekly editors are magically turned into printers all across this land.

★

IN THE Riordan Clan, the high-lace shoe always brought a laugh. I used to be among the biggest gigglers when my dad slipped into his and wore them as part of his best garb. But I have long since stopped chuckling. The darn things are just too comfortable.

Dad was from Boston, the Cultured East, as he used to tell us, arriving in Michigan as a young man about 25 — with high shoes on, I assure.

His brogans were always of one brand, the Ground Gripper. Ever hear of it? Well, we Riordan kids certainly did. They'd be listed as health shoes, with a curve to the toe conforming to the natural growth of the foot.

To a teen ager of any era, they were bad dobeies. My brother, Bob, four years my senior was first introduced to them as he reached manhood.

No kid ever complained so loudly and no father was ever so insistent that a No. 1 son be shod in GG's.

As might be guessed, my brother did such a great job in the sobbing department that by the time it came my turn, dad was too worn out fighting to insist, so I never donned a Ground Gripper.

Just before World War II, the folks decided it might be a good idea to have a family portrait made (and how I treasure my copy of it.)

A photographer came to the house, set up an elaborate battery of lights, climbed under the black hood as the Riordans arrayed themselves in front of the fireplace.

★

WHOEVER the cameraman was did a terrific job. Everyone looked great, the gang agreed as we gathered about to check the proofs.

Then, horrors of horrors.

There was dad, seated in the foreground and smiling happily, legs crossed and sticking a well-polished Ground Gripper, high-lace model, right at the camera.

Like McNamara, he wanted to be sure the world knew he wasn't afraid to relax and enjoy a real brogan.

Wes Vivian Plans Visit

Congressman Weston Vivian will be in this area Friday, Dec. 10, at the various post offices. This is his schedule:

Clinton — 2:15 to 3 p.m.
Tecumseh — 3:15 to 4 p.m.
Britton — 4:15 to 5 p.m.

Congressman Vivian will answer questions concerning legislation, local problems, individual beefs or any other queries.

Final Charity Figure Is 20% Over Budget

Final tabulations for the 1965 United Fund drive in Tecumseh show donations totaling $53,275.23 — nearly 20% over the goal.

Extra funds are pledged toward various park improvement projects in the city, state drive co-chairmen, Dr. Bob Laidlaw and Joe Fortunato.

"In addition, $6,741.33 was collected during the drive to be forwarded to other communities at the request of the donors," they said.

"We attribute this successful drive to the increased generosity of our citizens resulting in substantial gains for all divisions.

"The response shows the understanding and acceptance of the United Way by Tecumseh area residents.

"Tremendous enthusiasm of all the various individuals associated with the drive, including the division chairmen and workers, and the many other individuals and organizations helped guarantee success.

"A special word of praise should go to our newest industry, the Fisher Body Plant, where employees have set such a splendid example for all of us.

"Also, we commend The Herald for its whole-hearted support and cooperation.

"Again we would like to thank all who participated in this drive by giving generously of their time and money. Tecumseh can be proud of this success," they closed.

2 Winners This Week

You goofed, N. Lamarand of Wamplers Lake.

We hate to tell you, but you missed $150 in gifts from 48 friendly Tecumseh merchants.

If you had been around Tecumseh last Friday night in any of the Gifts-A-Plenty stores at 7:30, you would have all those prizes. Your name was pulled in the first of four Friday night drawings.

Lightning could strike twice in the same place, N. Lamarand. If you have been in a Tecumseh store this past week and entered another Gifts-A-Plenty ticket, plan on returning at exactly 7:30 this Friday evening.

There is even more reason to appear in the Tecumseh Gifts-A-Plenty stores. There will be two prize winners — with merchants doubling their awards. That means a total of $300 will go to two winners.

Some Wonderful Christmas bargains are available in Tecumseh. A few of these appear in Section B of the Herald.

Seaman Vance in GT7 Project

GEMINI 7/6 (FHTNG) — Seaman Thomas A. Vance, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford A. Vance of 9115 N. Union, is participating in the Project Gemini GT7/GT6 mission as a crewmember aboard the fleet oiler USS Waccamaw, a unit of Task Force 140 in the Atlantic Ocean.

He has gone through an extensive training program in recovery operations since his ship was selected as a unit of the recovery force.

★

Normally operating as a unit of the Atlantic Fleet's Service Force, Waccamaw will return to her normal duties after the mission is completed.

A SOLEMN MOMENT — This is one of the few moments of solemnity in the comedy, "The Mouse That Roared," being presented this week at the Community Center by the Senior Class of Tecumseh High School. Caty Maples is the lovely Glorianna and Doug Hall plays the role of Tully Bascom. Tickets are available from the students and at Sluyter's Electric for performances Thursday and Saturday with curtain time at 8 p.m.

70 on Hand at OES Dinner

Seventy members and their families attended the potluck supper of the Tecumseh Chapter No. 5, OES Dec. 2.

The worthy matron, Mrs. Ruettinger, welcomed all with a poem, "Snowflake." Mrs. Henry Kempf was welcomed as a page of the Lenawee-Monroe County Association.

Mrs. Ruettinger dedicated two new emblems quoting from the stories of Ruth and Martha.

A sheath of wheat was given to the Chapter by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bonner and a broken column by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kempf.

★

For a special project this year, Mrs. Ruettinger is asking all members who have birthdays and attend the meetings to donate their age in pennies or silver. They are honored with a cupcake and lighted candle and the singing of "Happy Birthday."

This time was for 10 members having birthdays in October, November and December.

A Christmas program entitled, "A Christmas Card" was given by the associate matron, worthy matron, marshall, star points and soloist, Mrs. F. S. McRae.

As the Marshall stopped at each point station, they recited a verse and pinned a star on the plaque carried by the Marshall.

A silent auction was held and a mystery box containing a Christmas item was won by Robert Warner.

★

THE CONDUCTRESSES gave gifts to each officer and member present from the worthy matron and worthy patron, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ruettinger.

A public barbecue supper will be held Dec. 10 and a School of Instruction in Tecumseh with Clinton, Dec. 16.

The next meeting will be January with initiation.

Refreshments were served in the dining room from tables in keeping with the holiday season by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hoagland and LeVern Russell.

Shawnee Squares Set Smorgasbord Dance Saturday

The Shawnee Squares are planning a salad smorgasbord to highlight the refreshments at the dance Saturday, Dec. 11.

Members have been asked to bring and share their favorite salad.

Glen LeFever of Toledo will be the caller for the event at the Community Center.

Officers invited all western style dancers to attend.

Jack May of Detroit will be the caller for a dance Dec. 31 to herald in the new year.

Attendance for this one is limited and reservations should be made with Lee Prettyman or tickets purchased at the Dec. 11 dance to avoid disappointment.

Auxiliary Will Buy $3,000 Resuscitator

By MRS. DONALD YOUNG

Could this be you — one of your family — a friend?

Recently a Tecumseh man in his 40's returned to a useful life after surviving a coronary stoppage thanks to successful resuscitation.

Close to home.

Residents should take heed and be thankful for recent advancements to aid in cardiac and coronary-pulmonary patients.

In the United States, about 450,000 people die each year of coronary occulusion, or heart attacks.

Usually death is sudden, generally occurring within 72 hours after the initial attack.

Victims are usually men under the age of 65 and in the prime of life.

Many pathologic studies of patients dying suddenly from coronary disease have failed to demonstrate any injury to heart muscle.

It is as if something huge grasped the pendulum of a good clock and stopped its regular ticking, even though the internal machinery was still in good working order.

Some equipment for use on coronary patients was purchesed a few years ago by the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary and is used in emergencies, particulary in surgery.

NURSES and doctors here have proven that action can result in a "second chance"—such as in the case of the man in his 40's.

Now Herrick Memorial Hospital, the medical and nursing staff are ready to enter into a new phase of medical care of Tecumseh coronary patients.

To do this, certain electronic equipment and cardiac instruments, as well as other additional equipment, is needed.

To make this possible the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxilary has pledged future project earnings towards the purchase for a Cardiac Resuscitation Cart, which will cost approximately $3,000.

This cart will have a compilation of necessary equipment altogether in one "unit" for readiness in such emergencies.

It would also be used following heart attacks to monitor the heart beat of a patent in his room with an alarm signal at the nurses station.

CARDIAC RESUSCITATION CART IS MOBILE, GOING TO HEART VICTIM

Truckers Arriving at 3 a.m.

A request from Carl Kennel to stifle truck noise on N. Pearl St., near Tecumseh Sash and Door, was taken under advisement by Council Monday night.

Mr. Kennel said lumber suppliers to the Tecumseh firm park their big diesel trucks near his home at 204 N. Pearl St., and the early arriving truckers prevent him from sleeping.

City Manager Cal Zorn was asked to notify Robert D. Moore, Sash and Door owner, to notify his suppliers that the truckers would have to park downtown or be ticketed.

Some of the truckers arrive at three and four o'clock in the morning and keep their diesels running for warmth.

A feline with the wanderlust arrived at the Fisher Body plant in a box car recently. Employees gave her milk and last week she decided that the soft upholstery would make a fine place to have kittens. Congratulations to the new bodies at Fisher!

One quart of milk. That what he wants for Christmas. Seems like a simple request for Santa to fill but just how do you get fresh milk to John Dewey in Vietnam. He wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dewey, that the temperature there was 105 degrees Thanksgiving Day.

If you're going to keep up with developments around the area, it would appear that some more formal education is needed. Stauffer Chemical's Silicone Division on Sutton Rd., has just announced the commercial availability of a series of two-component, room-temperature-vulcanizing (RTV) silicone rubbers: SS-820, SS-821, SS-823, and SS-826. The four products vary from a pourable, syrupy consistency (10,000 centipoises) (SS-821) to a thixotropic form (SS-820). Got that?

Will the real Community Services Forum publicity chairman please step forward? Consistently The Herald receives notice of meetings too late to be used preceding the session. We'd like to help.

General Motors' dealers in the United States sold more cars in November than [illegible] November in GM's history, 434,120 cars.

Are there more? We know of six Tecumseh servicemen in Vietnam. It is thought perhaps there are those in the area who would like to send them the season's greetings.

In writing to Santa, some youngsters have included original drawings. We'd love to have more and will print all art that can be engraved.

Dancers at the Holiday Ball Saturday night didn't have to wait for Monday's snow to get the feeling of winter. Sue Gross had created a wonderfully-realistic winter scene on the west wall of the Country Club.

Gals who sing and dance and guys with Brooklyn accents are currently in demand. They should visit the Community Center Friday evening at 7:30 or Sunday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. — that's when tryouts will be held for "Guys and Dolls," this winter's Tecumseh Players' musical comedy.

Come on now, Eve, this is too much, but keep it up, we love such statements. Said Mrs.. Dale Bowen, in submitting the above squib. "Please mention this in 'Behind Page One'. Everyone reads that."

Business at the Mull Accounting Service is tremendous. Jim arrives at 8:59 a.m., opens the door, turns on the radio and lights, then at 9:01 heads downtown for a 30-minute coffee break.

New retail business establishments seem to be popping up like mushrooms on a damp spring morning. Great, just great. Keep coming, fellows and gals, Tecumseh welcomes you with open arms.

Several new housing developments are nicely taking shape, including Marsh Coulter's Westhaven on Occidental Hwy., and further out by Fisher Body, the sharp trailer court on Gady Rd., and The Heights subdivision, being masterminded by Bob Goedert, the realtor of Adrian. Bob's layout is on Occidental, just north of the new Sutton Road Branch of the United Savings Bank.

Want to send a Christmas card to a GI in Vietnam? Send them to TV station WSPD, 136 Huron St., Toledo, O., in another stamped envelope marked GI Mail. The second stamped envelope will be distributed among our men serving there. In Midland the folks are collecting old paperback books to be sent to Vietnam. These can be carried easily. Sounds like a good idea.

Smiling Jack Burke, the new Western Auto man in town, reports his catalog order business was so tremendous during the past week he had to buzz to Fort Wayne, Ind., where the firm's big warehouse is located, returning Sunday night with a truck load of merchandise.

Rotary Club Party Planned for Christmas

Lenawee County's "Victor Borge," Dr. James Spencer of Adrian, and eight outstanding musicians will furnish the entertainment for the annual Christmas party of the Rotary Club Tuesday, Dec. 14.

The event will be held at the Tecumseh Country Club with Rotary Anns, guests and their escorts and Rotary Governor Perry W. Richwine present.

Officials of the Michigan Safety Check Council will present the fifth safety award.

Dinner is to be served at 6:30 p.m.

Fire Victim May Park House Trailer

James Vanzo, 402 W. Chicago Blvd., was granted permission by Council Monday night to park a trailer on his property until repairs to his home are completed.

The Vanzo house was extremely damaged by fire last week.

Permit to park a house trailer in a residential area is for six months.

Jaycees Seek Outstanding Young Citizen

The Tecumseh Jaycees have formed a committee to seek nominations for the outstanding Tecumseh Young Man of the Year.

Jaycee president Jim Rundell has named a committee headed by Walt Wonderly, to canvass churches, business, clubs and organizations to determine which young man — 21 through 35 — has contributed the most to the community during the year.

According to Mr. Wonderly, nomination blanks will be sent to these organizations, or available from him.

The Distinguished Service Award winner from Tecumseh will be entered in the Michigan Jaycee contest. State winners will then be entered in National competition, which chooses America's Ten Outstanding Young Men.

Bosses Night will also be a feature during the evening, where Jaycees recognize their bosses who support the aims of their employees.

Raynor Olivers Hold Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Oliver of 3850 Kaiser Rd., will have an open house Sunday for their son, Ronald, who is leaving Dec. 16 for service in the US Army.

Friends and relatives are invited from 2 to 5 p.m.

He is a 1963 graduate of Clinton High School. He has been employed at the Ford Motor Co., Rawsonville plant.

The weather will play an important part in the development of Michigan's future peach yield. Peach trees are particularly hampered by cold injury. Severe winters can reduce bearing peach tree acreage.

Showers Honor Ann Surratt

Ann Surratt has been feted at two bridal showers recently. Sharie Osburn and Candy McEnroe were the hostesses for a luncheon shower for 25 guests Nov. 27, at the Osburn residence.

Terri Clark gave a personal shower for Miss Surratt with 18 friends of the bride-elect attending Nov. 26.

The wedding of Miss Surratt and Mike Osburn will be solemnized Dec. 11, at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

Janice Hall Marries Ronald O'Neill

Janice Dianne Hall and Ronald Lee O'Neill were united in marriage Nov. 20 at the Presbyterian Church in a candlelight service performed by the Rev. Julian Gresham.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hall, 116 S. Evans St. and Mrs. Charles O'Neill, of Clinton and the late Mr. O'Neill.

Tall vases of white gladioli and chrysanthemums were used on the altar.

Two seven-branch candelabra fronted with smilax and stephanotis formed an aisle to the altar decorated with white gladioli and chrysanthemums.

Single tapers with the same foliage marked the pews along the carpeted aisle.

★

THE BRIDE'S gown, styled and fashioned by Mrs. Charles O'Neill, sister-in-law, of the groom, is a sheath design of peau de soie delicately covered by a cut-away coat of chantilly lace featuring a fur trimmed sabrina neckline.

Her chapel train was draped into a bustle for the reception.

Her bouffant veil of silk illusion was held in place by a matching fur pillbox.

She wore pearl earrings and pin, gift of the groom, and carried a cascade of stephanotis outlining the gold throated white orchid attached to a white fur muff.

Mrs. Buddy Gillette, cousin of the bride from Pinellas Park, Fla., was the matron of honor in a floor-length gown with gold velvet bodice and soft gold satin skirt featuring an empire [illegible] line with petite garland.

She wore a matching pillbox hat and carried chartreuse and brown cyprepidium orchids outlined with gold wheat and sea oats on a velvet muff.

Their hats and floral arrangements were similar to those of the matron of honor.

CHARLES O'NEILL of Marion, Ohio served as his brothers' best man. Gary Hall, brother of the bride, Lester Ruhl and Charles Rebottaro seated the 200 guests.

A pyramid arrangement of white gladioli and chrysanthemums backed with a seven-branch silver candelabra centered the buffet table at the Country Club were the reception was held.

Crystal candelabra with corsage style arrangements stood at either side of the bride's table.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and is employed at Dearborn Steel Tubing Co.

Her husband, also a Tecumseh High School graduate, is a supervisor at the Fisher Body Division of General Motors.

The couple are living at 316 N. Maumee St. after a two-week trip to California.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's mother at Roummels in Clinton.

READERS WRITE

TO THE EDITORS:

I wish to express my deep gratitude and great thanks for the "Free" publicity I noted under the picture of my across-the-street neighbor, Allan Seager in the Dec. 2 paper.

I appreciate particularly the extra 30 people who have applied today for ear piercing, and I have them scheduled all through my next week's appointments.

Inadvertently, (I am sure) my medical training did not include technical details and complications of ear-piercing, but I recently came across an excellent article* on this, and now consider myself an ex-spirt.

Since you have started all this, and since I am deluged by your readers at my door step, I cannot find time to talk this matter over with you personally, and felt obliged to write you.

Sincerely,
Richard D. Coak, M.D.

God bless the little things this Christmastide,
All the little wild things that live outside,
Little cold robins and rabbits in the snow,

The "little things" of nature are so lovely and so far from all the strife. Just watching them is good for the soul. Let's give them a little extra suet and seed as a Christmas gift.

SENIOR CITIZENS CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS TOUR

Tecumseh Senior Citizens will tour the city streets in car-caravan style, Tuesday, Dec. 21, starting from the Community Center at 7 p.m.

This tour will provide area senior citizens an opportunity to view the many residential holiday-decorated areas without the worry of driving and viewing at the same time.

The Tecumseh Kiwanis Club has again volunteered to provide the necessary drivers and transportation for this the second annual tour.

KIDDIES PARTY

Tecumseh area youngsters will be treated to a Yuletide party, Dec. 23.

It is hoped that Santa Claus will be joined by a television celebrity for the annual party presented by the Parks and Recreation Department at the Community Center.

The party is financed by contributions from the Community Fund Foundation. Members of Jaycees and the Jaycee Auxiliary direct this annual event.

The party starts at 7 p.m., with cartoons, and Santa will arrive last to complete the festivities about 9 p.m.

TEEN BALL

The Teen Holiday Dance will be held Thursday, Dec. 30 from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. at the Community Center.

Tipton Holiday Party Planned For December 11

TIPTON — The Community Christmas party will be held Saturday, Dec. 11 at the Tipton Community Church at 7:30 p.m.

Children of the Sunday School and Grange will present the program. Each family is asked to bring candy or pop corn for the treat.

The treat committee is Mr. and Mrs. Harold Radant, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Karpo, Mr. and Mrs. William Luce and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Allen.

Refreshments will be served after the program with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wilkin and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bale in charge.

Re-appointed

Mrs. Royal Welch and Robert MacLean were re-appointed to succeed themselves on the Board of Canvassers by Council Monday night.

The appointments are for four years.

Junior Hi Hoopsters Win Two

Tecumseh Junior High basketball teams started their seasons with wins this week. Seventh grade scored a 38-10 win over Saline while eighth graders won, 34-12.

High point man for the seventh grade Indians was Craig Smith, who played the entire game to a 14-point total.

Scott Dalton and Mark Hamilton backed him up with eight points each.

The Saline five weren't able to hit although otherwise both teams played coordinated ball.

Both played clean basketball totaling only three team fouls each.

Tecumseh	12	12	10	4	—38
Saline	2	4	4	0	—10

Ken Pleh was high man for the eighth grade with 10 points while committing only two fouls. The team didn't play quite as well, totaling 18 fouls to Saline's five.

Unable to see the rim throughout the game, Tom Aiuto provided the necessary team spirit to carry the game. Bob Reed and Bill Puffer were credited with eight points.

Saline's White hit for five points to lead his team's effort.

Dentist Appointed

Dr. William Adams, local dentist, was appointed by Council Monday night to the Planning Commission.

He will complete the unexpired term of the late Joseph Rice.

More people buy Chevrolets? Yes!
Than any other make car? Yes!
Any other? Yes!
There must be reasons. Sure!
Name ten. OK:

1. All these comforts are available: steering wheels that tilt or tilt and telescope; AM/FM Multiplex Stereo radio, first ever offered in cars; and Strato-bucket seats (to give you just a sampling).
2. Comfortron automatic heating and cooling you can order—Just dial the temperature and turn it on; Comfortron automatically keeps you comfortable no matter what the weather outside.
3. More engine choices—the widest horsepower range available: the 425-hp Turbo-Jet V8 in Chevrolet and Corvette to a 90-hp Four in Chevy II.
4. Body by Fisher—Craftsmanship by the world's best known coachmakers with everything from luxurious interiors to the long luster Magic-Mirror acrylic lacquer finish.
5. Self-cleaning rocker panels flush out salt and other corrosives with rainwater, dry themselves with outside air—another way Chevrolet takes extra care so you needn't bother.
6. A hushed and gentled ride with body mounts designed to isolate vibration better and shock absorbers matched to body style—coupe, sedan, convertible, wagon.
7. America's only rear-engined car, Corvair, with more weight over the driving wheels where you need it and less on the steering wheels where you don't.
8. America's only true sports car, Corvette, with fully independent suspension, four-wheel disc brakes and engines you can order up to 427 cubic inches.
9. Higher resale value—Chevrolets traditionally are worth more at trade-in time because more people want Chevrolets . . . new or used.
10. All these safety features standard now: seat belts, front and rear; padded dash and sun visors; outside mirror (use it always before passing); shatter-resistant inside mirror; 2-speed electric windshield wipers for better visibility in a downpour; windshield washers; back-up lights.

Decoration Contest Deadline is Dec. 17

Long known as a beautifully-decorated city during the Christmas season, Tecumseh will probably surpass earlier efforts this year.

The Tecumseh Parks and Recreation Department is expecting many home owners will enter the home-decorating contest it is sponsoring.

Prizes include:

FIRST — $25 savings bnd
SECOND — $15 gift certificate
THIRD — $5 gift certificate

Deadline for entries is Dec. 17 and judging will take place Dec. 20 and 21. Entrants are asked to have their displays lighted.

Lighting and general decorations will be judged on the basis of originality, artistic merit, lighting technique and general composition. Expense of materials and elaborateness will not be taken into consideration.

Merchants Pay $1,000

Another $1,000 off-street parking meter bond was paid off by Tecumseh merchants and turned over to Council Monday night.

D. J. Martin, Chamber of Commerce board secretary, presented the bond to Councilmen and informed them that $600 had been collected towards retiring other meter bonds.

Downtown merchants two years ago started a drive to remove meters from the off-street lots and have now raised $4,600.

It's their hope to obtain more free parking in the lots now and expedite payment of the $65,000 bond issue.

BEHIND PAGE ONE

There was Julie Parrish, getting top billing on the Strand marquee early this week for her role in "Winter A Go Go." Home town girl making good, to coin a phrase, finds Julie (nee Joyce Wilbar making her way in the field of film. Next release ..... be a co-starring part with Elvis Presley in "Hawaiian Holiday," her biggest accomplishment to date.

Because Macon Methodist received so many requests the Chrismon tree program will be repeated this Sunday, Dec. 12,, at 7 p.m., in the Macon Methodist Church. Special thanks go out to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gorton Sr., of Macon.

Everything stops in Santa's workshop fom 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., on the evenings of Dec. 14, 15 and 16 while he answers the telephone. Special arrangements have been made by Robert Booze of the Tecumseh Jaycees who tells us that Santa's special number is 423-7455. There you are, kiddies, don't forget the dates.

What does PEO stand for? Stories from the organization roll in and we always get them into print, but nobody seems to know what the initials represent.

That's right, Christmas is 16 days away.

Word for the day — numismatist — that's what newcomer Hillary Goddard of 210 N. Pearl St., is — a collector of coins, to most of us.

OWN YOUR PRIVATE Wine Cellar
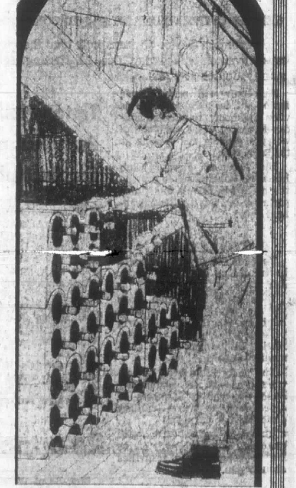
by PAUL MASSON

Here's how to store an assortment of wines in your home—without fuss, muss or bother. It's Paul Masson's six-bottle wine cellar rack, available at nominal cost with Paul Masson wines, or:

FREE . . . one unit for six bottles with purchase of six bottles of Paul Masson wines. Paul Masson wines from $1.89 up.

A wine cellar need not be a vast vaulted cavern. All that's necessary is to choose a spot that won't get too warm, yet won't freeze, where the temperature is as even as possible. The Paul Masson rack holds all shapes of bottles, including champagne, with each bottle resting in its own niche, lying on its side so the cork is kept moist to seal out air. Units will stack for many, many bottles.

Paul Masson wines and the wine rack would make any home an excellent Christmas gift.



CHRISTMAS GIFT SETS

CHAMPAGNE with two hand-blown, long stem Champagne glasses. Only $5.75.

MAGNUM OF CHAMPAGNE with hand-blown, long stem Champagne glasses. Only $14.50.

The Rev. Donald Porteous officiated and burial was in the Brookside Cemetery.

Redskins 5 Drops 2nd

CLINTON — Despite consistent scoring by Jerry Bellmore, Butch Hoelzer and Bill Jedele, Clinton dropped its second straight basketball game, falling to Manchester, 7-63, last Friday.

Jerry hit for 18, Butch had 16 and Bill came through for 13.

But the Dutchmen were hot, especially the Fielder brothers, Jim and Larry, who combined for a total of 41 tallies.

No One Injured in Car Mishaps

Citations were issued against drivers in all five accidents investigated by the Tecumseh Police during the past week.

None of the mishaps involved personal injury nor extensive damages to the vehicles. A resume is:

Dec. 2 — Charles E. Studnicka, 43, Blissfield, driving south on S. Maumee St., failed to stop in time at the street's dead-end intersection with Russell Rd. His car crossed Russell Rd. and stopped in a ditch. He was cited for violation of the basic speed law.

Dec. 2 — A chain reaction occurred on W. Chicago Blvd. at Van Buren St., when Arlene M. Poley, 38, Dundee, bumped into the rear of a car, forcing it into another which was waiting to make a left turn. Other drivers were Teresa Anne Mann, 7, of 412 S. Pearl, and Bob Raburn Hyder, 27, Ridgeway. Mrs. Poley was cited for failure to stop in an assured clear distance.

Dec. 5 — Melvin Jack Smith, 22, Clinton, was charged with failure to yield the right of way after a mishap in the intersection of S. Evans St. and Pottawatamie. He was hit by Emma A. Wendt, 75, Detroit.

Dec. 7 — Esther V. Burkhead, 48, of 715 Seneca, struck another car while parking in downtown Tecumseh, and was cited for improper backing. The other auto was owned by Charles R. Lawhead, 57, of 515 Russell Rd.

Dear friends,

From our vantage point we have seen family disagreements and hardships develop because the deceased left no will.

Usually a will reduces probate expenses, inheritance taxes and promotes family harmony. Professional aid should be sought to assure a properly drawn will.

Respectfully,

We go to all the trouble of redesigning our interiors, improving our handling, and refining our Wide-Track ride, and some people buy us just for our looks.

Our new Executive Hardtop Coupe. Like all 1966 Pontiacs it includes outside mirror, padded dash and visors, backup lights, front and rear seat belts, dual-speed windshield wipers, and washers to clean your windshield for better visibility.

Just once we'd like to have people fall in love with the inside of our cars before they flip for the outside. We spend so much time and effort in there.

Why, this year alone we've made available brand-new wraparound buckets and profile bench seats. Not to mention extending our use of rich, genuine walnut panel-ing. And nicer instrument clusters you've never seen.

We've even had our engineers take our test cars apart to see if they can make them smoother, quieter, and more luxurious. And they came up with improvements that, incredibly enough, make our Pontiacs even more enjoyable to drive.

Really, though—we don't care which one of our features gets you inside one of our new Pontiacs, just as long as it gets you there. And it will. At least judging by the number of Pontiacs you see on the road.

Indians Fall in Overtime

HERALD PIX
By JIM WILBAR

By JIM LINCOLN

An inexperienced Tecumseh five bowed in overtime here Friday night as a veteran Dundee team rallied for a 79-77 victory.

It was a typical season opener with loose, ragged play dominating. Only surprise was Dundee's upset win.

After leading throughout most of the game — once by 12 points — the Indians fell victim to fouls and a couple of sharpshooters in the second half.

Loss of Terry Alcock and Gordon Gibson through fouls and Ron Rentschler, via recurrence of a football knee injury forced Coach Vic Lawson to go to his bench. None had ever played varsity ball before.

Dundee's second half surge was paced by Bob Kroeger and Tod Karner. Kroeger netted 17 of his total 30 points in the last two quarters, and Karner collected four of his 17 points in the overtime period.

Ron Rentschler was the only other Tecumseh eager able to hit consistently. He tallied 12 points before leaving the game in the third period.

The first half indicated that the Indians could, and would, rout the Vikings. Kroeger settled that likelihood in the third quarter when he hit five straight goals.

With just seconds left in the game, Chuck Thomas broke a 71-71 tie for Tecumseh with a fielder from the side. The Indians failed to hold the margin, however, fouling Kroeger who made two free throws good to knot the score again.

Tecumseh's lack of experience was apparent through most of the game, including the overtime when the Indians trailed by one point with over 30 seconds left. Thomas finally broke the Dundee stall by purposely fouling, but not until six seconds remained.

Fred Goetbe missed the first shot but hit on the second to give the Vikings a 79-77 lead. The Indians got the ball down the floor quick enough, fed to Thomas, who just missed from about 15 feet.

Fouls hurt the Indians as much as their inexperience. Officials called 27 against Tecumseh to only 19 for Dundee.

The Vikings in turn had 40 chances at the foul line, but were able to cash in on just 17. Tecumseh made 13 of 22 opportunities.

★

Although surprised in the opener, the Indians have the potential to be one of the best clubs in southeastern Michigan — including what must be rated as a mediocre Dundee team.

Tecumseh has both size and ability to score. It must improve its floor game and cut down the turnovers, which were numerous in the opener.

ABOUT QUAIL

Yes, how about quail. Seriously, last week we told about how we were waiting, and not too patiently, either, for a return visit by the evening grosbeaks. This week we have yet another tale of waiting. For whom — quail.

It all started several weeks ago when, during a telephone conversation with Helen, I rather shocked myself by rudely interrupting her.

Right smack in the middle of something she was telling me I blurted out the news that a big quail was sitting on the white fence.

Deplorable telephone manners, but I am sure she understood—after all, it is not everyday that one has a quail running around the yard.

★

AS IT turned out there was more than one, in fact there was a large covey of the striped headed characters. By the time the phone was hung up and I "screamed" for Ida to come look, there were Bob-whites all over.

First one and then two more had flown to the top of the fence. Next I noticed four or five huddling under the barberry bushes.

Others were flying from the walnut tree and landing between the fence and the creek bank. We had not seen them enter the yard — all of a sudden they were just here—wow!

★

GRADUALLY the gang gathered themselves into a fairly compact group and headed for M & D's. When they stayed on the unseasonably late green grass they were easy to see, but once over the creek bank they blended into the leaves and weeds all but disappearing.

Mother Nature's invisible cloak of protective coloration is indeed an amazing thing.

Their second trip across our neighbor's yard was great fun to watch. Running, with the characteristically short quick steps which are perhaps best described as scurrying, they moved up the rise towards the front of the house and for few moments we thought they might be going to assemble at the front door.

OH, HOW quickly we revert to old habits when excited. My arm had almost shot out to hit the telephone switch and I was already to ask the operator for 423-3350 when I remembered that Doctor and Marjorie are now living in Boulder, Col.

I could not even alert my new neighbor Marilyn, to her visitors —she was not home. Ida and I had the big excitement all to ourselves.

I have seen dogs bring dairy herds in and have also marveled at the ability of sheep herding dogs, but never before have I seen a squirrel take on the business of sheep herding.

Out of the pine tree dashed Mr. Squirrel and, as nicely as you please, rounded up the quail and started them moving back toward the creek bank.

What a sight—in single file they ran with the squirrel bringing up the rear.

This Indian file procession allowed us to quickly count—a large covey it was—at least 16. And what cute birds they were.

Round plump bodies, short tails, skinny legs a little on the longish side. Their over all color, of course, was brown and the males had beautifully black-and-white striped heads.

★

HAVING discharged his responsibility by seeing the Bob Whites safely to the creek bank, the squirrel scampered up the big elm and was soon away on more orthodox squirrel business.

Our last look at the quail was of the whole bunch slowly meandering along the bank, heading towards Gertie's.

This necessitated a phone call and this time a successful one—Gertie was home and thus warned of who might be heading her way.

Unfortunately, they detoured before discovering the banquet of corn and scratch-feed she keeps for her back-yard visitors.

So it is that we are now all anxiously awaiting a return visit and perhaps material for another article "about quail".

NEXT Christmas Memories

MACON MAXIMS

By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE

The Prayer Circle will meet Monday, Dec. 13, at 1:30 p.m. in the church.

The monthly Official Church Board will meet Tuesday, Dec. 14, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Dean Moore and Mrs. Edward Clark will entertain the Macon Hobby Club members on Thursday, Dec. 16, at 1 p.m. Members are reminded to bring a $2 gift for exchange. Also they are to bring any tray favors they have made for the nursing home.

Mrs. Ollie Jordan returned to her home with her son, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Jordan, last Sunday. She had been a medical patient at Herrick Memorial Hospital for over two weeks.

Mrs. Jeannette Gerish and Miss Barbara Brown of Detroit, attended the Chrismon program Sunday evening. It was Mrs. Garrish's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gorton, Sr., who made all the monograms and symbols for the program.

The Christmas theme was used throughout the home of Mrs. James Thomas last Wednesday evening. She was assisted by Mrs. Carl Thomas in entertaining the Joy Circle.

Mrs. Dean Moore opened the meeting by reading "The Precious Gift" by Emily Carey Allemon. The group voted to collect and make a boy's layette next year for the Children's Village at Farmington.

They have ordered more dish cloths and are taking orders. Mrs. Charles Bigelow presented a program, "The Miracle of Christmas", closing with the group singing several Christmas carols. Dessert delight and coffee was served.

Mrs. Wade Scudder opened her home last Thursday afternoon for the Faith Circle. Mrs. Hamilton Moore opened "What do you give to God of your treasures?" A list of shutins, to be remembered at Christmas.

The corsages made by some of the circle members were displayed. It was reported the Rev. Rial Simons, a former minister of Macon, was seriously ill in the St. Joseph Hospital, Flint.

Mrs. Carl Hawkins reported on the home-made noodle project and will obtain more information before the W.S.C.S. decides to sell them.

The roll call was answered by telling something about Christmas in verse or poem. Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg opened the program by reading "The Four Wisemen" followed by "The Friendly Beast". Following, she had a quiz on Christmas, closing with the singing of several Christmas Carols.

Christmas cookies, fancy snowballs, and coffee and mints were served, with Mrs. Moore as cohost.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigelow attended the house warming parties Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Day and Mr. and Mrs. Murray Day, near Tecumseh.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Furlong, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Carey, Sr., and daughter, Luella, of Ypsilanti, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore and family were Sunday evening luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore, following the Christmas program at the church.

Friday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hill were Mr. and Mrs. George Nollar of Manchester.

Rodney Moore and Perry Moore of Tecumseh, spent Tuesday with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Richards of Milan were Sunday evening guests of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Zelfuff. All attended the Christmas program at the church.

Mrs. Lillian Gilbert of Ann Arbor was a Saturday overnight guest of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas.

Mrs. Donald Young and daughter, Tracy, of Little Rock, Ark., arrived by plane Friday morning. She was called home by the death of her father, Mr. Andrew Goodin.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Osborne and daughters were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lewis of Flint. In the afternoon another daughter, Mrs. Robert Osborne called.

Low-Income Area Farmers

The 1966 Agricultural Conservation Program will stress assistance to low-income farmers, special beautification-conservation practices, and conservation practices that help shift land from row and small grain crops to less-intensive uses.

The 1966 ACP encourages conservation of soil, water, woodland, and wildlife on individual farms and ranches by sharing cost of approved practices. Authorized funds are allocated among the States on the basis of conservation needs.

"The changes in program emphasis this year are consistent with and will help implement the policy of promoting beautification and improved economic conditions adopted generally by the USDA and government as a whole," the chairman reported.

Marie Herndon Hosts Wagon Holiday Party

Marie Herndon, 1022 River Acres Dr., will be the hostess for the Welcome Wagon Christmas party Wednesday, Dec. 14, at 7 p.m.

Plans are being made for a potluck supper with Mrs. Gregg Forsthoefel, 423-4726, and Mrs. Dale Haught, 423-3900, making the arrangements. They would like notification of the dishes to be served by Dec. 9.

JERRY HEBB
"Cowboy rides high"

Hebb Sparks Dale College Basketball

Jerry Hebb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hebb of 516 W. Chicago, has played well in Hillsdale College's first two games. He has scored 13 points and grabbed 12 rebounds while helping the Dales to two overwhelming victories.

Before coming to Hillsdale, [illegible]more, he broke the single game scoring record at Tecumseh High, made second team All-State, copped first team All-League and All-County honors and was the Indians' MVP, in addition to winning three letters.

"Cowboy" is going to be a valuable man to have around in this 1965-66 season as the Dales rebuild.

75 Twins Club Mothers Meet

Seventy-five guests attended the Mothers of Twins Club Christmas party Sunday at the Deerfield Grange.

Santa visited the group which included the families of James Forsyth, James Hite, Paul Rudd, Kenneth Koons, Robert Lott, Henry Smith, Richard Upell, George Wielfaert, Stacy Zilke, James Hubbard and Don Smith.

Mrs. Zilke was the hostess for the potluck dinner, assisted by Mrs. Lott.

Mrs. Paul Rudd furnished little boot favors filled with mints for the children, red for girls, green for boys.

Mrs. James Hite will be hostess for the January 10 meeting.

Candidates for Musical Are Sought

The Tecumseh Players will hold tryouts for their forthcoming musical "Guys and Dolls" at the Community Center Friday at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday at 1:30 p.m.

This musical will require a cast of 30.

Betty Jo Hancock of Adrian will direct assisted by Duane Steele. Orchestra director will be David Schoonover and chorus director Helen Bendes.

Michael Brose will handle tech with Preston Caswell as set chief and Mrs. William Frownfelder planning wardrobes.

Anyone wishing to work on the technical crew please call Mike Brose.

"Remember that for every one on stage it requires at least one person backstage," states a member of the Players.

The Tecumseh Players will hold their regular general membership meeting at the Community Center Sunday evening at 8 p.m. at which time the cast of "Guys and Dolls" will be announced.

The engagement and approaching marriage of Linda Darlene Hemphill to Thomas Howard Counts is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Estill Hemphill, 8163 E. Monroe Rd., Ridgeway. Mr. Counts is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Howard Counts of Rural Brooklyn. Miss Hemphill is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and her fiance is a graduate of Onsted High School. The wedding will be solemnized at 7:30 p.m., January 15, at the Presbyterian Church.

MSU Farmers' Week Still Going Strong

Fifty years and still going strong. After five decades, the annual Farmers' Week at Michigan State University still draws an attendance of more than 20,000 people each year.

Over the half-century span more than a million have attended the campus sessions in East Lansing.

The program will shift from a backward glance to a look at the future. Last year, was the Fiftieth Anniversary of Farmers' Week. In 1966, the theme will be "Agriculture Now and In 1980."

Focus for much of the program will be a look at modern farming 15 years ahead as a final chapter in MSU's "project '80." The project has been a two-year study of the future of rural Michigan.

The program sponsored by the MSU College of Agriculture will open on Monday, Jan. 31 and conclude Feb. 4. Nearly 200 educational sessions are planned for farmers, homemakers and youth.

A Touch of the Past

1885

Blissfield saloons will hereafter close at 9 p.m.

Live chickens went up to 10c a pound last week, but soon fell to the former price.

The school board is now at work on plans for the new school building.

1895

December brought winter. The first skating on the Red Mill Pond was on Thanksgiving Day. Sleighing is excellent.

The ladies of the OES cleared nearly $95 at the birthday party Tuesday night. Everyone brought the amount of his age in pennies.

1915

Grace and Jennie Gillespie have returned from a western trip. They attended the San Diego and San Francisco Exposition and visited friends in Oregon and Washington.

Emil H. Ahrens of Tecumseh has purchased the Clinton Local from J. R. Blanchard.

1925

Lawrence Drewyer is clerking at the Clark Meat Market.

Mrs. Zillah Hooten has purchased the late W. E. Barrett's property on E. Pottawatamie St.

1935

F. S. Anderson returned last week from a 3,900-mile business trip extending from Pennsylvania to Iowa.

The temperature dipped to two degrees above zero Wednesday morning.

The local speed laws have been changed to allow speeds of 30 miles per hour on certain sections of the main street.

The council is wondering how a workman can trim a tree and stand on the ground. WPA men may not climb ladders.

1945

Township taxes will be $5 per thousand higher this year because of the mill tax levied for the sinking fund for the new school building.

A trainer plane of Meyers Aircraft was damaged by fire this week to the extent of $1,000. The wings were almost completely destroyed. It was caused by sparks from the plant chimney.

Raymond LaBounty has accept a position as manual training instructor at Michigan State Normal College.

Lt. William Wright, USN, has been released from service and with his [illegible] is returned to Tecumseh.

The Michigan Department of Health has approved Tecumseh's water department improvement plans. When the additions are completed, the city will be in position to install water main extensions in the future.

The Jaycees are planning the first football banquet for Tecumseh High School teams, to be held in the United Products Workers' Union Hall on Dec. 15. They hope to make the event an annual affair. Clinton, Britton and Boysville football teams are to be guests.

Ridgeway eighth graders and their teacher, Mrs. Thelma Younglove, are working on the Ridgeway School's first yearbook, which will come out in the spring of 1956.

The Tecumseh school board met with members of the 18 rural school district boards to begin official action on annexation to the Tecumseh School District. Jens Toulberg, president of the board, told the group, "We have no intention of disrupting your districts." Supt. James McDowell told the group, "You would be a partner in a $1,500,000 school system. If federal aid comes, it will come to larger districts and not to primary districts."

Who Have Moved to Tecumseh

Mr. and Mrs. John Krzyzaniak moved to an apartment at 114 S. Ottawa, from Brooklyn. The family consists of three daughters and one son.

John Anthony, 16, is a sophomore; the 14-year-old twins, Patricia Ann and Barbara are freshmen; Cynthia, 10, is in the fourth grade in Patterson School and Helen, 6, in the first grade in Patterson School.

Patricia bowls with the high school league.

Mr. Krzyzaniak is employed at the Ford Motor Company in Northville. He enjoys hunting, fishing, bow and arrow hunting.

The family is Catholic.

Mr. and Mrs. David Nelson moved from Adrian to a home at 113 N. Maiden Lane. Mr. Nelson is a teacher of the deaf in Tecumseh Junior High School and Mrs. Nelson is a teacher of the deaf in the Herrick Park School.

The couple attends the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church. Their hobbies are golf, reading, cooking and sewing.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brandstadt purchased a home at 310 N. Union St. and moved here from Avon, Ohio. Mr. Brandstadt is employed at the Budd Co. in Clinton.

There are two sons, Jeff, 5, in kindergarten at Patterson School and Dave, 3, at home. The family belongs to the Methodist Church. Family hobbies include sewing, knitting, organ, golf and baseball.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Hare moved here from New York, N. Y., this fall, when Mr. O'Hare began teaching math in Tecumseh Junior High.

They reside in an apartment at 306 W. Pottawatamie St. Their three-months-old daughter has the unusual name of Siobhan.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Coker moved from Livonia to their home at 608 Stacy St. Mr. Coker is a general foreman at the Fisher Body Tecumseh plant.

Daughter, Deborah Ann, 12, attends seventh grade at Tecumseh Junior High School. Son, Robin Allen, 5, attends kindergarten. Deborah collects records. . The family is Baptist.

Mr. and Mrs. Coker are members of the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges. They like sports of all kinds.

Mr. and Mrs. Casper Shafer purchased a home at 103 S. Democrat St. and moved here from East Lansing. Mr. Shafer is an electronic technican at Gray Manufacturing Co.

There are two children, Rodney, 8, Marilyn, 6, who attend West Branch School.

The family is Methodist. Mrs. Shafer crochets for a hobby.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Forsthoefel, formerly of Adrian, have rented a home at 215 N. Union St. Mr. Forsthoefel is a law partner of J. C. Beardsley in Tecumseh.

There are three children, Gregory, Jr., 5, in kindergarten at Patterson School; Anthony, 2, and Ann 16 months old.

The family is Catholic.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Godek purchased a home at 601 Blanchard St., and moved here recently from Wilowack, O.

Mr. Godeck is an engineer at the Fisher Body plant.

The couple have two sons and a daughter, Joseph, Jr., 10, and Marsha, 7, attend Tecumseh Acres. Gregg is 3.

The family is Catholic. Father and son both won trophies last year for bowling.

Rebecca Engle and Grant O'Dell Are Wed

Rebecca M. Engle and Fireman Grant D. O'Dell, U.S.N., spoke their marriage vows November 27 in the Tecumseh Missionary-Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Engle of 5764 Raisin Center Hwy.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mark O'Dell of 214 S. Almer St., Caro. He is stationed with the Navy in San Diego, Calif.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Paul Revlett before an altar decorated with a 35-branch candelabra enhanced with smilax and stephanotis.

The nuptial music was played on the piano by Mrs. Arthur O'Dell of Ashley. She accompanied the soloist, James Varian, Lapeer.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bridal gown was fashioned of white Chantilly lace. The bodice had a square neckline edged in sequins and long tapered sleeves.

The white lace covered Bible which the bride carried was presented to her by the church at a White Bible ceremony on Nov. 24, in the Missionary Baptist Church.

The attendants were gowned alike in yellow taffeta and net. Their floor length bell-shaped skirts were dotted with golden beads. They wore pearl necklaces and earrings.

Their yellow taffeta pillbox headpieces were crowned with yellow and white fabric flowers and veiled with matching net.

The attendants carried cascade bouquets of bronze pompons outlined with yellow Fuji chrysanthemums and accented with sea oats and wheat.

Teresa Isom was a miniature bride, gowned in a replica of the bridal gown and carrying a tiny bridal bouquet.

The flower girls were Peggy O'Dell, niece of the bridegroom and Robin Isom, cousin of the bride.

The gowns and headpieces were styled as the bridesmaid.

Butch Darden was the best man.

The reception in the Tecumseh High School cafeteria was attended by 300 guests from Ohio, Alabama, Caro, Cass City, Adrian, Ashley and Lapeer.

The Rev. and Mrs. Albert Liford, friends of the bride's parents, were hosts for the reception.

Mrs. Jane Mitchell cut the wedding cake which she had made.

Assisting with the reception were Vera Fisher, Gloria Revlett, Linda Hicks and Irene Isom.

After a few days wedding trip in northern Michigan the couple will leave for California where Mr. O'Dell is serving in the Navy.

They will reside in San Diego, California.

A rehearsal dinner was held Friday evening in Don's Beef Buffet with 32 guests present.

MRS. GRANT O'DELL

Housewarming

A double housewarming for the Days was held Sunday evening by 21 friends, neighbors and relatives.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Harry Day and Mr. and Mrs. Murray Day have completed the building of new homes this year on N. Occidental Hwy. and Beachcroft Dr.

Punch was served to the surprised Harry Days in their home by their guests. The couple had expected to go to their son's residence for dinner and a party.

This the group did do. The new basement complete with fireplace was filled to capacity at the Murray Day home.

Recitations were given by Mrs. Robert Stone, Charles Bigelow, Murray Day, Mrs. Murray Day and Mrs. C. O. Baily.

Linen table cloths and napkins were given to the couples as a token of friendship from the group.

Arrangements for the housewarming were made by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigelow, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Don Purkey and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Abner.

God the Preserver is Science Text

"He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty." This verse from the ninety-first Psalm will open the Bible Lesson-Sermon this Sunday at all Christian Science churches. The subject will be "God the Preserver of Man."

The readings from the Bible and the Christian Science textbook will explore some of the ways in which the "secret place" is discovered by man.

Mrs. Larry Hart Composes Songs

Mrs. Larry Hart, former resident, composed words and music for two songs heard this weekend in a show entitled, "Sing America", at the Tibbit's Opera House in Coldwater.

Mrs. Hart is a member of the Sweet Adelines of Coldwater, producers of the show, and her husband assisted with set building and properties.

"City Song" was sung by the For-Get-Me-Notes and "This Is America" was sung by a soloist.

Familiar faces attending the show were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Sisson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Whelan, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bruce, Britton, Mr. and Mrs. LaRue Hart of Portage Lake, Mrs. Vere Hart, Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. Greeneval Spangler and Kirk and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Johnson of Ann Arbor.

Attends Shower

Those attending the event given by the matron of honor and bridesmaid were Mrs. Harry Tuckey, Mrs. Maurice Tuckey, Mrs. Gene Tuckey, Mrs. Burnell Moon, Nellie Wilson and Debbie Tuckey.

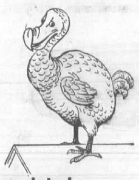
is the INSURANCE on your house



as dated as the dodo?

Chances are you need more complete "coverage" on your home and furnishings than your present insurance provides.

Reason? Replacement costs are way up on homes and their contents.

Cure? Let us look over your policies and bring them in line with current values.

We'll gladly do it any time at all — but from your standpoint, the best time is NOW.

Like under the hood.

AUTHORIZED DEALER CHRYSLER MOTORS CORPORATION

Every Chrysler is a big V-8. Starting with the husky 383 cubic incher that runs on regular gas. Or any of three others — up to the 440 TNT engine.

Of course, the way every Chrysler is built has a lot to do with its popularity, too. And think of all the protection you get.

As for looks, come in and give Chrysler a long, hard look. The move up to Chrysler is beautiful.

'Design for Safety' Published by GM

DETROIT — General Motors has published a new booklet describing the corporation's contributions to automotive safety over the years.

Entitled "Design for Safety," it emphasizes the point that the basic structure of the car itself is the most important requirement in automobile safety.

Referring to this emphasis in the booklet, GM President James M. Roche explained that "the structural integrity of the car itself — which is sometimes overlooked — provides the durability, reliability and strength so essential to safety."

"Design for Safety" traces the improvement made in each major automotive component, such as engine, transmission, suspension and brakes, and relates this constant improvement to safety.

★

DEVELOPMENT of improved testing techniques also is discussed as a contribution to the manufacturing of safer, more reliable cars. As a result of these new testing techniques, new designs now can be tested in the laboratory before being put on experimental cars.

Performance and fatigue tests on special machines can subject parts to far more punishment in a few days than would be experienced ordinarily during the entire lifetime of the car, the booklet explains.

Distribution of the new booklet, which features engineering-style drawings throughout its forty pages, will begin immediately.

Recipients will include more than one million GM shareholders; safety organizations; educators; legislators; schools; GM dealers, and other groups and institutions who have an interest in automotive safety.

General Motors' new booklet, "Design for Safety," is presently being mailed to groups and institutions who have an interest in automotive safety. The booklet, displayed by GM Secretary Helen Simon emphasizes the point that the basic structure of the car itself is the most important requirement in automotive safety.

Mrs. Romney Will Assist Santa Dec. 16

Dorothy Torres, Secretary of the newly formed Lenawee Republican Ethnic Club announced that Lenore Romney, wife of the governor, will assist the Club members and Santa Claus at the Adrian Armory December 16. Santa will have toys, ice cream, cookies, and Pepsi Cola.

Toby David, also known as Capt. Jolly, will be on hand to entertain the children.

Free tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Torres in Morenci, Mrs. Adolph Winkleman in Blissfield, Mrs. Deloss Bates II in Tecumseh, Mrs. Joe Rodriguez in Hudson and in Adrian from Mrs. Lee Sanchez, Mrs. Edward Gonzales, Mrs. Lupe Soto, Mrs. Gilbert Rodriguez or Mrs. Lupe Hernandez.

Radio Adjustment Nets Injuries For Sunday Driver

Harvey K. Sande, 21, of Ann Arbor, received minor injuries when he reached to turn on his car radio and his car went off the right shoulder, swerved across the highway, through a fence and struck a tree with the rear end.

The accident took place at 2:45 a.m. Sunday, on M-50 east of Hendershot Hwy. The Sande car was demolished.

$14,354 Check

Tecumseh receives $14,354 as its share of the State Highway collections from the third quarter's Vehicle Highway Fund collection.

Lenawee County share is $234,247.

Other area communities:
Clinton — $3,015.
Britton — $1,293.

GI Mail Deadline Nearing

Postmaster Jack G. Metcalf asks mail patrons to send their Christmas packages early. Deadline for ordinary parcels was Nov. 10 for Vietnam Air mail deadline is Dec. 10, 1965.

The postal service is preparing for a record volume of gift mailing, he said, and early mailing is urged to insure delivery before Christmas.

Mr. Metcalf also said that Zip Code numbers must be on all parcel post packages. If the patron fails to put the Zip Code number on the package employees at the post office must do it. This requires a great deal of time.

Mr. Metcalf also stated that Tecumseh patrons should use the Tecumseh Zip Code number 49286 on the return address of their Christmas cards. This provides the person that receives the Christmas cards with your Tecumseh Zip Code.

Wednesday, Dec. 13, is the last day to mail packages and greeting to be sure of delivery before Christmas.

The Post Office windows will be open Saturday, Dec. 11 and 18 from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m.

WILL BE CARRIED IN PROCESSION — This oil painting of the Lady of Guadalupe, held by Martin Chavez, will be carried in procession prior to Sunday's 10:30 Spanish Mass at St. Elizabeth Church. The oil was done by Theodore Jordanoff, a Greek Orthodox Czech, who did other paintings for the local Catholic Church.

'Misa en Espanol' Being Sung Sunday

By FR. THOMAS J. COLLINS

You might call it "nostalgia." But for many with Spanish blood in their veins, it is something much stronger and deeper than surface experiences.

It is their tradition.

But it is also a matter on which research has been made, particularly by Jesuits, whose Society now services St. Elizabeth Parish each week.

In the early 1500's, the Spanish came to Mexico. There was a Spanish Bishop, Zammurga, in the Twenties of that century.

A peasant, Juan Diego, came one day to report a vision of the Virgin. The Bishop, with traditional caution, asked for proofs.

The peasant returned with a message from the Lady that a shower of roses would signal her intervention.

It is not too long a story.

There were roses in "Diciembre. There the mantle of the peasant, Juan Diego.

After some hundreds of years the "tilma," the cloak of the peasant, now known as the miraculous picture of "Neuestra Senora de Guadalupe," is hung in a gold frame, with glass to protect it in the Basilica of Nro. Scuora Gualalupe in Mexico Ciudad.

Five years ago, I sat in the Basilica of Guadalupe sinking in the bowl of an extinct Volcano that is called Mexico, a City of millions.

THIS SUNDAY at 10:30 a.m. there will be a special Mass in honor of the Lady of Guadalupe.

I hope to have many of St. Elizabeth's 300 Spanish speaking souls sing this Mass.

First they will form a procession carrying an oil painting of the Virgin up to the altar.

Then we will offer a new "Misa Communitaria," all "en Espanol."

To those who still cling to the traditional and nostaligic — and at 56-years of age, I am one of them — and those who love the flavor of the new, this might be something to give "elan", as the French have it.

We're delighted with the response to our Grand Opening and for the way Tecumseh folks have received us. (Like the cake we received.) We're anxious to serve you and have a full inventory of auto parts, appliances, tools, sporting goods and toys (although right now they're going fast.)

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Burke were really caught by surprise with this scrumptious cake, which was baked and decorated by Mrs. John Kopka, who lives behind the new Western Auto. The fancy pastry was promptly displayed near the entrance to the store and eventually eaten with glee by Grand Opening guests.

A ribbon-cutting ceremony was staged Thursday afternoon, officially opening Tecumseh's new Western Auto. Participating in the festivities were, from left:

- Ralph Keller, Western Auto representative from Fort Wayne, Ind.
- Mrs. Bill Geissler, clerk.
- Mr. and Mrs. Jack Burke, store owners.
- William Dixon, Western Auto representative from Toledo.

Chrismon Decoration Draws Wide Interest

CHRISMON TREE STANDS MAJESTICALLY IN MACON CHURCH

MACON — Robert Osborne welcomed a full house at the Macon Church Sunday, gathered to witness the decoration of the Christmon tree.

Mr. Osborne and Mrs. Ray Williams were the narrators as Mrs. Charles Gorton Sr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore decorated the 10-foot tree.

Mrs. Truman Jordan assisted by displaying the monograms and symbols made of styrofoam with gold and pearl colored beads and black velvet backing material.

Members of the Senior Choir sang several numbers with Mrs. Carl Thomas accompanying at the organ. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gorton Jr. entertained with a duet.

The original Chrismon Tree idea came to Macon through Mr. and Mrs. Gorton Sr., who witnessed a similar program in Detroit over a year ago. They have been the driving force in completing the Macon decoration and Mrs. Gorton put in a majority of the work in constructing the 150 monograms and symbols.

★

Guests were from Detroit, Wyandotte, Wayne, Allen Park, Ann Arbor, Saline, Clinton, Adrian, Tecumseh, Ypsilanti, Britton, Ridgeway, Dundee, Holloway and Denton.

The church remains open and guests interested in viewing this Macon community project are welcome to contact any church member. It will remain up until well after Christmas.

Thelma Swarts Announces Postal Hours

Effective Dec. 13 through Dec. 23, the office will be open 12 to 1 (during lunch hour) and the office will be open all day on Saturday, Dec. 11 and 18.

Post office hours will be 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily during this 10-day period. Mail is dispatched and received at 7 a.m. The dispatch is made up at 5 p.m. for night star route.

Postmaster Swarts suggested the following ways to lighten the load for postal workers:

► Include Zip Code on your address if you know it. All packages must have Zip Code. The clerks have to put this on if you don't. By all means include your zip code in return address. Tipton code is 49287.

Christmas cards can be mailed for 4c if they are not sealed and contain no message. These cards cannot be forwarded or returned. The 5c Christmas stamps are now available.

This is first class rate, you may write a letter and if it cannot be delivered, the card will be returned to you.

Study History of Christmas

An inspiring and thought provoking Christmas program highlighted the December meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Edward Beal led the program which featured a film, "Christmas Through the Ages," depicting the source of many present day Christmas customs.

Following this an unusual devotional sequence retold the familiar nativity story with the scripture by Mrs. Paul Hadsell and carol accompaniment by Mrs. Herbert Dillon.

Mrs. Beal chose a winter rose and candles to signify the importance of the season and then figure by figure with captions about each she began to arrange the manger scene in the candle lighted room.

★

FOLLOWING the program, Mrs. Carroll Sprague, president, led a brief business session which included the report of the Fall Festival held recently by the organization.

Mrs. William Steele, Jr., announced a successful day with proceeds of $656.23 as of the day of the festival with some monies still being received.

The Society plans to continue next year with the event and Mrs. Steele agreed to repeat as general chairman.

Mrs. Don R. Martn assisted by Mrs. Herb Dillon and Mrs. Mae Dillon acted as hostesses for the evening.

Folks Are Hosts

Auxiliary Seeks Christmas Trees

BRITTON — At a tea held recently at the Lenawee Youth Center for ladies of the center's Woman's Auxiliary, it was disclosed that the center needs three Christmas trees, two of them about 7 feet high and one 6 foot tree.

One of the Auxiliary members, Mrs. Walter Prill of Britton, has taken on the task of securing the trees, and would like help from interested people or service clubs.

Here's a good chance to help add a little Christmas spirit for the kids at the Center. If you would like to donate a tree or give money toward the purchase of one, please call Mrs. Prill at 451-2635.

★

It is felt that not enough people know of the needs at the youth center, either of Christmas trees or of the other many items needed to improve the comfort and educational facilities.

The auxiliary feels that many people would respond if they only knew of the need.

The program of the Lenawee County Probate Court youth program, which has been renamed the Lenawee Court Campus.

The court campus includes the Detention Unit, which is a holding center and evaluation program; the Youth Center, which is an open program providing a home-like atmosphere; and a new school building which [illegible] cial education possible for our youth.

The program is designed to help troubled youth understand and overcome their problems, and to develop for themselves guides for a satisfying and useful life.

From June, 1964 to June, 1965, 120 youths were served by the Youth Center. Ninety of these were from broken homes.

"Every youngster deserves at least two things," states Harold Tesch, director of the Lenawee Court Campus, "a chance, and a good example set before them in every adult they observe."

For those who ask, "How can we help, or, "What do you need?" a list of needs has been issued from the Lenawee Court Campus.

You can call the Youth Center at 265-5171 to secure this list. Perhaps individuals or service clubs would like to make a project of fulfilling some of these needs.

The list ranges over a wide variety of items, from plants, to area rug, books, craft material, kitchen aids, coat hangers, portable sewing machine, typewriters, lumber, material for sewing projects, used or new clothing, (particularly warm winter outerwear), game equipment, etc.

This would be a satisfying way to help some youngsters of our county who, for one reason or another, are not as fortunate as our own children.

Grace Ladies Visit State Hospitalized

BRITTON — A group of ladies from the Grace Methodist Church went to the State Hospital at Ypsilanti, Wednesday afternoon, to provide a Christmas party for some of the patients.

They took along pies for refreshments, and also a supply of cookies to be used at a later date. They sang Christmas carols with the patients.

INTERIOR OF BRITTON'S NEW BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH, WHICH WAS DEDICATED ON SUNDAY

Bethel Baptists Dedicate Church

Sunday was Dedication Day for the Britton Bethel Baptist Church.

Both former pastors and their wives, Rev. and Mrs. E. H. DuBois, and Rev. and Mrs. Jack Sorensen with their three children, spent the day with the church people, attending morning, afternoon and evening services.

Rev. DuBois, founder of the church, spoke briefly in the Sunday School hour. He said that the Britton church was founded in 1939 with faith that the Bible teaches that God's work should be carried on through voluntary giving.

Rev. DuBois said that the new building is evidence that God's plan works.

Rev. Duane McNeil, present pastor, conducted all three meetings. Mr. McNeil reminded his audience that the building being dedicated was constructed largely with volunteer labor.

Construction was begun in May and the building occupied on October 10. No pledges were taken but rather the entire cost will be paid through voluntary offerings, tithes and gifts.

About 300 persons attended the service of dedication, at 3 p.m. Dr. Wilbert Welch, president of the Grand Rapids Baptist College and Seminary, delivered the address.

Dr. Welch challenged his listeners to continue the practice of living by faith, becoming better acquainted with God. He said, "When I was first married, I knew I had a wife, but had yet to learn what a wife I had.

"When I became a Christian, I knew I had a Savior, but I didn't know what a wonderful Savior I had." Dr. Welch urged his audience to make right choices, for, said he, you are what you choose to be.

Miss Edna Bryant and Mr. David Jankowski sang vocal solos. Mrs. David Holly was guest organist. Rev. Richard Brininstool, pastor of York Baptist Church, gave the Scripture reading and Rev. Edgar Sweetland, pastor of the Maple Avenue Baptist Church, Adrian, offered the dedicatory prayer.

Rev. Sorensen gave the invocation and Rev. DuBois the benediction. Refreshments were served in the fellowship center immediately following the service.

Bridal Shower Honors Mary Lou

BRITTON — Mary Lou Servoss was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous bridal shower Sunday afternoon, given for her in the Britton-Macon school study hall by Joyce Billah.

Twenty-three guests were present. Games were played, with duplicate prizes awarded to the winners and the bride-elect.

A pink and white color scheme was used throughout. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and punch were served. Mary Lou received many lovely gifts. She will become the bride of Robert Rowe on January 15, 1966, in St. Elizabeth Church in Tecumseh.

Santa Arriving in Britton Dec. 18

BRITTON — Saturday, Dec. 18, from 2 to 8, Santa will be in Britton. He will arrive by trailer in Britton to welcome all the area children.

The Britton Police have kindly consented to provide him with an escort complete with fire truck.

Tories Lose on Cold Night

BRITTON—The Britton Tories, who looked nervous before a big crowd their first time out this season, dropped their opener against a taller Ida team Friday night, 68-44.

Both teams looked as though they had come to play a ball game the first quarter, which ended at a close 12-11 in Ida's favor. But from then on Ida drew steadily away with the scoring, and Britton never threatened again.

Britton was cold in the scoring bracket, as they missed from the floor and under the basket. They were only a bit better on free throws, Ida, meanwhile, scored easily and often.

High scorer for the game was Ida's Gary Anderson, 6'4" junior, who made 25 points. Ray Vershum and Larry Ash scored 12 points each for the Tories.

The Tories will have to improve their shooting percentages if they are going to beat their next opponents this coming weekend.

Fellowship Features Sing, Quiz

BRITTON — Eighteen young people of the Youth Fellowship of the Congregational - Christian Church met at the church Sunday evening.

Group singing and a quiz on the book of Mark by Brenda Tubbs and Denise Ivan were featured. Doug Fairbanks read the scripture, from Ecclesiastes.

The group voted to decorate the church Christmas tree Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Henry Brown served refreshments.

Yule Tree Service

The youth of Grace Methodist Church attended the Chrismon Tree Service sponsored by the Macon Methodist Church at Macon Sunday evening.

The tree was decorated with religious symbols of Christ, hence the name Chrismon (Christ's Monograms). Each symbol was explained as it was put on the tree.

MYF to Present Gifts to Fund

BRITTON — The young people of Grace Methodist Church, ages 12-21, will have an opportunity to present their gifts to the Methodist Youth Fund at the Sunday morning worship service. The youth will take part in the service.

The Sunday School Christmas program will be presented at 7 p.m., using the theme "The World Needs a Saviour." The cherub, junior and senior choirs will also participate.

Gifts of mittens or socks can be brought for the mitten tree Sunday morning or before. White gifts for the Methodist Children's Home in Detroit are also welcome.

WSCS Study Art Symbols in Christmas

BRITTON — The Women's Society of Christian Service met last week in the home of Mrs. Nilwen Bishop, with Mrs. Andrew Crutchfield as co-hostess.

Mrs. Fred Schober was program chairman. She used several pictures to illustrate the theme "Symbols in Christmas Art."

Mrs. R. A. Mitchinson read the scripture selection, and Mrs. Paul Bailey sang "O Holy Night."

The WSCS will furnish goodies for the young people of the church to use to pack boxes for shut-ins at Christmas.

NEWS from Boysville

Coached by M. Pat Connors, the 1965-6 version of the Fighting Knights present a potent squad capable of offering strong contention in a race for league honors.

Forward Dick Kayl, a 6'4" junior, paces the Knights in the height department. Norris McFarland, a 6'3" center is a senior and a man to contend with under the boards. Moe Jacobs, an all-state football player, stands at 6'2½", and as the other forward is a rebound specialist and so far posed the major Boysville scoring threat.

Converted from a forward position to a guard is 6'2" Jim Cowan. At the other guard position is 6'1" Sam Kirkland, a junior brought up from last year's reserve. The Knights offer a second effort from letter men Ray Lemanski and Tom Blaney, both of whom are seniors.

Also on the bench are 6'0" Mike O'Dea, 5'8", John Yankoski, and 5'5" Mike Gaudreau.

At Whiteford, on the opening jump, Norris McFarland tipped the ball to Moe Jacobs, who found the hoop for the first score of the game. Thus, the Knights jumped to an early lead and by the end of the half, held a substantial 36-19 lead.

Sam Kirkland opened the second half with two quick successive scores. From there, the Knights went on to a 68-45 win.

Moe Jacobs combined seven field goals with twelve foul shots to pace the Boysville scoring with twenty-six points. He was followed by Norris McFarland and Sam Kirkland, each with ten points. As a team the Knights scored on 23 field goals and 22 fur shots.

Preparations for a dance now dominate the efforts of Boysville's Student Council. The dance, a pr. posed mixer theme "Winter Sleighride," is scheduled for December 18.

A pep rally is scheduled for December 10 preceding Boysville's homecoming game with Adrian Catholic Central. Skits performed by the various classes will headline the gathering in the gymnasium.

Officers of both the Senior and Junior class are speaking of a possible class trip to Detroit on Saturday. The trip would involve a shopping spree and dinner.

MYF Will Hear Dr. Paul Diller, 'Sex Standards'

Sunday evening in the social hall of the First Methodist Church the Senior High Youth Fellowship will hear Dr. Paul F. Diller, the counselor from the Family Counseling Service of Lenawee County in Adrian.

Dr. Diller's subject is to be "Sex Standards Before Marriage" and it is expected he will offer numerous views of his own based on his counseling experience in this area.

Following the talk the youth have the opportunity of asking questions on the subject by means of unidentified written thoughts which are of special concern to the youth here.

Members of other youth groups have been invited to hear Dr. Diller at 6:30 p.m. After the program refreshments will be served.

Pre-Yule Party

The family of Earl Wright will hold a pre-Christmas gathering Sunday at the Adrian Grange Hall sponsored by the Robert Wrights. Those attending besides the Earl and Robert Wrights will be the families of Curtis and Raymond Wright and Walter Weimer.

Mabel Lockwood Opens Friendly Class with Song

Mabel Lockwood introduced the program with carol singing by the group to the accompaniment of recordings.

Numerous Christmas recordings interspersed the readings.

Mrs. Charles Manley welcomed the guests. Naomi Sallows read the story of "Mary" and other readings were given by Mrs. Perry Hayden, Mrs. Roland Mohr Mable Lockwood and Mrs. Howard Everhart.

The group held a gift exchange from beneath a teasel Christmas tree and also presented gifts to Mrs. Paul Brantingham and the teacher, Mrs. Jessie Brown.

A prettily decorated table was unveiled centered with a Christmas tree and red and white tapers. Little sock favors made by Naomi Sallows marked the place settings. Mrs. Sallows was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Mohr.

Will Auction Holiday Items

Mrs. Eddie Kirkland will be the auctioneer for the annual sale of items suitable for Christmas giving at the First Baptist Church Monday, Dec. 13, at 7:30 p.m.

Members of the Missionary Society will meet in the Youth House at 6:30 p.m. for the packing of boxes for shut-ins and servicemen before the regular meeting.

MR. AND MRS. LeCLAIR HALSTED

Married 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. LeClair Halsted, 4900 N. Adrian Hwy., will observe their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, Dec. 19.

An open house is planned from 2 to 5 p.m. at North Adrian Grange Hall, Carson Hwy. and Shepherd Rd.

Friends, relatives and neighbors are invited and asked to omit gifts.

LeClaire Halsted and Florence Ives were married Dec. 18, 1915 in Adrian [illegible] Plymouth Church parsonage by the Rev. F. A. Perry.

They have lived in this area all of their married life.

Suggests '66 View of Holiday Scene

He tells of a trip he and Mrs. Waldron enjoyed with their daughter's family, the John Hamiltons, last year when they stopped in Gallup, N. M.

They saw an elaborate and beautiful Christmas setting arranged there by the Jaycees, using a small canyon in the northeast section of the city.

Red and white candy canes made the stove pipe with two elbows for the crook are clever and probably inexpensive according to Mr. Waldron.

He suggests that anyone in that area spend a night there in the capital of the Navajo nation.

He said that motels there are among the nicest and most inexpensive.

Gridders Honor Coach Al Vadasy

BRITTON — The Tory football team, Coach Al Vadasy and Mrs. Vadasy were guests Saturday night at a post-season football party given by Jack Brown and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown.

Football films were shown and games played. The hosts served refreshments to the boys. Coach Vadasy was presented with a gift from the team.

Holloway Notes

By MARVEL NEUMAN

Holloway Presbyterian Church held a farewell party Saturday night for Mr. and Mrs. Max Minpich. It was a family potluck supper. They are leaving the area, moving to their new home in Eaton Rapids. They received a nice gift from the congregation.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Albert Neuman and family had dinner with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harry Neuman of Sylvania, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Richardson. The afternoon was spent socially and playing pinochle.

Sunday Allen Reister of Onsted entertained his mother and dad, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Sawyer, at Cambridge Junction Inn. In the afternoon they visited Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Reister of Evans Lake. Sunday night callers were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cadmus, who visited at the Sawyer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Sawyer entertained with a dinner Saturday night honoring the committee that helped with the corn picking. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Becker of Adrian, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Herford and Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Palmer of Britton. Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Marks of Clayton were unable to attend.

Sunday Mrs. Sarah Lowery visited her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carson Garrison, of Adrian. They enjoyed a pre-Christmas dinner for the family.

Saturday night Mrs. Laurence Netcher and her daughter, Barbara, held a stork shower for her daughter, Mrs. John Dashner, at the home of Mrs. Arnold Neuman. Friends and relatives were present. Games were enjoyed by all. At the conclusion of the evening refreshments were served from a linen table cloth. The white round cake was decorated in pink and blue. Mints, cashew nuts, punch and ice cream were served. The honored guest received many nice gifts.

1965 Corn Crop Rejected by Hogs

Farmers in the county are becoming concerned about the fact that their hogs recently have been refusing to eat the feed containing the new crop corn.

The widespread nature of the pro[illegible]n became apparent at a meeting of commercial hog farmers Monday night at the Court House.

Norman Bless, Extension agent, reported that veterinaries in the area are being consulted about the possible causes for the problem.

The group established a Lenawee County Pork Producers Association to promote the pork industry in the county.

Season Ushered In

CLINTON — The Christmas season was formally ushered into Clinton with the traditional Holly and Silver tea arranged by the Mary Martha Class of the United Church of Christ.

Each member had made imaginative use of the theme materials to create centerpieces for the card tables where 92 guests were seated.

"What is Christmas" was the poetic greeting extended by Mrs. Wyman Rhoades, president.

Mrs. John Fox led the Cherub Choir in singing several Christmas songs.

Mrs. John Gilman sang, "O, Come Let Us Adore Him." She was accompanied by Mrs. Fox at the piano.

Mrs. Donald Corwin introduced the speaker, Mrs. Cornelius Viergever, of Jackson.

Mrs. Viergever has gained widespread reknown since she began, 25 years ago, collecting silver of the Victorian era.

Displayed about the room were dozens of her rare silver pieces, many of them distinguished by intricate handwork.

Silver has a religious significance, being first used in the church and later used in household articles and for personal adornment.

"It seems," she said, "that a silver piece was created to fill almost every human purpose."

For example, she showed a hinged container for warming spoons and a shell-shaped covered dish to keep boiled eggs warm, both used in the frigid dining rooms of old English country houses.

An intricately designed holder was made to hold a man's razor strop. Small silver scissors were made just to snip grapes from the after-dinner dessert tray.

Mrs. Viergever told her audience, "Treasure your silver. It will be increasingly hard to find handmade silver.

She suggested that if one's children do not care for heirlooms — sell them to someone who will care for them. Don't let them find their way to the sand pile — where she once found some fine pieces of silver.

This was the last lecture to be given by Mrs. Viergever, who has lectured all about the United States and throughout Michigan.

Her home in Jackson will continue to be open for the public to see her silver collection.

A smorgasbord of favorite Christmas desserts were served from a tree table which was created from tables covered with silver flocked cloths and green net streamers circling a center pole of colored lights.

Clinton Church Will Let Bids

CLINTON — The Methodist Church building committee met last week with a representative of Colvin, Robinson and Wright, architects, to let bids on the proposed educational unit at the church.

The awarding of bids will be Jan. 1.

Members of the committee are Edward Rudd, Wayne Powell, Mrs. George Marshall, James Meeks, Lester Proctor and Waldo Ehnis.

Serving as consultants were the Rev. George Miller and Donald Meyers.

It is planned to have an early spring ground-breaking.

New Members

CLINTON — The Rotary Club welcomed two new members last week, Robert Mohr, Clinton postmaster, and Howard Schroeder, owner of Dunham Press.

Members voted $10 to assist with the purchase of an operating table for a missionary doctor.

The Rotarians planned to attend the school athletic dinner Dec. 7 instead of their regular meeting.

Edwin McClain of Tecumseh was a guest and extended an invitation to the annual Christmas party of the Tecumseh Rotary Club on Dec. 14. Junior Rotarian, Gary Couture, was also a guest.

Drivers Injured Trying to Avoid Possible Mishap

CLINTON—Ronald G. Creger, 26, of 12664 Wisner Hwy., suffered severe lacerations to the head and a skull fracture at 7 a.m. Sunday, when his car collided head-on with a car driven by William C. Hosted, 20, of Ypsilanti. Hosted sustained lacerations to the forehead.

Mr. Creger was treated at Herrick Memorial Hospital and later transferred to University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Clinton State Police are still investigating the accident. Apparently both drivers swerved to avoid the other, but met head-on. The accident occurred on US-12 just half a mile from Wisner Hwy.

Church Choirs Will Present Yule Cantata

CLINTON — The choirs of the United Church of Christ will present a Christmas Cantata on Sunday, Dec. 19, at 7:30 p.m.

The Senior Choir will sing "When Love Is Born" by Van Denman Thompson.

The Youth Choir will sing "A Song of Bethlehem" by Lois Emig.

Bill Heimerdinger, director of the Senior and Youth Choirs, is arranging the cantata, which in years gone by was an annual event in the church.

The Cherub choir, directed by Mrs. John Fox will be singing several numbers.

Everyone is welcome to attend.

Will Turn on Yule Lights Friday Night

CLINTON—The Village Council met last Monday, and announced plans to put up the new Christmas decorations and have them lighted for the first time Friday night.

The evergreen in front of the village office will be decorated as the Community Christmas tree.

Building, plumbing and electrical codes were discussed.

Improvements are being made on Division Street, between Church St. and Michigan Ave. A 40-foot street will be completed there.

Trooper Resigns For New Work

CLINTON — Trooper Richard Barton has resigned from the Michigan State Police, completing his duties at the Clinton post on Friday.

He has accepted a new position with the American Community Life Insurance Co., of Plymouth, and will work in the Adrian office.

Mr. Barton served at the South Haven post before being sent to Clinton on June 12, 1961. He was a member of the Michigan State Police for nine years.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton and two children, Elizabeth 11, and Michael, 7, plan to remain at their home on an Tuyle Rd., northwest of Clinton.

Mrs. Anthony Sawielski entertained the members of the Troopers Wives club last Monday evening. A farewell gift was presented to Mrs. Richard Barton.

Future Bride Is Honored

CLINTON — Lila Brown was guest of honor at a bridal shower held recently in the home of Cheyl Stout. Barbara Stamats assisted the hostess.

A variety of useful gifts were presented to the bride-to-be by the 20 friends and relatives present. Among the guests were the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Frances Brown and the bridegroom-elect's mother, Mrs. Max Williams of Tecumseh.

The wedding of Miss Brown and Max William, Jr., of Tecumseh will take place Dec. 11, in the United Church of Christ.

Charter Given

Over 125 people attended the Lenawee Republican Ethnic Club Charter Night Banquet Saturday evening at the Adrian American Legion Club.

Mrs. Elly Peterson, State Chairman of the Republican Party, made the presentation. Lee Sanchez, club president, received the charter on behalf of the members.

Dr. Wallace May, Lenawee Republican Chairman, introduced Mrs. Peterson.

Mrs. Peterson congratulated all the members of the new group. She said that this was an opportunity for every member to have a voice in government.

Other dignitaries in attendance were Ilmar Heinaru, Governor Romney's Nationalities Special Representative. Mr. Heinaru told of his experience behind the Iron Curtain. He stressed membership in the newly-formed group was a step toward preserving freedom.

Carl Millen, state president of the nationalities organization, said that this was the first nationalities group formed outside of Wayne County. He further said that individuals may actually help determine policies by banding together to further their cause.

Other officers receiving the Charter were: vice - president, Adolph Winkleman; treasurer, Eddie Gonzales; board director, Grace Bates; chaplain, Lupe Hernandez, alternate delegate to the Republican State Nationalities Council, Gilbert Rodriquez and Ernest Torres, and sergeant-at-arms, Lupe Soto.

Mr. Soto also accepted a gift of an American flag, presented to the group by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Thayer.

Honorary members elected Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. Thayer, Mrs. Elly Peterson, Mr. William McLaughlin, Dr. Wallace May, and Mrs. Faun Platt.

Forty charter members are now on the rolls, President Sanchez announced.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

Writing this column is one of the great pleasures of my week — until December.

Sure, it's still fun — when I can find a stray 15 minutes to sit down at the typewriter.

Business for The Herald has been so tremendous, with Christmas advertising pouring in at a rate to make our heads spin, everyone in the back shop is slowly going crazy.

Foreman Lonal Bishop, all 250-pounds of our Jolly Green Giant, has been battling Mr. Flu Bug and not giving an inch, while coming early and leaving late.

Ditto the rest of the gang, including the retiree who refuses to retire, Don Blesing.

Seeing the need for reinforcements, I became a back shop volunteer this week — even joining the Apron-and-Line Gauge Gang in making critical remarks about the way the front-office group neglects proper respect for the toils of we printers.

As "White Christmas" wafts its way through the place from the radio, I do itch to get at the column and fashion something real nice on the season, but guess that will have to wait until next week.

One quick comment is in order. As most folks should know by now, the City-County Building plan has — at least temporarily — been derailed by the board of supervisors, with Tecumseh's and Franklin Township's representatives seemingly playing the roles of villians.

The $2 million proposal lost in a 17-18 ballot with our city manager, Cal Zorn, casting the deciding vote, since voting is always alphabetical. Our buddies at an Adrian radio station make this a big item at Cal's expense, saying his vote scuttled the project.

★

BUT WHAT Cal, Harold Easton, John Hamilton and the Rev. B. Q. Bashore, the four-man Tecumseh [illegible] with others, were voting [illegible] was the way the structure could be [illegible].

With revenue bonds running over a 30-year period, the total outlay in cash would about double, going a long way in tying up county funds over three decades, explained Mayor Easton later.

Finance committee chairman, John Keller of Fairfield Township, leveled a blast that "the county went back 25 years and lost a million dollars."

George blasted Mr. Bashore — and it reminded me of how he needled The Herald a year ago over our publishing of the sanitation engineer mess.

"The people don't know what is going on over here. You have to tell them. If they don't think you are right, then they can say so at the next election," said George.

In the meantime, the county can get saddled with a debt of nearly $4 million, eh, George?

Ray Jackson of Franklin, serving his first term on the board, has long been an opponent of the city-county building project and he has worked hard to put the brakes on it, feeling the county has obligations in other directions.

Last week's vote was a major victory for him.

Extension Club Gives Thanks

"Something I'm thankful for this past year" was the question answered at the roll call, by eight members of the Northeast Tecumseh Extension Club at a meeting on Nov. 23.

Mrs. Raymond Bird was hostess for the meeting.

Mrs. Elmer Wilt and Mrs. Bird presented the study lesson giving buying tips for clothing and demonstrating simple alterations for ready-to-wear clothes.

Mrs. Wilbur Boyce will be the hostess for the Dec. 28 meeting.

ACCEPTS FIRST GIFT — Mrs. Earl Lindsley accepts a china tea pot from Mrs. Mike Hite a few minutes after Friday's Gift-A-Plenty two winners were announced. Again this week, there will be two slips drawn, with each person selected eligible to pick up $150 in gifts from the Gifts-A-Plenty stores.

2 Winners of $150 Gifts Being Picked

There will be two more winners in Friday's Gifts-A-Plenty drawing this Friday — each eligible to receive $150 worth of presents from participating shops.

Two were drawn last week:

► Mrs. Earl Lindsley, 301 W. Shawnee St., was waiting at Hite's Hardware when her name was announced.

► C. J. Sinkey, 1001 Murray Dr., however, wasn't in any of the Gifts-A-Plenty stores [illegible] his $150 in prizes.

To take part in the fun, folks can get free registration slips in any of the businesses taking part.

BUT WHERE'S THE SNOW? — Sled salesman Dorman Vescelius at Baldwin's Hardware ponders the green hillsides and wonders if Santa forgot to order a blanket of white for December. Downtown merchants report that Yule business has been sparkling, despite the lack of old fashioned Christmas weather so far. However, going in print here with a report of no snow should start the flakes falling.

Brown Home After Injury in Vietnam

Sgt. John Brown is home with his family in Fort Benning, Ga., for Christmas. Following surgery Nov. 26 at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D.C., Sgt. Brown was released Dec. 6.

He is to report back to the hospital Feb. 1, meantime rest at home is expected to help his recuperation.

Sgt. Brown, son of Mrs. Dean Delker, 332 N. Union, was injured in Vietnam.

Hogs Becoming Temperamental

By NORMAN BLESS
Extension Agricultural Agent

Many local pork producers are experiencng difficulties with their hogs consuming insufficient amounts of the new corn for proper gains.

Farmers have observed a wide range of quality in their 1965 corn crop.

Scientists are presently identifying the problem with a fungi that has formed a mold on the corn. This mold can be detected by identifying the light grayish coating on the corn kernels usually near the tip end of the corn ear.

Pork Producers in northern Indiana, northern Ohio and southern Michigan are also reporting similar problems.

★

Blend good quality corn with affected corn.

Make feed more palatible by mixing 20%-25% oats or barley with the corn or ask their feed merchant to mix 50-100 pounds of molasses per ton of feed.

Some feeders are reporting success mixing ground alfalfa hay into the grain ration.

For fattening hogs the farmer will want to experiment with a feed mixture that will be palatable to his animals.

Because some molds may disturb the reproductive process of farm animals it is recommended that farmers with this problem feed their breeding animals good quality corn or feed ear corn so that the sows or gilts can select the better corn.

Clinton Choirs Plan Program

CLINTON — The Clinton School choirs are preparing a Christmas program for the enjoyment of the elementary school children, their families and friends, to be presented on Sunday, Dec. 19 at 3:30 p.m. in the high school.

Many elementary children will be helping to make this program a success. Some will be assisting with the presentation of the Nativity Scene, while others will be announcing and reciting poems.

Others are making decorations. The bell choir will be a feature of the program.

Youth Present 'Angels Rejoice'

"Angels Rejoice," the Christmas program of the children and youth in the church school of the First Methodist Church, will be presented Sunday evening at 7 p.m. in the sanctuary.

The playlet will tell the story of "God's Angels — Who Are They?", "God's Guardian Angels," "God's Ministering Angels" and "God's Messenger Angels."

Harry Stanifer, church school superintendent, will preside over the evening event with Barbara Wood directing the newly organized junior choir.

During the morning worship service the Rev. Donald C. Porteous will deliver the Christmas message, "Give Him Room in the Inn."

First Baptists Present 'Night of Miracles'

The Choir of the First Baptist Church will present a cantata, "Night of Miracles" Christmas eve at 11 p.m.

He is a student of Professor Blaine Ballard of Eastern Michigan University, former director of the choir, and expects to receive a teaching certificate in the spring.

Mr. Forest and his wife, Gale, have a three-year-old daughter, Kelley.

The cantata by John W. Peterson will be followed by a candlelight communion.

Grandparents Attend Tipton Euchre Party

TIPTON — The Grandmothers Club and Husbands were entertained, Monday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Simmons.

Following a buffet dinner the group played euchre. High prizes went to Mrs. Thelma Swarts and Mrs. Rozella Vollmer with Mr. and Mrs. Merrick Dibble capturing the low honors.

A gift exchange highlighted the evening.

Schools Close at High Noon on December 23

Superintendent James McDowell has announced that the junior and senior high schools will close Thursday, Dec. 23, at 11 a.m. for the holiday recess.

All grade children, kindergarten through sixth grade, will all be dismissed at 12 noon.

Filter System Is Worn Out

By DICK CARVER

It's mid-winter and few minds are on swimming or pools — but spring and summer are really not too distant in some respects.

Unless proper steps are taken, the Joyce Andrews Memorial Pool will not open.

Parks and Recreation Director Don Moffatt and the Recreation Board indicate the present filtration system at the pool is unsafe.

The difference between the two is placement of the pump, which in the vacuum system, circulates the water.

The present operation forces the water through a complicated series of component filters. The proposed setup would pull it through and requires less complicated filters.

★

IN ORDER to replace those filters, it is estimated three men would work 48 hours to remove, and replace them.

This does not include that time necessary to rewire and pack the filter elements.

Mr. Moffatt and the members of the board agreed that a new system would be less expensive over-all. Contracts should be let in the near future, he concluded.

Baptist Program Stresses Gifts Taken to Christ

The church school Christmas program of the First Baptist Church will be presented at 4 p.m. Dec. 19, in the Youth House.

"Gifts We Can Bring To Jesus" is the name of the program.

The White Christmas ingathering will be held during the morning services.

The topic of the Rev. Blair Bashore's sermon will be "The Man Who Owned the Stable."

On Exhibit

ADRIAN — The paintings and drawings by Jacques Egan will be on exhibition in the Little Gallery of Studio Angelico, Siena Heights College, from Dec. 12 to Jan. 15. The public is invited.

Bank To Be Open Thursdays in Afternoons

For the convenience of customers, the United Savings Bank will be open two Thursday afternoons, Dec. 16 and 23, until 4 p.m.

Most industries are issuing pay checks one day early this week and next, prompting the bank temporarily to alter its Thursday hours.

On Fridays, Dec. 24 and 31, the bank will close at 3 p.m., one hour and a half earlier than usual.

'Hanging of Greens'

Junior High Episcopal Young Churchmen from St. Peter's will be responsible for the "Hanging of the Greens" in the church Tuesday during their regular meeting.

Other members of the congregation and their friends are invited to join in at 6:30 p.m. when the trees and greens will be brought into the sanctuary for the decorating.

Last services of Advent will be held Sunday morning with the Holy Communion being celebrated at 8 and the Litany and Holy Communion at 10 during the regular Family service.

Herald Coming Out Early

Next week's Herald will come out one day early.

This will permit merchants to make their final bid for Christmas sales, also allow customers Wednesday, Thursday and Friday for gift buying from Herald ads.

Advertisers are asked to have their copy ready this Thursday and Friday for that big final fling.

Business places which run greeting ads are invited to stop at the Herald as soon as possible to select ones they'd like.

BEHIND PAGE ONE

Christmas gifts come in all sizes and shapes. The Bill Scheplers are expecting one all pink and white cuddly. This will make the sixth little one whose antics will be related in Mrs. Schepler's delightful column, "Behind the Bill Board," in the Brooklyn Exponent.

Thirteen on the 13th. That's our Bernie. The anniversary of his birth 13 years ago Monday was celebrated Sunday in the Riordan home. It's a certainty that this coincidence won't happen again, at least not for Bernard Riordan.

Jim Lawson is all grins, following his three-day Marathon Sale. Saturday was his biggest day with 10 television sets sold. We modestly report that Jim lauded The Herald ad for its part in the screaming success of his promoton.

Don Stoner of 6900 Mill Hwy. found a way to give his wife a mink for Christmas — he trapped one last weekend near Tecumseh and has it safely stored away in the freezer.

While most at the Herald and elsewhere are still getting their Christmas cards out, Mrs. Don Moffatt designed, script typed and mailed hers two weeks ago. Yes, typed, every one.

Must be Grandpa Pete Dermyer moved recently. The new phone book shows his address to be 307 W. Cummins St. while the old one, still on the desk [illegible] 810 E. Chicago. Sorry we had it wrong in our credit line for the wardrobe shown in George Underwood's ad.

Ever wonder how old "man's best friend" is in relation to his friend? Dr. Carlos Knisley, local veterinarian, supplies the information for interested Herald readers. A six-month-old puppy is like to a 10-year-old boy, at eight months like a 13-year-old and at 18 months like a young man of 20. From then on each two-year period adds eight years to the dog's life, thus making 10-year-old "Towser" about 56 in his master's years. No wonder Sam Grigg has arthritis. He's 48.

Christmas tree needles falling — perish the thought. Shirley's new hubby, Jim Wolf, suggests three tablespoons of brown sugar in the water for the tree.

Mrs. Walter Prill of Britton had three Christmas trees for the Lenawee Youth Center last week before the plea for them even came out in The Herald — thanks to the generosity of the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce. They show the true spirit of Christmas.

The luscious smell of Christmas baking permeates the homes of Mesdames Walter Wonderly and Dyke Helms these days. The gals have sold about 80 dozen decorated cookies just before Thanksgiving.

Steve Cook is hoping that some sort of hockey league can be formed in Tecumseh this winter. Maybe if enough young men are interested, plans could be made to rent Toledo Arena a few times this winter for games. Of course, when ice is good here, there could be matches at the Pit and Globe Pond. Leave your name at The Herald if you're interested.

Attennnnnnnn, all servicemen. Please guys, let The Herald know when you are discharged from your duties for Uncle Sam. We gladly send the home town paper for only $1 [illegible] and would like being told when you return home. The post office charges 10c every time a paper is returned.

STORY OF CHRISTMAS — Joy and peace to men who see and experience it is what Christmas really is, the birth of Christ. To bring into focus this central reality of Christmas the students of Sacred Heart Novitiate, conducted by the Verona Fathers at Nadeau Rd., in Monroe, have built a Diorama of the Nativity Scene, which will be open to the public now through Jan. 9, on Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays, from 1 p.m. to 9 p.m. Admission is free. The 500-square-foot Diorama is a three-dimensional model-size reproduction of the landscape of the countryside of Palestine with hills and valleys, caves and homes, water wheels, mills, castles, and more than 150 figures of people and animals including several that move.

Karen Pankotai and Wesley Tiede Exchange Vows

The Calvary Lutheran Church in Lincoln Park, was the setting recently for the beautiful candlelight wedding service of Karen Janet Pankotai and Wesley Herman Tiede.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Tiede of 4071 N. Blissfield Hwy., Britton.

MRS. GEORGE

Vases of white chrysanthemums and carnations adorned the altar, with cathedral candelabra and palms at each side. The pews along the white carpeted aisle were marked by individual candelabra and large white satin bows.

The double ring ceremony took place at 5 p.m. with the Rev. Eugene officiating.

The fitted bodice was styled with a scalloped neckline and long sleeves ending in points over her hands. A chapel train extended from the bouffant tiered skirt.

A three-tiered crystal crown secured the bride's waist-length veil of Chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and carnations interspersed with silver leaves.

★

The bridesmaids were Mars. Kenneth Pankotai of Wyandotte, sister-in-law of the bride, wearing orchid; Mrs. Ronald Mascnino, wearing sky blue and Donna Bliede in pink, both of Britton, sisters of the bridegroom.

The attendants wore Colonial styled gowns of chiffon, enhanced by tiered roses at the back of the full skirts. The fitted bodices were designed with rounded necklines and three-quarter sleeves.

They wore floral crowns with short veils and each carried a colonial bouquet of carnations and ivy in colors matching their gowns.

Constance Pankotai of Wyandotte, was the flower girl. She wore a floor-length replica of the bridal gown in aqua chiffon.

★

The groomsmen were Kenneth Pankotai of Wyandotte, brother of the bride, Ronald Maschino of Britton, brother-in-law of the bridegroom and Frank Sabo of Lincoln Park. cousin of the bride.

The ushers were Edward Tiede of Britton and Herbert Schroeder of Allen Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Tiede have returned from a wedding trip to Niagara Falls. They are living at 228 W. Chicago Blvd., Britton.

MRS. MICHAEL OSBURN

Mary Ann Surratt Speaks Vows with Michael Osburn

Christmas colors of red and white were used to enhance the wedding of Mary Ann Surratt and Michael Osburn Saturday at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church and also at the reception at the Irish Hills Sports Park.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John M. Surratt, 308 N. Van Buren St. and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Osburn, 3931 Matthews Hwy.

Given in marriage by her father, the radiant bride wore a floor-length gown of peau de soie featuring a jacket-train combination of Chantilly lace.

★

CANDY McENROE was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Inara Roberts, and Sharie Osburn. Little Amanda Eddy of Manitou Beach was the flower girl.

Mrs. Alton Snyder made the bride's gown and those of Miss Osburn and Miss Eddy.

Greg Long, Philip and George Surratt and Charles Osburn seated the guests as Mrs. Donald Johnson presented a prelude of nuptial music. She also accompanied Mrs. Ben McWilliams, the soloist.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Laidlaw greeted the 250 guests at the Sports Park and Mrs. Harold Kelso was the hostess.

Mrs. Charles Rebottaro registered the guests. Mrs. Philip Surratt served the wedding cake assisted by Susie Holubik and Jo Dotson. Terri Clark, Pat Warner and Sherri Eddy served punch.

★

KAREN McKENNA and Sandra Sweet received the gifts. Coffee was served by Mrs. Marvin Wegner, Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Charles Osburn.

Following a wedding trip to Florida the couple will reside at 315 N. Union St.

The bride is attending Cleary College in Ypsilanti and employed as a secretary at the Tecumseh Products Co.

Both young people are Tecumseh High School graduates.

Dinner for 25 members of the wedding party was given Friday evening at Don's Beef Buffet by the groom's parents.

Gail Trowbridge Weds Gary Linger in Candlelight Rite

Gail Trowbridge became the bride of Gary E. Linger Dec. 4, in a candlelighted Yuletide setting at the Rollin Center Methodist Church.

The double ring service was performed by the Rev. John W. McNaughton, pastor of the church, assisted by Dr. Howard Emrick of Adrian College.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Trowbridge of Round Lake and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Linger of Tipton.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was in a street-length gown of organza and chantilly lace in ballerina style, a bouffant skirt and sleeves that tapered to points.

Her headpiece was a matching doll hat with circular veil. She carried white carnations, variegated holly and stephanotis in a cascade bouquet.

Peggy Leonard of Manitou Beach, maid of honor, wore a red sleeveless dress, a whimsy veil and carried a cascade arrangement of holly and varigated carnations.

The groom was attended by Karl Kaiden of Manitou Beach.

A spotlight cast a soft glow on the huge cross on the chancel wall, to provide the only other light for the ceremony.

Only members of the immediate families attended, including the parents of the bridal couple, the bride's sisters, Betsy from Michigan State University and Janet Trowbridge, and her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Conklin of Adrian; the groom's brother and sister, Jimmy and Janice Linger, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pfister of Adrian and Ernest Linger of Tipton.

A reception was held in the church fellowship room. Alberta Conklin of Clayton registered the 150 guests from Addison, Adrian, Clayton, Clinton, Cement, Detroit, East Lansing, Hudson, Jackson, Manitou Beach, Onsted, Otsego, Somerset, Tecumseh, Tipton, Three Rivers, Waldworth and Ypsilanti.

The bride's table was centered by a four-tiered cake topped with a gift from Mrs. Charles Chapman, a miniature bride and groom.

The cake, on a mirror was encircled by holly and Christmas greenery.

Floral arrangements flanking the cake were red carnations, white pompons and holly interspersed amidst three-branched hurricane lamps.

Ribbons of holiday hues festooned the table, presided over by Mrs. Terry Hendricks, Annette, Barbara and Janice Linger and Janet Trowbridge.

Others assisting were Mrs. Chapman and the bride's aunts, Mrs. Joseph Poley and Mrs. Norman Ries, and members of the MYF of the church.

Assisting with the gifts were Mrs. Delmar Cadoo and Susan Ries.

The bride is a 1965 graduate of Addison High School and is a student at Jackson Business University.

The groom graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1964 and is an employee of the National Cash Register Company of Ann Arbor.

Fayetta Hall, George Jones Are United in Marriage

Fayetta Hall and George R. Jones were united in marriage at the Clinton Methodist Church, Saturday evening, Dec. 4.

The parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Troy Hall of Britton. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Jones, Clinton.

The Rev. George Miller performed the double ring ceremony before a candlelighted altar.

Iridescent sequins highlighted the neckline of the bride's gown of imported organza and Chantilly lace. A removable chapel train edged in chantilly lace enhanced the bouffant skirt. The bridal veil was held to a lily of lace.

The bride carried a white Bible pinned with a corsage of red roses.

The attendants wore matching green velvet and crepe featuring Empire styling with the skirts ending in brief trains. Their headpieces were of matching velvet. They carried bouquets of red roses.

The matron of honor was Sharon Mann of Britton. The bridesmaids were Linda Clement and Mary Ann Komon, both of Britton, Karen Cregar and Sharon Cubberly. The flower girl was Angela J. Hall.

Mrs. Harold Anderson of Milan was the soloist.

The ushers were David Fox, Jay Adrian and Charles Antcliff of Clinton, and Tim Blumenauer of Saline.

Mr. and Mrs. David Bailey of Palmyra were hosts for the reception attended by 175 guests in the church.

The couple is living at Vineyard Lake.

Mrs. Carpenter Heads Scouter Cabin Committee

Mrs. Harvey Carpenter is the chairman of the Building Fund Committee of the Tecumseh Scout Cabin Association.

Approximately one-third of the funds necessary for the 18x22 foot addition to the cabin have been raised but additional support is needed from the community.

The proposed addition will add 400 square feet to the present 20x40 foot building.

Checks may be sent to Mrs. Carpenter at the Harvey House Motel, 1445 W. Chicago Blvd.

Mrs. Carpenter stated recently, "All contributions, large or small, will be greatly appreciated by the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts of Tecumseh, our future leaders."

—o—

Mrs. Harvey Carpenter is expected home from St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor the latter part of the week. She will take medication for possible surgery later.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Cubberly of Tecumseh announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Sharon L. to David L. Prill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Prill of Milwaukee Road, Britton.

The wedding will take place January 14th at the Tecumseh Methodist Church.

Nazarene Plans Christmas Show

The Christmas program of the Ridgeway Church of the Nazarene will be held Sunday evening featuring a pageant by the teenagers and the choir.

The pageant is entitled "What Christmas Really Means." Harold Willet will direct the choir and Elmer Hall will be the soloist.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

For a realistic look into the deep meaning of Christmas, Tecumseh area residents might well plan to attend one or all of the singspirations around the nativity scene at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church.

Live animals will be placed in the corral Saturday for the pleasure of those passing by.

The Rev. Laszlo Gero was overwhelmed with the willingness of the young people in the community and surrounding area in coming to sing around the scene to greet the newborn king, thereby expressing their desire to have and keep the Christmas spirit.

A schedule of events at the outdoor scene is listed in the Gloria Dei Church news elsewhere in this issue.

Russell Steinke returned from New York City Sunday where he attended several art shows, one by his childhood friend, John Koch, with whom he grew up in Ann Arbor. Mr. Steinke said it was a valuable study trip but most pleasurable.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Klapperich Jr. and children of Northbrook, Ill. arrive Wednesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jens Touborg, especially to attend the Colgrove-Kozera wedding Saturday evening. Mrs. A. R. Shigley of Fremont is also a houseguest in the Touborg home.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Stretch entertained her sister and husband, Airman and Mrs. Farrell Bowman, and daughter of Glendale, Ariz. for dinner Monday evening. Mrs. Barbara Carson of Tipton was also a dinner guest in the Stretch home.

√

Michael Bartenslager, en route home from Vietnam, felt safe and secure once again when suddenly an engine broke loose and crashed through the plane injuring some of the passengers. Fortunately the plane landed safely and Michael was only shaken up.

He plans to call his parents with more details this week and will be home for Christmas Dec. 20.

Attends Three-Day Conference

Grant Swift of Tecumseh Equipment has just returned from a three day farmstead mechanization training conference.

Some of the highlights from this training tour, attended by 80 dealers from Michigan, Ohio, southern Indiana and Kentucky, included an introduction to a completely new concept in bunk feeding.

The dealers visited dairy farms where they saw free stall installations with inside feeding and mechanized feeding in stanchion barns.

The training conference was concluded with a business session at which the dealers were advised on the planning of modern mechanized feeding installations, planning and construction of liquid manure pits, and new product developments by the company.

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

The War in Vietnam is the issue of the day. People throughout the county are becoming more and more concerned with the ever-increasing number of our men being drafted for military duty.

They are saddened by the growing number of local names being added to the Vietnam casualty lists.

"The Great Society" myth is fading from thought as people are forced to face the stark realities of life and death. The Christmas season is more solemn this year, and perhaps more meaningful, as more people see beyond the tinsel and colored lights to behold the Star.

Above the tinkling bells and jolly carols they hear with more urgency and clarity the timeless message of the Angel: "Peace on earth to men of good will."

Unfortunately, some men on this earth do not have good will, and do not understand the very word "peace." The atheistic Communist imperialists are intent upon their goal of conquering all men and nations, disregarding the God-given free wills of their captives. They kill those they cannot subjugate completely.

The United States was founded on the principle that the individual is endowed by his Creator with inalienable human rights, and that his freedom to exercise these rights must be protected.

Our forefathers fought a bloody Revolutionary War to guarantee our freedom. They won. And our country has won every war since then in which we were engaged in order to preserve this freedom.

The United States has become the symbol of freedom and hope throughout the world. Those enslaved and oppressed by the Communist Tyrany can only pray, and hope that we, with the strength we have gained through the exercise of our freedom, will assist them in regaining and retaining their own freedom.

We are now fighting for the freedom of the 14 million people of South Vietnam. There can be only one solution: Victory.

The war can be won in short order if we, the people want Victory and demand it. The joint Military Chiefs of Staff, if allowed authority to exercise their good judgment, would direct a policy leading to a victorious conclusion to the war in the shortest possible time, thus eliminating the need for a continuing loss of lives over perhaps many years.

By winning the war, we will quell the Communists' aggression and take over of Asia, thus throwing a wrench in their plan of world-takeover, continent by continent.

Do not be deceived — the winning of this war is in our country's interest. By stopping the aggression in Vietnam we discourage future aggression throughout the world, including that directed toward our own precious Nation.

Countless lives will be saved, and our own freedom, plus that of the rest of the world's "men of good will" will rest more secure. Victory will assure the only true "Peace on Earth."

We urge all citizens who favor Victory in Vietnam to make their wishes known by writing letters to their congressmen in Washington, D. C.

For those who would like a fuller understanging of the Communist Conspiracy and its methods and goals, we heartily recommend the famous book by our own F.B.I. Chief, J. Edgar Hoover — "Masters of Deceit."

We also would recommend that all concerned citizens send cards and letters to our servicemen in Vietnam, giving them our support and encouragement. The Herald is currently accepting Christmas cards and letters to be shipped to our men in Vietnam. Please support this "morale-booster" for our boys.

Church Members Meet

TIPTON — The Community Christmas party was held at the Tipton Community Church Saturday evening.

The children of the Sunday School and Grange presented a program. The Sunday School teachers whose classes participated were the primary department, Mrs. Ray Jackson and Mrs. Ann Allen's classes gave recitations and song "Away in a Manger."

Mrs. Larry Reichenbauch's class gave 14 Jolly Letters. Don Daniels class sang.

Mrs. Hal Tuckerman's class had recitations. Skits were given by Mrs. Don Daniels and Mrs. Ray Buell's class.

Mrs. Lyle Whelan, Grange Lecturer, presented a piano solo, skit and song by the boys of the Grange.

The Junior High Class of Mrs. Richard Vollmer presented a play. The Church orchestra directed by Mrs. Raymond Platt, presented two numbers.

Santa Claus was present and greeted all the children and adults. Christmas treats and cookies and coffee were served by the committee which was Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wilkin, Walt Bale, Harold Radant, Fred Karpo, Jack Allen, William Luce and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Cook.

Make Decorations

The rooms are now gaily decorated and the children are eagerly awaiting the parties and Christmas vacation.

A musical program has been planned for 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 22.

The various parties will then be held on Thursday morning, consisting of a gift exchange and treats. The treats will be provided by the teachers as their gift to the students.

We are all welcoming back Mrs. Shaw, especially the sixth grade room. The children planned a welcoming sign for her. We wish to thank Mr. Surratt

Motorist Hits Car, Takes Off

Only one negligent motorist failed to get a ticket in six accidents checked by Tecumseh police during the past week.

He was involved in a minor hit-skip affair, and will likely be cited if ever identified.

All accidents were minor, one personal, which was treated by a family physician.

A resume of the mishaps are

Dec. 9 — Charles N. Childs, 25, Rollin, was charged with improper backing after bumping into Juana Herrera, 24, of 135 E. Chicago Blvd.

Dec. 9 — Wesley P. Lord, Clinton, reported his pickup damaged while parked in front of Herrick Hospital. Other driver is unknown.

Dec. 11 — Lewis O. Watson, 56, of 709 Occidental, was cited for failure to have his van under control after pulling from a parking spot and scraping a pickup owned by Willard H. Woods, 42, Onsted.

Dec. 11 — Carl W. Collingsworth, 16, of 402 Brown St., turned in front of Russell Williams, 52, Britton, at the intersection of N. Evans and Brown, and was cited for faflure to yield right of way. Dorothy Williams suffered minor injuries.

Dec. 11 — Roy F. Collins Jr., 18, Grass Lake, driving a garbage pickup truck, allowed it to coast back and into a car operated by Richard W. Garlee, 17, of 1209 Shady Lane. Collins was cited for failure to have his vehicle under control.

Dec. 12 — Robert E. Hart, Sr., 42, 719 Seneca, was cited for failure to yield right of way after a mishap with Dale E. Close, 19, of 3807 Russell Rd. The accident happened at Patterson and S. Union St.

JC Musical Seeks Talent

In an effort to raise more football light money, Tecumseh Jaycees are seeking all available performers — talented and otherwise — for the musical comedy revue (accent on comedy) they will present at the Strand Theater Jan. 19 and 20.

Rehearsals for the still-nameless production will begin Jan. 5 and tryouts will be open to the public.

Spokesmen for the Jaycees advise that the club hopes to create enough community interest in the show to be able to make it an annual affair.

Jaycees are stressing community participation and hope for a big turnout at the kickoff rehearsal party, time and place to be announced.

Auction Earns $81

About $81 was earned at the Christmas auction of the Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church Monday evening.

The money will again be sent to Mather School in Georgia.

Mrs. Robert Gillespie was hospitality chairman for the evening and Mrs. George French and committee had charge of the refreshments.

Britton Changes Election Procedure

BRITTON — There has been an important change in election procedure due to Public Act 212 of 1965, states Village Clerk Rosemary Auten.

This act eliminates the caucus as method of nominating village or township officers.

Beginning in 1966, all villages must accept the filing of nominating petitions, and hold a primary election prior to the annual spring election.

These petitions can be secured from the village clerk. The last day for filing is Jan. 3, 1966.

Petitions are to be signed by no more than 4% of the registered voters on each petition.

TIPTON TOPICS

Mr. and Mrs. John Jones with Mr. and Mrs. Wililah Jones of Lansing were in Severy, Kan. over the weekend for the funeral of their uncle, Jesse Jones, Sunday afternoon.

The Christmas Cheer boxes will be packed on Wednesday, Dec. 22. All contributions are to be at the church by 9 a.m.

There will be family Christmas caroling in the evening to deliver boxes. Candy, fruit cake, nuts, jams or jellies are needed.

Indian Five Still Hope For First Victory

By JIM LINCOLN

Unable to score consistently in the second half — plus some erratic ball handling — led to the Tecumseh Indians' second straight loss Friday night at Flat Rock, 60-52.

Many similar to its opening defeat, resulted.

The Indians had led Dundee most of the way, as they did with the Rams. Fouls also again purged two starters from the Tecumseh starting lineup.

FR's Ron Schroeder paced his teammates to victory with 25 points 20 in the first half. After hitting two goals in the fourth quarter, he fouled out with over five minutes left.

Tecumseh failed to capitalize on his departure, as the Indians ran into some cold shooting, scoring only seven points in the final eight minutes.

Terry Alcock finished with 12 points and was the game's top rebounder, though the Indians boast a ... overall height, Alcock pulled down more rebounds than the rest of his teammates combined.

Tecumseh and FR entered the final period tied, 46-46, but the Rams then scored 10 points to Tecumseh's one over a four-minute stretch.

THS pulled to within six points with over two minutes remaining, but was then blanked the rest of the way.

Neither club sparkled at the free throw line. FR hitting eight of 21 attempts, and Tecumseh, 14 of 27. The Indians hit just one of eight tosses in the second half.

Johnson Ends First Season

It's a Sunday afternoon in late November, 1967. The Detroit Lions are in a crucial National Football League battle with the Chicago Bears. The score, of course, is tied. It's time for backfield speed. Lion Coach Harry Gilmer looks down the bench. "Johnson, get in there at halfback," he shouts. Jim Johnson, former Tecumseh High School star, makes his NFL debut. This is fiction now, but it could happen.

By DICK CARVER

They topped the season with an exhibition game, defeating the league All-Star team, 7-6.

In league play he ran up 328 yards in 46 carries for an average of 7.1.

Unable to break the 100 yard mark per game because he was not a starter earlier in the season, Johnson gained that status because of injuries just five games before the end.

In those five games he gained 209, 173, 103, 98 and 198 yards rushing and pass receiving.

"He's looking better every game," remarked Pontiac Coach Wells, who said if he adds 20 pounds and retains his speed and good action, he looks good for a Lion bid.

Jim is now destined for a six-month Navy Reserve tour at the end of February. He hopes to be out again by fall and looking for major football league play.

The San Diego Chargers of the American Football League have already indicated an interest in him and with additional weight that Lion bid may be forthcoming.

Women's Club Presents Music of the Messiah

CLINTON — The magnificent Christmas music of Johann Sebastian Bach and George Frederick Handel and a history of the composers provided the program theme arranged by Mrs. Ralph Reed for the meeting of the Clinton Woman's Club on Dec. 8 in the Community Center.

Although the men were both born in 1685 in Germany, Bach and Handel never met.

Handel composed the "Messiah" in 24 days and it was performed first in Dublin, Ireland, on April 13, 1742. Of the Hallelujah Chorus Handel said, "I did think I did see all Heaven before me, and the Great God Himself."

Recordings of "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach and "Unto Us a Child is Born" and "Hallelujah Chorus" from the "Messiah" by Handel were played by Mrs. Reed and she led the members in singing Christmas carols.

Tiered green candles festooned with holly and glittering red, green and gold balls formed the centerpiece for the tea table. Mrs. Charles Ward poured, using the memorial silver tea service.

Paper companies believe that privately owned timberlands can generate an annual timber crop for its manufacturing processes, provide recreational opportunities for the interested public, and protect wildlife, notes the American Paper Institute.

Will Reduce Phone Cost

The cost of telephone service will be reduced by seven percent on January 1, General Telephone reminded its customers.

The reduction comes via the first step of the gradual elimination of the Federal Excise Tax on telephone service.

The bill to repeal the excise tax on telephone service, which was imposed as a so-called "luxury" tax during World War II, was passed by Congress and signed into law by President Johnson in June.

According to the new law, subsequent reductions of 1 percent will be made on Jan. 1 of 1967, 1968, and 1969, when the tax will be eliminated completely.

Residents Seek Peace

"In this materialized world, it seems to us only the Christmas season and the preparation of the Savior's coming into the heart of mankind gives the hope for peace and right living," states the Rev. Laszlo Gero.

"Churches in our communities, however, try to bring the spirit of this season close to everybody who seeks the peace which the world cannot give," he added.

"The Gloria Dei Evangelical Lutheran Church wants to be a part of this preparation and celebration of the birthday of Christ. Youth and adult are ready to express the feeling and desires to have and keep this spirit."

★

DR. GERO, pastor of Gloria Dei has extended an invitation to residents of Tecumseh and neighboring communities to make use of the nativity scene with live animals at the church.

The scene and the animals will be put in place Saturday. The church school children will present their Christmas program Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in the church.

The community will have the opportunity to hear the 50-voice choir of Tecumseh High School Monday as they sing Christmas carols at the outdoor Nativity scene at 7:30 p.m.

The Britton-Macon High School choir will sing at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 22, at the scene.

★

THE ANNUAL Gloria Dei Christmas candlelight service will be held Friday, Dec. 24, at 11:30 p.m. with expressions of praise to Christ in hymns and prayer.

The Chancel and the Luther League Choirs will present Christmas anthems.

The congregation of the church with the pastor extends a cordial invitation to the people of the entire area to come.

Obituaries

● JACK J. FLEMING

Services were held Monday in St. Elizabeth Catholic Church by the Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins for Jack Fleming, 76, who died Thursday evening at the Herrick Nursing Home where he had been a patient for two years.

A Lenawee farmer for 32 years, his residence was at 5462 Ridge Rd. He had been ill for 11 years.

Mr. Fleming was born in St. John's Newfoundland, Oct. 20, 1889, and came to the United States in 1914. He was naturalized in 1918.

His wife, Alice Richards Fleming, whom he married in 1917, died April 4, 1938.

Mr. Fleming was a member of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

He is survived by one brother, James J. Fleming of Detroit; two nieces and a nephew whom he helped raise, Mrs. Jack Puffer, 620 N. Union St., Mrs. George Rockwood of Needles, Calif., and Peter Fleming of Detroit, and another niece and nephew, Mrs. George Boden and Edward Fleming both of Detroit.

Six brothers preceded Mr. Fleming in death.

The Rosary was recited Sunday evening at the Proctor Funeral Home and burial was in Brookside Cemetery.

● WALTER R. PALMER

Services were held Monday in Adrian for Walter Palmer, 56, of that city who died Friday morning en route to Bixby Hospital. He became ill in the night.

He was employed for 12 years with the Lenawee County Road Commission.

Mr. Palmer was born in Grand Rapids Jan. 9, 1907. He was a graduate of Sand Creek High School and attended Hillsdale College.

He married Dorothy C. Sanders in Hudson Feb. 26, 1928. He was a member of the Raisin Valley Friends Church and the Pathfinders Class.

Besides his wife, he is survived by his mother, Mrs. Henrietta Vine of Kalamazoo; two daughters, Mrs. Robert Matheny of Adrian and Mrs. Robert Byrns of Tulsa, Okla.; one son, James, 307 S. Maiden Lane and seven grandchildren.

A sister, Mrs. Rayfield Fisher, of Kalamazoo, also survives.

Mr. Palmer was preceded in death by his father and one son in infancy.

The Rev. Lawrence Cox officiated and burial was in Dover Center Cemetery.

● LAWRENCE WELSH

Funeral services were held in Ferndale, Saturday, for Lawrence Welsh, 72, who died Wednesday, in Dearborn Veteran's Hospital, after a long illness.

Mr. Welsh was born near Tecumseh and lived here during his youth in the area. He was a graduate of Clinton High School in 1911. He was a veteran of World War I. He was in the real estate business in Detroit.

He is survived by his wife, Ora, two sons, Charles A. of Berkley, Calif., and Richard at home; four sisters, Mrs. Thomas Pence and Mrs. Floyd Tate of Clinton, Ethel Dodd of Royal Oak and Mrs. Melvin Brisbin of Manchester and a brother, Frank Sage of Ann Arbor. There is one granddaughter.

Haze, Maggie Show Courage

By MAXINE CALHOUN

CLINTON — When a dog thinks he's a person, and acts like it, perhaps it isn't too far-fetched if he wins people-type flight luggage at a dog show.

Jade Hope's Grey Haze is a beautiful, gray poodle, who responds instantly to silent hand signals, performing with great skill everything humans have required him to do.

Haze's list of winnings reads like Saturday night at the bingo game.

The multitude of trophies and prizes decorate several rooms in the spacious home of Haze's family, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kiebler, at 611 Jackson St.

I won't call Maggie and Ted, his owners, because I suspect it's the other way around — Haze owns them!

★

THE MOST recent addition to the display is a gleaming silver coffee service and tray won in Detroit on Nov. 25 when Haze scored 199½ in the Open B class and was a winner in the utility class at the Motor City Obedience Trial.

He has also won more than a dozen silver pieces, including trays, pitchers, bowls and servers. Quite a bit of folding money has accompanied the winner's ribbons in three and one-half years.

The luggage and $25 was won at the Youngstown, Ohio, All-Breed Show a few weeks ago. Perhaps, Haze will carry his new Blue snow suit in it.

★

FIVE YEARS ago, when Maggie decided to buy a poodle she was already devoted to a charming cat, named Binkey, who had chosen the Kiebler Market and the Kieblers, in that order, because it seemed like the best place to find a steady supply of liver — the only thing he ever learned to eat.

Binkey readily accepted Haze as a playmate and until the cat's death two years later they were great friends.

In January 1962, Haze began obedience training with Tom Clute in Adrian.

"He showed a rare talent for strict attention, right from the start," Maggie says.

Haze is the only dog trained by Tom Clute, except his own National Field Trial Champion, Prince Tom, who earned the coveted utility degree in obedience.

Although Haze flunked his first competition, in April 1962, he has been among the top winners in every show he has entered since.

★

AT FIRST, Maggie went alone to Adrian for the early training sessions, but soon Ted became interested and began to go along.

Haze earned the champion de- [illegible] and was training for the open classes. He was ready to enter licensed shows, and had just begun to train for the Utility Class in January 1963 when disaster struck.

Maggie was commuting three days a week to Eastern Michigan University, where she was studying for an Art degree.

It was early on the morning of Jan. 22, when Maggie's car skidded on the ice and overturned just a mile east of Clinton. She was pinned inside until a passing motorist found her.

She had sustained a fractured and [illegible] spine, causing paralysis of her legs.

A COUPLE OF CHAMPIONS — MAGGIE KIEBLER AND HER POODLE HAZE

Doctors at St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor gave [illegible] hope of ever using her legs again. They told her she would never sit up again — and certainly never walk.

Maggie's cheerful attitude soon became the marvel of the hospital. During her four months there she became an inspiration to other patients similarly afflicted.

If there is a trophy given for courage, Maggie earned a solid gold one then.

★

With the same discipline and persistance which she had exhibited in training Haze to perfection, she now began the agonizing task of teaching [illegible] muscle to respond.

Today, she'll tell you, with justifiable pride, "I can lift my legs straight out now and cross them — and I will walk again!"

She can walk now, with braces, and is slowly recovering some function of her legs, although she still has no feeling below her knees.

With the aid of an ingenious elevator, designed and built by Elmer Staib, at her kitchen door, she's able to descend in her wheel chair to her hand-operated car and last summer she began driving about alone.

★

THE FUTURE hold promise of still greater achievements for Maggie and for Haze. Ted has assisted in showing Haze and helps with Maggie's physical therapy.

On Sunday, Haze was entered in the Ingham County Kennel Club Show at Lansing, where he placed first in Open Class.

★

This Sunday, the Kieblers and Haze will be attending the Western Reserve Kennel Club Show in Cleveland.

He's registered now to appear in Canadian shows and next year the plans are to enter competition in Bermuda.

For a poodle whose paternal grandfather, Wilbur's White Swan, earned Best of Show in the Madison Square Garden Dog Show. Haze is well on the way to the top.

And Maggie's going, too — all the way!

Mrs. Jenkins Bid Farewell With Parties

CLINTON — Mrs. Rosamond Jenkins will leave by plane Friday for Cairo, Egypt, and then to Amman, Jordan, to remain until April with her daughter, Mrs. Betty Waldin. Mrs. Waldin is employed by the US State Department.

Mrs. Jenkins has been entertained at farewell parties this past week.

A family luncheon party at the Driftwood last Wednesday was attended by Mrs. Jenkins' sisters, Mrs. George Brooks, Mrs. Russell H. Miller, Mrs. L. H. Eder of Chelsea and Bertine Walker; a sister-in-law, Mrs. William Walker of Onsted and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Richard E. Hoelzer of Chelsea.

Mrs. Jenkins was a dinner guest Saturday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greenfield and family at their home near Adrian.

On Sunday, Mrs. Jenkins attended a family gathering at the home of her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weinberg at Twin Lakes. The occasion marked Mrs. Weinberg's birthday anniversary.

New Teacher Begins Duties in Clinton

CLINTON — Gary Lynn Stewart began teaching in the commercial department in the Clinton School this week. He replaces Mrs. Hugh DeErmia of Tecumseh, who had been hired on a termina basis.

Mr. Stewart has a secondary provisional teaching certificate and will teach typing, economics and bookkeeping.

He is a native of Van Wert, Ohio, and was graduated from Hilldale College in 1962. He has taken graduate work at Giffen College in Van Wert and Miami University in Oxford.

He has three years teaching experience in Talewanda High School, Oxford, and came to Clinton from Lima, Ohio, where he has been teaching at Northwestern School of Commerce.

Mr. Stewart has coached basketball and baseball and has been active in youth recreational programs, including 4-H clubs and Starr Commonwealth for Boys.

He is married and has a 15-month-old daugher. The family is living in an apartment at 208 E. Michigan Ave.

Redskins Seek Victory No. 2

CLINTON — In quest of the season's second win, Clinton entertains Ypsilanti Roosevelt Friday evening.

The Redskins bested Whitmore Lake, 72-48, last week to post their first victory after dropping decisions to Onsted and Manchester.

A full-court press was the big factor as Clinton took command in the first period, 15-5.

Coach Richard Content got standout performances from Bill Jedele, who had 17 points; Gene Brown, with 16 and Butch Hoelzer, who canned 14.

Clinton's junior varsity also won, 55-22.

Banquet Honors 83

CLINTON — The 83 members of the varsity and junior varsity football teams, cross country squad, managers, trainers and cheer leaders were honored at a Sports Banquet attended by 200 guests, Wednesday night, in the high school.

The Rotary Club furnished ham for he buffet-style potluck dinner.

Ray Williams was the toastmaster for the program. The Rev. Donald Heacock gave the invocation and Donald Freeburn, president of the Rotary Club, extended the welcome.

The members of the various teams were introduced by Coaches Philip Bareis, Graham Teague and Richard Content. Mr. Williams introduced the girls of the cheerleading teams.

Mr. Bareis and James Curth, assistant coach, presented the varsity football awards and gave an account of the training program and games played.

Mr. Curth and Allen Brooks, president of the Athletic Association, presented each member of the varsity team with a football letter from the school marked "1965 Champions."

Each member of the team also received a miniature gold football from the Athletic Association.

★

Clinton Churches Plan Services

CLINTON — St. John's Episcopal Church will celebrate Holy Communion at a special Christmas Eve service at 9 p.m.

The Rev. Donald Heacock will be conducting the service. Members of the Holy Cross Mission in Saline are especially invited to attend.

The traditional Community Christmas Eve service will be held in the United Church of Christ at 11 p.m.

The Rev. Paul McKenna extends an invitation to the public to attend.

Church of Christ Cancels Program

CLINTON — Because of the extra effort which has gone into the preparation of the Christmas Cantata to be presented by choirs the United Church of Christ on Sunday, Dec. 19, at 8 p.m., the annual Christmas program of the Church School will not be held.

There will be a family night potluck supper Tuesday, Dec. 21 at 6:30 p.m. followed by a social evening and carol singing.

Major Taffe Aids Project For Vietnam

CLINTON—Major Jack Taffe, a member of the Marine Corps Reserve participated in the Marine Corps "Handclasp" project last weekend.

He flew a plane Friday night from Grosse Ile air base to El Toro air base near Los Angeles, Calif. The plane was loaded with medical supplies, gathered in Michigan and nearby states, to be sent to the people of Vietnam.

He'll Perform Among Roses

By PHILIP NELSON
Special to The Herald

EAST LANSING — A Michigan State University student from Tecumseh will spend an expense-paid Christmas vacation in Pasadena, Calif., with 175 other MSU students.

TOM DICKINSON
'Rose Bowl Bound'

Tom Dickinson, who plays clarinet for the MSU marching band, will fly to Pasadena with the band Dec. 28, to play at the Rose Bowl football game on New Years Day. The band will also perform in the Parade of Roses preceding the game.

The 175 member band will also give a concert and demonstration at Disneyland Dec. 30, Leonard Falcone, MSU's director of bands, said.

The trip, which is sponsored by the Big Ten, appears to be a free vacation for the band members.

"In one sense the trip is free," Dr. Falcone said, "but, besides the daily practice, which began two weeks before school started this fall, the band will have three days of intensive practice before leaving for Pasadena and three more days of practice after arriving in California.

Dickinson, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick F. Dickinson, 514 W. Pottawatamie St., is a junior at MSU and is studying zoology.

He is a 1963 graduate of Tecumseh High School.

The band will return to Lansing Jan. 3.

Teachers Study Education Act

CLINTON — A teacher's committee is studying the guidelines in the Title I Elementary Secondary Education Act, to determine the best way to utilize the more than $7,000 available to the school under the act.

The money will be used to provide educational opportunities which would not otherwise be available to underprivileged Children of the school district.

The teachers committee will submit a plan before the Christmas holiday.

Volunteers Alter Ideas About Races

ANN ARBOR — A number of Peace Corps Volunteers from the United States changed their views about race relations during a two-year teaching stint in Ghana, Africa.

Assistant professor Raphael S. Ezekiel of The University of Michigan, who spent two summers interviewing the teachers in their secondary schools, says the attitudes of many of the Volunteers became liberalized regarding race and minority relations.

Ezekiel's research was done with Professor, M. Brewster Smith, University of California, as part of an international study for the Peace Corps. The findings will be presented in a book to be published by John Wiley & Sons.

"Some Volunteers found that the distinction between races had become a fairly irrevelant concept," Ezekiel says. "The importance of a category began to melt in the face of experience. For two years they had acted in a warm nurturant fashion with young African students to whom they had reacted as individual people."

They also became acquainted with the enormous difference within groups, Ezekiel points out. The Volunteers "began to see that labeling and emphasizing differences between groups served to obscure reality and lessen the richness of their own lives."

An interesting occurrence placed the volunteers in the role of being the butt of innocent stereotyping by small children, he says. "The Ghana children would wave at the volunteer teachers, and, without malice, call out an expression meaning 'white man, white man'."

Such an experience may have increased the Volunteers' sensitivity, Ezekiel points out, to the feelings of a man who is seen only in terms of his group label.

Interviews Congressman Wes Vivian

Kathy Carter, a member of the Tecumseh High School government class visiting the post office Friday, asked Representative Wes Vivian about Washington, D. C. The senior class will be going there for the annual trip in the spring. Kathy is pictured between Rep. Vivian on the left and Postmaster Jack Metcalf on the right.

TEEN TALK

By DEBBIE EARLING

The guest speaker for the November Spanish Club meeting was Stephen E. Banker, a field director of the American Educational International which has its headquarters in Washington, D.C. The distinguished speaker is past editor of the Voice of America in Europe, and works with the former Assistant Secretary of State, Mr. Frederick G. Dutton.

They have set up a program for the education of American youth in foreign languages. The program provides for study in noted universities in Spain and France during the summer and includes 4 weeks of classroom study and 2 weeks of travel in the selected country.

Mr. Banker charmed the members of the Spanish Club and their guests, the French and Latin Clubs, with his informative and entertaining talk. The lecture was followed by an interesting question and answer period.

During the short business meeting it was decided that each Spanish class would elect a representative to attend the executive meetings. The December meeting will be a Christmas party with Spanish caroling.

The club currently boasts the highest membership of all the clubs in Tecumseh High School with 125, 106 of whom attended the November meeting.

★

The Student Council is planning a Christmas project to aid the Service Clubs in distributing gifts to the needy families of the Tecumseh area.

★

The annual band concert will be held Dec. 20 in the gym.

★

The 22nd is a big day. The Tecumseh High School Latin Club Christmas party is scheduled. The French Club has been invited to join in the festivities with the Latin Club. The Future Teachers plan to attend West Branch School and give a party also on the 22nd.

★

The Teen Club is sponsoring a dance Sat., Dec. 11 from 8:30 to 11:30. The officers plan to spend some time with the Senior Citizens Dec. 9. A Holiday Dance is on the agenda for Christmas Vacation.

★

The Tecumseh High School Chorus will present their Christmas program Thursday evening Dec. 16, at 7:30 p.m. in the High School Gym.

The impressive cantata, "Born a King" will constitute the main body of the program.

The principal solos will be sung by Diane Spycher, Tracey Brooks, Tom Rohrer, Terry Clymer, Bill Whiting, Barb Clark, and Bill Osburn.

Other selections to be sung by the complete chorus include "Snow, Snow", and "Do You Hear What I Sing?"

The Madrigal Singers and the Girls' Ensemble will also participate. Diane Spycher, Tecumseh's representative to the Michigan Youth Chorale will sing two solos.

No admission will be taken for this program.

Jim Goodman took top honors with a total sale of $604.06 during the two and a half week sale. He was awarded a watch valued at $100.

Tom Dinius and Barb Clark were presented with stuffed toys for their sales of $200 and $181.91 respectively.

Teams three, four, five and six earned grab prizes for their efforts. There are still $350 worth of prizes to be given out and $100 in cash prizes.

The new magazines may be expected during the next month.

Star Arouses Public Interest

ANN ARBOR — The mystery of the Christmas star brings popular interest to a peak during December, but no satisfactory astronomical explanation is at hand.

University of Michigan Astronomer Dr. Hazel M. Losh says the narrative about this star is too incomplete, the date of its appearance too uncertain, and the early calendar too unreliable, to lead to any definite conclusions.

One reasonable explanation advanced, Dr. Losh points out, is that the "star" reported to have guided the Wise Men may have been a conjunction or close grouping of bright planets.

"Some bright planets are visible now, and they are always promising and alluring. In looking for a symbol of the season, Venus well fills the bill."

This year Venus is in an especially favored season, says Dr. Losh. "A striking light in the southwest for about three hours after sunset, this planet is steadily growing brighter, reaching its greatest brilliancy December, 21, just a few hours before the Sun arrives at the winter solstice, and three nights before Christmas Eve."

The crescent moon on the evening of December 25, Chistmas night, will be located five degrees below Venus, adding to the striking spectacle of this bright planet.

In addition, Jupiter will continue to dominate the night sky, rising in the east soon after sunset and shining the whole night through. (It reaches opposition December 18, arriving at the meridian at midnight, best time for observation.)

"A close grouping of planets in the year 7 B.C. — with Mars, Jupiter, and Saturn—meeting in the constellation of Pisces (The Fishes) could have had some real significance in the early church," Dr. Losh believes.

"Such an arresting figure most certainly would have drawn the attention of the astrologers, who would have been looking for a sign in the heavens, and who would have attached mystical meaning to the appearance."

Winter will officially arrive at 8:41 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 21, when the Sun will reach its southern-most point of the year, called the winter solstice.

★

The Sun will rise and set about 30 degrees south of the east and west points, and will swing its shortest daily arc across the southern sky, reaching its lowest altitude at noon. The day will be shortest, about nine hours long, and the night about 15.

"At this time of year, the Earth is actually closer to the sun than during the summer, but the seasons of course depend primarily upon the 23½ degree tilt of the Earth's axis," Dr. Losh points out.

"The fact that we are closer to the Sun, however, tends to make the northern hemisphere winter a little milder and the southern summer, coming at the same time, a little hotter."

For Christmas decorations, the eastern horizon is host to some of the most striking and colorful constellations of the year, Dr. Losh says.

Consultant Philip Bailey Accepts Post in Lansing

Philip T. Bailey, vocational and technical educational consultant for Lenawee County, has accepted a similar position with the State Department of Education in Lansing.

Mr. Bailey, who has been the Vocational Consultant for the Lenawee County Schools for the past year, will assume a similar position with the Division of Vocational Education starting Jan. 1.

During the last year, many new vocational programs and courses have been initiated in the Lenawee County Schools.

The most notable project has been the Area Vocational-Technical Education Survey of the county's manpower needs to make recommendations for future program developments on a county-wide basis.

Mr. Bailey will continue as survey director on a part-time basis until it has been completed.

Mr. Bailey has been a lifelong resident in Lenawee County, was employed as an industrial education teacher with the Adrian Public Schools for 10 years prior to his appointment as county vocational consultant.

Village Slates Special Yule Season Tours

DEARBORN — Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village has announced that special holiday season tours of the Village will be available now through Jan. 2.

Incorporated in the "Christmas at Greenfield Village" program, the tours include visits to several of the historic Village homes. These have been specially decorated for the yuletide season.

During the week of Dec. 27 through Jan. 1, the Greenfield Village Players will present nightly performances of the exciting century-old Joseph Jefferson version of the play "Rip Van Winkle." Curtain time for the dramatic program is 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $1.00 per person, with no reserved seats.

DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING.

SHRED CORN STALKS after corn fields have been gleaned to help control erosion, especially on rotated corn land. But don't disk them into the soil if blowing isn't a problem. Shredded stalks cushion the soil from the impact of raindrops and may reduce soil loss by more than one-half. A 100-bushel corn crop produces almost 3 tons of dry stalks per acre which offers adequate protection from raindrops. Topsoil loss is fertility which must be replaced.

PRICING FORAGE CROPS is a problem in analyzing the farm business as well as in buying and selling. Illinois economists used $20 a ton for good-quality hay at 86% dry matter and then figured the value of other crops according to equivalent dry matter per ton: 88% dry matter haylage — $13.33; 45% dry matter haylage — $10; 22.5% green chop — $5. Corn silage cut at early dent having about 30% dry matter is valued at $7.75 a ton: 50% dry matter, $13.50 per ton.

FEED BRED SOWS properly to assure having healthy pigs at farrowing time. Main concern is to feed a balanced ration to maintain her in proper condition. Sows in dry lot need no more than 4 to 5 pounds of feed per day and those on pasture need even less. But step up the rate 30 days before farrowing. Ration should be high in wheat bran or alfalfa a few days prior to farrowing to keep her digestive system normal.

BARN CLEANERS need attention before freezing weather causes breakdowns. Keep the pulling mechanism lubricated and replace worn parts that may snap under heavy load. Before starting, make sure all parts are loose and when you're finished let it run empty a few minutes.

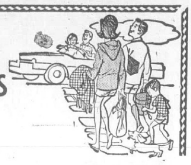
MACON MAXIMS



By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE

The Annual Sunday School Christmas Program will be presented Sunday, December 19, at 7 p.m.

√

√

Mrs. Dean Moore and son Perry of Tecumseh and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore spent last Thursday with Mrs. George List in Cardington, Ohio.

√

Mrs. William Gibson, Mrs. Leland Rohn and Mrs. Eugene Hill were in Onsted last Tuesday attending a Woman's Club meeting.

√

Mrs. Ralph Camburn, son J. D. and daughters Mindy and Claire Jo, will leave their home in San Antonio, Texas, on Dec. 18, to join her husband, Ralph, who retired as Lt. Col. from the Air Force last June.

He is now working for Air America in Laos. Laos is primitive and has no high schools. The family will be living in Bangkok, Thailand.

They expect to be there for three years. Mrs. Clare Camburn of Macon is Ralph's mother, and he has a brother Robert, who resides with his mother.

√

Mrs. Guy Zelluff opened her home last Tuesday for the Mary-Martha Circle.

Before the meeting, nine boxes were packed for the servicemen, four were for fellows overseas. Mrs. Zeluff opened the meeting by reading "A Simple Candle," she had lit a candle on the worship table before she read the poem.

There was a discussion on their project for the Chelsea Home, in Chelsea and they decided to collect more cotton material, thread, etc., and take it to the home in March.

They discussed the possibility of having the Mother and Daughter Banquet on Saturday, April 30, and decided to bring it up before the general meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service at the December 28th meeting.

Mrs. Ronald Corl presented a very inspiring story on "Joseph and Mary". She opened with a satire on Christmas, which made everyone present stop and think, what does Christmas really mean to us as individuals?

Mrs. Charles Howell assisted as co-hostess in serving cranberry delight, Christmas cookies, mints and nuts.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hoagland were Sunday dinner guests of the ladies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Starkweather in Ypsilanti.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Green of Fraser, were Sunday evening callers of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Jordan and Mrs. Ollie Jordan. They attended the Chrismon Program at the Macon Church.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Moore and son Rodney of Tecumseh, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore were in Ypsilanti Sunday for the Pre-Christmas Bruder gathering.

There were 46 to enoy the ham dinner.

No Commission on Education Meeting will be held this month.

Holiday Contest on Decorations Deadline Near

Your neighbors are telling you how wonderful your outdoor Christmas decorations look and you "modestly" agree?

Well, then, why not enter them in the home decorating and lighting contest sponsored by the Tecumseh Parks and Recreation Department?

Your Christmas scene or house lighting might win a $25 savings bond, a $15 gift certificate or a $5 gift certificate.

The United Savings Bank is contributing the bond. The Chamber of Commerce is giving the certificates.

There's just one catch — entry blanks must be in the hands of Don Moffatt, Parks and Recreation Superintendent, no later than Friday, Dec. 17.

Monday evening, Dec. 20, between 6:30 p.m. and 10 p.m. members of the Tecumseh Senior Citizens will drive about the city and judge the entries.

Entries will be judged on the basis of originality, artistic merit, lighting technique and general composition. Expense of materials and elaborateness will not be taken into consideration, Mr. Moffatt said.

District Re-elects Martin

Rex Martin, Lenawee County Circuit Court Judge, was re-elected chairman of the Lenape District of the Wolverine Council Boy Scouts of America, for the third one-year term of office. His election was unanimously voted by the 35 men attending the annual business meeting held in Adrian Dec. 7.

Donald Early, Roger Meyers and Clifford Webster, all of Adrian, were elected as vice chairmen of the district and will aid and assist Mr. Martin with the administration of Scouting in Lenawee County.

Fred Nash of Tecumseh and Lynn Schultz, Vaughn Curtis, Paul J. Shaffer, Robert Henry, Archie Wallace, John Giles, David Young, Charles Dunham, Robert Rossman, Dick Lackie, Lloyd Gallaway, Arnet Cole, Arthur Swiger, Howard Vallade, Clayton Swickard, Sid Siegal, Louis Paterski, Michael Etinger, Ken Cunningham, Wallace May, Clare Hunt, Ronald Rohlman, Kenneth Erwin, all of Adrian; William Murbach of Manitou Beach; Benjamin Carter and Roger Secor of Onsted; Richard Goodrich of Hudson; and John Riley of Blissfield were elected as district members at large. Lester Ruh) and Francis Packard were also elected as district members at large.

Frazier Tubbs of Adrian was recommended to the Executive Board of the Wolverine Council to be commissioned to serve as District Commissioner.

Also recommended for commission were: E. G. Prohnapfel of Blissfield, Arthur Avis of Manitou Beach and Garth Gottschalk, Sr., of Adrian, to serve as Assistant District Commissioners.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

CHRISTMAS MEMORIES

Gram and Gramps used to live in a typical Grandparent's house. It was big and square with great high ceilinged rooms. I even remember the large round stove, with isinglass windows in the door, which stood in one end of the double living room.

And yes, of course, heat reached the upstairs bedrooms by way of funny ceiling-floor registers.

Then, just as now, Christmas time was the most exciting season of the year. The Detroit relatives — Auntn, Rog and Pat — always came out the day before and oh, what a time.

★

CHRISTMAS EVE was always a most trying time for Pat and me. Looking back at it now, I cannot even begin to find an adjective to describe what it must have been for our parents.

But anyway, Pat and I were always so excited and just sure that we could never wait until Christmas morning to see what Santa Claus had left.

Going to bed was the most difficult thing in the world while trying to go to sleep was next to impossible.

Eventually we always did manage to doze off, but every five minutes — or 10 at the most — one or the other of us would wake up and naturally that one would have to wake the other.

Was it time to get up? Had Santa been there yet? These were the two questions we woke up shouting.

If the lights were still on downstairs our queries were directed there. If it was all dark we had no qualms about waking our sleeping parents. After all, it would never do to oversleep on Christmas morning, would it?

★

FINALLY, there came the year when Pat and I decided to outsmart the folks and Santa Claus. If we lost the battle about going to bed, we had a Plan.

Well, not surprisingly, our notion of staying up was vetoed.

With assurance that they were perfectly capable of putting Santa's glass of milk and piece of apple pie on the table and no, they did not think it would be a good idea for us to serve him his snack personally, the folks trundled Pat and me upstairs.

After what seemed an interminably long time, The Plan was put into operation. We convinced ourselves that it was not really peeking because that would not be fair — we just wanted to keep track of things.

So, being very, very quiet and very, very careful, out of bed we slipped. Tiptoeing across the room w knelt by the floor-ceiling register and oh, so cautiously opened it.

Never was a deed done with greater care and never were two youngsters more surprised.

★

SUDDENLY from downstairs a chorus of four laughing parents told their daughters to get back in bed. Even Gran and Gramps were chuckling.

How did they know? Again and again we tried but the results were always the same. We wondered and wondered, but never came up with an answer to the how.

In fact, for several years we tried to execute our looking through the register plan but it always met with the same failure. Why — Pat and I pondered and pondered? We knew our parents were extra smart but —

★

MANY YEARS later the riddle was solved. In a full confession they told us how, by a very underhanded, sneaking and devious trick, our plan had been foiled.

Actually, it was all very simple.

For several weeks before Christmas Gran had not dusted the louvers in that register and thus, when Pat and I opened them, a fine sifting of dust floated down.

We were telling on ourselves.

So it is that this is the season for remembering past fun — thanks for sharing one of our favorite Christmas memories.

Relief in Tax for Old Folks

Many senior citizens will want to apply for property tax relief under an Act passed in the last session of the Legislature, says Rep. Rollo Conlin.

There are definite time limitations in which to make application, he added.

The legislator noted:

In brief this Act provides a homestead tax ememption in the amount of $2,500 of state equalized valuation for persons—

► Who are 65 years of age or over on or before Dec. 31, 1965

► Who have been residents of the state for at least seven consecutive years

► Whose combined gross income does not exceed $5,000 annually

► Whose taxable property does not exceed $10,000 of state equalized valuation (a $20,000 home).

"It is estimated that some 160,000 Michigan senior citizens will qualify for exemptions and will receive an average property tax relief of $93 a year," he added.

★

TO APPLY, senior citizens should:

► Contact their city or village tax assessor or township supervisor and secure a Senior Citizens Homestead Tax Exemption affidavit;

► Complete the affidavit, have it notarized and return it along with proof of age and property ownership to the local assessing officer between Dec. 31, 1965 and the final adjournment of the local board of review which will be sometime in March.

Rep. Conlin further pointed out that eligibility for an exemption will be determined at the time of filing and the affidavit will be kept by the assessing officer until taxes are billed in Dec. 1966, when the information will be forwarded to the local treasurer for actual processing and payment.

If an applicant is unable to apply in person, someone else may handle the arrangements as long as all necessary information is made available.

OES Presents Life Membership to 2

CLINTON — A life membership certificate was presented to Mrs. Thomas Pence at the meeting last Thursday of the Golden Rod Chapter, OES. Mrs. Glen Wilson, who was unable to attend, was also to receive a life membership.

Mrs. Delbert Tallman opened the program with a Yule song.

The annual family Christmas dinner and program will be held on Dec. 19. The dinner will be served at 12:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Santa will attend with presents for all the children whose names have been registered with Mrs. Roscoe Parker.

A gift was voted for the children's Christmas fund at the OES Villa in Adrian.

Mrs. Delmar Manchester presented a medley of Christmas songs on the piano during the social hour.

Card Shower Going to GIs

Servicemen in Vietnam will get a shower of Christmas greetings from Lenawee County residents if people share the enthusiasm for the project that Gene Baril of the radio station WABJ in Adrian has already shown.

Ken Garno, president of the Lenawee County Citizens for Good Government Club, approached Mr. Baril, who immediately suggested that the station be used as a clearing house for the greetings.

Those who know of services people in Vietnam are asked to send the names and addresses to the station or they may leave them with Dorothy Grigg at The Herald.

Donations and cards left at The Herald will also be forwarded to the station, where a volunteer group will address and airmail the greetings to the servicemen.

Mr. Baril and Mr. Garno both expressed the wish that those sending cards would write a few words of appreciation as well as their name and address.

Cub Scout troops with den mothers, Mrs. Howard Kronberg and Mrs. Royal Welch, assisted in the project by distributing pamphlets in the stores in Tecumseh.

Mr. Garno stated Monday that cards will be sent as long as people desire. He assured that there is still plenty of time since airmail takes but two days to reach Vietnam.

Dear friends,

The funeral directing profession dates back to the Pharaohs in ancient Egypt, and requires extensive study and preparation. Today a funeral director often takes periodic post-graduate work to maintain the highest professional standards.

Besides a special talent for service - a great deal of dedication and patience is required.

Fellowship Sets Dates For Holiday

BRITTON—Several dates were set for coming events at the recent meeting of the Women's Fellowship of the Congregational-Christian Church, held at the Fellowship Center. A potluck dinner was served to 22 ladies and two children.

A Family Night will be held at the church the evening of Wednesday, Dec. 22, and boxes for shut-ins will be packed at that time.

February 3 was the date set for the Annual Roast Beef Dinner of the church, and Feb. 25, the ladies will observe World Day of Prayer.

It was voted to purchase outside Christmas decorations for the church, including a Nativity scene. Servicemen of the church were remembered for Christmas. The ladies are also packing boxes for patients of the Ypsilanti State Hospital.

The devotions and program were on the Christmas theme. Mrs. Lawrence Ash read the Christmas story, and Mrs. Hennevik presented a narration with background music by Mrs. William Raeburn. Jack and Jim Brown played Christmas music.

Tories Post First Victory

BRITTON — The Tory basketball team suffered a frustrating defeat Friday night at Deerfield, as they saw a six point lead melt away in the fourth quarter against the Minutemen, and they lost, 39-37, in the final seconds of the game.

But they bounced back resoundingly Saturday night to beat the Whiteford Five 69-66 on their home court.

The Friday night encounter was a rough and tough see-saw battle all the way through. The Tories led 20-16 at the half, but the Minutemen came fighting back, and lead changed hands several times.

The score was tied 37 all in the last minutes of play, when a fast basket by Deerfield with only a few seconds left put it away for the Minutemen. Britton's Larry Ash led all scorers with 12, and Jack Brown was next for Britton with six.

SATURDAY NIGHT the Tories looked like a different team, and behind the sparkling play of juniors Ray Vershum, who scored 21 points, and Larry Ash, who scored 20 before fouling out in the third quarter, the boys rallied for a real display of team effort to score a total of 69 pooints to Whiteford's 66.

It was the first win in three outings for the Tories, all in River Raisin Conference games.

Lutherans Host St. Peters Group

BRITTON — A group of ladies attended the Christmas party at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church last Thursday evening.

The Ladies Guild hosted the ladies of St. Peters Lutheran Church of Petersburg. Mrs. Wesley Gilmore and Mrs. Charles Hagens had charge of the program.

Religious and humorous readings were given by Mrs. Leon Squires and Mrs. Cahrles Hagans.

A play was presented in which the following took part: Mrs. Jerry Schultz, Miss Ilene Schafer, Mrs. Robert Billau, Mrs. Fred Miller, Mrs. Melvin Schafer and Donna Hagans.

A get-acquainted game was played and Christmas carols sung, after which gifts were exchanged.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Donald Schroeder and Mrs. Melvin Schroeder.

Baptists Plan For Holidays

BRITTON — The Bethel Baptist Church has planned many special activities during the time of Christmas and the New Year.

Sunday night at 7:30 a Christmas program will be given by the Sunday School Department. The program, "The Bethlehem Story," will be presented as a radio broadcast from Bethlehem where events of world wide importance are taking place.

Included will be pantomime, recitation and vocal and instrumental numbers.

An invitation is extended to the public to attend.

Friday night at 6:30 a Fellowship potluck supper is planned. Gifts will be exchanged by the Sunday School classes and Pastor Duane McNeil will present a devotional time.

Wednesday night after Prayer meeting at 7:30, candy boxes will be packed to distribute after the Christmas program.

Tuesday night boxes will be packed for the shut-ins.

Saturday night at 7:30 the youth group will attend the Christmas Teen Life Crusade at Dawson Auditorium in Adrian.

Saturday afternoon at 1 will be the final practice for the Christmas program.

G-8 Holds Annual Card Club Party

BRITTON — Mrs. Eldon Reeck was the hostess for the annual Christmas party of the G-8 card club last Thursday evening at her home on Shaw Hwy. The ladies enjoyed progressive euchre and a gift exchange.

Prize winners for the evening were: high score, Mrs. Martin Ivan; low score, Mrs. Joseph Hall; most lone hands, Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks; traveling lone hand prize, Mrs. Lee Taylor.

Extensionists Reveal Secret Pal Members

BRITTON — The Secret Pal names were revealed in gift exchanges last week as the L and M Extension Study Club met at the home of Mrs. Gerald Benedict.

The group participated in a holiday noon luncheon and the 16 members present gathered around the tree to exchange their gifts.

The next planned meeting will be at Mrs. Ned Brown's home, Jan. 27, at 12 noon.

Capt. Wood Is Awarded Silver Wings

BRITTON — Capt. James B. Wood was awarded the silver wings of an Army paratrooper during airborne training graduation ceremonies conducted at Fort Benning, Ga., Dec. 2.

Capt Wood's permanent home is with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rohrback. His wife is the former Joan Downing of Britton. They have two children, Renee and Gregory.

The Wood family will spend a short New Year's leave with the Rohrbacks then he will go to Fort Lee, Va. for advanced training in military parachuting.

Both Capt. and Mrs. Wood are graduates of Britton-Macon High School and Eastern Michigan University.

Browns Attend Carol Service in Ann Arbor

BRITTON—Mrs. Clyde Brown and Mrs. Clifford Brown of Ridge Hwy., were guests Sunday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goetz and family of Ann Arbor.

They attended the Christmas Carol Service given by the Youth and Chancel choirs of the First Presbyterian Church of Ann Arbor of which Mrs. Goetz is a member.

The choirs consisted of 150 voices, under the direction of James Hart. A feature of the program was the Handbell choir under the direction of Mrs. Eleanor Hart.

The accompanists were Kim Kasling and harpist, Mary Hath

11 Britton Youngsters Join Church

BRITTON — Eleven young people of the Congregational-Christian Church were received into the membership of the church at the Sunday morning worship service, in an impressive ceremony by the Rev. Gustav Hannevik.

The young people have been his students at Saturday morning classes this fall. He emphasized both the advantages and responsibilities of church membership, and told the group that only in a personal commitment to Christ can we be true Christains.

Those welcomed into the membership were Linda Seagert, Nancy Pilbeam, James Brown, Rodger Brown, Donald Reeck, Michael Morse, David Fairbanks, Sally Vreeland, Tamara Tucker, and Brenda Tubbs.

Friends Surprise George Brablecs

BRITTON — A group of 22 friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. George Brablec on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary recently.

The evening was spent playing cards. The company brought refreshments including a beautifully decorated anniversary cake.

Britton Junior Varsity Remains Undefeated in BB

BRITTON — The Junior Varsity team looks promising as they won both nights to make it three straight this season, trimming the junior Minutemen 56-38, and scoring 50 against Whiteford's 32 Saturday night.

Dave Fairbanks was second high Friday night with 13, and Jim Henry scored eight Saturday night.

Henry was also responsible for many Tory rebounds.

School Board Plans Revision

BRITTON — The hiring of an additional sixth grade teacher and a revision of the Honor Roll policy were the main topics discussed at the Britton School Board of Education meeting Dec. 8.

A contract was signed for Mrs. Stewart Niblack, who has begun her duties as sixth grade teacher. She has half of the class of 45 children who were formerly all under Mrs. George Forsythe.

Principal Charles Schankin discussed the Honor Roll and Honorable Mention list, and suggested that the policy be changed to have the Honor Roll list, in the future, include only those students who have a 3 point average. This suggestion was put into the form of a motion and carried:

It was also voted to purchase a new stove and refrigerator for the Home Economics Department.

Routine bills in the amount of $1,900.20 were reviewed, and the motion was made and carried that they be paid.

The meeting adourned at 11 p.m.

Beta Phi Sisters Study Modeling

BRITTON — The Iota Epsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met at the home of Mrs. Jamison Ford in Saline, Dec. 7.

Mrs. Ford gave a lesson in clay modeling with the help of a teacher of the Saline school art department.

The eight members present made final plans for the Christmas party to be given for the children at the Lenawee Institute.

The next regular meeting of the sorority will be a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Bruce Corley in Ridgeway.

School's Concert Tuesday

The music department at Britton-Macon School will present its annual Christmas Concert on Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m. Children in the elementary grades will open the program by singing Christmas carols.

Appearing for their first concert will be the Varsity Band, a select twenty piece group, and the Senior Band will perform three arranged Christmas songs as well as a medley of carols and a Christmas suite.

Two choral groups will be making their first appearance, the newly-formed fifth and sixth grade chorus and the high school ensemble. In addition, the junior high choir and senior high choir will perform.

Sixth graders, under the direction of Mrs. George Forsyth and Mrs. Stewart Niblack, will present a nativity scene as the audience and singers conclude the program with the singing of familiar Christmas carols.

Work Session

The North Franklin Maidens met recently for a work meeting and discussion of a Christmas party to be held Saturday, Dec. 18.

Mrs. Lester Munger will be the hostess for the event from 2 to 4 p.m. with a gift exchange, refreshments and recreation time.

LOCAL DRUGGISTS have an unusual assortment of perfumes and cosmetics to make "her" the most glamorous one at the holiday parties.

They will also assist in finding "him" the most appreciated and practical gifts to make his Christmas a memorable one.

Tecumseh jewelers have dozens and dozens of beautiful specially selected diamonds, watches, costume jewelry, silverwear, luggage and other distinctive gifts, all priced to fit your budget.

For the home, there is a beautiful assortment of furniture of all periods to fit any home or room. Appliance and television shops are likewise loaded with the newest models.

The kids will flip over the toys Old Saint Nick has provided for them this Christmas. They range from beautiful dolls to all types of outer-space toys.

Tecumseh automobile dealers have a battery of cars that will delight "him" or "her". They all have many practical accessories that make the ideal gift for the car owner.

Grocery stores are stocked with the finest nuts, fruits, candies and delicious tidbits that Santa puts down as a "must" for the stockings of good boys and girls.

And for mom's pantry, there are all the tasty ingredients that only mother knows how to put together to make that luscious feast to climax this wonderful holiday.

★

WHEN visiting these friendly Tecumseh merchants, be sure to register for the Christmas Gifts-A-Plenty drawing, and be in Tecumseh Friday, at 7:30 p.m., in a store displaying the Christmas Gifts-A-Plenty" poster.

If there when your name is called, you may win $150 in Christmas gifts.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

CITY OF TECUMSEH
COUNCIL MEETING
December 6, 1965

Present: Mayor Easton, Councilmen Hamilton, McCombs, Mohr, Puffer, Sunderland and Tuckey.

Absent: None.

Meeting opened with the invocation by Councilman Tuckey.

Minutes of the regular meeting held November 15 were read and approved and ordered placed on file in the city office.

Mayor Easton welcomed 12 members of the High School Government Class to the meeting and expressed his appreciation of the interest taken in city government.

James Vanzo of 402 W. Chicago Blvd., asked permission of the council to park an occupied trailer on his property for the time required to rebuild his home which was damaged by fire.

Motion Tuckey and seconded Mohr, Mr. Vanzo be granted permission to park an occupied trailer on his lot at 402 W. Chicago Blvd., for a period not to exceed six months. Motion carried unanimously.

Carl Kennel of 204 Chippewa St., requests consideration and a possible solution to the noise from trucks which are being parked on North Pearl Street near his home. This matter was referred to the City Manager for study.

Motion McCombs and seconded Mohr, the following bills be allowed and orders drawn up for the same. General Fund $31,540.60 — Sewage Receiving Fund $10,000.00 — Sewage operation and Maintenance Fund $4,814.56 — Water Deposit Fund $55.00 — Water Bond and Interest Redemption Fund $2,545.00 — Water and Sewer Special Assessment Fund $1,231.09 — Auto Parking Receiving Fund $1,500.00 — Auto Parking Operation and Maintenance Fund $4.03 — Auto Parking Improvement Fund $50.00 — Auto Parking Bond and Interest Fund $1,387.32 — Wastewater Plant Expansion Fund $112,000.00. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion Hamilton and seconded Mohr, to receive and place on file in the city office the report of the Police Department. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion McCombs and seconded Sunderland, to approve the recommendation of the City Manager to purchase a Case Tractor and Backhoe at a cost of $6,780.00 from Case Power and Equipment of Blissfield, Michigan. Motion did not carry unanimously so a roll call was taken as follows:

Ayes: Hamilton, McCombs, Mohr, Puffer, Sunderland.

Nays: Easton and Tuckey.

Motion carried.

Motion Puffer and seconded Tuckey, the City Manager's report be received and ordered placed on file in the city office. Motion carried unanimously.

Don Martin, Jr., secretary of the Chamber of Commerce presented the Council with one $1,000 cancelled Auto Parking Revenue Bond. Mayor Easton expressed his thanks on behalf of the council to Mr. Martin and the Chamber of Commerce.

Motion Tuckey and seconded Mohr, the communication from Wenton T. Stewart, General Manager of General Telephone & Electronics Corporation be received and placed on file in the city office. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion Tuckey and seconded George McCombs, to approve the appointment of Dr. William Adams to the City Planning Commission to fill the unexpired term of Joe Rice. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion McCombs and seconded Puffer, Robert MacLean and Dorothy Welch be reappointed to succeed themselves on the Board of Canvassers for a four-year term. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion McCombs and seconded Hamilton, to adjourn the meeting. Motion carried unanimously. 10:00 p.m.

HAROLD EASTON,
Mayor.
NAOMI SALLOWS,
Clerk.

Walter W. McCallum, District Boy Scout Executive of the Lenape District of the Wolverine Council, has accepted a new position with the Hiawathaland Council in Marquette. Starting January 1, Mr. McCallum will be the District Scout Executive for the Iron Range and Menominee Range Districts and will live in Crystall Falls. He served in the Lenape District for nearly five years, was director of Camp Kanesatake, advisor to the Tecumseh Lodge of the Order of the Arrow and Staff Advisor to the Council Exploring Committee.

Goodwill Given Campbell Home

The Goodwill Industries are the recipient of a valuable gift from Mrs. Ruth Campbell of Adrian.

Mrs. Campbell gave her home estimated at $50,000 to the organization.

Members of the board agreed that the Federal Government will match such a gift since it will be used for plant improvement.

Goodwill in Adrian covers both Monroe and Lenawee Counties with 107 employed at present.

Growth Brings New Hospital Demands

By MARIE YOUNG

Growth of Tecumseh and increase in its population enhances the need for more and better equipment to care for all potential hospital patients.

Tecumseh has been medically "ahead" with some of the most modern equipment and facilities available anywhere for many years.

Most unusual, it is one of the rare city-owned hospitals, which has been completely free and self-supporting, thanks to donation of much of the building and equipment.

As Herrick Memorial Hospital has increased in beds, so has the advances in treatment. X-ray and laboratory facilities paralleled accordingly.

★

GREAT ADVANCES have occurred in surgical fields to the extent that in the past two years there have been more than 50 surgical cases which previously would have had to be sent to a larger hospital.

With the understanding of modern, more comfortable and safe drugs anesthesia has made great advances.

Coupled with the use of modern equipment such as the cardioscope (first one purchased in 1962 by the Auxiliary and other similar units have been purchased by the hospital since) which allows monitoring of the heart continuously during a surgical operation, as well as use of a ventilator, artificial lung breathing machine, which either assists or completely takes over breathing, patient safety has greatly increased for all undergoing surgery.

★

ANOTHER "insurance policy" for every surgical patient is the well-equipped recovery room, which was made possible through the help of the Auxiliary in 1963.

Today this is a busy and important unit, where the surgical patient awakens from anesthesia with a nurse at his side and all the essentials to insure a safe and quick recovery in the vital post-surgery hours.

In the past 10 years, patients days have increased from 13,118 to 25,794.

During 1964 there were 3,750 admissions.

Needless to say that these figures will increase in proportion to the growth of the area. Consequently it is logical that facilities must advance and increase.

TO THIS aim, the Herrick Memorial Hospital, the doctors and nurses and the Herrick Auxiliary, have been examining and studying the best possible equipment to suit local needs and be adequate when its use is required.

The Cardiac Resuscitation Cart, with necessary equipment all in one unit to aid coronary patients has been an outcome of this study and a project which could affect many individuals.

This may not be today, but perhaps at some unforeseen date it could mean a "second life" to you or a member of your family.

Present Winter Sport at Camp

Robert and Judy Welke have introduced a winter recreation program at Camp Sequoia to include skiing, tobogganing, ice skating and flying saucer fun.

The area is lighted for nighttime recreation and there is a building for snacks, getting warm and singing.

Equipment for making snow has been added to the facilities and the Welkes invite interested persons to see the process.

A pool for next summer is in the making at the present time.

Camp Sequoia is open Friday evenings and Saturday and Sunday afternoons and evenings.

Library Holds Gift Exchange Holiday Party

Mrs. Murray Day will open her new hoe for the Christmas party of the staff of the Tecumseh Public Library Sunday.

As is traditional with the group a gift exchange will be held.

Our Sincere Thanks

Another fabulously successful Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation drive has been completed. The 1965 goal of $45,203 was exceeded by nearly 20%. This is a tribute to you, Mr. and Mrs. Tecumseh, who gave so generously as individuals, through business places and industries. In every category, giving was way up — led by residential, which climbed 80%. May we extend our sincere thanks, both to the givers and to the volunteers who conducted the 1965 campaign.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITAKER

Boysville's Fighting Knights won one and lost one in basketball action last week. They edged Ida's Bluestreaks, 53-49, on Tuesday, then fell to Adrian Catholic Central, 52 - 50. on Friday.

Ida was the first to score after the opening jump and soon commanded a nine-point lead.

However, by the end of the first period, the Knights had whittled this down to a 15-14 lead.

By half-time, Boysville had surged ahead, 30-27.

The third quarter was primarily a defensive game as both teams combined a total of 15 points. Boysville had retained a 38-34 lead. The fourth quarter saw the Knights establish a firm lead, lose it and then regain it to win 53-49.

Senior Jim Cowan combined nine field goals and six free throws for 26 points and top scoring honors for the Knights. Moe Jacobs was second with 13.

★

THE KNIGHTS suffered their initial defeat of the season on their home court in falling to the Irish Catholic, 52-50.

A full-court press hampered much of Boysville's scoring effort in the first half. A smaller, but faster Adrian team had umped to a 15-14 lead at the end of the first q...

A second effort by Boysville's board... and the Knights in tying the score at the half at 27-27.

Boysville kept pace with the Irish throughout the third quarter, but fell short and the Irish led, 44-42. The Knights, trailing by one point, possessed the ball with only 13 seconds remaining. It was knocked out of bounds, thus ending Boysville's chance to score.

Jacobs and Norris McFarland were high scores for the Knights with 12 each. Cowan and Sam Kirkland were second with 10.

As a team, the Knights outrebounded the Irish 42-18. Cowan and Jacobs were the top boardmen with 11 and 10.

Tomorrow the Knights take on Summerfield's Bulldogs at Summerfield.

A pep rally proceded Boysville's game with Adrian CC, sponsored by the Student Council and featuring skits by all of the classes. Introduction of team members highlighted the gathering.

√

Boysville's Glee Club, directed by Brother Philip Armstrong C.S.C., has been fulfilling a vigorous pre-holiday season schedule.

Various engagements have carried it to sing for a party at Tecumseh Products, at the Tecumseh Grange Hall, to St. Andrew's Church in Saline where they sang at a meeting of the Washtenaw Deanery Women's meeting, besides other engagements in Manchester and Wayne.

The Glee Club was recently videotaped for an appearance on Detroit Channel 2 on the program "With This Ring," narrated by Fr. Raymond Schlinkert of Manchester.

The programs are scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 19 and Sunday, Dec. 26 at 9:30 a.m.

Plans Military Support Program

The Underwood-Orr American Legion Post Auxiliary has instigated a new project in support of military forces. Report was made at the meeting Dec. 9.

In accordance with the theme, "Operation Show Your Colors," the auxiliary decided to buy as many flag lapel pins and cards as necessary to distribute to the schools, to encourage the wearing of the nations colors, as evidence of support of the military forces in Vietnam and in opposition to the ill advised actions of a small minority of anti-Vietnam demonstrators.

Mrs. LaVern Seizert reported that 110 Christmas cards and gifts have been mailed to local service men.

Mrs. Donald Woods submitted her resignation as president of the auxiliary. First vice president Mrs. Larry Kanous will preside as president, until someone else is elected.

Christmas gifts were exchanged after the meeting and refreshments were served by Mrs. Albert Bagshaw, Mrs. Harold Easton and Mrs. Roger Williams.

Couple Returns To Tecumseh

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey R. Dethloff Jr., are at home at 502 W. Chicago Blvd., following their marriage in Nagolos, Mexico.

Mrs. Dethloff is the former Betty Feldkamp and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Dethloff of Plymouth.

NFO Applauds Its Past Performances

Collective bargaining for agriculture is secure and so is the National Farmers Organization's report Lenawee County representatives just back from the NFO convention.

"Successful Bargaining, The NFO Way" was the theme of the two-day national convention in St. Louis, Missouri, Dec. 1 and 2.

A record-breaking 10,000 voting delegation from 25 states attended.

Elmer Rohrback of Metamora, Ohio said that "the convention unveiled proof that NFO marketing arrangements have netted an advantage to member farmers over and above the market improvements everywhere. NFO bargaining has accounted for $4 per cwt of the price rise in hogs and $2 per cwt of the price rise in cattle. We predict NFO programs to yield similar results in grain and dairy."

National NFO President Oren Lee Staley told the convention that six of the 15 nation's largest processing firms are accepting meat from NFO under marketing arrangements."

He said this would prove hard or impossible for other farm organizations because they have never woven the idea of collective bargaining into the organizational structure, have never developed a low cost marketing function such as developed by NFO during the past few years.

Among delegates from Lenawee County, was Donald Brosamer of Britton.

"Inside we've got to use candle-light or we'll blow a fuse!"

Red Candles Glimmer

Lighted red candles glimmering on tinsel and green holly leaves with red berries lent a festive air to the annual Holly and Tinsel breakfast of the Tecumseh Monday Club.

It was held Monday in the Baptist Youth House.

Seventy-six members and guests were seated at tables decorated with centerpieces made by the hosts of each table, who are members of the executive board.

Miniature candles in holders as favors, with holly and tinsel, added to the colorful table setting.

★

AFTER THE invocation by the president, Mary McWilliams, and breakfast, the program was presented by Mrs. Joe Rice, who served as narrator.

The Christmas story from the Bible was interspersed with Christmas carols, led by Mrs. Murray Day, with everyone attending joining in the caroling.

Mrs. John Hamilton, a guest, accompanied at the piano for the carols as well as the solos of Mrs. Day and Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney.

The next meeting will be Jan. 10 with Mrs. Fred Nash as leader.

This will be a work meeting at 10:30 a.m. with a sack lunch at noon. Members will be contacted about this meeting by the telephone committee.

4-H Gifts Exchanged

Ninety attended the Christmas potluck dinner of the Raisin Cane 4-H Club Dec. 5, at the Holloway Church when the boys and girls exchanged gifts.

David Woods, retiring president, distributed the gifts and awards earned at the Lenawee County Fair, assisted by Mrs. Willaim Osburn.

★

Mrs. John Hewlett played the piano for carol singing.

Jane Jenkins led the pledge to the American flag and Buddy Cote led the 4-H pledge.

Plans were made for the winter program with Mrs. Charles Irelan and Mrs. George Downard, leaders of leathercraft and Mrs. Howard Mullins and Mrs. Billie Freshcorn, knitting leaders.

Susan Brown and Alice and Susan German were in charge of decorating the tables for the dinner.

Two little Christmas trees were featured and each table held an appropriate centerpiece. The walls were also enhanced in keeping with the theme.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

This Christmas season is packed with irony.

Great prosperity engulfs the land. Employment is way up. Never before have paychecks been so fat. Stores and shops are loaded with tempting merchandise.

But American boys are being asked to lay their lives on the line and the casualty list from Vietnam grows.

Millions of dollars are being poured into this war that isn't a war.

Two months ago I was 100% behind everything being done by Washington.

In recent weeks, doubts have started to creep into my mind. I ask myself, "Is our government doing everything humanly possible to end this thing honorably, without giving way to the communists?"

For a seemingly simple, 18-word question, there are countless answers, which could range all across the face of the earth.

Right off the bat, the administration will respond that we have to deal from our strength — I agree — since that's about the only way to face up to the guys Who Wear Black Hats. (The villains, as western movie fans will tell you.)

Then, hot on this, will come, "If we don't stop 'em in Vietnam, we'll tangle in the Philippines or Thailand." A definite possibility, which I won't refute.

★

BUT, STILL nagging at my memory, is the way the French took such terrible losses while failing miserably as they tried to do much the same as we are doing now.

The French finally pulled out completely. We can't do this and I don't suggest for a moment that we do.

As you'll recall, Korea was never really settled and possibly Vietnam never will be.

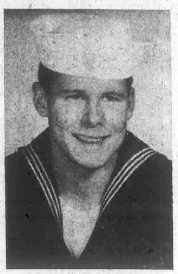
Should we consider the possibility of a Korean peace for Vietnam?

Whatever action the United States takes, there has to be a lot of thought and serious discussion among our nation's leaders.

Seemingly all we get are announcements that another 100,000 troops will go to Vietnam, that bombings have been stepped up.

Then, the casualty reports sprinkle their tragic fallout all over the land.

For a Christmas column this won't create any holiday mood. But, I'm afraid everything gay and light is going to have to take second place until Vietnam is settled.



MICHAEL D. HIGGINS

Helps Recover Gemini Capsule

Michael D. Higgins, USNA, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Higgins, 717 S. Union, participated in the recovery of Gemini Six and Seven aboard the aircraft carrier Wasp.

He is training to operate the starboard catapault. His wife, the former Linda Fairbanks, and his mother were thrilled to see him on deck while the Gemini Recovery was being televised.

Graybiel Appointed Executive VP

Allan C. Graybiel of Adrian has been appointed executive vice-president of Adrian Federal Savings and Loan Association.

The appointment was made in October, one year in advance when the retirement of Harold Sherman, president, is scheduled.

Under the planning program of the Association, Mr. Graybiel has assumed all managerial responsibilities.

The new executive vice president has been with the company for 25 years, and Mr. Sherman, approximately 35 years.

Other officers of the Association include John M. Surratt, Tecumseh branch manager, who is a vice-president and assistant secretary.

'Big Chief' Contestants Are Named

It's all part of the "Big Chief" contest being run in conjunction with the Jayce-sponsored musical revue going into rehearsal in January.

Profits will be donated to the Football Lights Fund, along with profits from the Revue.

Candidates from local groups will vie for the honor of being named "Big Chief". Winner will be determined on the basis of how much money has been collected in his particular canister.

Prize is a $5 bond for the sponsoring organization and a chance for the "Big Chief" to appear on stage at the Strand the night of January 20, to accept his prize from a bevy of Indian-type beauties.

Entries to date (and the locations of their respective canisters are:

Kiwanians — Dr. William Adams — (Lamb's Rexall Pharmacy)

Rotary—Hugh Walter (Hodges Drug Store)

Police Department — Alan Jones (D & C Store)

Tecumseh High School Teachers — Tom Fagan (F. W. Woolworth's)

Jaycees — Dyke Helms (Eggleston's Jewelry)

Exchange — Wallace Whiting (C. A. Wright & Son Pharmacy)

HOLIDAY MAIL — Mail boxes at the David Ousterhout residence on N. Occidental Hwy. are splendiferously dressed to receive the holiday mail.

Off-Street Parking Lots Will Be Free

Free downtown off-street parking is the city's Christmas gift to residents. Starting Dec. 21, all off-street spaces will be free through Christmas Day.

City hall will be closed all day the next two Fridays, Dec. 24 and 31.

Schumms Will Be Honored

An open house Sunday, Jan. 2, will honor Mr. and Mrs. George Schumm, 508 W. Chicago Blvd., on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary.

Friends and neighbors are invited to call from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Youth House of the First Baptist Church.

George and Ernestine Schumm were married December 31, 1915, in Detroit.

They have lived in Tecumseh for the past 22 years.

The couple are the parents of four sons, George of Wayne, Frederick of Chelsea, Robert of Mt. Clemens and Albert of Birmingham and three daughters, Mrs. Roland Goltz of Saline, Mrs. Robert Osburn of Tipton and Mrs. Elizabeth Wing of 105 W. Pottawatamie St., and 18 grandchildren.

It is asked that gifts be omitted.

Hobby Club Packs Boxes

CLINTON — Mrs. Dan Reilly was host to the Clinton Hobby Club Wednesday afternoon to pack 14 decorated Christmas boxes with Christmas treats for village shut-ins.

The potluck luncheon meeting was attended by 12 members. A gift exchange was enjoyed.

The Jan. 19 meeting will be held with Mrs. Clyde Greenfield, Sr.

DID YOU HEAR SANTA? — Jon Betzoldt, 4½, thought he heard old St. Nick whiz over the steeple of the Presbyterian Church, which is right across from Jon's home at 218 W. Chicago Blvd. But it must have been a false alarm. However, Jon, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Buz Betzoldt, will continue to be on the alert.

McDowell Is Asked To Stay

Supt. James McDowell will not retire at the end of the current term, but will continue as head of the Tecumseh Schools for the 1966-67 period.

In a surprise Monday night, the School Board voted unanimously to [illegible] to reconsider his retirement plans and continue as superintendent for one more year. He accepted.

Mr. McDowell announced last February that he would retire at the end of the 1965-66 term. He's been superintendent here since 1951 and has been in the school system here for 20 years.

A statement, released by the board, cites conferences with the University of Michigan Placement Office, where boardmen found Mr. McDowell's professional standing and accomplishments are respected statewide.

The UM office also told officials here that the success of Tecumseh graduates at the university level, speaks well of the school system and community.

★

The Board, also in its statement, said an experienced hand was needed, due to the proposed county-wide school reorganization, new Federal aid programs, new teacher negotiations requirements, educational changes at the state level, and Tecumseh's increased role in the handicapped children's training program, formerly handled by Adrian.

Accidents Up

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

No Injuries Are Recorded

Number of accidents investigated by Tecumseh police increased the past week, but none involved serious personal injury.

Seven of the nine mishaps resulted in citations. A resume is:

Dec. 14 — Violetta N. Bancroft, 31, Clinton and Kathryn Marie Roy, 38, of 126 S. Ottawa St., bumped after the Clinton vehicle pulled from the curb. No arrest was made.

Dec. 14 — Albert H. Baleey, Jr., 17, Britton, was cited for running a stop sign after a collision with Montie L. Bater, 36, Robbins Rd., in the intersection of N. Ottawa and E. Logan St.

Dec. 15 — Police cited Helen E. Yungling, 48, of 11291 Ford Hwy., for failure to yield the right of way after an accident at the intersection of Logan and N. Evans St. Mrs. Yungling collided with Linda Lee Underwood, 25, Clinton.

'Cradle, Cross and Crown' Presented by Music Makers

"The Cradle, the Cross and the Crown" was a playlet presented Dec. 12 by members of the Junior Music Makers Club at the Presbyterian Church.

Jeanette Mannino, Cynthia Caterina and Patsy Cook were the principal players, supported by a choir of 15.

Debbie Blanchard presided at the organ.

Before the play, vocal and piano solos were presented. The five children of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Bush, Marianne, Michael, Danny, Jim and David, offered an instrumental Christmas greeting.

Dianne and Jeanette Mannino played the piano. Cynthia Caterina, Jamie Danforth, and Marcia Gilbert sang solos.

Linda Yoder and Jamie Danforth sang a duet.

George Berryman, Britton music instructor, with the help of David Bush, will speak and present the program at a meeting Jan. 9 in St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

Many Christmas Church Services Planned

Tecumseh houses of worship will have a variety of services and programs for Christmas. Activities at other churches, not included below, appear in Section B.

● FRIEND'S
Friend's Church Sunday School Christmas program will be presented Thursday, Dec. 23, at 7:30 p.m. The primary and junior church school classes will be participating with Mrs. Lee Spohr in charge.

● ST. ELIZABETH'S
St. Elizabeth's Christmas Eve Mass will be at 12 midnight with Christmas morning masses at 6:15 a.m. and at 9 a.m.

● GRACE LUTHERAN
Grace Evangelical Lutheran will have a Candlelight Cantata, to be presented by the Senior Choir and King's Chorus at 7 p.m. Christmas Eve.

There will be a Christmas Day service at 10 a.m.

The ancient custom of observing the Second Christmas Day will be revived for the Sunday service, following the traditional liturgical service.

● GLORIA DEI
Annual Christmas Candlelight Service will be held at 11:30 p.m. in the Gloria Dei Evangelical Lutheran Church.

The Chancel Choir and the Luther League Choir will present Christmas anthems. Dr. Laszlo Gero extends an invitation to everyone in the community to attend.

● PRESBYTERIAN
There will be a candlelight Communion Service in the First Presbyterian Church at 11 p.m. on Christmas Eve.

● BAPTIST
A Christmas cantata, "Night of Miracles" will be presented by the choir of the First Baptist Church at 11 p.m. Christmas Eve. Truman Forest of Wyandotte is the director of the choir.

A candlelight communion will follow the cantata.

BEHIND PAGE ONE

Mr. H. O. McLaughlin, now of 130 N. Arlington St., Kalamazoo, 49007, wrote The Herald concerning a post card of 50 years ago. He asked, "Will you please print the picture in The Herald in the hopes that some in the area will write to me naming those in the picture and their present address." We couldn't print the picture for Mr. McLaughlin, but if you think you might know someone from the Class of 1915, Tecumseh Public School, drop in and look at the card.

Now presentiiiiiiiiing the lovely Debbie Cote. In talent competition, doing one of her renowned pantomimes over Channel 7 TV Sunday, Jan. 2, at 3:30 p.m. Miss Cote will appear on the Starlite Showcase, on Detroit's WXYZ.

The Herald's next door neighbor, Harold Sisson, stopped in this week asking for identification of those faces on page one. That's the Recreation Board, Harold. (Several other matters didn't go right for The Herald's latest trainee that week.)

Marv Nelson's engineering class for IBM resembles the United Nations. There are two from the United States and one from Canada. The rest of the class is three Japanese, three Frenchmen, one from Asia and one from southern Europe.

Mary Seager is back in town, on leave from her post in Venezuela, South America, with ACCION, a private, foundation endowed Peace Corps-type operation. Mary reports she loves the work and is heading back the first week of January.

SEASON'S BEST

Santa's trimming the Christmas tree with our holiday greetings for one and all. Have a Merry Christmas.

LARRY'S GRILL

Restaurant Promoter Seeks Spot in Tecumseh

Whether Tecumseh receives a new restaurant will depend largely on the outcome of a public hearing before Council on Jan. 17, and recommendation of the Planning Commission.

John Abraham, Adrian realtor, has approached city officials about constructing a 45-foot square restaurant on the property now occupied by Dr. Walter Elwartowski, at the southwest corner of W. Chicago Blvd. and Pearl St.

The present house would be torn down for the new restaurant, which would be strictly inside dining, no curb or drive-in service. There would be parking stalls for 14 cars.

Although a decision will not be known for several weeks, Dr. Elwartowski had opposition to opening his chiropractic office there.

Present zoning is residential, and it would have to be changed to business.

Dan Walsh Home Decorations Win

Five representatives of the Tecumseh Senior Citizens spent three hours Monday evening touring the city in search of the top three home decorations out of 18 entries.

Daniel Walsh, 502 N. Union St., captured that first prize for his holiday display. Second went to A. H. Phillips of 212 W. Cummins St., and third prize to Marsh Coulter, 118 Park St.

The 18 entries represent a drop of four contestants over last year's contest entrants.

Council May Have Problem Solved

An apparent solution to surface and storm water was seen Monday night when Council approved purchase of over 10 acres of property on Occidental Rd.

The area includes a large abandoned gravel pit which the city has wanted to use for an outlet to a storm sewer in the immediate area.

City Manager Cal Zorn says the pit should be in use by spring.

Sale from Charles Irelan was for 10.66 acres at $1,500 per acre.

Will Emphasize Rich Blessings

The service to be read in Christian Science churches this Sunday will emphasize the rich blessings which an understanding of Christ Jesus' mission brings to mankind. The Lesson-Sermon begins with the prophecy from Isaiah (9:6): "Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counseller, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace."

The Lesson-Sermon subject is "Christian Science."

Rejoice

May the true spirit of the first Christmas shine brightly in your heart today and everyday.

Mary Colgrove, Daniel Kozera Are United

The St. Peter's Church was enhanced in the Christmas theme for the wedding of Mary Grant Colgrove and Daniel Joseph Kozera Jr., Saturday.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Philip Grant Colgrove, 716 W. Pottawatamie, and the late Mr. Colgrove and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Kozera of Whitehall.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her uncle, Jens K. Touborg, in a gown of ivory silk taffeta and Alencon lace.

It was fashioned with empire bodice, fitted sheath skirt with inverted side pleats and a detachable train. Alencon lace trimmed the empire bow in back.

Her veil of French illusion was attached to an ivory bow and she carried a cascade of white phalaenopsis orchids outlined with ivy.

Jane Colgrove of West Babylon, N.Y., was her sister's maid of honor in a floor-length gown of forest green velvet with gathered skirt and Sabrina neckline.

A matching veil of illusion was secured to a velvet bow and she carried red carnations with variegated holly and red velvet loops.

Another sister of the bride, Barbara Colgrove, and a sister of the groom, Mrs. Edmund Lane of Grand Rapids, Anne Peterson of Chicago and Bethany Haas of Lansing served as bridesmaids.

They were attired the same as the maid of honor.

James Knowlton of Whitehall was the best man and Ronald Kozera, brother of the groom, of Whitehall, Lawrence Busick of Valparaiso, Ind., Paul Bradfield of Lansing, Michael Seymour of Whitehall and Edmund Lane of Grand Rapids seated the guests as Charlene Jarvela presented nuptial music on the organ.

Margaret and Susan Klapperich, cousins of the bride, were the flower girls in floor length frocks of white peau de soie with green ribbon sashes and bows at the back.

They wore circlets of holly and carried nosegays of Pinocchio pompons centered with red rosettes edged with holly.

★

MRS. A. R. Shigley of Fremont, grandmother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony of Niagara Falls, N.Y., grandparents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nicholas and son and Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Zahradnik, aunts and uncles of the groom, also of Niagara Falls, were among the 150 guests.

The bride is a graduate of Michigan State University. Her husband is a graduate of Kalamazoo College and is presently a senior in the Valparaiso University School of Law, Valparaiso, Ind.

The rehearsal dinner was given Friday evening at the Tecumseh Country Club by the groom's parents.

The couple will reside in Valparaiso.

Rosemary Anderson, Keith Kruse Wed in Milan

The Free Methodist Church of Milan, Mich., was the scene of a lovely wedding when Miss Rosemary Anderson became the bride of Pvt. Keith Kruse.

The Rev. Harold C. Wyman, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m. in the presence of the immediate families Dec. 18th.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Anderson of Milan. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kruse of 407 Center Dr., Tecumseh.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin and lace.

Mrs. Elmer Anderson, aunt of the bride, organist, played nuptial music and accompanied Clifford Anderson, brother of the bride as he sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Pvt. Kruse graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1964 and is with the army en route to Ft. Huachca, Ariz. The bride is a senior at Milan High School. She will remain here.

Attending the wedding were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kruse, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peotter. Others from Tecumseh were Paul Kruse, Dawn Kruse, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Peotter and Mrs. Marie Meyers, aunt of the bride.

Board Approves Federal Aid Reading Program

Tecumseh School Board approved a reading program to be financed by Federal aid, amounting to $39,000 each year, for the next three years.

The action, taken Monday night, authorizes the purchase of two large vans, costing about $8,000 each, reading and instruction equipment, and employment of two teachers.

Before the reading program can be activated, both the State and Federal education departments must approve it.

—o—

Raymond Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Green of Tecumseh was a guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Munger, Friday and Saturday. Lisa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Munger, stayed with her grandparents Saturday and Sunday.

Nancy Marsh, Theodore Price Are Wed

Nancy Jane Marsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Marsh, 803 Outer Drive, became the bride of Theodore Cooper Price, Dec. 18, in the Alumni Memorial Chapel at Michigan State University, East Lansing.

Th groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Price of Haslett.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length sheath dress of velvet with fitted bodice, three-quarter sleeves and bateau neckline.

★

Re-embroidered Alencon lace appliques trimmed with crystal bugle beads were used on the bodice and sleeves.

Her chapel train was attached to the sheath skirt with a bow. A deep Swedish crown of pearls in leaf design secured the triple bouffant veil of imported French illusion.

She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and white carnations.

Gail Price, a sister of the groom, was maid of honor in a floor-length red velvet gown. She wore a matching headpiece of holly and carried a circlet of holly centered with a white candle.

Josephine Lezak of Indianapolis, Ind., was the bridesmaid attired as the maid of honor.

Gary Price, brother of the groom, served as best man and the guests were seated by Robert Bonar of Holt.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the chapel lounge.

The couple flew to New Orleans to spend Christmas and will be at home at 1320 Haslett Rd., East Lansing, Dec. 26.

Barbara Jo Damon has accepted a position in the Traverse City High School to teach sophomore English and senior English literature. She received her bachelor of arts degree from Michigan State University, Dec. 11.

Views Expressed at Congressional Hearing Dec. 15

More than 25 people of all political persuasions, some representing organizations, presented views during a Second District [illegible] hearing in Ypsilanti Dec. 15.

The session was arranged by Congressman Wes Vivian.

Those speaking on domestic issues ranged from conservationists opposing dams in the Grand Canyon to civil rights advocates asking that increased numbers of federal registrars be provided in the South.

Those speaking on foreign affairs concerned themselves principally with the current situation in Vietnam.

Future hearings are to be held in other areas of the District, where the public will again be invited to present its views.

$2½ Million Alloted State for Program

Michigan farmers may request a Cropland Adjustment Program agreement, beginning Jan. 10, 1966.

ASCS county offices will accept requests on a "first-come first-served" basis.

To participate in the program, a producer must offer all of his wheat allotment or feed grain base. Following this, a producer may offer all of a remaining allotment or base and all of his tame hay base.

Non-allotment crop acreage may also be placed in the program at the option of the producer.

County ASCS offices will have payment rates for individual farms and the necessary forms to request agreements by the Jan. 10 starting date.

Michigan has been allocated nearly 2½ million for agreements.

Holiday Movie Program Tops Off Museum Year

DEARBORN — A special week-long holiday movie program tops off the Henry Ford Museum Christmas exhibit. Daily showings will be at 1 and 3 p.m. on weekdays, and at 2 and 4 p.m. on Sundays.

Four animated color cartoons will be shown in the Museum theatre: "Ichabod and Mr. Toad," "Santa's Workshop," "Christmas Capers" and "Pluto's Christmas Tree" are the films for the holiday week.

The special Christmas exhibit "Deck the Halls" provides Museum visitors with an outstanding display of early decorations, table and room settings, and other ornamentation that would have been used in years past. This exhibit is designed to document and complement the holiday decorations in Greenfield Village.

The movie program, as well as the "Deck the Halls" exhibit, is included in the regular admission to the Henry Ford Museum.

OUR READERS WRITE

TO THE EDITORS:

Christmas greetings to you from the Goodwill family. We want to thank you for your help in telling the Goodwill story to the residents of southeastern Michigan.

Without your assistance many many in the community would not know that our primary objective is to rehabilitate handicapped people, to help them become useful and productive citizens. Our people want a chance, not charity; a person's dignity and sense of work is restored as he becomes a contributing member of society.

We extend an open invitation to you to come in and see our family at work, to discuss our plans and hopes for the future.

May God Bless you as you help to spread the message of Goodwill.

Sincerely,
Kenneth A. Erwin,
Executive Director.

Mrs. Dale Haught Wins Centerpiece at Potluck Dinner

A Welcom Wagon Club Christmas potluck dinner held at the home of Mrs. Bayard Herndon II last Tuesday evening was attended by 22.

Table decorations were provided by Jean Colgrove Gifts, favors by the Colonial House of Beauty and a Christmas centerpiece by Tecumseh Greenhouse was raffled off to Mrs. Dale Haught.

Given Education Specialist Degree

Katherine S. Naser, former Tecumseh teacher, received the Education Specialist in Reading degree in commencement exercises Dec. 18, at Hill Auditorium, Ann Arbor.

She received her master's degree there in 1954. Dr. Grayson L. Kirk, president of Columbia University, was the commencement speaker.

Those attending were Harold Naser, Mr. and Mrs. John Naser and Perry Satterthwaite.

Fitness Test

A physical fitness test for all Tecumseh school youngsters, grades four through 12, will start here in January under the direction of the University of Michigan.

The tests will be utilized by UM's local health study project here and the tests may be repeated in the future for comparisons and progress of the youngsters.

Dr. Henry Montoye will serve as coordinator, and Dr. Andrew Kozar will be in charge of college students conducting the physical fitness tests.

Pupils with excuses from parents or doctors will not be required to take certain phases of the tests.

Local schools will also receive a fitness comparison from UM of local youngsters to the national average.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITAKER

Boysville's Fighting Knights posted a three win and one loss record before leaving for the Christmas holidays, overcoming Summerfield High School's Bulldogs 66-59, last Friday night.

Boysville scored first after the opening jump. Forward Norris McFarland scored first on a foul shot in the opening minutes of the game.

Boysville utilized a tight full-court press to great effect in Summerfield's small gym, limiting the Bulldogs to only eight points in the first quarter, while they scored eleven.

In the second quarter, the Knights went ahead with the help of foul shots.

Towards mid-quarter, Summerfield began a give-and-take game, to the extent of tying the score. Boysville was able to regain a slim lead by the half, but Norris McFarland was sidelined until late in the third quarter with four fouls.

After the half, Boysville sprang to a quick eight points, widening the gap. Successive fast breaks enabled Summerfield to come within three points of Boysville's margin.

Summerfield bounced back with 13 points in the final quarter; Boysville, however, found the hoop for 15 and went on to win 66-59.

Jim Cowan was the big gun for the Knights with 18 points. Moe Jacobs was second with 15 and was the big man under the boards with 16 rebounds.

The Knights tallied on 18 field goals and 5 foul shots.

Boysville's Dining Hall was the setting of the Student Council's presentation of "Winter Sleighride," a semi-formal dance held on December 18.

Amid decorations indicative of the Yuletide season, and music provided by the "Princeton Four," a festive and enjoyable atmosphere was created. Girls attending the dance were from St. Joseph's Academy in Adrian.

Boysville's Candlelight Banquet was held in the Dining Hall on Tuesday, Dec. 21.

The banquet is an annual affair wherein students and faculty share together in a common repast followed by the season's greetings from both faculty and student body.

Mr. Arthur Gaul, chef at Boysville, prepared the buffet style dinner.

Entertainment was provided by Boysville's chorus group, directed by Brother Plump Armstrong, C. S. C.

Boysville's student body departed for the Christmas holidays on Wednesday, Dec. 22. Check-in will be on January 2, at 8 p.m.

Science Fair Will Offer Youths Spread of Prizes

ANN ARBOR — Junior and senior high school students in six area counties will compete for hundreds of dollars in prizes in the Eighth Annual Southeastern Michigan Science Fair on March 25-27, 1966.

Hillsdale, Lenawee, Livingston, Monroe and Washtenaw counties students are eligible to enter.

In addition to developing talents and interests in science, students who present exhibits have a chance to win one or more of several prizes.

The top boy or girl winner in the senior division (grades 9-12) will be awarded expenses-paid trips to the International Science Fair, to be held in 1966 in Dallas, Tex., May 11-14.

Other top awards include scholarships, books (including two sets of encyclopedias to the top junior division winners), cash, medals, ribbons, citations and special awards from government research organizations.

Science teachers and administrators in junior and senior high schools in the fair's region have been receiving materials informing students how to prepare their projects and enter them.

Last year there were 328 entries, as compared to 135 for the first Southeastern Michigan Science Fair, held in 1959.

If the growth trend continues this year, some 360 or more entries may be expected.

THS Faces Royals in Tourney Opener

Two powers in the Huron League basketball race will meet in the opener of the annual ABHT tourney at Adrian next Tuesday night.

Coach Vic Lawson's Tecumseh Indians will face once-beaten Blissfield in the tournament's opening game at 7 p.m.

Although the outcome will not count in loop play, both teams will have an opportunity to size up each other before their first official game at Blissfield on Jan. 21.

The Royals, defeated by one point at Flat Rock Friday night, should rate as a slight favorite over the improving Indians, boasting one of the top scorers in the area in 6'4" Jim Gibbons.

Adrian will meet Hudson in the second game, with winners and losers squaring off Thursday evening.

'Twas

3 days before Christmas
When I looked at my car,
The model was old, and
Had been driven too far.

The inside was all ripped,
The seat it was torn,
The brakes didn't work
And also the horn.

The windshield was busted,
The old clutch was broke,
The gas line was clogged
And so was the choke.

I cried and I moaned
And started to cuss,
Something had to be ddone
About my old bus.

So I went to Underwood's
And am now all aglow
It's like their ad said
I got more for my dough.

Now I laugh at the bumps
And get mileage galore,
My new car looks swell
And here's something more:

Underwood's sold me my car
On a long easy plan,
My payments are low,
I'm a happy man.

Now my worries are over
And I've certainly scored,
This Christmas I'm driving
A 1966 Ford!

Indians Rout Milan, 89-45

By JIM LINCOLN

A 56-point second half scorched a visiting Milan five here Friday night and gave the Tecumseh Indians an easy 89-45 victory.

After a sloppy performance the first two quarters, Coach Vic Lawson's team jelled, hit for 25 points in the third period, then roared on for 33 during the fourth.

Six Tecumseh cagers tallied in the double-figure column with Chuck Thomas' 19 points pacing the attack.

Although the Milan club is rated among Tecumseh's weakest opponents, this alone could not distract from the second-half scoring spree.

★

THE FIRST half was a replica of Tecumseh's losing games to Dundee and Flat Rock. Turnovers were frequent, ball handling was spotty, and the shooting left a lot to be desired.

Thomas and Terry Alcock, who scored 13 points and controlled the bankboards, were responsible as Tecumseh held Milan 12-12 at the end of the first period, then enjoy a 33-25 margin at half time.

Jim Mobley, sophomore guard, failed to score, but showed he was the most adept Indian in breaking up Milan's press.

★

ANY ATTEMPT to hold down the lopsided score was futile. Coach Lawson played his entire varsity and it mattered little in the second [illegible] in the final quarter, who was taking the shots.

As often as not, the Tecumseh press forced Milan to either throw the ball away or have it taken away. It was the first time this year the Indians showed any resemblance of a [illegible]

Junior High Wins Pair

Tecumseh Junior High teams made a clean sweep of their games last Thursday as the seventh grade downed Blissfield, 31-17, and their counterparts in the eighth grade defeated Blissfield's team, 30-29.

Tecumseh's Gary Hannibal topped the seventh grade effort with 8 points as Alex Bigson and David Kelley scored 7 points each. Joe Beal, Blissfield's top scorer, was credited with eight points.

BOB REED took top gam honors with 17 points but fouled out in the closing period of the game. Taking advntag of Blissfield's equal fouling Reed hit 7 for 10 at the line.

Free throws again made the difference as Tecumseh's junior high Indians hit 10 for 17 to Blissfield's 9 for 26 at the line.

Trailing by one point in the closing minutes of the game, Bob Reed was fouled and made one basket to bring the score even.

Shortly after that Blissfield made a free throw and Ken Pieh popped in two from the line to give Tecumseh the winning margin.

OBITUARIES

● ARTHUR H. CAROTHERS

Services will be held Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. at the Niblack Funeral Home for Arthur H. Carothers, 88, of Britton, who died early Sunday morning at Herrick Memorial Hospital where he had been a patient for five days.

He had been in failing health for two months.

Mr. Carothers was born Dec. 15, 1877, in Waterville, O., and married Emma Rhora Feb. 22, 1905, in Lucas County, O.

They moved to the Britton area on a farm in 1923, living there until his retirement in 1943 when they moved to the village.

His wife died Feb. 3, 1949.

For the last six years he had been making his home with a daughter, Mrs. Valden Bidle, 730 S. Union St.

Mr. Carothers was a member of the Britton IOOF.

He is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Forrest Barrett and Mrs. Virgil Bortel, both of Britton, Mrs. Edward Rudel of Taylor and Mrs. Bidle; two sons, Ernest Carothers of Fayette, O., and Roy Carothers of Dearborn; a sister, Mrs. Harry Henry of Downey, Calif.; and 15 grandchildren.

The Rev. Blair Bashore will officiate and burial will be in the Ridgeway Cemetery. Odd Fellow services will be held Tuesday evening at the funeral home at 7:30 p.m.

Area Obituaries

● MRS. MARY E. HOLDAWAY

Services were held Friday evening at the Proctor Funeral Home, for Mrs. Mary Holdaway, 89, who died at 9:45 p.m., Dec. 15 at Herrick Memorial Hospital, Dr. John Metler officiated.

A resident of Evans Lake for 11 years, Mrs. Holdaway had been a patient since Sept. 6.

She was born Sept. 21, 1876, at Ogden, Ill. She lived much of her life in the Indiana area.

She moved to Evans Lake in 1954 to live with her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Cameron.

A teacher in Missouri for several years, she married Frank P. Holdaway Oct. 27, 1898. He died June 29, 1932.

She was an active member of the Methodist Church in Indiana, transferring her membership to the Tipton Community Church after moving to the area.

In addition to her daughter, Mrs. Cameron, she is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Helen Pfister, Mrs. Nellie Holdaway, of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Cora Davis, of Laurens, Ia.; seven grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

Her husband, a son, a daughter, a sister and three brothers preceded her in death.

● Mrs. Mattie A. Vealey

Services were held Saturday in Adrian for Mrs. Mattie Vealey, 1, who died Thursday in Bixby Hospital where she had been a patient since Dec. 10.

She is survived by two daughters and three sons including Earl S. Vealey, 5000 Burt St.; 17 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by a son, Myron.

Burial was in the Hunt Cemetery.

Office To Close All Day Friday

The Jackson District Social Security Office will be closed all day Friday in observance of the Christmas holidays.

"As 1965 comes to a close, we wish to thank you for your past considerations in helping us to better inform the public about their social security," said Paul J. Hughes, District Manager.

'Rip Van Winkle'

Dear Santa...

Dear Santa,
I've been a good girl this year.
I have a list of things I would like for Christmas—they are:
1. Mickey Mouse talking telephone
2. A doll that crawls
3. Some clothes for her
4. A cradle that talks
5. A watch
6. A doll that walks
I am seven years old and in the second grade.
If you have time, would you please write me a letter?
My brothers, David and Tommy, would like some thing too.
David wants a truck and G.I. Joe.
Tommy wants a truck that roars, a play telephone and some books.
David is four and Tommy is three. They also want a dog.
Love,
Kim Jedele.

Dear Santa,
My name is Lynn DeJonghe. I would like records.
Popcorn popper,
Easybake oven,
Little hostess buffet,
Suzy cute,
Heide, Scripper's schoolroom,
Miss Clairol.
I live at 7194 N. Ridge Rd., Ridgeway, Mich.
Love,

FIRE STARTED, STAYED IN KITCHEN WASTEBASKET

Smoke Causes Much Damage at St. Peter's

A midnight fire starting in a plastic wastebasket in the kitchen, caused extensive smoke damage to the parish hall and church school rooms of St. Peter's Episcopal Church last Thursday night.

Depositing a heavy blanket of black soot over everything, the fire forced cancellation of the wedding reception of Mary Colgrove and Daniel Kozera in the parish hall. The event was moved to the social rooms of the First Presbyterian Church.

★

The wedding was held in the Church as planned on Saturday due to the work of a crew from Servisoft Company under the direction of Fred Hartner of Tecumseh. They spent most of Friday night cleaning the Church nave and sanctuary.

"It is gratifying to have had so many offers of help," said the Rev. Frank Hawthorne, Rector of St. Peter's.

"People from within the parish and friends in the community have been wonderful in wanting to help clean up the terrible mess. However, our insurance people felt that the best job could be done, under the circumstances, with professional workers and their equipment.

We're very lucky we aren't burned out."

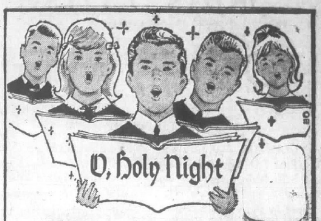
Reports $537.60 Holiday Profit

Herrick Memorial Hospital Auiliary reports a net profit of $537.60 from the 17th annual Holiday Ball. The money will go toward the purchase of a cardiac resuscitation cart for the hospital.

A capacity crowd attended the semi-formal dance the evening of Dec. 4 at Tecumseh Country Club.



May all the holy joys of that first Christmas night abide with you and your loved ones during the holiday season, bringing the same peace and tranquility that shone upon the earth on that Night so long ago.

Deadline Nears for Cost-Sharing

Leland Bush, Chairman of the Lenawee County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, advises farmers that the final date for filing applications for cost-sharing under the 1964 ACP for carrying out conservation practices in Michigan is Dec. 31, 1965.

Federal cost-sharing will be made only upon application submitted to the Lenawee County ASCS Office located at the Federal Building on East Maumee St., Adrian, on or before Dec. 31, 1965.

Cost-sharing under the 1964 program in Lenawee County was made in the amount of $126,491.00 to 986 farmers for assisting them in carrying out soil, water, and woodland conservation practices.

This represents about 50 percent of the total cost of carrying out these conservation practices. In addition, farmers contributed their own labor, equipment, and funds.

It is estimated that cost-sharing under the 1965 AC Program will amount to $100,000 in our county.

Present Specials on Michelangelo

The American Gas Industry will present two, one-hour color television specials on "Michelangelo: The Last Giant."

The programs will be televised by the NBC network, the Part 1 being broadcast between 9 and 10 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 22, and Part 11 from 9 to 10 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 23.

Methodists Plan Holiday Activities

With the Rev. Julian Gresham as guest pastor, a Christmas Eve candlelight service will be held in the sanctuary of the First Methodist Church starting at 9 p.m., Christmas Eve.

The meditation will touch upon "Mankind — Yearning for the Light, God—Preparing to give the Light, Jesus Christ — the Light of the World."

Special Christmas music will be presented by the choir under the direction of Miles Cowdry with Mrs. Donald Bush at the organ.

College Student Recognition Day will be observed Sunday, Dec. 26, during the morning worship service at 10 a.m. with students participating in the program. Maynard Lucas, lay leader of the church, will preside.

Following the service, a fellowship hour for the students and service men will be held in the social room under the guidance of Mrs. Herbert Dillion, campus secretary for the Women's Society of Christian Service.

St. Peter's Plans Busy Christmas

The Blessing of the Manger at the 4 p.m. Children's service on Christmas Eve afternoon will begin the observance of the Feast of the Birthday of Christ at St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

The Carol Service featuring the choirs of the Church, and the First Eucharist of Christmas will be held at 11 p.m. in the Church Christmas Eve with a 10 a.m. celebration of the Holy Eucharist on Saturday, Christmas Day.

Since Sunday is St. Stephen's Day, commemorating the first Christian martyr, regular services will be held at 8 and 10.

An Open House and after-service coffee hour will be held in the Rectory on Sunday.

On Tuesday, Dec. 26, there will be a Church School Chicken Dinner and Christmas party for the children of the parish. It is planned for 5:30 in the Parish Hall (provided it can be cleaned up and made ready by that time.) The dinner is sponsored by the Lyster League.

Skins Erase Deficit, Win

By ED VOGEL

CLINTON — An unbelievable comeback soared Clinton Redskins from a near certain defeat to the winner's circle as the Redskins overcame a 16-point deficit to daze Ypsilanti Roosevelt, 80-71.

Paced by the inspired playing of Bill Jedele, Butch Hoelzer and Gene Brown, Coach Dick Content's boys turned a 46-30 Roosevelt lead into a Redskin rout.

With 21 points, Butch improved slightly on his 20-point-per game average, but he trailed the Rider's John Van Black by one tally for scoring honors.

Superior rebounding gave Roosevelt a 36-23 half-time lead, while Clinton's defensive ace, Hugh Miller, was buried in foul trouble.

But the 58 point second-half surge easily wiped out the Rough Rider advantage.

★

WITH THE home crowd cheering them on, the Redskins began to grab all rebounds in sight. Countless steals were turned into Clinton buckets, icing the game, and providing Coach Content with the opportunity to test his reserves under game conditions.

When the final buzzer rang, many fans leaped on to the court and ushered the jubilant Redskins toward their locker room.

Junior Redskins Post No. 3

CLINTON — The Redskin JV's set the stage for a perfect night for Clinton fans by edging Ypsilanti Roosevelt's Junior Rough Riders, 51-47.

Gaining a 30-10 half-time bulge, the Redskins were forced to fight for their lives as Ypsi narrowed the margin to 44-41 in the fourth quarter.

Through the spirited play of Doug Brown and the fabulous foul shooting of Jake Schwab, the Junior Redskins regained command and were never in serious trouble.

Their 3-1 won-lost record tops the [illegible]ay.

Candidates Must File Petitions

CLINTON — New state laws will change the way candidates for village office are selected.

There will be no caucuses in 1966.

Candidates must file nominating petitions with at least 1% of the 455 registered voters with the village clerk by Jan. 3.

If there is opposition for any ticket, at the deadline, a primary election is required Feb. 21.

The annual election is March 14.

The village offices to be filled and the incumbent officers are:

► President, one-year-term — incumbent, John Truesdale;

► Treasurer, one-year-term — incumbent, Genevieve Knight;

► Clerk, one-year-term — incumbent, John Fox;

► Assessor, one-year-term — incumbent, Arthur Rudel;

► Smith-Kimball Community Center, two trustees, three-year-terms — incumbents, Hollis H. Farley and Judy King.

Jan. 24 is the last day to register for the annual village election.

It's Christmas!

As children watch and children wait, we wish all of you the true joys of Christmas time.

Candles Help To Set Mood

CLINTON — A candlelighted altar, banked with a dozen scarlet poinsettias, was the focal point of interest for the more than 200 persons who attended the Christmas Cantata in the United Church of Christ Sunday evening.

Members of the Junior, Cherub and Senior Choirs processed along the double aisles of the darkened sanctuary, bearing lighted candles to create a mood of reverence for the program of joyous music which they presented.

"A Song of Bethlehem" by Lois Myers Fox was the cantata of 10 songs sung by the Junior Choir, directed by Bill Heimerdinger and accompanied by Mrs. John Fox, the organist.

Mrs. Fox directed the Cherub Choir in singing several Christmas songs, accompanying them at the piano.

Climaxing the program was the presentation by the Senior Choir of the cantata, "When Love was Born," by Van Denman Thompson.

Bill Heimerdinger directed the 11 songs, which were sung by the Women's Chorus, Men's Chorus and soloists, Charles Steffens and Mrs. John Gilman.

Altar Society Elects Officers

CLINTON — Mrs. John Monaghan was elected president of the St. Dominic's Altar Society at the Christmas meeting held last Thursday at the home of Mrs James McDermott.

Other officers elected are:

Vice-President — Mrs. George Bowman

Secretary — Mrs. Daniel Reilly

Treasurer — Mrs. Thomas Young

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Frank Hahn

A social evening was held. The 21 members and the Rev. Fr. Edward Kalinowski were served holiday refreshments by the hostesses, Mrs. Marval Mattis, Mrs. William Kershner and Mrs. William Mende.

The Jan. 13 meeting will be held in the Community Center.

Clinton High Yule Program Is Wednesday

CLINTON — The Fine Arts Department of Clinton High School will present a Christmas program on Wednesday, Dec. 22, at 8 p.m. in the high school.

The symphony band will open the program with "Christmas Festival," a selection of well-

More Clinton News Page 5

The choir will sing several selections. There will be readings by the dramatic students.

All the departments will take part in the featured presentation of the "Christmas Story."

An admission of 75 cents is being charged with children under 10 free. Students tickets will be 50 cents. Tickets will be sold at the door beginning at 7 p.m. Proceeds will be used for stage improvements.

Schools Initiate New Plan

CLINTON — Twelve students have been selected to initiate the Work Study Program which began Nov. 1 in Clinton Schools.

Superintendent Richard Wegner described the federally-sponsored program in a progress report last week.

The students were placed in the following categories:

Building and Grounds: Ben Beach, Eugene Hahn, and Walter Sannes.

Cafeteria: Roy Angel.

Secretarial: Betty Ball, Bonnie Bowman, Ron Karpo, Pat Littrell, Roxie Ostrander and Sandra Poore.

Agriculture Department: Rick Welch.

Athletic Department: Gary Corwin.

The students assigned to work on the building and grounds will be under the direction of Kenneth Martin. The secretarial students will be working under the guidance of Blanche Myers.

Dan Schnindler is coordinator of the program.

Students will be paid a starting wage of $1 per hour. Raises will be given from time to time during the school year.

Since the program is directed toward gearing vocational educational programs more closely to labor demand, each student has on file an occupational objective.

Students were advised of their specific duties at a meeting last Wednesday and the program was explained to all the students.

[illegible] working a 40-hour month will work ten hours per week with a maximum of 40 hours a month per academic year.

The salary of these employees shall be a maximum of $45 per month or $350 per month, or year.

Because those working a 60-hour month do not live within the community, they will be paid a maximum of $60 per month, or $460 per year.

Assigned to various jobs about the school plant, in the offices and on the grounds, the students are enrolled in the following vocational program, Shorthand II, Office Practice, Agriculture, Sales and Retailing and Typing II.

Tories Play Basketball in Tourney

BRITTON — The Britton Tories will participate in the Christmas Basketball Tourney at Deerfield next week, announced Coach Sam Hamilton.

Two games will be played Wednesday, Dec. 29, and two Dec. 30.

7 p.m., December 29 — Deerfield vs. Madison (Adrian)

9 p.m., December 29 — Britton vs. Erie-Mason.

The playoffs will be on the 30th, with two losers from Wednesday night playing at 7 p.m., and the two winners playing at 9 p.m.

The prices will be the same as other high school games; $1 for adults and 50c for students.

Tories Downed by Sand Creek

BRITTON — The Britton Tories bowed to Sand Creek Friday night, 66-60, in a game which saw Coach Sam Hamilton lose 4 of his starters via the foul route in the fourth quarter.

The loss of key players hurt them and the boys did not have quite enough steam to head off a steady Sand Creek attack.

Britton also was poor at the free throw line, as they missed 11 free throws in the last half, 4 of which were 1 and 1 shots. If the Tories had connected on these, it would have given them 5 more points, or even half — them would have put Britton ahead of Sand Creek.

Tony Ash was high scorer for the Tories with 20, and Ray Vershum tallied 18.

An Old Story

BRITTON — An old story, but a wonderful one is once again re-enacted at Emmanuel Lutheran Church.

On Christmas Eve, the Sunday School presents its annual children's program at 7 o'clock.

This year it is a shadow pageant of "God's Love Through the Ages," directed by Jackie Cunkle and produced by the Board for Christian Education, Ralph Schafer, Supt.

★

A FIRST this year at Emmanuel is the young adult's choir and orchestra which will precede the candlelight service. They will begin at 10:30 p.m. with a medley of carols and popular Christmas songs directed by Sharon Holland and Mrs. Wesley Gilmore, organist.

The newly-formed all-boy orchestra directed by Mrs. Elwood Bush, will play, "Hark The Herald Angels Sing," "From Heaven High I Come To You," and "Silent Night."

The Christmas Eve candlelight Service begins at 11 p.m., as the choir sings the Introit, "It Came Upon The Midnight Clear." The sermon, by Pastor Drobena, will be "an open letter to his son, James, from Bethlehem."

A eucharistic celebration of the Lord's Supper will commemorate the "Word made flesh" at midnight.

★

ON ST. STEPHAN, second Christmas day, the regular Sunday schedule will include Sunday Bible School at 9:30 a.m. and worship at 10:30 a.m.

By popular request the 45-foot I-beam cross in the church yard has been lighed with blue bulbs again this year.

This annual lighting effect was made permanent, but detachable by Robert Auten, Gaylon Furgason and Frank Schroeder.

Youngsters Give Program

BRITTON — "The World Needs a Savior" was the theme of the Christmas program presented by the church school members and the cherub, junior and senior choirs of the Grace Methodist Church the evening of Dec. 12.

The first section of the program gave three present-day scenes, looking in on the lives of the people of today. The first showed school children, ridiculing another child for being different; the second, a family, rushing around buying gifts, saying they weren't going to get much for a certain aunt, because "she never gets us very much;" and the third scene showed a grocer and store-keeper comparing notes on making money during the Christmas season.

Then the original Christmas story itself was presented in a scenes, accompanied by choir selections, narration and scripture reading.

The audience then looked upon the three present-day scenes again, after the people had been touched by the spirit of Jesus, and it showed the effect of Christ on our lives.

At the closing, a white gift offering was received in the amount of $88, for the Methodist Children's Home in Detroit.

The program concluded with a Fellowship circle as the congregation, each one holding a lighted candle, formed a circle around the pews, symbolizing the light of the World. The Rev. R. A. Mitchinson gave the benediction.

Master Sergeant 'Pappy' Hintz Arrives in Saigon

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hintz have received [illegible] their son, Master Sergeant Wayne "Pappy" Hintz, saying that he has arrived in Saigon, Vietnam. He left the U.S. on Thanksgiving morning.

Sergeant Hintz, 45, is a veteran of over 20 years service in the U.S. Army, including World War II and Korea, and could be eligible for retirement.

He volunteered for service in Vietnam, because three of his sons and a son-in-law are already serving there, making a total of 5 from this one family.

His sons are Larry Hintz, army, Jerry Hintz, navy, and Hank Hintz, paratroopers, and his son-in-law is Jim Shake, air force.

Sergeant Hintz was previously stationed at Bunker Hill A.F.B., Peru, Indiana. His wife and youngest son remain there. They are the parents of seven children.

Junior Varsity Falls by 40-36 to Sand Creek

BRITTON — The Britton Reserve team lost Friday night to Sand Creek, 40-36, in an exciting game that went into 2 overtimes before Sand Creek sewed it up.

Britton got off to a slow start in the first half, and Sand Creek, led by the shooting of Harold Bailey, a standout freshman who chalked up 21 points to lead all scorers for the game, pulled ahead in the closing seconds.

Gordon Henning, who was fouled just before the final buzzer with the score at 32-30 in Sand Creek's favor, came through with two clutch free throws in a one-and-one situation to put the junior Tories into the first overtime, 32-32.

Each team scored one basket to tie it up again, and in the second overtime, Sand Creek scored four and Britton 0 to secure the win for Sand Creek, 40-36.

Gerry Korican was high scorer for Britton with 14.

It was accidentally omitted from last week's report, that Jim Skelton was high scorer the 2 previous games with 15 points in each game.

TORY SCHOOL NEWS

By JOAN CHECK

The seniors held a class meeting and ordered their graduation announcements from the Josten Company. An amethyst style was chosen.

The class voted on having their class colors mint and forest green. Many money projects were discussed.

A few were having a bake sale, holding a wrestling match, and selling Tecumseh Heralds.

The freshmen held a dance Friday, Dec. 17, after the Sand Creek-Britton game. A profit of $35 was taken in.

The G.A.C. sold tickets for a 5 ft. Tory Red stuffed snake last week.

The drawing will take place Tuesday. The girls are trying to raise money to meet the expenses.

The F.H.A. went caroling at the Herrick Memorial Nursing Home to spread Christmas joy to those throughout the home.

Two Christmas trees were purchased by the student council and placed on display in the school to create Christmas spirit among the students and teachers.

Hosted Duets Holiday Party

BRITTON—Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Palmer were hosts to the Christian Duets Christmas party Tuesday evening in their home, which was tastefully decorated for the season.

Twenty-two were present for the delicious cooperative supper at 7 p.m.

The program included viewing slides taken by the Palmers and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rowlands of previous Christmas parties of the class, when the children were much smaller.

The group had a good time reminiscing, and trying to figure out who everyone was in the pictures!

The class also enjoyed a narration of the first Christmas, and the program concluded with a gift exchange.

The Rev. and Mrs. O. E. Priest of Evans Lake were special guests. Rev. Priest was formerly pastor of the Britton Congregational-Christian Church.

Many Attend Moore Family Holiday Meal

BRITTON—Mr. and Mrs. Bert Moore entertained at a family Christmas dinner Sunday.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Macki and son of Fairgrove, Mrs. Ruth Rappold of Blissfield, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth John and children of Milan, Mrs. Lois Ehlert and daughters of Deerfield, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore and son Jim of Tecumseh, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Exelby and sons and Mrs. Myrlen Moore and children.

Myrlen Moore was unable to attend, as he is a patient at Veteran's Hospital in Ann Arbor. He is expected to be home for a few days over Christmas.

BRITTON BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Taylor and children are spending the Christmas vacation in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks and children were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Carson and family of Sand Lake at a family Christmas dinner.

Sunday evening the MYF and WSCS of Grace Methodist Church packed 18 boxes of goodies for shut-ins and servicemen.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Bruce and children attended a family Christmas dinner at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grenval Spangler of Ann Arbor Sunday.

Hold Party

BRITTON — The Britton-Macon High School teaching staff, administration and employees will hold their annual Christmas dinner Thursday noon in the school cafeteria.

Sunday School Presents Play

BRITTON—The Sunday School Department of the Britton Congregational-Christian Church presented the Christmas program "There Must be a Reason for Christmas" Sunday in the sanctuary.

The nursery, beginners and primary one classes sang "Away in a Manger" and other songs. The new Children's Choir, composed of the 2nd, 3rd and 4th graders and dressed in white capes and large red bows, sang several selections and presented the manger scene.

Colored slides of the story of the Nativity taken 4 years ago of the Sunday School students were shown, accompanied by the Junior Choir and narrators, to complete the story of Christmas.

The special offering will be sent to TEAM Korean Christian orphanages.

Children, parents and teachers gathered in the Fellowship Center following the program for refreshments. The Rev. and Mrs. Hannevik were presented with a gift from the church, as was the music director, Mrs. William Raeburn. The children received gifts from the Sunday School.

BUY CHURCH — The Rev. Donald Porteous of the Methodist Church and the Rev. Julian Gresham of the Presbyterian Church met for a short time last Friday to complete the purchase of the Methodist Church property on W. Chicago Blvd. The Methodist congregation is presently constructing a new sanctuary and education facility on West Brown St., west of the Red Mill Pond. The Ministers gathered to complete the sale at a total price of $45,000. The Rev. Mr. Gresham indicated that a gift of $40,000 made the purchase possible.

CEA Wins Approval of Board

CLINTON — The Board of Education adopted a resolution recognizing the Clinton Education Association as the official voice of the teachers in the district. The C. E. A. or its duly appointed committee will berecognized in professional negotiations.

The action was taken at the meeting of the board on Dec. 13, after the board read and accepted a letter from the Clinton Education Association in regard to public Act 379 of the Michigan school legislation.

John Jansen, president of the Clinton Education Association was present to verify that the E. E. A. does truly represent a majority of the teachers in the district.

Superintendent Richard Wegner reported on the National Defense Education Act.

Through this act, the school will receive the amount of $4,392 to supplement curriculum studies in science, reading and social studies.

The local school district will provide 46.6 percent of this amount and the remaining 53.4 percent will be received from the Federal Government.

The board discussed at length the county reorganization plan as submitted by the 18-member Lenawee County committee.

The board approved the raising of the substitute teachers' pay to $20.

Bids have been solicited for school buses and will be accepted Dec. 28.

Dear friends,

The first Christmas found shepherds in adoration and wise men bearing gifts for the newborn Saviour. This same Jesus Christ later said, "What you do for these the least of My brethren, you do so also unto Me".

A true commemoration of Christ's birth should include generous gifts to the poor and needy so they too may know a Merry Christmas.

Sincerely,

Foster D. Proctor

May Christmas bring to you and yours the gifts of peace, joy and lasting contentment.

With this wish, we greet our friends and neighbors and extend our heartfelt thanks for your many kindnesses.

'Gifts' Winner Lauds Merchants

"Mike, if I win, I'll buy you a Christmas present," said Mrs. Earl Lindsley last Friday as she stood in Hite's Hardware waiting for the winner of the Gifts-A-Plenty drawing to be announced.

She did win — and didn't forget her promise to Mike Hite.

After the excitement had quieted down, Mrs. Lindsley went to Van-Mers Department Store, selected two nice ties and brought them back to the surprised Mike.

"I appreciate every gift," continued Mrs. Lindsley as she told a Herald reporter about the wonderful maze of things she received from the merchants.

"It is indeed a novel way of advertising and should a newcomer to the city win next week, it is an excellent way of getting acquainted. They will be received so graciously."

"I met people whom I have never seen before and they were all delightful," continued the happy winner.

"Many of the stores, including Baldwin's, Hite's, Pickard's, Watkins, Proctor's Osborne's and some more allowed me to make my own selection and then allowed credit for the sum of the prize."

★

SANTA ARRIVES — The kiindly old bearded man visited Tecumseh recently and many youngsters, including Troy Albaugh of 219 Park St., came to discuss Christmas with him. Santa distributed 1500 boxes of candy that Senior Citizens of Tecumseh packaged especially for him and the children.

Auxiliary Guns for $3,000

By MARIE YOUNG

Activities and projects of the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary will be many and varied in the future, with the profits and ultimate goal to pay for the "Resuscitation Cart", which will cost $3,000.

"Frosty Yuletide," the annual Holiday Ball, had one of the largest crowds ever and realized a profit of $650.

This started the fund going.

Another current project is the annual fruit cake sale, which is estimated will add about $400.

In mid-February, the Auxiliary is going to initiate another first for the local group — a "Tag Day". Details and exact date to be announced later.

March will bring the "Salad Luncheon" which was a huge success and a first event last year.

★

THERE IS a "Bridge and Euchre Tournament" being played among members and friends with groups in Tipton, Manchester, Clinton and Tecumseh.

The play-offs are in May and it is estimated that it will realize a profit of $1,100.

The Britton members are also going to hold card parties to boost this amount. A cook book is now in the planning stage, which will go on sale in early spring to commemorate the 25th Anniversary of the Auxiliary in 1966.

These are most of the activities which have and are keeping Auxiliary members busy to attain the completion of their current project.

★

INQUIRIES have been made concerning contributions which will be gratefully accepted. A savings account has been established at the United Savings Bank and anyone wishing to contribute may do so to any of the tellers.

Checks should be made payable to "The Herrick Memorial Hospital Heart Fund" and a receipt will be given.

Dear Santa Claus,
Would you please let freedom and peace in the United States forever? Would you bring peace throughout the world. Could you bring the boys from America that are over fighting in Vietnam, home for Christmas? I would be pleased if you could.
Your friend,
Becky Ries.

Dear Mr. Claus,
For my Christmas present this year I would like the success of the G.T.6 and G.T.7 flights and rendevious. This would mean a lot to many people in the U. S. and other places in the world. Thank you for your kind consideration of my request.
Yours truly,
Mark Roberts.

Dear Santa Claus,
Two things I would like this Christmas are, the success of the Ecumanical Council and the success of Gemini six and seven and all the Geminis to come until we reach the moon.
Sincerely,
Connie Conklin.

Dear Santa,
How are you and Christmas Carol? I'm fine. And how are your reindeer and little helpers? My whole family is affording to see you on Christmas night, until then good bye, and good luck with all your toys.
Sincerely,
Bobby Aten.

Dear Santa Claus,
I've been hoping you would bring a bottle of peace, so that I could fly over Vietnam and sprinkle some over the land and end the war. Besides it would be good for you, because if you were flying over, a missle might hit you. Good-by.
Your friend,
Louis Rebottaro.

Dear Santa Claus,
For Christmas please give every one a Merry Christmas that includes the people in Vietnam and the people in slum areas. My mother wants a iron board, iron and a four slice toaster. Goodbye til Christmas Eve.
Merry Christmas,
Susan Beardsley.

Dear Santa Claus,
Christmas is my favorite season because that is when Christ was born and the three Kings brought their gifts to Christ. If it were possible I wish for peace in Vietnam and that my wish would come true. My mother wants a blue dress, nylons, a new iron, and some place coasters. My father wants a new belt, white shirt, and a chizel.
Your friend,
Kathy Kershner.

Dear Santa Claus,
I would like a bike, Johnny Express. Have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. I wish you would help the boys in Vietnam and bring them home safe and sound.
Your friend,
Joey Schneider.

Dear Santa,
For Christmas I want a set of drums, a 410 shat gun, a new watch and for our family a color TV. I know I won't get all the things I want but I hope to get the 410 shot gun. And the whole world peace [illegible]
P. S. I know that you can't get peace on earth.
Your friend,
Thomas Drouillard.

GM Films Available to Public

DETROIT — General Motors is now distributing the 25th edition of its catalog of motion picture films which the corporation makes available free of charge for showings by schools, civic groups, churches, service clubs, youth groups and other organizations.

GM's 1966 film catalog lists 37 16-mm sound films which take the audience behind the scenes in industry and cover a variety of other subjects ranging from safety and driver education to sports and the fundamentals of science and mechanics.

GM films were shown before 494,000 audiences last year, totaling more than 18 million persons. In addition, there were 110 television showings.

Films are available upon request and cover a wide assortment of non-commercial subjects.

The films may be obtained from:

General Motors Corporation
Public Relations Staff Film Library,
General Motors Building,
Detroit, Michigan, 48202.

Seniors Pack 1,500 Holiday Candy Boxes

About 40 members of the Senior Citizens packed nearly 1,500 boxes of candy for the city's Christmas party Dec. 23, at the Community Center at 7 p.m.

Members of the Teen Club conducted a series of games including postcard musical chairs.

The Seniors will be taken on the annual tour to view the decorated homes of the city Dec. 21.

Charles Wesley, brother of John Wesley, wrote the words to "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing!" in 1739. In his first version the carol began, "Hark, how all the welkin rings," according to the World Book Encyclopedia.

Tornado Pictures Shown

The Rev. Jack Nicholson of Manitou Beach spoke and showed pictures of the Palm Sunday tornado damage for 30 members and 20 guests of the WCTU Dec. 14 at the Tecumseh Friends Church.

The Rev. Nicholson was introduced by Mrs. Lillian Hoagland, program leader. His topic was "What is the Meaning of Christmas?" It was emphasized with scripture readings.

Mrs. Hoagland presented a musical program including a solo by Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney, accompanied by Mrs. Wilfred Waldron; two trumpet solos by Steve Van Valkenburg, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Brantingham and Mrs Nicholson, Lenawee County president, who sang, "There Is No Greater Love."

Dean Van Valkenburg played "Star of the East" on his harmonica. Carlton Sheley told of his experiences at the Youth Camp at Caseville where he was sponsored for one week by the WCTU.

An offering was presented to the Rev. Nicholson.

1,000 Cards Sent to UN

Nearly 1,000 cards have been sent to 30 servicemen in Vietnam by residents of Lenawee County.

Work of sorting and addressing has been done in radio station WABJ in Adrian by members of the Citizens for Good Government Club of Lenawee County.

Dear Santa...

Dear Santa,
I am 7½ and in the 2nd grade. I have been good most of the time.
Thanks for the things last year.
Will you please bring me a Heidi Doll and some clothes for her.
Would like a record player and some records. Also a Tammy

Coloring Book. I have 1 sister and 1 brother. He would like anything in the G I Joe stuff.
P. S. Please tell Mrs. Santa Hello. I will leave a snack for you on the kitchen table and some grain for the Reindeer in the garage.
Karen Kronberg,
415 Center Dr.,
Tecumseh, Mich.

Dear Santa,
For Christmas, Dear Santa, I want snow. It's a small thing but is really needed. I want love of neighbor and peace on earth. And most of all I want equal rights to all colors, races and creeds.
Yours truly,
Ruth Velandra.

Dear Santa,
For Christmas I would like that the least men as possible die for our country. That there are more Vocations. That more people become catholic and be good ones. And that colored people get equal rights.
Yours truly,
Thomas Burns.

Dear Big Red,
What I want for Christmas is have all good things happen and all bad things fall. By the way please place a copy of Ringo's drum set under our tree.
Your buddy,
Bernard Riordan.

Dear Santa,
For Christmas I want world peace, as in Vietnam and other nations. I want the negroes to have equal rights which have been granted since the eighteen century. I also want to have all one Religion on the world.
Yours sincerely,
Marieta Jacobs.

Dear Santa Claus,
I know you are very busy but there is one wish I'd like answered. I'd like to become an astronaut, or before I am twenty to open up colonies on the planets, so I can migrat.
Yours truly,
Janine Zimmerman.

Dear Santa,
This year instead of bringing presents, I would like you to send peace in America and across the seas. That's all I really want, but a few other gifts too.
Sincerely
Pat Caterina.

Dear Santa,
There are so many boys that will be in Vietnam that won't have a very merry Christmas. I wish that they would have a Christmas and a very marry one too.
Do you think Comet will have to stay home because he has to clean the sink?
Your friend,
Barbara Haeussler.

Dear Santa,
We need freedom in our country from the Vietnam fighters. I want peace and I know that the boys do too so may we have peace? That is all I ask.
Sincerely,
Nancy Hannah.

Dear Santa Claus,
This Christmas I want a lot to go to the missions to help the poor and needy. I will do all I can to give money to the missions.
Sincerely yours,
Linda Smith.

Dear Santa,
For Christmas I would like: a mansion, with a heated pool, 20 acres, a new fishing rod, and books of Greek, Roman, Egyption, and Norse gods. I would also like a set of illustrated encyclopedias.
Yours truly,
Jay Baugh.

Dear Santa,
All I want for Christmass is peace on earth.
From,
Bill Berry.

Dear Santa Claus,
My biggest wish is for World Peace. Secondly I hope that I have good marks on my report card all year and years to come. I hope you have a very Merry Christmas.
Your pal,
Paul Randall.

Dear Santa,
My name is Mary and I'm 12 years old and in the seventh grade. For Christmas all I ask is if we may have "Peace on Earth" and may the boys in Vietnam be safe. Merry Christmas to you and all.
Yours truly,
Mary Gonzalez.

Dear Santa Claus,
For Christmas I would like for us to have a Merry Christmas and that everyone would be happy. I would like for all the children all over the world to have a happy day. I would like it that everyone was in peace.
Merry Christmas,
Ruth Rudd.

Dear Santa Claus,
This Christmas I don't want what most boys and girls my age want. For Christmas I want happiness. Not only for myself, but for all over the world. For instance, in Vietnam, where there is war. Also I would like you to bring the real meaning into those hearts and minds who don't know what Christmas really is.
This may be a lot of things put into one paragraph, but I hope I will get what I asked for.
Sincerely,
Marie Hoffman.

Dear Santa Claus,
There are three things that I would like for Christmas, and they are: that we won't have any more diseases, and cures for those we do have. Also, no war in Vietnam, and that our space program will be a success.
Yours truly,
Lee Ann Schneider.

Dear Santa,
There is only one true wish that I would like answered. And that wish is for happiness and freedom all over the world. Peace be to all in the world. Merry Christmas.
Sincerely,
Dixie Fitch.

Dear Santa,
This is what I want for Christmas. I want world peace, the success of Gemini 7, and everyone to have a Joyous Christmas, and a happy New Year.
Merry Christmas,
Nellie Villaneuva.

Dear Santa,
For Christmas I want peace in the world and that the boy in Vietnam can come home for Christmass.
Thank you,
Tim Wanzeck.

Dear Santa,
I have not been good all the time, but I will do better.
I want
1—Gumby
2—Mary Make Up
3—Mouse Trap
4—Soda Machine
I love you,
Peggy.

Dear Santa,
I have not been good all the time, but I will do better.
I want
1. Frosty Cone Machine
2. Mary Make Up Doll
3. Mouse Trap Game
4. Gumby.
Thank you,
Sharon Brown.

Dear Santa,
How are you? We will leave some milk and cookies. You can pick which kind you want.
For Christmas I would like:
1. Typewriter

2. Paint set (any kind)
3. Clothes
5. And anything else that you think is nice.
Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
Love,
Lisa Lee.
P.S. Say hi to Mrs. Claus too.

Holiday Auction Adds New Twist to Gift Exchange

A "Christmas Auction" gave a new twist to the gift exchange at the December meeting of the Tecumseh Music Club on Tuesday evening, Dec. 14.

Twenty members and guests participated as Mrs. Truman Rentschler expertly sold the gifts at a 50c - $1.00 auction. The enterprise netted $17.46 for the club treasury and provided fun and excitement as well.

Mrs. Orrie Gilbert was hostess with Mrs. Gaylon Robinson assisting.

The program on "Christmas Music" was presented by Mrs. Perry Hayden. She used selections from Christmas issues of the Ideals magazine to weave a setting for the musical selections.

Stephen Van Valkenburg, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Brantingham on the piano, played "O Holy Night" and a medley of carols on his cornet.

Miss Paula Brantingham sang "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing" and "Winter Wonderland." Her mother accompanied her.

Mrs. Ashley Chase played a Medley entitled "Christmas Rhapsody" on the piano and joined Mrs. Brantingham and Mrs. Leland Fogelsong to sing "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day."

Miss Marcia Gilbert sang "Christmas Rondelay" accompanied on the piano by her sister, Linda.

Mrs. Gene Tyre was a guest for the evening.

The next meeting of the Tecumseh Music Club will be January 11 at the home of Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney. The program, entitled "Let's Be Original," will display the members' ventures into musical and dramatic compositions.

Friends Hold Annual Holiday Presentation

The Junior and Primary Departments of the Tecumseh Friends Church will hold their annual Christmas program on Thursday evening, Dec. 23, at 7:30 in the church sanctuary. Parents and friends are invited.

An evening of recitation and music will be presented. A special feature will be the "live tableau" of the Nativity.

Mark Spohr will be the narrator for this event, with the Junior Choir providing the music. Steve Van Valkenburg will play "O Holy Night" on his cornet for the entrance of the angels.

The committee in charge of the program planning is Mrs. Lee Spohr, Mrs. Loren Avery and Mrs. Harold Vaughn.

Farmers Will Vote

The Lenawee County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee for the next year was elected Dec. 16.

Meeting in the Supervisor's Room at the Lenawee County Court House, the committee was elected by farmer-chosen delegates by secret baHot and plurality vote.

Leland Bush, chairman, had invited interested persons to observe the voting procedure if they desired.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

MERRY, MERRY CHRISTMAS

'Way back in 1958, I wrote my first Christmas article for this 'Through My Window' series. In it I explored some highly personal beliefs and thoughts.

After all these years it still seems important that we take time now and then to think about, to re-examine an to re-affirm our faith. What better time could there be than now during this wondrous Christmas season?

By now I am sure everyone is familiar with my story. A freshman in college, a New Year's Eve automobile accident and quadriplegia or complete paralysis from the neck down.

It happened a long, long time ago, but really the years have flown by — time does go so quickly.

I have lived my whole life in Tecumseh and the Old Indian Town has been very good to me. Wonderful friends and the most marvelous family a person could ever wish for have made my life full and rich.

★

ALTHOUGH most of my time is, of necessity, spent in bed, I do with the aid of full-length body [illegible] sit in a wheelchair or the car.

When warm weather permits, I love to get outside. In the wheelchair we prowl the neighborhood, enjoying the lovely yards and gardens.

Rides in the car, whether short drives through our pretty countryside or the long three-week vacations, which we are privileged to take, are always exciting.

But, as mentioned before, most of my time is spent in bed — a hospital bed, whose head elevates so that some part of each day I can spend sitting up.

★

WHEN IN an upright position I look out through lovely big picture windows at well-landscaped yards, always busy bird-feeders and a picturesque stretch of twisting and turning Evans Creek.

When lying flat and looking up, the world outside still attracts my attention. Birds, tree tops and the vast expanse of the heaven, whether it be blue or gray, is always inspiring.

Truly, no matter where we look there is a constant reminder of Him, whose Son's birthday we are celebrating this joyous season.

★

ONE OF our favorite thoughts is taken from Peter Marshall, that famous Scot, who spoke so eloquently from a Presbyterian pulpit.

He believed that God never closes one door without opening another. So, then, it is our job to find that other open door. The search can be a long, hard one—certainly it is a full-time task.

There is no time for bitterness or self-pity.

Oh, of course, there are dark moods and moments of doubt. But when faith falters a look outside quickly sets us back on the right track.

How can anyone disbelieve God's existence as a Supreme Being, and all-powerful Father, when a look at nature shows the beauty of a bird, the perfection of a single feather. The always fascinating parade of clouds across the sky. The miracle of growing things, trees, grass and flowers.

The fury of a strong wind. The flash and crash of a thunderstorm. The soft quietness of a gentle snowfall. The bright warmth of sunshine, the muted stillness of a heavy fog.

The glory of sunrise and the splendor of a sunset. These are a few of the things that make us believe.

So it is that there is time for one last thing, and, just as in past years, may I wish you all the Merriest of Christmases and the Happiest of New Years — may you find lots of presents beneath your Christmas tree and a full measure of peace and joy in your heart!

All Around HOLLOWAY

By MARVEL NEUMAN

Mr. and Mrs. George Bowers of Ridge Hwy., held open house Sunday, Dec. 2, for their son, Carl, who left for the armed services Thursday, Dec. 16.

There were 86 friends and relatives from Belleville, Romulus, Wayne, Carleton, Toledo, Clinton, Tecumseh, Adrian and Britton.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sackett are the proud parents of a daughter named Michelle Renee.

They have five boys and three girls.

√

Mrs. Clara Klickman, Lawrence and her daughter, Mrs. Florence Mapes, of Toledo, spent Thursday with the Neuman family. They had dinner and spent the afternoon playing pinochle.

√

√

Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Green, their son, Leland, and his friend, Ron Frost, will be home for the Christmas Holiday.

√

Mrs. George Henry, Jr., received a letter from her daughter, Mrs. Judy Henry Faust, of Rome, Italy.

Judy was surprised Friday evening with a baby shower. Mrs. Farrel and Jean Atkins were among the 12 women present.

Mrs. Judy Henry Faust received a surprise baby shower gift from the girls she graduated with from Britton-Macon High School.

Ladies' Aid of Holloway Presbyterian Church met with Mrs. Alice Morrow of Palmyra Thursday, Dec. 16, for a dessert luncheon.

√

A potluck supper at 5 p.m. was held for the Raisin Center Extension Study Group.

It will be their annual Christparty. The Secret Sister will be revealed and a gift exchange with the members follows.

Past Chiefs Christmas Party Held

Mrs. Albert Todd entertained the Tecumseh Past Chiefs' Club at her home Thursday evening, for the annual Christmas Party.

She was assisted by Mrs. Henry Ehlinger. Members were seated for a dessert luncheon at an attractively-decorated table in keeping with the Yuletide season.

Following the luncheon, members enjoyed a gift exchange and prizes were presented to Mrs. Lynn Harris, Mrs. Harry Carney, Mrs. Roberto Diaz and Mrs. Todd.

During a short business meeting, a get-well greeting card was signed to send to Mrs. Bert Aten, a patient at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Duncan Oliphant invited the Club to meet at her home for the first meeting in the new year.

To conclude the evening, members were delightfully entertained by Robert Todd showing colored slides of trips into Canada and about the United States which he and his mother had taken.

Explorer Posts Need Sponsors

There is a need in Lenawee County for sponsors for Explorers Posts, Walter McCallum, Lenape District Executive of the Wolverine Council, stated recently, "Exploring is the high school age program of the Boy Scouts of America and it is offering them the opportunity to investigate the many vocational and hobby opportunities in the county."

The main purpose is to expose high school aged young men to business, industrial and professional worlds so they may explore and be exposed to the ethics, benefits, opportunities and educational preparation necessary to enter a given field of their own personal interest.

By associating with top men, leaders in the community, the Explorers are more able to determine their own desires in a life's work.

The scope of the program is limited only by the availability of sponsors. Most high schools in Lenawee, according to Mr. McCallum, are willing to recruit the young men for a given interest.

Some schools grant leave time for worthwhile field trips organized by the Posts.

Exploring gives the business, professional and industrial leaders the opportunity to show the free enterprise system at work and that the American way of doing business is the best way that has been shown in history to date.

"The spectrum is unlimited," said Mr. McCallum, "because there is nothing good and decent that men are doing today that boys would not want to do with them."

★

TODAY in the Adrian area, Explorer posts are being organized in medicine and medical related professions at the Bixby Hospital, journalism and all the phases of newspaper profession at the Adrian Daily Telegram, business and business management at the Adrian Area Chamber of Commerce, which is organizing two Explorer Posts in the same interest areas but meet on different nights of the month.

These four sponsors have their manpower organized and are ready to have interested young men join and start participating in their interest areas.

Other posts being organized are in the areas of law enforcement, conservation, music and band, fire service, sea exploring, radio, manufacturing and industrial management.

The Boy Scouts are recipients of monies from the United Fund Foundation.

Club Stresses Christianity in Christmas

"Putting Christ Before Santa" was the topic of an interesting and opportune talk given by the Rev. Julian Gresham of the First Presbyterian Church to the members of the Child Study Club Dec. 13.

Mrs. Carson House and Mrs. Fred Oberlin arranged the Christmas program for several members of the club gathered at the home of Mrs. Norman Bailey, 209 N. Maumee, to hear the Rev. Gresham say, "our culture has corrupted Christmas — it is necessary to strip the mysticism and the veneer from Christmas and become more realistic over the celebration of the Christ child."

"There needs to be more emphasis on God's great gift to mankind instead of the ornamental aspects that we have lavished upon Christmas. Christ has lost significance in Christmas due to the fact that we insert too much of our own physical and emotional needs into the observance of Christmas and are not concerned about the central meaning of the event," he said.

"We, as adults, need to honestly stop and evaluate the way in which we celebrate Christmas, and then help our children to select those elements which lead to the true spirit of Christmas," he concluded.

Special musical entertainment was provided by the Tecumseh High School Maadrigal Singers under the direction of Frances Moran. Their first selection was "Coventry Carol" followed by "Bring A Torch."

Dexter Bailey then presented an organ solo, "O Come, O Come Emmanuel."

Favors were made by Mrs. Benjamin Ross, Mrs. Proctor Pace and Mrs. Wayne Kaiser. Christmas refreshments were srved by Mrs. Stephen Fulop and Mrs. Miles Cowdrey.

Altar Society Plans Dinner

The St. Elizabeth Altar Society meeting was called to order by the secretary, Mrs. James Kershner.

A thank-you was read by Mrs. Cletus Fuhrmann from the sisters for the pantry shower.

In January a smorgasbord dinner will be held by co-chairmen Mrs. John Osburn and Mrs. William Holmes.

Two new members were welcomed, Mrs. Raymond Mattoon and Mrs. Richard Steadley.

Rev. Fr. Thomas J. Collins was presented with a Christmas gift from the Altar Society.

A Christmas party and exchange of gifts were enjoyed by all. Several Christmas gifts were bought from Mrs. Donald Young, who is selling religious articles.

A light lunch was served by Mrs. John Osburn and her committee consisting of Mrs. Carlos Knisely, Mrs. Earldean Roe, Mrs. Rudolph Grua, Mrs. Paul Olauda, Mrs. Roy Brosamer, Mrs. Wayne Zettel, Mrs. Fred Frolich, Jr., Mrs. Harry Weakley, Mrs. Edward Rapin and Mrs. Gene Tyrer.

The engagement of Clara Frances Cooper to Michael Edward Meade is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cooper, 514 Seminole Dr. Michael is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Meade, R. 1, Occidental Rd. The young couple are both 1965 graduates of Tecumseh High School. Miss Cooper is a student at Western Michigan University. Mr. Meade is employed at Stauffer Chemical Company, Weston.

Hold Annual Garden Club Musical Tea

Friday afternoon members and guests of the Tecumseh Garden Club were welcomed by the retiring president, Mrs. Bess Livingstone, and the hostess, Mrs. T. Rundell, in her beautifully-decorated home for the Club's annual Christmas Musical Tea.

Mrs. Joe Rice narrated the Christmas story which was interspersed with group singing of Christmas carols with piano accompaniment.

Mrs. Livingstone introduced the new president for 1966, Mrs. Archie Dunsmore, who in turn introduced her officers.

They are:

Vice-president — Mrs. E. L. McClain

Recording secretary — Mrs. Paul Maves

Corresponding secretary—Mrs. Marshall Coulter

Treasurer — Mrs. Joe Rice.

To conclude the delightful afternoon, Mrs. Rundell and her cohostesses, Mrs. Livingstone and Mrs. Paul Maves served refreshments in keeping with the Christmas season. Mrs. Archie Dunsmore poured tea.

The "Messiah" oratorio, a Christmas tradition, was composed by George Friderick Handel in only 25 days, according to the World Book Encyclopedia. It was first performed in 1742 in Dublin. A year later King George II set the custom of standing during the oratorio's "Hallelujah Chorus."

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

When people write to newspapers, the editors rejoice.

There are a variety of reasons, but mainly:

► Letters are usually controversial, giving added life to news columns.

► Many times, guest writers unexpectedly praise the community, a civic group — even the newspapers.

Believe it or not, editors especially like missiles which figuratively kick them in the shins and punch out a few front teeth.

Almost without fail, letters prepared by subscribers are carefully read when they appear in print and bring either grunts of approval or yelps of protest from their fellow readers.

By a neat coincidence, a letter to The Herald from a Tecumseh GI in Vietnam [illegible] this week's lead article.

So you can understand when I say that editors love getting mail from readers, no matter what the subject material covers.

A year ago at this time, Lapeer County Press publisher Bob Myers came up with a neat gimmick, listing the names of everyone who had written his paper during the previous 12 months.

So that's what we're doing, thanks to a bit of page-turning in the file of 1965 by Jo Wegner, who is filling in this week for Dorothy Grigg (more on that with Dorothy's "You Told Us" column).

GIs Seek Aid for Vietnam Students

Editor's note — Now serving with the 1st Infantry Division in Vietnam, 1st Lt. Greg Mason is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Mason, 802 Outer Dr. Following his graduation from Michigan State University in 1963, he was commissioned a second lieutenant in the artillery, having pursued the ROTC program for four years at MSU. Greg is married to the former Sherry Shepard of Lansing. Their home is in Junction City, Kan., where Mrs. Mason currently teaches first grade.

By 1st LT. GREGORY W. MASON
Battery B, 2nd Battalion, 33rd Artillery

BEN CAT, Republic of Vietnam — I am writing to you about a problem that is no newcomer to Tecumseh: education.

Our battalion, which is based just north of the village, is currently trying to help improve the school situation by repair and new construction of the physical facilities such as buildings, school yard, sewage system and driveways.

The one aspect of the problem that we are ill-equiped to handle is that of school supplies for the students and teachers.

Therefore, I would like to ask your help in this project, if possible.

My request is that some civic group in Tecumseh could possibly "adopt" the Ben Cat school system. (An alternative could be a committee representing the entire city.) This proposal is not quite as arduous as it first appears.

The needs of the people, while urgent and great, are relatively simple in nature. No elaborate equipment is needed, just the basic tools of students everywhere: pencils, pencil sharpeners, paper (both plain and ruled), crayons, erasers, pens, ink, chalk, straight edges, etc.

★

THREE OTHER items that would be of immense value are hand-held slateboards, first and second grade English readers, and maps. The latter is one of the most important, as world and regional maps are scarce in Viet Nam.

Most of the children have never been out of the district, hence have no concept of the world outside of their home.

First and second grade English readers would be extremely useful at the high school level where English is taught, but no suitable texts are available.

There are two schools in Ben Cat. One elementary school with approximately 950 students and a high school (age 10-16) with approximately 100 students.

The teachers are furnished by the national government in Saigon. In addition, the American sub sector advisor and his assistant teach some classes in their spare time.

Ben Cat is the only village, out of nine in the district, that has beeen able to keep schools open as the result of Viet Cong terrorists, lack of teachers and lack of supplies. As a result, some of the students commute from other villages within an eight mile radius when the roads are not mined or destroyed.

The village of Ben Cat is the capital of the Ben Cat District (similar to our county system in Michigan) which is one of five districts that comprise the Binh Doung Province.

The village is located about 30 miles north of Saigon along National Rt. 13, which is the main road from Saigon north to Cambodia.

The village itself is an "island" of freedom and relative security in a Viet Cong-controlled area.

The center of the village is a scant 500 meters from the "Iron Triangle" which until recently was one of the major Viet Cong bases in South Vietnam.

★

BEN CAT is primarily an agriculture and trading center. There are about 75 merchants in the village — tailors, restaurants, general stores, barber shops, a rice mill, a saw mill, a farmers' market.

There are three churches in the village, a Buddhist Temple, Roman Catholic, and Protestant.

The village also has a refugee center which is growing daily as more and more of the district's citizens seek a safe haven. (This is also adding to the school problem.)

The main defense of the village comes from the government outpost garrisoned in the town. There is one dispensary which has only recently reopened and is visited daily by American medical teams.

Since Sept. 1, the town has been relatively safe from Viet Cong terrorism. Prior to that time, however, it was a weekly occurrence to find booby-traps in the schools, churches and dispensary, plus the village would receive a mortar attack or two per week.

The terrain of the locale is similar to that around Tecumseh, consisting of gently rolling land interspersed with rivers and ponds. However, the vegetation is quite different, being about 60% jungle, 25% rice paddies and 15% rubber plantations.

The primary means of communication and transportation is National Rt. 13 which is open 50-75% of the time.

Any help that you could give to this project would be greatly appreciated by the village of Ben Cat and by our Battalion.

I will try to answer any questions or comments that you might have concerning this project.

THEY NEED SCHOOL SUPPLIES — The camera of Lt. Greg Mason recorded this group of youngsters (and one adult) in front of a barber shop in Ben Cat. Greg's artillery outfit is doing all it can to aid in the education of nearly 1,000 boys and girls of the Ben Cat region. The Tecumseh lieutenant asks in an article this week if people here would like to join in.

Randalls Observe 40 Years Married

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Randall observed their 40th wedding anniversary December 26.

In honor of the occasion, son, Robert, and wife, Delores, and two sons entertained with a family dinner Sunday.

Mrs. Mark Randall, Leland's mother, was present, and during the day a phone call was received from daughter, Nancy Will, and family in Hawaii.

Grace Shea Celebrates 80 Years

Mrs. Grace Shea, 218 S. Union St., was 80 years young Tuesday, Dec. 21.

An adopted daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Steinhof, Mrs. Shea has been a resident of Tecumseh her entire life with the exception of six months following her birth in South Dakota.

She has three children: Frank, in Van Nuys, Calif.; Walter, Adrian and Mrs. Mary Heavener of Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Shea enjoys good health, taking daily walks about the city to the laundromat, the grocery and to visit her friends.

Fire Department Prevents Damage

The fire department was called and confined damage to the boards.

BIGGEST STORY OF 1965 — Palm Sunday's devasting tornado produced The Herald's top story during the past year and the clock at the destroyed Jim Records insurance and Doug Aylsworth bottled gas building pinpoints the time that the twister whipped north of Tecumseh. A recap of this tragic event, plus other highlights of 1965, appear in the adjoining review.

'65 Eventful in Tecumseh

Twelve months, packed with activity — that was 1965 in Tecumseh. From pages of the past 52 issues of The Herald, here are many of the '65 highlights.

JANUARY

Lynn Noble, city building inspector, reported that 1964 construction in Tecumseh topped $1 million.

Mrs. Lillian Hoagland, 216 Ottawa St., accomplished her mission — she wanted to work until she was 75. New Year's Eve she labored on the night shift as a nurses' aide, then retired at 7:30 a.m., New Year's morning after a dozen years of service to the patients.

The Associated Press ranked Tecumseh's undefeated basketball Indians as 10th in the state among Class B schools.

Employment reached a new 10-year high in Lenawee County.

Tecumseh physician Richard Hammel has been picked to play the rakish Prof. Harold Hill in "The Music Man" to be produced by the Tecumseh Players.

Paul C. "Pat" Murphy was named vice-president of the H. W. Tuttle Co.

Instructors and students agreed, "The new addition to Tecumseh High School is great." The $400,000 addition was unveiled at an open house attended by 600 persons.

Indians whip Grosse Ile, 69-47, for the seventh straight victory.

The Abi Ewans Chapter of the DAR named as Good Citizens Susan Bottorff of Tecumseh, Denice Anderson of Clinton and Ginger Frazier of Britton.

Mrs. Gloria Jadwin and her son, David, averted an expensive catastrophe when they stopped at Herrick Park School at dawn to pick up some papers and found more than an inch of water, which had covered floors in the fifth and sixth grade rooms.

Cigarets and $200 were stolen from four Tecumseh places.

The Jaycees were sponsoring a Baby Sitting Clinic.

Indians rip Blissfield, 67-53.

The Ray Herricks present $250,000 for a reception-orientation center to be built at Michigan State University's Hidden Lake Gardens, near Tipton.

Methodists announce plans to build on a new site, if one can be found.

Manchester ex-convicts, Joe Williams and Omer Vreeke, apprehended by Tecumseh Police Chief Murell Clark and charged with the theft of money and cigarets from several Tecumseh business places.

Stolen Auto Found

CLINTON — A 1965 Oldsmobile, owned by Wesley Proctor, stolen from his garage at 209 Jackson St., Clinton, on the night of Dec. 15, was found on Dec. 20, in Windsor, Colo., completely wrecked and with the transmission damaged.

John Wilson Robinson, 32, no known address, is being held in the Greeley [illegible] jail near Denver, pending prosecution by the Colorado State Police.

Apparently Robinson stole a car in Toledo, O., on Dec. 15, drove to Ypsilanti and abandoned the first car, stole another car and drove to within two miles of Clinton. He walked into Clinton and spent the day, stealing the Proctor car sometime during the night. Apparently, the keys were left in the ignition.

Colorado State Police attempted to halt Robinson on a traffic charge, when he broke through a road block and headed into the hill country where the wreck occurred.

He was caught when he came back to the main highway.

Mr. Proctor reports that the insurance company has promised to completely repair the car or replace it with a new one and have provided him with transportation in the meantime.

Hospital Room Rates Increased

Operating expenses will jump nearly $75,000 during the coming year, due to salary raises, explains Orrie Gilbert, hospital administrator.

Starting Jan. 1, room rates will be changed:

Ward—from $16 to $18
Semi—from $18 to $21
Private—from $22 to $26

4¼% Rate Set

Adrian Federal Savings and Loan Association will increase their savings interest rate from 4 to 4¼%, effective Jan. 1.

MSU Fans Are Fueled

Special to The Herald
from the Kiowan County Signal

GREENSBURG, Kan., — For the eighth consecutive year Big Ten football fans are enjoying free coffee and other courtesies here, while en route to the Rose Bowl game.

US-54, on which Greensburg is located, about 100 miles west of Wichita, is a popular route for the Michigan State fans.

Spartan boosters have been streaming through here for several days, according to local restaurant and service station operators.

★

EVERY restaurant in Greensburg is participating in the "free coffee for football fans" project.

All the traveler needs to say is, "I'm from Michigan."

Greensburg Chamber of Commerce President Leo Skelton says that all Spartan fans will be given the red carpet treatment both going and coming.

Past experience indicates that the return trip will provide a lighter concentration of traffic — some return trips are as late as mid-January.

★

A MOST popular five-minute diversion for the traveling football fans is a free trip to the bottom of the world's largest hand-dug well in Greensburg.

The well, 32 feet in diameter and 109 feet deep, was dug in 1887.

Developed in recent years as a tourist attraction, it already has drawn more than two million visitors.

Greensburg has received frequent national attention for successful tourist promotion activities and it has the national headquarters offices for the U.S. Highway 54 Association.

$157,500 Granted for Wastewater

A $157,500 Federal Grant to help pay for Tecumseh's wastewater treatment plant enlargement was approved Monday by the Health, Education and Welfare Department.

Announcement came from Congressman Wes Vivian's office in Washington.

The grant will account for 30% of the project, which will cost approximately $525,000 and double the present plant's capacity.

Tipton Sunday School Presents Holiday Program

TIPTON — A pageant entitled "The Meaning of Christmas" was presented by the Senior High Sunday, evening Dec. 19, at 7:30.

Mrs. Raynor Hardy was director.

The pageant presented advent worship services in scripture and poems. As each candle was lighted the family, portrayed by Ray Stockinger, Mrs. Lee Griffin, Debbie Stockinger and Michael Dewey, held their advent service while the scripture was portrayed in a large picture frame.

The angel choir, under the direction of Miss Diane Spycher, sang Christmas Carols.

In conclusion, Miss Spycher sang a solo entitled "O Holy Night", accompanied by Mrs. Harold Every.

BEHIND PAGE ONE

The Al Phelans will never forget the day their fifth child, Amy Jean, was born — Sunday, Dec. 26, at 3:15 p.m., midway in the National Football League playoff game between Baltimore and Green Bay.

The dad, Dr. Phelan, and his buddy, Dr. Richard Dustin, who delivered Amy, were appreciative of Mrs. Phelan's consideration in holding off until the two physicians' game favorite, the Colts, had fashioned a nice 10-0 lead.

The rather speedy trip to the delivery room happily coincided with half-time intermission rests for Colt and Packer players, getting the two doctors back to a hospital TV in time to enjoy the final half and exciting overtime session, during which the Packers managed a 13-10 victory.

In later years when friends ask Amy's birthday, Bette will no doubt immediately respond, "The day the Packers beat Baltimore in sudden death."

Happy New Year, everybody!

Thanks go out from the Herald staff on the card and accompanying gift from the Women's Society of the First Baptist Church. The card contained beautiful thoughts and the gift, delicious contents, cookies.

Mrs. Robert Furguson of 725 N. Union St., picked a nice bouquet of purple wood violets in her garden on Dec. 23 and sent them down to The Herald office for our amazement!

Lawrence Blum, 2701 Occidental Rd., thought Santa had arrived early. On Thursday he saw five deer jump the fence near his home.

If Mr. and Mrs. Gene Tryer, 716 Wenonah St., were scratching their heads in wonderment after seeing last week's Herald, they were no different than Mr. and Mrs. Dan Walsh, 502 N. Union St. By an odd quirk of fate, a picture showed the prize-winning Walsh home decoration display, but the caption used was set up for the Tryer's display. Sorry, everybody.

And while we're crying the blues, apologies to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Blumerick, owners of Meadowridge Dairy, who were surprised to find themselves (in their greeting ad) listed as Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blumerick.

Marda Gene Duncan reminds us that, "This may be a bit late, but, if you have put your Christmas tree out and decorated it with food for the birds, please be sure that all the icicles have been removed. They are pretty to see but very harmful to any bird curious to take a little nibble."

A Christmas present to Mr. and Mrs. Larry Slick of Macon was a son, James Edward. James was born Christmas Eve at the Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Naval Air Cadet Bill Wallace, who was a junior at Ferris State College before entering the Navy and a 1962 Tecumseh graduate before that, has a couple of ratings to be proud of: first in his class of 38 in both academic subjects and physical education.

The gang at The Herald is off on a want ad kick — so be prepared for a sales pitch on how you can make hundreds of dollars by offering things for sale with a classified. (Incidentally, they do work wonders.)

Fred Hartwig, manager of the ServiceMASTER Co., of Tecumseh informed The Herald this week, that his crews and not Servisoft were working those long hours on St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

Rehearsals for the Jaycee Follies will start Jan. 6, at the Community Center. If you're interested, contact Mrs. Walter Wonderly at 423-3931.

We're not sure if three letters to Santa received at The Herald office were written early for next year or what. They were dated Dec. 25. The Henehan sisters of 604 Brook St., who wrote the artistically-decorated letters are Mary Alice, 6, Suzanne, 2, and Dorothy, 4. We wonder if Mary Alice received a training bike, Dorothy a bridesmaid doll and Suzanne a baby first-step doll?

Are you willing to believe that love is the strongest thing in the world — stronger than hate, stronger than evil, stronger than death — and that the blessed life which began in Bethlehem nineteen hundred years ago is the image and brightness of the Eternal love?

Then you can keep Christmas. And if you keep it for a day, why not always?

Many thanks to our loyal friends. See you all "next year . . ."

HERALD PHOTO BY TOM RIORDAN

1965 Big Year for Fisher Body

In its first year of operation, General Motors expenditures for 1965, employee payrolls and local purchases at the new Tecumseh Fisher Body plant totalled over $5.8 million, states Lewis J. Lamm, plant manager.

In making the year-end statement, Mr. Lamm noted that employee payrolls amounted to $2.9 million and 288 area companies who supplied goods and services to the plant shared an additional $2.9 million.

While the plant did not begin production until mid-year, employment has climbed to approximately 875 during the month of December.

In addition, over 300,000 interior trim sets for GM cars have already been produced by the plant.

Fisher Body employees and General Motors contributed over $35,000 to the Tecumseh United Fund and the Lenawee County United Fund.

In November, more than 14,000 visitors toured the new GM facility during a two-day open house.

The Fisher Body plant produces interior trim components for the 51 body styles of the Buick Special, Oldsmobile F-85 and Pontiac Tempest series.

Nurses Are Being Sought

Candidates for either part or full-time work will be welcome.

Mrs. Moll points out that there are four openings on the afternoon shift.

Service Club Aids 143 People At Christmas

The Tecumseh Service Club wants to take this means of thanking Don Moffatt and his staff of the Community Center for their invaluable help in furnishing space for their Christmas gift packaging, and also the many, many organizations who helped with time, money and gifts to help make a Merry Christmas for all families remembered by the Service Club.

Mrs. Arthur J. Geisenhaver, chairman, says "We sent boxes of food, toys and clothing to 63 children and 80 adults — and could not have done so without the very, very warm response of everyone who donated to us."

Grigg Returns to Chanute AFB After Holiday

Airman Grigg is in the medical field at Chanute Hospital and was chosen one of five outstanding corpsmen to participate in an Air-Evacuation program.

Upon his return to Chanute, he will start instruction in the care of patients being transported by plane from one base to another.

Donna Grigg, a student nurse at St. Mary's School of Nursing, Saginaw, has also been spending the holiday season with her mother and will go to Ypsilanti State Hospital, January 2, for a three-month course in phychiatric training.

Other guests at the Grigg home over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel R. Harvey of Fisher, Illinois.

Two Collide, Given Tickets

Clinton State Police issued tickets to Larry J. Titley, 22, of Tecumseh and John Graham McCoy, 30, of Adrian, when their cars collided Friday afternoon on M-52 north of Valley Rd., Birdsall.

Titley was given a summons for failure to stop in the assured clear distance ahead when his car struck the rear of the McCoy car which was stopped, waiting for a tank truck stopped at a railroad crossing.

McCoy received a summons for no valid operator's license.

Toledo Resuscitator Success Observed

By MARIE YOUNG

In recent months Dr. Richard Dustin, Dr. Richard Coak and Mrs. Neville Hart, president of the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, visited St. Vincent's Hospital in Toledo to observe its new Coronary Care Unit.

This unit is similar to what is aimed at for Herrick Memorial Hospital with the beginning the purchase of the Resuscitation Cart.

At St. Vincent's, during the first three months, three cardiac arrests were successfully resuscitated. All were started initially by nursing personnel.

It is estimated that two-thirds of the deaths due to immediate heart attacks could be prevented.

In the U.S. alone this would be 50,000 people annually with proper intensive care facilities would be given a "second life."

★

THE HEART acts as a "pump" and to do so efficiently it needs to have proper filling time and proper time to empty with a vigorous push.

Like the old farm pump, it fills as the handle is pulled up, pushed out as the handle goes down.

The heart is run electrically from a small portion of the heart where vital small cardiac nerves come into a central "switchboard." If anything happens to this vital area, the heart's regular, rhythmic action may be endangered.

One of the features contained in the modern equipment being purchased for Herrick Hospital by the Auxiliary contains what is called a "pacemaker."

It automatically stimulates the patient's heart, even before the nurse or doctor may arrive in the room, saving minutes, starting the heart to beat again or regulate it at a set rate of beating.

★

HOWEVER, resuscitation encompasses more than just the heart.

As vital as the heart is in acting as the "pump" for the body, to circulate the blood, which carries life-enriching oxygen, the putting of oxygen into the blood is like "loading the box-cars" or blood cells, which is done in the lungs.

Thus the lungs become a most vital part in maintaining life in any patient whose heart either stops or fails.

★

THUS THE pulmonary resuscitation factors in maintaining life in these crises are important. Equipment such as airway tubes, breathing bags, which can be filled with oxygen are all vital.

Even a machine which can breathe for a patient when the body fails to have the "starter" is a part of the resuscitation cart being purchased for future use at the local hospital to aid in better coronary and pulmonary care.

Ridgeway Girl Shares Homeland with Classmates

The Pinata, constructed by Diana's grandmother, Mrs. Afelio Garza of Los Angeles, is a papier mache structure filled with candy.

Diana and her classmates strike the pinata with a heavy stick and after it is broken, all the children participating scramble for the candy.

New Rooms at Hospital Are Opened

Four new first-floor rooms in the south wing of Herrick Memorial Hospital are in the process of being opened this week.

Above them, in the maternity section, two wards will soon be ready for use.

The downstairs four replace two wards in the west wing, which are being transformed into larger emergency facilities.

The addition to the west wing and renovation to emergency, laboratory and X-ray were made possible by a $225,000 gift.

Grants $4,554 Premium Due United Life

Circuit Court granted a default judgment of $4,554 from Bruce Foundry and Manufacturing Co., to United Benefit Life Insurance Co. of Nebraska, Monday.

The money was due for premiums on a group life and health insurance policy for Bruce employes.

Tonsils Gone, Vocalist Now Is Whispering

Brenda Eames, 17-year-old senior at Manchester High School, should be in fine voice when she departs in June with the Michigan Choral for its summer tour of the British Isles and Western Germany.

But she isn't doing any vocalizing this week.

Miss Eames, who is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hank Eames, lost her tonsils to the surgical knife Tuesday and is limited to an occasional whisper.

THANK YOU

We would like to thank all merchants who donated gifts in the Gifts-A-Plenty drawing. They were very nice and appreciated.

Sincerely,
WALTER & EILENE HIZER

Nichols Strikes Pole, Cited Drunk Driver

A drunk driving charge against Ronald Nichols, 17, of 414 S. Adrian St., last week led the Tecumseh police to the arrest of Kenneth Cleveland, 22, S. Ottawa St.

After Nichols was apprehended, he told officers that Cleveland had purchased whiskey for him.

With Justice Ernest Oliver out of the city, police took Cleveland to Clinton where he was fined $75 and costs, plus five days in in the county jail.

Nichols was fined $100 here.

The youth lost control of his car on S. Adrian St., struck a light pole and then a fence after he attempted to enter the driveway at 414 S. Adrian.

As the old year goes out and the New Year comes in' we pause to express our heartfelt thanks to all our wonderful customers for their kind patronage.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Editor's note — Mrs. Lyle Grigg, with her husband and son, Marvin, plus the family dog, Sam, are presently in DeBary, Fla., spending one week in the sun. Dorothy prepared the lead for this week's column before leaving. Filling in for Mrs. Grigg while she vacations is Mrs. Mel Wegner.

Happy New Year! Time for resolutions. Mrs. Marvin Nelson leaves Tecumseh with a wonderful one, applicable to every resident in the area. She stated, "I'm going to do everything that I can to make San Jose, Calif., the kind of a place in which I want to live."

The Nelson family has moved to California due to Marv's transfer there with IBM.

Apparently this is the same resolution the family used when they came to this city in 1959.

Tecumseh has benefited from their presence here. Both have been active in the Jaycees and Auxiliary, helping with many civic projects.

Her husband took an active interest in civic affairs, once running for school board. Suffice it to say Tecumseh's loss is San Jose's gain, but much can be learned from the Nelson's good example.

Indians Win, Play Hudson for ABHT Tournament Title

A 75-73 victory over Blissfield in the ABHT tournament Tuesday night sends the Tecumseh Indians into the championship game with Hudson this Thursday evening.

Undefeated Hudson routed a hapless Adrian five in the second game Tuesday evening, 93-70, and rates an excellent chance of upsetting the Indians.

The Maples now run into the Royals and will probably be shellacked again.

Tecumseh, down by two points at the end of the first quarter, kept pace with Blissfield in the second stanza to trail at the half, 40-38.

Tecumseh outscored the Royals from the floor, 33 goals to 28, but were pathetic from the free throw line, hitting on just 9 of 20 attempts.

In the fourth quarter, the Indians connected on 2 of 8 attempts and had 4 straight misses. Blissfield, on the other hand, hit 17 out of 24.

Chuck Thomas and Hebb paced the Tecumseh attack with 19 and 18 points, respectively. Alcock netted 10.

Dave Gurica took scoring honors with 21, two more than teammate Jim Gibbons. The 6'5" Gibbons settled for just 7 points in the second half.

Defeat Hillsdale

After a slow start against Hillsdale Tuesday night, last week, Tecumseh started rolling, and with a burst in the final quarter, picked up its second victory of the season, 77-61.

The Hornets, cold in the shooting department after the first period, were foul prone, costing them their fourth win in six starts.

Undefeated

In their final game before the Christmas vacation, Tecumseh Jr. High Indians downed Dundee, 33-12 and 24-19, in both eighth and seventh grade play.

Indians Bob Reed and Ken Pieh shared high point honors in the grade eight struggle as each dumped in eight points.

Treat Two Christmas Eve Drivers

Drivers of two cars which collided near Clinton, Christmas Eve, were treated at Herrick Memorial Hospital for minor injuries and released.

The westbound car, driven by Raymond J. Kunstman, 41, of Jackson, skidded into the path of the eastbound car driven by Floyd H. Halladay, 74, of Clinton.

The collision occurred on US-12 at N. Adrian Hwy., at 5:25 p.m.

Dundee made half of their score from the line, hitting 6 for 8 and outshot Tecumseh, five for 11.

Dundee	2	6	3	1—12
Tecumseh	10	8	8	7—33

Dundee's Bill Buseh topped game scoring with 11 points but was unable to lead his team to victory as the seventh grade at Tecumseh downed them, 24-19.

In overall season statistics, Bruce Costigan is the highest scoring Indian guard with a three-game total of six. Highest scoring player is Bob Reed with 33 points in three contests.

Ken Pieh holds second place with a 25-point, three-game total.

Friends Church Women Present "Christmas"

Nearly 80 members and guests of the Women's Missionary Society of the Tecumseh Friends Church met on Tuesday evening, Dec. 21.

Separate tables for four were set up in the basement of the church and hostesses appointed for the evening filled their tables with guests.

The program on "Christmas" was announced by Mrs. Amos Wilson, president of the society.

Linda Sinkey sang, "O Holy Night," accompanied by Mrs. Paul Brantingham on the piano. Mrs. Brantingham also played for Mrs. Larry Burch as she sang, "Sweet Little Jesus Boy."

Mrs. Ashley Chase played a medley of carols on the piano and Kathy Hammack and Belinda Hockstra played a flute duet, "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear."

Mrs. Harold Righter presented the devotions around the names by which the Messiah was to be called.

Mrs. Perry Hayden and Mrs. Ray Sommers gave a short play let about the Nativity, assisted by Sam and Paul Brantingham and Jackie, Mark, Terry and Ellen Pearson, who portrayed the manger scene.

Mrs. Dale Neff, missionary on furlough from Africa, gave highlights of her recently-completed three-year term of service. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Comfort of Rogers Hwy.

A gift exchange was enjoyed and mystery sisters were revealed.

Refreshments appropriate for Christmas, included warm English Wassail punch, were served by Mrs. Donald Baker, Mrs. Floyd Shirley and Mrs. Sommers.

Letters to Santa

Dec. 18, 1965

Dear Santa,
I would like a Cricket doll, and a Tressie doll, and a Misty doll and I want a pink dress, a pair of pink socks, a pair of pink shoes, But they have to match. Last year you did not bring Mom her girdle and Dad his glasses like I asked for. Daddy can still use a pair of glasses. But Mom don't need a girdle, you came too late. Hear is a picture of me. I was cute wasn't I. That's what Mom and Dad said.

I am 8 years old.
I go to Patterson School, Tecumseh, Mich.
Love,
Crystal Roe.
Thank you!

December 3, 1965.

Dear Santa,
This is what I want for Christmas: gun ho, johnny west, chief cherokee. I like to make snow men and snow forts and some time even a snow Santa Claus. I am in 2nd Grade. I [illegible] years old. Here's what I want in my stocking: a candy cane and one cent at the bottom of it.
Your friend,
Dale Bird.

Dear Santa,
This Christmas I would like a Vanity Set, a doll named Tressy, a Heidi doll, play-size market, Nurse Outfit, 3 outfits for my troll and a dolly darling. My big brother is helping me write this letter.
Love,
Jill Colson.

Dear Santa Claus,
I am 5 years old, my big sister is writing for me. Would you please bring me a rabbit hunt, some Mary Poppins puzzles, slinky and a gumby.
Please bring our baby sister something too.
Thank you,
Robert Humphries.

Dear Santa Claus,
I am Sandra Humphries. I am 3 years old. Please bring me a Slinky and a babby Doll, a ring and a new dress, some Old Maid Cards and a Gumby.
Thank you,
Sandra Himphries.

Dear Santa,
I am a boy of 6 years of age (I cannot write so my sister is writing for me). For Christmas I want a pair of pointed shoes, a 101 car, I want two if possible. Also I want a firemen suit, sled, skates and one battle action. I have been good boy.
Your friend,
Timmy Ries.

Dear Santa Claus,
This Christmas I would like anything you bring me. I have a pet turtle named Murtle and I wondered if you would bring him a plastic turtle bowl? I guess that will be all!
Your friend,
Jackie Colson.
P. S. Don't forget about my sister and brother.

Dear Santa.
Would you just bring me some kind of a baby doll and some kind of a game. How are our deers. I bet you have lots of letter. We got our Christmas tree. I will have some milk and cookies. Would you come in my room and wake me up. My name is Sharlene Rentschler.

Schriver Speaks to Conservation District Farmers

BLISSFIELD — "Food for thought, seasoned with a dash of wit, and served up in rhyme . . . exciting, informative and entertaining . . . this is Henry Shriver.

America's foremost farmer-philosopher and rhymster speaks at the Lenawee Soil Conservation District annual meeting Jan. 5 at 7 p.m. in the Blissfield High School Cafetorium.

Dinner is being served country style by the Blissfield Band Boosters Club, assisted by the Future Home Makers.

All farmers of Lenawee County are invited to attend whether they have [illegible] in the past or are thinking about it and would like to know more about Soil Conservation.

"TO THE TOP OF THE ROOF" — Santa shouts to his steeds, to be on their way at the William Miller residence, 4193 Haven Rd., and wishes for some snow. The scene is especially pretty when lighted at night.

READERS WRITE

Tuesday, Dec. 28, 1965

TO THE EDITORS:

Since I don't know who to address this to, I am sending it on to you. I hope that you can get this into your paper, so that Santa will see it and know how grateful I am to him.

I arrived at his trailer Friday at 3:15 in the pouring rain, with my granddchildren, ages 7, 6, 4½ and 3 years. I brought these children all the way from Grass Lake to see him. I arrived as he was just leaving; he was done for this season.

When he informed me that Santa was gone, I became frantic and said, "Lord, what am I going to do? What am I going to tell the children. I've come all the way from Grass Lake with them."

He winked at me and said, "Tell you what, he'll be back in 10 minutes."

He then went back inside and donned his costume again. When he was ready he beckoned me inside and the day was saved! Don't you think that was a wonderful thing for him to do? I don't know who the young man was, but I am certainly grateful to him for not disappointing my grandchildren.

God bless his heart. He certainly must be a wonderful person.

A grateful grandma,
Mrs. Evans.

Editor's note — They tell us that Santa looked a lot like Larry Merx, who happens to be a student at Adrian College and a former Tecumseh High School gridiron star.

Obituaries

● W. HAL MARSHALL SR.

Services were held Friday, Dec. 24, at 1 p.m. at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for W. Hal Marshall, Sr., 83, of 317 North Maiden Lane. Mr. Marshall, a former Adrian insurance agent, died at [illegible], Tuesday at Bixby Hospital. He had been a patient there 14 weeks.

In addition to his wife, he was survived by one son, W. Hal Marshall Jr., Adrian, two daughters, Mrs. Al (Marian) Dix of Colerain, Ohio, and Mrs. Margery Morris of Huron, Ohio; a sister, Mrs. Vera King of Adrian; a stepson, Robert Binns of Ann Arbor; a step-daughter, Mrs. Jesse (Evelyn) Gray of St. Petersburg, Fla.; eight grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a brother.

The Reverend Julian Gresham officiated at the service, burial was in Palmyra Cemetery. Masonic services were in charge of the Adrian Lodge at the graveside.

● CHARLES F. VAN TYNE

Services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Proctor Funeral Home for Charles Frederick Van Tyne, 82, of 110 West Shawnee St., who died at 7 a.m., Saturday, at his residence after a three-year illness.

Mr. Van Tyne retired from the Baldwin Hardware Co. in 1948, where he was employed for 20 years.

He was born in Tecumseh, Dec. 11, 1883, and lived in the community all of his life except for two years. His wife, the former Florence Babcock, whom he married in 1928, died in 1939.

Mr. Van Tyne's only survivor is a sister-in-law, Mrs. Ethel Koch, with whom he made his home. A brother, Claude, preceded him in death.

DAIRYMEN LIKE FREE STALLS but many experience problems with cows dunging and urinating in the bedded area before backing out. Wisconsin engineers found one way to solve the problem. They installed continuous 2 x 4's along the top rail of all stalls about 30 inches back from the front. Cows are forced to back into alley before getting up. It doesn't hinder cows from lying down or getting up either.

READY FARROWING QUARTERS being sure pigs' heating facilities are adequate and functioning properly. Batteries of heat lamps over each pen are desirable. Maintaining temperature at 80 to 85 degrees for the first 48 hours is essential to prevent chilling of newborn pigs. Chilled pigs won't nurse early and may die or be stunted.

CHEMICAL BRUSH CONTROL of thickets and along fence rows can be done now. Field work is slack and chemicals won't harm crops. Use the ester form of 2,4,5-T. It's effective on more species than 2,4-D or a mixture of the two. Spray or paint the lower 18 inches of the trunk. One gallon will treat about 30, 3-inch trees. Mix in a little oil-soluble dye or paint to help mark treated areas.

TRACTORS AND OTHER GASOLINE ENGINES should be allowed to reach operating temperature each time they are started. Moisture is then carried away as vapor. Cool engine parts will condense moisture out of the combustion products, and in the crankcase, to form engine sludge.

Thru My Window

As has become our custom before jumping into the brand new year, what say we take a quick glance at a few of the outstanding things tired old '65 provided.

The year started on an unpleasant note, warm, rainy and foggy. So unseasonable were we that on the 12th of January, a big fat robin hopped into the yard.

However, the bird activity did not really begin until the temperatures started skidding downward. By the 23rd things were back to 'normal' — an ice storm belted us and the yard was full of cardinals, blue jays, titmice and all the other cold weather regulars.

Sunday the 24th provided quite a surprise — a male cowbird appeared and looked most out of place in all of our snow and cold. The month's most interesting visitor was the yellow-bellied sapsucker who for several weeks practically took over the feeder.

Song sparrows, juncos, brown creepers and a very infrequent flicker were also January birds. Five straight days of zero readings and gale-like winds wound up our first month but braving them was a large flock of cedar waxwings.

The February calendar hopped from hot to cold — heavy snow on the 1st, 60 degrees on the 10th and a blizzard on the 25th. The cedar waxwings continued to visit the neighborhood as did the robins and an unwelcome flock of starlings. On the ninth we saw a wild duck circling but nothing came of it.

An opossum wandered along the creek bank early on the morning of the 12th and on Wednesday the 17th great excitement was generated by the appearance of five hairy woodpeckers. This was also the day we noticed the crocus leaves peeking through.

March was our snow month, with two, possibly three exceptions, the white stuff fell every single day and some of the storms were bad, very bad. Birdwise we entertained the usual variety but nothing much very outstanding came along.

The 8th saw two wild ducks float down the creek and by the 16th the grackles were back in full force. Juncos were numerous but no chick-a-dees all winter.

This was a month of many laughs — a squirrel working hard at lugging nesting material, a robin attacking a mourning dove and, in a fit of temper, a squirrel trying to break into our screened porch.

It was also the month when the crocus bloomed one day and were buried under six inches of snow the next. No one was sorry to wave goodbye to March.

★

APRIL WAS its usual up and down self, 75 degrees by the 6th. This was the month the Marshes picked to drop their bomb. In an unfunny April Fool's Day joke, which turned out to be no joke but the truth, they announced retirement and moving to Boulder, Colorado, plans. Bird-wise things were busy, a great blue heron highlighted the 5th, a yellowbellied sapsucker on the 7th, cardinals picking up nesting material on the 9th, four flickers visiting on the 14th, the kingfishers arrived on the 15th and wrens started showing up the day before Easter.

By the 19th Momma Cardinal was sitting on two eggs, Friday the 23rd was blue—six bluejays showed themselves, goldfinches came by the next day and on the 27th we welcomed a redwing blackbird.

The last three days of the month were busy, a big handsome male flicker announced his territorial rites, we picked daffodils and said hello to myrtle warblers, Connecticut warblers and a brown thrasher.

April will also be long remembered for its terribly destructive Palm Sunday tornadoes. On the nicer side it was a good animal month. Starting the fifth and continuing for almost a week, a pretty, but startling, skunk cavorted in the neighborhood. Fortunately we only SAW him.

By the seventh the woodchuck was out of his winter home and by the 28th rabbits were hopping everywhere. They were nibbling off our tulips, too.

★

MAY WAS vacation month for the Duncans! While we were falling in love with Arizona and Utah, Ida kept the bird calendar. Her notations include a cat bird on the first, white throated and white crowned sparrows the third, yellow warbler the sixth, lots of yellow warblers on the seventh.

The baby cardinals left the nest on the 11th and on the 12th she saw an oriole. We were welcomed home on the 22nd by a cat bird setting on the feeder and a blue jay sharing the feeder with a cardinal. A kingbird and Gray Thrush showed up on the 25th and an indigo bunting made the 29th a red letter day.

But as happens so often and with so many things, time is running out — next week we will continue our review of '65.

Drinking Involved in 60% of Fatals

New Year's Eve for many motorists will be spoiled by accidents they might have avoided. So predicted Gerald W. Shipman, executive secretary of the Michigan State Safety Commission.

"Law enforcement officers have loved ones of their own with whom they would like to spend more time this holiday weekend, but they'll be on duty to help make the holidays safer and happier for others," he pointed out.

"This doesn't mean they will be lenient with the driver who flagrantly disobeys traffic laws, endangering the lives and property of others," he warned.

"Drinking drivers are no safer — to themselves, their passengers, and fellow motorists — on this holiday weekend than on other weekends. Drinking drivers are involved in more than 60% of the local fatal accidents according to spot checks by medical examiners and other authorities."

The Safe Winter Driving League warns, "Speed too fast for slippery roads and bridges, inattentiveness in driving, failing to yield right of way, driving in the twilight with only parking lights on . . . these violations lead to trouble, holiday or no holiday."

"Let reason rule behind the wheel," he concluded.

Jaycees Play Santa Claus for Children

Proceeds of the Jaycee Christmas tree sale were used to take the children on a shopping trip to purchase gifts for their families.

The group returned to the United Church of Christ to wrap the packages and lunch was served to the children. Wrapped toys from members of the junior high school class were given to the children.

Those assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Tallman Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cooper, Wendy Williams and Mrs. Ray Smith of Tecumseh.

Clinton MSU Students Rose Bowl Bound

CLINTON — John Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Powell of Jeffrey Lake, and three MSU classmates drove a new car from Detroit to California during the school recess to attend the Rose Bowl game in Pasadena.

They will deliver the car to San Francisco and return by plane Jan. 3.

Going with John are Russell Pratt of Onsted, Terry Knowles of Grand Ledge and Frank Phillips of Midland.

Host Eleven at Christmas Carol Party

CLINTON — Mrs. Paul McKenna and daughter, Ruth, entertained eleven boys and girls of the seventh grade at a Christmas party Thursday night.

The group went caroling about the village and returned to the church social room for a gift exchange and refreshments.

Redskins Down Saline, 65-53

By ED VOGEL

CLINTON — Balanced team effort powered the Clinton Redskins to their third consecutive victory as they battered the Saline Hornets, 65-53, before a sparse mid-week gathering in Clinton.

Consistent scoring by senior forward Bill Jedele propelled the Redskins to their triumph. Tallying two field goals in each quarter, Bill paced the squad with 17 points.

Although Butch Hoelzer connected for his season low of 13 points, he stirred the team's hopes during a third-period by grabbing off several much-needed rebounds and scoring 8 points.

Guard Hugh Miller again shone on defense, while adding 7 points on offense, his season high. Jerry Bellmore was particularly effective during the first half, when he picked up 10 of his 11 points.

Clinton trailed only during the opening moments of play, when Saline lead, 8-5, and during the third quarter, when the Hornets held a 37-35 edge. Don Drake of Saline was the major Redskin problem as he hit for 21 points, even though he was the smallest man on the court.

Otherwise, the Clinton attack kept command, but never built up a dominating lead.

The victory put the Redskins over the .500 mark for the first time this season with a 3-2 record.

Ends Winning Streak

CLINTON — Despite the frantic efforts of Coach James Curth, the Clinton JV's were humiliated, 66-46, before a despondent Redskin audience. Coach Curth attempted to liven the sagging Clinton attack by juggling his lineup, but the Redskin players were severely handicapped through a vast Saline height advantage.

The Hornets jumped off to a 10-0 lead and were never topped. Poor floor shooting hampered the Redskins, who fell behind, 49-20, in the third quarter.

The referees called an extraordinary number of second-half fouls, when substitutes from both squads saw plenty of action.

Clinton's only bright spots were the performance of Larry Sebring, a reserve who scored on three long shots during the game's final moments, and their fine achievements at the foul line, where they cashed in on 20 out of 27 shots.
